END OF A VACATION

Mrs. Hubert Lillis (foreground) rests stunned against the median barrier after an accident which abruptly halted her family's vacation at about 12:30 p.m. yesterday. Her mother-in-law, Zoe Lillis, 79, of Billings, Mont., was treated at Marin General Hospital for a broken collarbone, and her husband, Hubert, 48, also of Billings, was treated for a bruised chest. The vacationers were injured when winds caused their luxurious, television equipped trailer to jackknife. The trailer was torn from the car as both vehicles hit the barrier on Highway 101 just north of the Terra Linda overpass.

Finch Drops Fight For Health Officer

Dirksen, AMA Play Part In Knowles' Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Robert H. Finch dropped today his fight to have Dr. John H. Knowles nominated as the nation's top health officer, and Knowles blamed segments of the American Medical Association for his failure to get the job.

"In all modesty," Knowles said at Boston, "this is the only group—the trustees of the AMA and AMPAC the political action committee of the AMA—in the country that was against Secretary Finch's decision to have me nominated."

There was a general agreement here that the opposition of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader in the Senate, played a major port in the administration decision to give up the fight for Knowles.

"I have reluctantly and regretfully decided and today advised Dr. John Knowles that the protracted and distorted discussion regarding his appointment as assistant secretary for health and scientific affairs has resulted in a situation in which he would not be able to function effectively," Finch said.

Finch said he would soon ask President Richard M. Nixon to nominate someone else, but he did not name a candidate.

Finch's simple nine-line statement was handed out by a department information officer in a tiny, crowded press room down the hall from Finch's office.

The statement came after a week of bitter behind-the-scenes struggling in the administration.

There were reports only a day earlier that Finch, the health, education and welfare boss, had said he would quit if the President did not end a six-month political stalemate and nominate Knowles, director of Massachusetts General Hospital and a long-time backer of causes unpopular to elements of organized medicine.

Both Finch and the White House denied these resignation reports.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said on the presidential plane en route to Massena, N.Y.: "I am quite confident the final decision will be made soon and it is very likely that an announcement regarding the nomination for this position by the President will be made tomorrow at the 10 a.m. briefing at the Waldorf-Astoria."

President Nixon was on his way to a visit to the St. Lawrence Seaway. He will be in

GOP PROPOSAL

1 Pct. Sales Tax Hike In New Reform Package

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan and Assembly Republicans proposed a 1 per cent sales tax increase today to finance a new property tax reduction plan as a means of breaking a bitter legislative fiscal deadlock.

The proposal would raise $458 million by boosting the statewide sales tax from 5 to 6 per cent. It would go up to 6.5 per cent in the three counties in the Bay Area Rapid Transit District, Alameda, Contra Costa and San Francisco, where a higher rate will be in effect to finance the transit system.

The plan would raise another $7 million by cutting down the tax credits that single people and married couples are permitted to deduct from their in*come taxes.*

This would raise $465 million to finance major property tax cuts.

This would raise money to finance an increase in the homeowners' property tax reduction, reductions in the business inventory tax, more senior citizens property tax relief and other property tax cuts.

The program, proposed by the Assembly Republican leaders and endorsed by Reagan, was put forth to win the support of minority Democrats who refuse to support the Republican governor's $6.19 billion budget.

They are holding out for major concessions—an acceptable tax reform plan and more state aid to local schools. Without their votes, Republicans can't get the two-thirds majority of 54 needed for budget passage in the house, which is 41-39 Republican.

And, unless a budget is sent to the governor by midnight Monday, the end of the fiscal year, the state won't have the funds to pay its bills.

Assemblyman W. Craig Biddle, R-Riverside, who presented the new plan to the Republican caucus, said he didn't know if the Democrats would support it.

The plan differs substantially from the one Reagan presented to the Legislature in April.

Reagan then proposed a two

Twenty-two blocks of a predominantly Negro section of Kokomo, Ind., were sealed off by police today after shotgun snipers wounded 10 police, including Chief Raymond Kellar. Violence also broke out in Omaha, Neb., and Cairo, Ill.

None of the Kokomo policemen were hurt seriously, according to Chief Kellar who was treated on the scene for a shotgun pellet wound on his right shoulder.

Supt. Robert Konkle of the Indiana State Police ordered units of specially trained riot troopers sent to the city after he received reports that the officers had been fired on. The troopers stood by outside the trouble area.

The disturbance broke out last night when police cars sent to investigate youth smashing fruit from a stand were hits by bricks and bottles. Kellar said the fruit was being thrown in the heart of the Negro section where a cross was burned early yesterday.

He said 11 whites—nine men and two women ranging in age from 18 to 40—were arrested in the cross burning incident.

The chief said 200 to 300 persons gathered and some began throwing bricks and bottles at cars. Store windows were broken and six shops were looted, Kellar said.

The only fire damage was to a delivery van which was overturned and burned.

In Omaha, small bands firebombed some buildings and pelted cars in the city's Near North Side, a largely Negro area. Police said sporadic gunfire came from buildings but no serious injuries were reported during the city's third night of turmoil.

A dry goods store and a liquor store were destroyed last night by firebombs and a branch post office damaged.

Army Will Burn Poisonous Gas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon said today the Army will burn 12,643 tons of poisonous mustard gas at U.S. military installations as recommended by the National Academy of Sciences last week.

Burning was proposed by the scientific group which suggested alternatives to the Army's controversial plan to dump 27,000 tons of obsolete chemical munitions, among them the mustard gas, into the Atlantic Ocean.

The Army said it has not decided where all of the mustard liquid, contained in one-ton steel containers, will be burned but most of the incineration is expected to be handled by the Rocky Mountain arsenal in Colorado.

Final Rites For Judy In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — A private funeral service was held today for Judy Garland after 21,000 people had filed by her casket to say a last goodbye. Actor James Mason said in his eulogy that she had given so much, so richly, that there was really no way for anyone to repay her.

"She could sing so that it would break your heart," Mason said. She was the "most sympathetic, the funniest, the sharpest, and the most stimulating woman I ever knew.

"She was a lady who gave so much and richly both to the vast audience whom she entertained and to the friends around her whom she loved that there was no currency in which to repay her."

Ray Bolger, who played the Scarecrow in Miss Garland's famous film, "The Wizard of Oz" was among the first of the celebrities to arrive.

Mickey Rooney, who starred with Miss Garland in "Andy Hardy" walked very quickly into the chapel, head down.

Miss Garland, who was found dead by her fifth husband, Mickey Deans, on Sunday in their London apartment from an accidental dose of sleeping pills, was to be buried in Ferncliff Cemetery Mausoleum, Hartsdale, N.Y.

F111 Wings Will Be Strengthened

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force announced today it is lifting operating restrictions on the F111 fighter and will start next month on a $15 million program of strengthening the plane's wings.

The restrictions on the amount of stress to which the plane might be subjected in flight were imposed last October after indications that a F111 had crashed because of wing cracks.

Starting next month, Glasser said, 140 to 150 planes will be strengthened at a cost of about $100,000 each.

Stopgap Tax Measure Rushed To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress completed action today on an emergency bill to continue through July present tax withholding rates pending a decision on extending the 10 per cent income surtax.

The House sent the measure to President Richard M. Nixon by voice vote. The Senate passed it Wednesday.

Supporters of the withholding extension emphasized that the bill did not commit anyone to support the surtax continuance.

"This is a matter of housekeeping," said Chairman William M. Colmer, D-Miss., of the Rules Committee. Without it, Clomer added, there would be "a lot of confusion" later if the surtax was continued but withholding had ceased.

The surtax, imposed last year, expires at midnight next Monday. Legislation to extend it is pending but has not been acted on by either branch of Congress. The House has scheduled a vote on the controversial proposal for next Monday.

Without the withholding extension, the government and employers would have to stop withholding at present rates starting next Tuesday, and then change the system later if the surtax was continued.

Should the surtax be allowed to die, most taxpayers would get a refund of the money withheld.

Meanwhile, Rep. Richard Fulton, D-Tenn., a member of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, served notice he would vote against an extension of the surtax.

The temporary bill drew much less opposition in Congress than original proposals to extend the surtax through Dec. 31, then cut it by half through the first half of next year, as President Nixon asked.

Democratic House leaders decided on Monday they didn't have the votes to grant Nixon's request.

The next day, the Senate

Nixon, Trudeau Confer At Seaway Anniversary Event

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon shook hands with Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau today in an international meeting on the St. Lawrence Seaway, a joint Canadian-American project that has breathed the life of sea travel into a vast segment of North America.

The two heads of state met on the Moses-Saunders Power Dam, then left for ceremonies on the New York State side of the 181-mile seaway.

A Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman stood by as Nixon and Trudeau met and chatted briefly. The big power dam was decked out in flowers and bunting for the meeting.

Nixon's airplane landed at Plattsburgh Air Force Base at 12:20 p.m. (EDT), and the presidential party made the 50-mile trip to Massena in helicopters.

The Nixon visit coincided with the 10th anniversary of the opening of the Seaway. An afternoon visit to Montreal with Trudeau was to herald Nixon's first presidential mission north of the border since taking office.

Five Booked After Check Cashing Try

Five persons from San Francisco were booked into Marin County Jail yesterday afternoon after one of the group, according to police, attempted to pass a $125 stolen check at Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera.

The arrests led to the discovery of a paper bag containing eight apparently stolen checks, plus a narcotics kit which one of the group jettisoned into a waste basket while alone in the police interrogation room, officers said.

Booked were Michael Erin Mur'ray, 24, on suspicion of passing a fraudulent check, conspiracy, possessing a stolen credit card and on a hold for his parole officer; Margaret Louise Johnson, 36, for investigation of a narcotics kit; Aray Turner, 30, Roy Lee Walker, 23 and Tina Turner, 28, all on suspicion of passing a fraudulent check.

Miss Johnson gave her address as San Francisco; the other four suspects gave no addresses, police reported. All remained in jail today in lieu of $6,250 bail.

Officer Fred Talmadge responded to a call at the store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center at 1:33 p.m., where a store security officer said Walker had Nonprofit Corporation Bus Needs Answer?

Formation of a non-profit corporation to lease buses to Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District was proposed today by the district's auditor, Gordon E. Dahlgren.

The corporation's directors would be appointed by the bridge board, and would sell tax-free bonds to finance the purchase of the buses the corporation would lease to the district.

Dahlgren, noting "it doesn't cost anyone any money," told directors it would be the "best approach to financing any of the bus systems being considered by the district.

Director Peter Tamaras, of San Francisco, termed the proposal "a very ingenious gimmick," and asked Dahlgren to come up with further facts on the idea.

Director Lowell Edington, of Napa County, commented, "We have a complexion of being rich, but we know if we get into some of these things, we're going to need more money."

Dahlgren made his suggestion at the finance committee meeting.

In other business, the finance committee shelved a suggestion by several directors that their automobile mileage expense allowance be raised from 12 to 14 cents per mile. Tamaras, vice chairman of the committee, noted that state and San Francisco paid only 11 cents per mile.

Meeting as the full board, the directors learned that Napa County Superior Court had rejected San Francisco's motion to move Napa County's suit against the district to a San Francisco court.

The suit, filed late last year by Napa County, challenged a 1968 state law that added city councilmen and county supervisors to the bridge district's board of directors.

The district's attorney, Jerome B. White, said the Napa Court had ruled there was nor Did Armstrong Pull Rank For Historic Moon Walk?

NEIL A. ARMSTRONG
First footprints

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Neil A. Armstrong used his "commander's prerogative" to become the first man on the moon, a former space agency official says. But other officials say no firm plan ever was made to have anyone else make the first footprints on the moon.

Paul Haney, former public affairs officer at the Manned Spacecraft Center, said yesterday that for almost three years the lunar module pilot, not the commander, had been scheduled to be first on the moon regardless of personalities.

Asked if he thought Armstrong pulled rank to become the first on the moon, Haney said:

"It shouldn't be that he pulled rank, but I think he was not unaware of the importance of the first man who stepped onto the moon and looked at it very carefully and decided that perhaps it should be the commander's prerogative."

George M. Low, Apollo program manager, said that the selection of Armstrong as the first man represents no change, although preliminary studies had been made with the lunar module pilot as the first man on the moon.

"The only firm plan ever made was the one we're going to go with," said Low. He said it is based on rehearsals of the moon surface activities and on the recommendation of flight crew training officials.

Present plans call for Armstrong and Eduard E. Aldrin Jr. to land the Apollo 11 lunar module on the moon July 20. In the early hours of July 21, Armstrong is to walk down a ladder to the moon's surface. He is to be followed 27 minutes later by Aldrin.

It was after the Apollo 11 crew of Armstrong, a civilian, as commander, Air Force Colonel Aldrin as lunar module pilot and Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Collins as command module pilot was named that the change was made, Haney said.

Aldrin even practiced the maneuvers planned for the first man on the moon, Haney said.

It was decided in mid-April, Haney said, that Armstrong and not Aldrin would be the first man to walk on another celestial body.

"Precisely why the change, I don't know, but I do know it caused quite an upset," Haney said. The former space official said he was present at the meeting where the change was announced.

Low said Armstrong could exercise no personal prerogative in the decision. He said the final plan had to be approved by the Configuration Control Board.

Special Camp Still Under Cong Attack

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong claimed today forces under the Communist command have thrown South Vietnamese troops into a "desperate position" at Ben Het, where the South Vietnamese are facing their first hard test against a sizable enemy force.

A clandestine broadcast by the Viet Cong said the Special Forces camp in the central highlands is encircled and under continuous attack.

The supply road to the camp has been cut since Tuesday but U.S. cargo planes have dropped more than 40 tons of supplies since then. A company of fresh South Vietnamese irregulars—civilian militiamen—also was flown in.

The Viet Cong broadcast spoke of National Liberation Front troops and local guerrillas as the enemy force beseiging Ben Het. But the U.S. Command has identified the enemy force as two regiments of North Vietnamese, totaling about 3,000 men.

The camp is manned by 700 South Vietnamese irregulars, U.S. Green Berets and American artillery men. About 4,500 South Vietnamese army regulars are operating around the camp.

The U.S. Command views the Ben Het campaign as a test of how the South Vietnamese can handle themselves against the North Vietnamese.

The United States and South Vietnam hope to turn more of the fighting on the allied side over to government forces as U.S. troops go home.

The Viet Cong broadcast said the Communist command's force at Ben Het has been pressing attacks on the South Vietnamese at Ben Het since June 6, although the enemy presence there had been noted two months ago.

U.S. Air Force men flying to Ben Het also reported the situation at Ben Het is tight for the allies.

The Air Force said its cargo planes have been dropping water into the camp, but one report said Americans manning one of three hilltop artillery batteries at Ben Het have been out of fresh water for five days.

Bad weather and what some American officers said was South Vietnamese reluctance to push the infantry war limited allied attempts to lift the siege.

North Vietnamese gunners rained 125 shells on the Special Forces camp yesterday — the fourth day Ben Het withstood a barrage of more than 100 rounds. Another 88 mortar shells fell between midnight and 4 p.m. today.

Spokesmen said nine Americans and three South Vietnamese irregulars were wounded today, while casualties yesterday were termed light.

Elsewhere in South Vietnam, 10 enemy rocket and mortar attacks hit allied towns and bases, the lowest number in more than three weeks.

Ground fighting also was light. Two brief clashes were reported today, one near the abandoned combat base at Khe Sanh.

First Seat Move, Then Jet Hijack

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Robert DeFreitas didn't like his seat on his Los Angeles-to-New York flight and asked for another.

He was moved back several rows to where a young, cleancut man sat alone. Minutes later the man stuck a pistol in DeFreitas' ribs and said, "Get up, let's go."

The young man marched DeFreitas to the cockpit of the DC8 and went inside. This was Wednesday afternoon, shortly after the United Air Lines jetliner had taken off from Los Angeles.

DeFreitas, of Upper Saddle River, N.J., recounted his experience yesterday after he, 49 other passengers and the eight crewmen arrived in Miami, via Havana.

The hijacker, a slim man in his mid-20s, left DeFreitas, unharmed, standing outside the cockpit.

Once inside, said Capt. Edward Nibur, the hijacker said, "Let's go to Cuba."

Nibur said the young man, whom he said told him he was from Santa Monica, held the pistol at the back of his neck for almost two hours before he relaxed.

"I told him to have a seat," said Nibur, "and he pressed a little harder and said, 'Keep going, baby'."

Leg Broken In Leap To Flee Fire

Hodges

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Luther H. Hodges, 70, former North Carolina governor and U.S. secretary of commerce from 1961 to 1965, broke a foot when he jumped from the second story of his home as it was swept by fire last night.

He also suffered smoke inhalation but was reported in satisfactory condition in a hospital. However, his wife was reported in serious condition in North Carolina Memorial Hospital. A doctor said she suffered smoke inhalation, shock and a possible heart attack. She was placed in an intensive care section.

Firemen said Hodges telephoned the alarm, and when they arrived they found him lying on the ground, conscious after his jump. He told them to get Mrs. Hodges from the house.

Students Riot

SEOUL (AP) — About 1,000 rock-hurling students battled 400 riot police on a Seoul street today in a bloody demonstration against moves to amend the constitution so that President Chung Hee Park can seek election to a third term.

Two students were seriously injured and about 10 demonstrators were held for police questioning.

Sirhan Plea

NEW YORK (AP) —Former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg has written Gov. Ronald Reagan of California asking commutation of the death sentence on Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, assassin of Robert F. Kennedy.

Noting that he himself had been listed in Sirhan's diary as an assassination prospect, Goldberg said:

"The evolving standards of decency that mark the progresss of our society now condemn as barbaric and inhuam the deliberate institutionalized taking of human life by the state."

Gaming License

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Entertainer Dean Martin has received a license from the state Gaming Commission to be part owner of the Rivera Hotel, which runs a gambling casino in Las Vegas. In his petition, Martin said he had a 10 per cent interest in the enterprise.

To Visit Royalty

WASHINGTON (UPI) Tricia Nixon will fly to London tomorrow for a week-long whirl of hobnobbing with royalty at parties and traditional British sporting events.

It will be the President's 23-year-old daughter's first solo adventure abroad. She has been to England three times previously with her family in 1963, 1964 and 1965.

World Tour

ROME (AP) — Italian film maker Federico Fellini says he plans to take time off to 'go around the world as a journalist, observing reality," as a prelude to making a movie on "the great characters of our time."

He siad he already had arranged to visit Red China next April and hoped to meet Mao Tse-tung.

Granted Divorce

SANTA MONICA (AP) — Actress Kathryn Hays has won a divorce from actor Glenn Ford on a cruelty charge. Miss Hays, 33, said in her petition granted yesterday that Ford, 52, ignored her and showed no interest in her acting career.

The were married, each for the second time, on March 27, 1966.

WASHINGTON (AP) — In his first official public act since becoming U.S. chief justice, Warren E. Burger swore in Harold F. Faught yesterday as assistant postmaster general.

SDS Ban Backed By GOP Women

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The board of directors of the California Republican Women has endorsed a proposal that the Students for a Democratic Society be banned from state campuses.

The board, meeting at San Francisco International Airport, yesterday concluded a two-day session by passing resolutions supporting Dr. Max Rafferty's recommendations regarding a ban on the SDS.

Education was the main topic discussed by the GOP women who endorsed Reagan Administration school programs, passa resolution critical of sex education programs, and backed the proposal that college students who get state aid should pay it back.

$10 Million For Vietnam Land Reform

SAIGON (AP) — The United States today allocated $10 million to support a radical new South Vietnamese land reform program which would give land to more than 800,000 rice farmers.

The plan is the most sweeping in a long series of largely ineffective reform attempts and could have strong political implications.

The enemy long has capitalized on the fact that a handful of landlords own most land used in producing rice, South Vietnam's most important crop. Attempts at land reform have been made for nearly two decades, but vested interests and administrative snarls sharply limited their effect.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's government is pushing for legislative approval of the program within a month so it can begin redistributing land in August.

As outlined by the agriculture and land reform minister, Cao Van Than, the plan would involve expropriation of 3.2 million acres of rice land from private landlords, religious groups and local governments, which would be paid 20 per cent of the land value in cash and the remainder in eight-year, 5 per cent bonds.

Tenants would be "allowed and encouraged" to apply for title to their plots, which would be free of taxes the first year.

The three-year program would cost $400 million, 10 per cent of which the government hopes to get from the United States.

The Irish originated handball in the 10th century.

U.N. Observer Policy Argued

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — If U.N. military observers go to Vietnam or Biafra to oversee any cease-fire, should they report to the secretary-general as they do now or to a committee of the Security Council?

The United States wants them to be directed by the secretary-general. The Soviet Union wants them to be responsible to the Security Council.

The disagreement surfaced today in proposals to the U.N. Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations which is drafting guidelines for observers. It will have to be resolved before the committee's report is prepared Aug. 18 for the General Assembly.

The U.S. working paper calls for "a clear line of control from the authorizing political organ," the council, "through the secretary-general to the field."

This is the system under which U.N. observers on the cease-fire lines in the Middle East now operate, with Norwegian Lt. Gen. Odd Bull reporting to Secretary-General U Thant.

But the Soviet Union wants a change, remembering its 1960-61 dispute with former Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold over the U.N. peacekeeping force in the Congo.

Did Armstrong Pull Rank For Historic Moon Walk?

NEIL A. ARMSTRONG
First footprints

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Neil A. Armstrong used his "commander's prerogative" to become the first man on the moon, a former space agency official says. But other officials say no firm plan ever was made to have anyone else make the first footprints on the moon.

Paul Haney, former public affairs officer at the Manned Spacecraft Center, said yesterday that for almost three years the lunar module pilot, not the commander, had been scheduled to be first on the moon regardless of personalities.

Asked if he thought Armstrong pulled rank to become the first on the moon, Haney said:

"It shouldn't be that he pulled rank, but I think he was not unaware of the importance of the first man who stepped onto the moon and looked at it very carefully and decided that perhaps it should be the commander's prerogative."

George M. Low, Apollo program manager, said that the selection of Armstrong as the first man represents no change, although preliminary studies had been made with the lunar module pilot as the first man on the moon.

"The only firm plan ever made was the one we're going to go with," said Low. He said it is based on rehearsals of the moon surface activities and on the recommendation of flight crew training officials.

Present plans call for Armstrong and Eduard E. Aldrin Jr. to land the Apollo 11 lunar module on the moon July 20. In the early hours of July 21, Armstrong is to walk down a ladder to the moon's surface. He is to be followed 27 minutes later by Aldrin.

CEREMONY SITE — State, county and San Rafael officials will gather at 2 p.m. Monday for groundbreaking ceremonies between Third and Fourth streets to mark the start of construction of Highway 101 widening through San Rafael.

State Official Due At Rites For San Rafael's Viaduct

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new parallel viaduct in San Rafael that will continue the widening of Highway 101 in Marin from four to six lanes will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Fourth Street just west of the existing viaduct.

James A. Moe, state director of public works, is expected to attend the ceremonies, sponsored jointly by the City of San Rafael and the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

The groundbreaking will mark the beginning of construction of the eight-tenths of a mile project to build a new structure, parallel to and west of the existing viaduct, to carry the three new southbound lanes of Route 101.

The existing viaduct — installed in 1940 with a median barrier added in 1965 — now carries two lanes in each direction. It will be converted to carry the three northbound lanes.

The contract for the viaduct include highway illumination, soffit lights at street crossings, modifications of signals at Second Street for on-and off-ramps, a new drainage channel, and accompanying structures. Contractor for the new viaduct, with official job limits of one-third of a mile south of Irwin Street to one-third mile north of Mission Avenue, is Murphy Pacific Corp. of Oakland, low bidder, at $2,699,904.

The viaduct is the second recent project to improve freeway service through San Rafael.

The southerly approach to the viaduct is already six lanes. North of the viaduct project, construction is under way to widen 101 from four to six lanes for two miles from Third Street, near the north end of the viaduct, up to North San Pedro Road. This $1.9 million job is now 30 per cent done and is scheduled for completion in late 1969.

In addition to highway widening, the work will include a pedestrian overcrossing at Paloma Avenue near the Coleman School, and major improvements to the existing interchange at North San Pedro Road.

Two years will be required to complete the viaduct project in San Rafael but when it is finished it will eliminate the last four-lane section of 101 within San Rafael.

In fact, with the completion of these two projects, plus the recent widening project northward from San Pedro Road to Miller Creek Road in Marinwood, 101 will be a full six lanes, at the least, through Marin County from the Golden Gate Bridge to the Ignacio Interchange of Routes 101 and 37 with another project now in design that will construct 101 on new alignment as a six lane freeway through to Atherton Avenue in Novato.

Antibiotics Refunds Set By Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — Consumers who purchased certain antibiotics between 1954 and 1966 are going to get a chance to share in a $120 million settlement resulting from a damage suit against five drug manufacturers.

Advertisements to appear in newspapers across the country next Tuesday will inform the consumer that if he bought Aureomycin, Terramycin and Tetracycline during the specified period he can file a claim.

The settlement stems from a suit initiated by New York City —and later joined in by 43 states, other cities and concerns —charging the manufacturers illegally agreed to fix prices and overcharged purchasers.

The five companies are American Cyanamid Co., Chas. Pfizer & Co., Bristol-Myers Co., Upjohn Co. and Squibb Beech-Nut, Inc. They have denied liability while making the settlement offer.

Instructions for filing the claim will be contained in the advertisement. Claimants will receive a percentage of what they originally paid.

The cost of the advertisements will be borne by the five companies.

Consumers in New York City were expected to get about $1 million in refunds.

The city expected $5.5 million refund on the drugs it purchased for municipal hospitals and welfare programs.

Drug wholesalers and retail pharmacists also will be eligible to recover.

West Germans Revise Child Support Laws

(Special to the I-J)

BONN — Illegitimate children in the Federal Republic will enjoy the same rights as legitimate children under a law to go into effect this week.

Under the new law, an illegitimate child will be regarded as related to its father even though the mother acts as guardian. Fathers will be given increased responsibility for the support of illegitimate children.

Child support payment will no longer depend solely on the mother's needs but also on the father's financial resources. Illegitimate children will also be entitled to support after the age of 18.

The most significant innovation is a provision assuring the illegitimate child of a claim to the father's estate. Even in advance of the father's death, the illegitimate offspring will have the right to demand an advance settlement in lieu of an inheritance.

Memorial Pool Hit By Vandals

SAN MATEO (UPI)—The swimming pool at the new Martin Luther King Recreation Center was closed today because rampaging youths caused $3,000 damage to pool equipment.

The destruction resulted from the banishing from the pool by a black lifeguard of some black swimmers for refusal to obey rules.

Police said the damage occurred later when about 50 youths swarmed through the center with knives and blackjacks. The pool will not be reopened until the damaged equipment is replaced, recreation officials said.

Mill Valley Home Looted Of Items

Items valued at $400 were taken in the burglary of a Mill Valley home between 9 and 11:21 p.m. yesterday, Mill Valley police reported today.

Taken from the John Laverine residence at 79 Keats Drive were a suitcase, several watches, $125 in coins, two pair of alligator shoes and television-radio set police said.

Smoke Darkens Alaska's Skies

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Visibility dropped to less than half a mile over several thousand square miles of interior Alaska as smoke from more than 50 forest fires—ranging in size up to 300,000 acres—blanketed much of the state.

Nearly 1,400 Bureau of Land Management and military firefighters battled to control 15 fires in the Fairbanks district, including a 300,000-acre blaze northwest of the city. The city was in no danger.

At least 30 fires elsewhere were unchecked because of their "low priority" and a lack of manpower, officials said.

Six major fires were burning in the Anchorage district, the bureau said, but the city was not threatened.

Major Parts Of Back Hoe Stolen

Petaluma police reported today that a back hoe tractor being used for construction of a shopping center on East Washington Street and McDowell Boulevard North was dismantled and stolen some time last night.

Leroy Ress, owner of the equipment, said that major parts of the tractor had been taken and esimated the loss at $504.

CEREMONY SITE — State, county and San Rafael officials will gather at 2 p.m. Monday for groundbreaking ceremonies between Third and Fourth streets to mark the start of construction of Highway 101 widening through San Rafael.

State Official Due At Rites For San Rafael's Viaduct

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new parallel viaduct in San Rafael that will continue the widening of Highway 101 in Marin from four to six lanes will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Fourth Street just west of the existing viaduct.

James A. Moe, state director of public works, is expected to attend the ceremonies, sponsored jointly by the City of San Rafael and the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

The groundbreaking will mark the beginning of construction of the eight-tenths of a mile project to build a new structure, parallel to and west of the existing viaduct, to carry the three new southbound lanes of Route 101.

The existing viaduct — installed in 1940 with a median barrier added in 1965 — now carries two lanes in each direction. It will be converted to carry the three northbound lanes.

The contract for the viaduct include highway illumination, soffit lights at street crossings, modifications of signals at Second Street for on-and off-ramps, a new drainage channel, and accompanying structures. Contractor for the new viaduct, with official job limits of one-third of a mile south of Irwin Street to one-third mile north of Mission Avenue, is Murphy Pacific Corp. of Oakland, low bidder, at $2,699,904.

The viaduct is the second recent project to improve freeway service through San Rafael.

The southerly approach to the viaduct is already six lanes. North of the viaduct project, construction is under way to widen 101 from four to six lanes for two miles from Third Street, near the north end of the viaduct, up to North San Pedro Road. This $1.9 million job is now 30 per cent done and is scheduled for completion in late 1969.

In addition to highway widening, the work will include a pedestrian overcrossing at Paloma Avenue near the Coleman School, and major improvements to the existing interchange at North San Pedro Road.

Two years will be required to complete the viaduct project in San Rafael but when it is finished it will eliminate the last four-lane section of 101 within San Rafael.

In fact, with the completion of these two projects, plus the recent widening project northward from San Pedro Road to Miller Creek Road in Marinwood, 101 will be a full six lanes, at the least, through Marin County from the Golden Gate Bridge to the Ignacio Interchange of Routes 101 and 37 with another project now in design that will construct 101 on new alignment as a six lane freeway through to Atherton Avenue in Novato.

Antibiotics Refunds Set By Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — Consumers who purchased certain antibiotics between 1954 and 1966 are going to get a chance to share in a $120 million settlement resulting from a damage suit against five drug manufacturers.

Advertisements to appear in newspapers across the country next Tuesday will inform the consumer that if he bought Aureomycin, Terramycin and Tetracycline during the specified period he can file a claim.

The settlement stems from a suit initiated by New York City —and later joined in by 43 states, other cities and concerns —charging the manufacturers illegally agreed to fix prices and overcharged purchasers.

The five companies are American Cyanamid Co., Chas. Pfizer & Co., Bristol-Myers Co., Upjohn Co. and Squibb Beech-Nut, Inc. They have denied liability while making the settlement offer.

Instructions for filing the claim will be contained in the advertisement. Claimants will receive a percentage of what they originally paid.

The cost of the advertisements will be borne by the five companies.

Consumers in New York City were expected to get about $1 million in refunds.

The city expected $5.5 million refund on the drugs it purchased for municipal hospitals and welfare programs.

Drug wholesalers and retail pharmacists also will be eligible to recover.

vere leg cuts. Police were seen escorting firemen into the area.

Police Capt. Gene Scarpino said early today the disruption was "tapering off."

The violence started Tuesday night after a white policemen fatally shot a 14-year-old Negro girl. Firebombs destroyed six businesses Wednesday and police arrested 40 Negroes. Three persons had been arrested by midnight yesterday.

Patrolman James Loder, 30, was charged with manslaughter in connection with the girl's death. He is the adopted son of movie actress Hedy Lamarr. He pleaded innocent and was released in $500 bond.

Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann has ordered a task force of National Guardsmen placed on alert at a local armory.

But Mayor Eugene Leahy decided yesterday against calling in the guardsmen, imposing a curfew or prohibiting liquor and gasoline sales in the neighborhood.

"The condition is under control," said Leahy after meeting with Negro and white leaders.

A curfew was reimposed in Cairo yesterday after whites and Negroes squared off on opposite sides of a street and hurled bricks, bottles, rocks and jeers at one another, near the police station.

Police broke up the encounter quickly. Police Chief William Petersen ordered the 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew immediately afterwards.

Earlier yesterday, a fire which swept a warehouse complex stretching along five blocks, drove about 3,000 residents out of the area when it was feared chemical fumes released by the blaze might be toxic. They returned to their homes when the fumes proved to be nonpoisonous.

passed the temporary measure and House Republican Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford said after a GOP caucus that he counted an additional 40 Republican votes—or 170.

There are 188 Republicans in the House.

If Ford's count was correct, Nixon's proposal needs only about 50 of the House's 245 Democratic votes to gain passage.

Many of the surtax extension opponents are holding the measure hostage for more sweeping tax reform than was drafted by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The committee wrote in a provision providing a tax break to an estimated 13 million low-income wage earners.

The House leadership decided in putting off the surtax showdown to resume work on Nixon's plan after the four-day Independence Day recess.

Clausen Sees No Closing Of Hamilton

Rep. Don H. Clausen today reaffirmed that Hamilton Air Force Base will not close, but said the Defense Department had shut the door for now on any use of the installation by civilian aircraft.

Clausen, R-First District, appeared at a meeting of Marin County officials, aviation representatives and civilian and military employees of Hamilton in the Marin Civic Center.

He read a letter from Robert C. Seamans, secretary of the Air Force, in which Seamans said there were no plans to close Hamilton, despite the recently announced transfer of the headquarters of the Fourth Air Force and the Western Region of the North American Air Defense Command.

Seaman's letter also went on to say that replacement units still were being considered for the ones being pulled out and that the Air Force had no plans for other major changes at Hamilton in the "forseeable future."

A letter from Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard to Clausen ruled out at least for the time being any possibility of joint military-civilian use of Hamilton runways. Packard said increased military traffic is forseen at Hamilton in upcoming years.

Clausen said he disagreed with the decision and hoped an agreement for joint usage could be worked out.

"I think it will be proper for us to keep pressure against the lid," Clausen said.

John F. McInnis, chairman of Marin supervisors, said that "military aircraft operations might be phased out entirely at Hamilton — let's not put our heads in the sand."

"If there is to be a lessening of military use," McInnis said, "We want first opportunity to phase in an industrial operation for Marin."

Clausen said he favored a nationwide airport master plan for construction of large airports and satellite ones around metropolitan areas.

phase program, with $100 million in tax cuts and increases this year and a massive income hike and other changes next year, if approved by the voters.

The second phase, boosting the income tax by an average of 50 per cent to finance property tax cuts of roughly the same amount, was part of a complex program that would require a 1970 vote of the people.

Biddle said the second phase — the most controversial — still is awaiting a hearing and wouldn't be abandoned.

The biggest boon to the property owner in the new plan would come from increasing the homeowners exemption to $1,650. Now it is $7500.

Biddle said this higher exemption would mean an average $165 reduction for taxpayers with a $10 property tax rate, the statewide average.

This would amount a $319 million tax cut.

Earlier, the administration pledged its support to efforts to break the impasse.

$64,100 Budget For Terra Linda

A fiscal 1969-70 budget of $64,100, up $3,455, was approved last night by directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District.

Helen Lontz, district secretary, said the major reason for the budget increase was the absence of carryover funds from the present spending program.

The board estimated the new budget would require a tax rate of 90 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, up six cents.

The budget is made up of $36,730 for salaries, $13,700 for maintenance, $7,500 for street lighting $6,100 for capital outlay, including the final payment on a new fire truck.

New York Saturday.

Previously Dirksen has said that six persons other than Knowles were under consideration for the appointment.

Of these, he named Dr. Richard Wilbur, in private practice in California and a nephew of Dr. Dwight Wilbur, AMA head; Dr. John Hogeness of the University of Washington faculty, and Dr. John Point of the University of Oklahoma.

At the time, Dirksen could not remember the name of "a doctor from Galveston, Tex.," he said was one of the six nor could he name the other two prospective appointees.

But he said that all six were satisfactory to him—and presumably the AMA.

Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., said "the outrageous pressures which have frustrated the nomination of Dr. John Knowles . . . are a calamity for the country and an offense to the democratic process."

"Only Dr. Knowles himself emerges from this episode with enhanced personal stature," Brooke added in a statement.

A Finch spokesman said the secretary would hold a news conference tomorrow at a time to be announced.

Directors took no action on the legislation-public relations committee's recommendations for the 1969-70 budget. Only directors were present, so the recommendations were postponed.

The recommrendations included appropriating $25,000 to the Redwood Empire Association, $8,500 to the San Francisco Visitor's and Convention Bureau, $25,000 for lobbying in Sacramento and $5,000 for direct mail and display advertising.

College Musical Cast Completed

Casting has been completed for "The Unvonventionals," and original musical comedy to be presented by the Young Actors Company at the College of Marin. The play opens July 17 and will run for three consecutive weekends.

The play was written by Alex Herrmann of Kentfield and focuses on the actions of a political convention.

Cast members include Linda Apple, Jana Peleger and Rosie Shortino of San Rafael; Reynold Acevedo, Petra Chambers, Roger Phelps and Roy Stevens of San Anselmo; Trudi Ferguson, Alex Herrmann and Barry Nichol of Kentfield; Kimberly-Ann McDowall, Bill Remak and Roxanne Wilkinson of Novato; Joyleen Accosta and Rufus Gartrel of Corte Madera; Michelle Pla and Heather Robinson of Larkspur; John Bamberger and Diane Green of Belvedere; Kathy Pack of Mill Valley; Christine Jaqua of Sausalito; Stella Howard of Fairfax; and Damion Pestana of Berkeley.

Social Workers Picket At Center

About 30 informational pickets from the Social Workers Union appeared twice today at the Marin Civic Center.

A contract between the county and social and probation workers expires at midnight Monday. No negotiation sessions have been set.

The pickets appeared before work this morning and again at noon. The major issue blocking a new contract is caseloads.

Revised Plan Approved For Hospital

Plans for the Hy-Lond Convalescent Hospital of 185 beds for the southwest corner of Hill and Indian Valley roads in Novato, were approved last night by the Novato Plan Review Committee.

The plans for the hospital had been approved, but were appealed by Betty Machado of 1424 Dawes Street because of a 60-foot cutbank. The new plans have been revised, changing the structure of the hospital and moving it forward on the lot. This will bring the cutbank in the hill within the city requirement of 20 feet, according to assistant planner Warren Baker.

The plan review committee also approved the plans for the Cloudburst car wash facility on Ford Way and Highway 101.

A 28-square-foot free-standing sign, a 32-square-foot menu sign and an entrance sign were approved for Tiajuana Tacos on Seventh Street south of Grant Avenue.

The plans for landscaping for the Los Robles mobile home park on Bel Marin Keys Boulevard east of Nave Lane were continued until the July 10 meeting of the committee.

CHECKS

tried to pass a stolen check.

The check was drawn on Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, in the account of Darrell, Gatsby, Felson, Advertising Marketing, San Francisco, and the security officer told police two, previous checks on the same account had been passed on April 14 for $96 and on May 22 for $125 and that he had determined them to be stolen.

Walker told police that a friend, who was awaiting in a car in the parking lot, had told him the check was good, officers said.

Talmadage, joined by Officer Charles Newman, took Walker and the other four persons, waiting in a car driven by Mur'ray, to the police station.

Walker said he met the three women that morning and they had taken him to Mur'ray's apartment in San Francisco where the occupants were smoking banana peels, according to police.

The quintet drove around San Francisco, then agreed to drive to Corte Madera to cash the check, Walker told police. Walker said that Miss Turner claimed she couldn't cash the check because she was on welfare, but she had written the check, police said.

Police said they noticed that Mur'ray had a Shell Oil credit card in the name of James T. McBride and on investigation, it was learned to be stolen from Kilpatrick's Bakery in San Francisco where McBride works. Officers said Mur'ray had apparently charged $278 worth of purchases to the credit card.

Newman reported that, he saw Miss Johnson remove something from her brassiere and drop it into a wastebasket.

This was a narcotics kit wrapped in white gauze and pink tissue paper containing two disposable hypodermic needles, an eye dropper syringe and a home made syringe with a rubber nipple off a baby bottle and a red rubber band, police said.

Officers said they also found other narcotics equipment in Miss Johnson's purse.

A brown paper bag was discovered in the vehicle containing a $112 U.S. Treasurer's check made out to Anthony R. Norris, P. O. Box 15441, San Francisco, three Wells Fargo Bank of San Francisco checks for $125, $96, and $115 in the account of Darrell, Gatsby, Felson; three blank Wells Fargo checks on the same account, and a $45 Liberty National Bank of San Francisco check made out to Thomas Williams.

On the floorboard was found a blue plastic, disposable hypodermic needle, officers said.

OBITUARIES

William F. Wegner Dies At 85

William Frederick Wegner, a former Larkspur City Councilman who also served as that city's building inspector until he was 80, died Wednesday in a local hospital following a long illness. He was 85.

Wegner, a native of Black Hawk, Wis., came to Larkspur in 1907. In 1925 he was appointed to the City Council to fill an unexpired term and then elected in 1926. He left the council in 1928. In 1952 he was named Larkspur's building inspector and he served in that position until 1963.

Prior to being named building inspector, Wegner was in the general contracting business, working in that field for 38 years.

He was also a volunteer fireman in Larkspur and served as the treasurer of that organization for 15 years.

Wegner moved to San Leandro in 1963, but returned to Marin County about nine months ago to enter the hospital.

He was a 25-year-member of the Muir Lodge No. 136 of the Knights of Pythias of Mill Valley and a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club and the Redwood Presbyterian Church. He is survived by a son, Jean, of Tiburon; a brother, Gus, of Viroqua, Wis., and one granddaughter.

His wife, Elizabeth, to whom he was married for 54 years, died in 1963.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Harry Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Memorial services will be conducted tonight at 8 p.m. at the mortuary by the Knights of Pythias of Mill Valley.

Burial will be private.

MARGARETA LORIGAN

Funeral for Margareta Boyd Lorigan of San Rafael and San Francisco wah held today in San Francisco, with burial in San Francisco National Cemetery.

Mrs. Lorigan, widow of Frank B. Lorigan, a San Francisco attorney, died Wednesday in a San Francisco hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Lorigan was a builder for many years, pioneering in the use of the breakfast nook and apartment balconies. Her Nob Hill apartment house was the first condominium in that area.

In San Rafael, she maintained a home at 1450 Grand Avenue and had lived in the two cities for 60 years. She was a native of California.

She was a member of the Pacific Musical Society, Valley Opera Association, Legion of Honor and the Opera Guild in San Francisco and was active in museum work and civic and charitable activities.

Survivors are four brothers, Edwin C. Street of Piedmont; Clarence H. Street of Walnut Creek; Henry B. Street of Berkeley, and George Street of Florida, and a sister, Mrs. Ann Fehlman of Honolulu.

vere leg cuts. Police were seen escorting firemen into the area.

Police Capt. Gene Scarpino said early today the disruption was "tapering off."

The violence started Tuesday night after a white policemen fatally shot a 14-year-old Negro girl. Firebombs destroyed six businesses Wednesday and police arrested 40 Negroes. Three persons had been arrested by midnight yesterday.

Patrolman James Loder, 30, was charged with manslaughter in connection with the girl's death. He is the adopted son of movie actress Hedy Lamarr. He pleaded innocent and was released in $500 bond.

Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann has ordered a task force of National Guardsmen placed on alert at a local armory.

But Mayor Eugene Leahy decided yesterday against calling in the guardsmen, imposing a curfew or prohibiting liquor and gasoline sales in the neighborhood.

"The condition is under control," said Leahy after meeting with Negro and white leaders.

A curfew was reimposed in Cairo yesterday after whites and Negroes squared off on opposite sides of a street and hurled bricks, bottles, rocks and jeers at one another, near the police station.

Police broke up the encounter quickly. Police Chief William Petersen ordered the 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew immediately afterwards.

Earlier yesterday, a fire which swept a warehouse complex stretching along five blocks, drove about 3,000 residents out of the area when it was feared chemical fumes released by the blaze might be toxic. They returned to their homes when the fumes proved to be nonpoisonous.

passed the temporary measure and House Republican Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford said after a GOP caucus that he counted an additional 40 Republican votes—or 170.

There are 188 Republicans in the House.

If Ford's count was correct, Nixon's proposal needs only about 50 of the House's 245 Democratic votes to gain passage.

Many of the surtax extension opponents are holding the measure hostage for more sweeping tax reform than was drafted by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The committee wrote in a provision providing a tax break to an estimated 13 million low-income wage earners.

The House leadership decided in putting off the surtax showdown to resume work on Nixon's plan after the four-day Independence Day recess.

Clausen Sees No Closing Of Hamilton

Rep. Don H. Clausen today reaffirmed that Hamilton Air Force Base will not close, but said the Defense Department had shut the door for now on any use of the installation by civilian aircraft.

Clausen, R-First District, appeared at a meeting of Marin County officials, aviation representatives and civilian and military employees of Hamilton in the Marin Civic Center.

He read a letter from Robert C. Seamans, secretary of the Air Force, in which Seamans said there were no plans to close Hamilton, despite the recently announced transfer of the headquarters of the Fourth Air Force and the Western Region of the North American Air Defense Command.

Seaman's letter also went on to say that replacement units still were being considered for the ones being pulled out and that the Air Force had no plans for other major changes at Hamilton in the "forseeable future."

A letter from Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard to Clausen ruled out at least for the time being any possibility of joint military-civilian use of Hamilton runways. Packard said increased military traffic is forseen at Hamilton in upcoming years.

Clausen said he disagreed with the decision and hoped an agreement for joint usage could be worked out.

"I think it will be proper for us to keep pressure against the lid," Clausen said.

John F. McInnis, chairman of Marin supervisors, said that "military aircraft operations might be phased out entirely at Hamilton — let's not put our heads in the sand."

"If there is to be a lessening of military use," McInnis said, "We want first opportunity to phase in an industrial operation for Marin."

Clausen said he favored a nationwide airport master plan for construction of large airports and satellite ones around metropolitan areas.

phase program, with $100 million in tax cuts and increases this year and a massive income hike and other changes next year, if approved by the voters.

The second phase, boosting the income tax by an average of 50 per cent to finance property tax cuts of roughly the same amount, was part of a complex program that would require a 1970 vote of the people.

Biddle said the second phase — the most controversial — still is awaiting a hearing and wouldn't be abandoned.

The biggest boon to the property owner in the new plan would come from increasing the homeowners exemption to $1,650. Now it is $7500.

Biddle said this higher exemption would mean an average $165 reduction for taxpayers with a $10 property tax rate, the statewide average.

This would amount a $319 million tax cut.

Earlier, the administration pledged its support to efforts to break the impasse.

$64,100 Budget For Terra Linda

A fiscal 1969-70 budget of $64,100, up $3,455, was approved last night by directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District.

Helen Lontz, district secretary, said the major reason for the budget increase was the absence of carryover funds from the present spending program.

The board estimated the new budget would require a tax rate of 90 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, up six cents.

The budget is made up of $36,730 for salaries, $13,700 for maintenance, $7,500 for street lighting $6,100 for capital outlay, including the final payment on a new fire truck.

The California Highway Patrol said the boy was hit by a car driven by Eliot Tyrone Hardy, 18, of 45 Cole Drive, Marin City, at 6:15 p.m. Further details of the mishap were not available.

Revised Plan Approved For Hospital

Plans for the Hy-Lond Convalescent Hospital of 185 beds for the southwest corner of Hill and Indian Valley roads in Novato, were approved last night by the Novato Plan Review Committee.

The plans for the hospital had been approved, but were appealed by Betty Machado of 1424 Dawes Street because of a 60-foot cutbank. The new plans have been revised, changing the structure of the hospital and moving it forward on the lot. This will bring the cutbank in the hill within the city requirement of 20 feet, according to assistant planner Warren Baker.

The plan review committee also approved the plans for the Cloudburst car wash facility on Ford Way and Highway 101.

A 28-square-foot free-standing sign, a 32-square-foot menu sign and an entrance sign were approved for Tiajuana Tacos on Seventh Street south of Grant Avenue.

The plans for landscaping for the Los Robles mobile home park on Bel Marin Keys Boulevard east of Nave Lane were continued until the July 10 meeting of the committee.

tried to pass a stolen check.

The check was drawn on Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, in the account of Darrell, Gatsby, Felson, Advertising Marketing, San Francisco, and the security officer told police two, previous checks on the same account had been passed on April 14 for $96 and on May 22 for $125 and that he had determined them to be stolen.

Walker told police that a friend, who was awaiting in a car in the parking lot, had told him the check was good, officers said.

Talmadage, joined by Officer Charles Newman, took Walker and the other four persons, waiting in a car driven by Mur'ray, to the police station.

Walker said he met the three women that morning and they had taken him to Mur'ray's apartment in San Francisco where the occupants were smoking banana peels, according to police.

The quintet drove around San Francisco, then agreed to drive to Corte Madera to cash the check, Walker told police. Walker said that Miss Turner claimed she couldn't cash the check because she was on welfare, but she had written the check, police said.

Police said they noticed that Mur'ray had a Shell Oil credit card in the name of James T. McBride and on investigation, it was learned to be stolen from Kilpatrick's Bakery in San Francisco where McBride works. Officers said Mur'ray had apparently charged $278 worth of purchases to the credit card.

Newman reported that, he saw Miss Johnson remove something from her brassiere and drop it into a wastebasket.

This was a narcotics kit wrapped in white gauze and pink tissue paper containing two disposable hypodermic needles, an eye dropper syringe and a home made syringe with a rubber nipple off a baby bottle and a red rubber band, police said.

Officers said they also found other narcotics equipment in Miss Johnson's purse.

A brown paper bag was discovered in the vehicle containing a $112 U.S. Treasurer's check made out to Anthony R. Norris, P. O. Box 15441, San Francisco, three Wells Fargo Bank of San Francisco checks for $125, $95, and $115 in the account of Darrell, Gatsby, Felson; three blank Wells Fargo checks on the same account, and a $45 Liberty National Bank of San Francisco check made out to Thomas Williams.

On the floorboard was found a blue plastic, disposable hypodermic needle, officers said.

OBITUARIES

William F. Wegner Dies At 85

William Frederick Wegner, a former Larkspur City Councilman who also served as that city's building inspector until he was 80, died Wednesday in a local hospital following a long illness. He was 85.

Wegner, a native of Black Hawk, Wis., came to Larkspur in 1907. In 1925 he was appointed to the City Council to fill an unexpired term and then elected in 1926. He left the council in 1928. In 1952 he was named Larkspur's building inspector and he served in that position until 1963.

Prior to being named building inspector, Wegner was in the general contracting business, working in that field for 38 years.

He was also a volunteer fireman in Larkspur and served as the treasurer of that organization for 15 years.

Wegner moved to San Leandro in 1963, but returned to Marin County about nine months ago to enter the hospital.

He was a 25-year-member of the Muir Lodge No. 136 of the Knights of Pythias of Mill Valley and a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club and the Redwood Presbyterian Church. He is survived by a son, Jean, of Tiburon; a brother, Gus, of Viroqua, Wis., and one granddaughter.

His wife, Elizabeth, to whom he was married for 54 years, died in 1963.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Harry Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Memorial services will be conducted tonight at 8 p.m. at the mortuary by the Knights of Pythias of Mill Valley.

Burial will be private.

MARGARETA LORIGAN

Funeral for Margareta Boyd Lorigan of San Rafael and San Francisco wah held today in San Francisco, with burial in San Francisco National Cemetery.

Mrs. Lorigan, widow of Frank B. Lorigan, a San Francisco attorney, died Wednesday in a San Francisco hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Lorigan was a builder for many years, pioneering in the use of the breakfast nook and apartment balconies. Her Nob Hill apartment house was the first condominium in that area.

In San Rafael, she maintained a home at 1450 Grand Avenue and had lived in the two cities for 60 years. She was a native of California.

She was a member of the Pacific Musical Society, Valley Opera Association, Legion of Honor and the Opera Guild in San Francisco and was active in museum work and civic and charitable activities.

Survivors are four brothers, Edwin C. Street of Piedmont; Clarence H. Street of Walnut Creek; Henry B. Street of Berkeley, and George Street of Florida, and a sister, Mrs. Ann Fehlman of Honolulu.

MRS. JORGENSON

Sophie A. Jorgenson, 87, of Terra Linda, died yesterday at a local hospital after a lengthy illness. She lived with her son, Walter R. Jorgenson at 837 Del Ganado Road.

A native of Iowa, Mrs. Jorgenson same to California in 1956. She had lived in Marin County for eight years. She was a member of the Faith Lutheran Church, San Rafael.

Also surviving are three sisters, Olga Waddill of Sacramento, Emma Miller of Missoula, Mont., and Lydia Arnegard of Redlands.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Valley View Cemetery, Silverton, Ore.

COSY M. WUORI

Cosy Martha Wuori, 69, of 90 Jesse Lane, Petaluma, died yesterday at a local hospital after a short illness.

A native of Kansas, she had lived in California for 40 years and in Petaluma for the past 10 years. Mrs. Wuori was a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

She is survived by four daughters, Faye Diamond of Petaluma, Ilene Clapham of San Jose, Lorene Miller of Reedley, San Joaquin County and Iva Hose of Delano; two stepdaughters, Bessie Howe of Dinuba, San Josquin County, and Rilla McHone of Sacramento; three stepsons, William Stafford and Louis Stafford of Sacramento and Cecil Stafford of Dinuba; and a sister, Viola Martin of Kansas.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma.

CORINA BACIGALUPI

Corina Bacigalupi, 58, of 89 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera, died yesterday at a local hospital after a lengthy illness.

A native of Elk, Mendocino County, she had lived in Marin County 11 years after coming from San Francisco. She was a member of St. Patrick's Church, the Holy Family Guilds and St. James Chapter of the Italian Catholic Federation. She was also active in county bowling leagues.

She is survived by her husband, Laurence J. Bacigalupi, a lithographer with a San Francisco firm, and a sister, Mrs. Gina Urbani of Fort Bragg.

A Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's Church, Larkspur. Entombment will be at St. Helena Catholic Cemetery, St. Helena. The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. today at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

MRS. SINCLAIR

Eleanor B. Sinclair, 80, of Mill Valley, died yesterday at a local hospital following a long illness.

She was the wife of Thomas Sinclair, retired freight supervisor for Canadian Pacific Railway. The couple has lived in Mill Valley for three years, the last two in a rest home. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last year.

A native of Dunfermline, Scotland, Mrs. Sinclair moved to Canada in 1913 and in 1923 moved to Seattle, Wash., living there until Sinclair retired in 1954. She had lived in San Clemente, Orange County, before moving to Marin.

Other survivors are a son, Alexander T. Sinclair of Mill Valley; a daughter, Mrs. Roger H. Duffy of La Crescenta, Glendale County, and a granddaughter.

Private inurnment will be held at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Memorial services will be at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Sausalito Presbyterian Church.

RAMON J. TRUMAN

Private funeral for Ramon J. Truman, 75, a great-grandson of the first elected alcalde (mayor) of San Francisco, was held yesterday in San Francisco.

Truman, the father of Ramon R. Truman of Tiburon, died Tuesday.

He was with the firm of McDonnell and Company, stockbrokers, for 22 years and then became a trustee for the federal bankruptcy court in San Francisco, retiring four years ago.

His great-grandfather was Francisco De Haro, elected alcalde of San Francisco in 1834. He was also a descendant of Jose Antonio Sanchez who came with the Anza expedition of 1775 as one of the first settlers of San Francisco. Later Sanchez was commandante of the Presidio.

Other survivors are his wife, Ruth, of the home in San Francisco; a son, William Clayton of near Washington, D.C., and a sister, Anita M. Truman of San Francisco.

Berkeley Launches People's Pad Plan

BERKELEY (UPI) — Hundreds of University of California students and residents of hippie areas adjoining the campus opened a nation-wide People's Pad program yesterday "for the kids who are looking to Berkeley and who are coming to Berkeley."

They also made it clear that recent setbacks have not dampened their determination to continue the battle for People's Park, a plot of university-owned land which touched off bloody battles between police and demonstrators six weeks ago.

The new pad program, which involves the conversion of a city block of unused World War II buildings to a summer haven, was announced at a campus rally which saw the return of Mario Savio to a microphone in Sproul Plaza.

It was Savio, who now sports a red beard to go with his bushy locks, who led the Free Speech Movement in 1964--the forerunner of student revolt across the nation.

"We of the post-industrial generation are natural Communists," said the once fiery ad-lib orator, who yesterday read from a prepared text.

"We believe property is not a thing to keep men apart and at war but a thing to keep men together," Savio said. "We hope to live to see the time when he can take up the means of leisure without preparing to battle police."

However, there should be no trouble with police over the "People's Pad" program.

The eight two-story stucco buildings on a site called Savo Island are owned by the Berkeley School District whose superintendent, Dr. Richard Foster, confirmed execution of a $1 lease for three months with the Telegraph Avenue Concern Committee.

"It's perfectly legal," said Frank Bardacke, also a leader of the People's Park Committee. "We will make a youth hostel for the kids who are looking to Berkeley and who are coming to Berkeley."

Confessions Rule Altered By Justices

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The California Supreme Court has slightly modified the "Miranda rule" limiting confessions in a case involving a tape recording made before the suspect was taken into custody.

The 6-1 decision yesterday was in the case of Liskie T. Mabry, found guilty in 1967 of the 1954 murder of Francis Rea, a North Sacramento policeman killed while investigating a burglary.

Mabry's appeal was based on the fact that a tape recording used at his trial contained damaging statements he had made during a conversation with the son of his common-law wife.

The court held that the "Miranda rule" making confessions inadmissable unless the suspect had been warned it could be used as evidence applies only to suspects in custody.

Justice Raymond E. Peters dissented, saying the son was acting as a police agent at the time he made the tape recording

Peters also contended the high court had the power to reduce Mabry's death sentence to life imprisonment and should do so. Justice Stanley Mosk agreed with Peters on this point.

Sausalitan Describes Pot Pact, Loaded Cat

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A witness accused of smuggling marijuana from Texas has testified that the former manager of the Kingston Trio wanted exclusive control of the contraband.

Stanley Mulligan testified most of yesterday in the second day of testimony in the trial of the former manager, Frank N. Werber charged with conspiracy to smuggle marijuana.

Mulligan, 35, and his partner at the Latitude 38 bar in Sausalito, Charles P. Barrett, are charged with smuggling but the charge of conspiring with Werber was dropped after they agreed to testify for the government.

Mulligan said Werber was smoking marijuana when the deal was set up for them to fly to Loredo, Tex., to pick up 258 pounds of marijuana and fly it back to Marin County.

He said he even saw Werber get his cat "loaded" by blowing marijuana smoke in its face, causing it "to slide off the refrigerator like a snake."

Mulligan said he asked Werber if he and Barrett, who he said were paid $2,650 for the marijuana, were to be dealt in on proceeds of its sale.

"No, you're working exclusively for me," Mulligan quoted Werber as replying.

They were to fly the marijuana back to Marin County and deliver it to Werber's home on da Silva Island near Mill Valley, he said, where Werber was arrested last Oct. 14.

Another witness yesterday was Joseph Cabazos, a customs agent at Laredo who arrested Mulligan and Barrett when they tried to pick up the marijuana at a garbage dump near the Mexican border.

A jury of six men and six women is hearing the case before U.S. Dist. Judge Lloyd C. Burke.

In Texas there are about 97 males to every 100 females.

Advisers Favor Returning To Two Ambulance Firms

The County of Marin Emergency Medical Care Committee has recommended returning to the system under which two ambulance companies served the emergency needs of Marin's citizens.

In its annual report, the seven-member committee said emergency ambulance service should be provided on a zone or call basis, rather than under the present system of giving all service to the lowest bidder.

The committee did not criticize current ambulance service. In fact, it said that Doctors Ambulance Co., the private firm now serving most of the county under contract, is "generally giving prompt, efficient service."

The committee said, however, that the modest rate charged the county by Doctors for what is known as a "Dry run" — $14.95—attributes to higer private rates.

"There is no control over the rates charged for completed calls or private work and there has been considerable complaint because of what some people consider exorbitant charges," the committee wrote.

The report said the present flat service rate is $35, plus $1 per mile, plus $5 for emergency, $5 for oxygen and $5 for a night call. The current rate for Medicare and Medi-Cal patients is $25, plus $1 per mile.

Timothy M. Jackson, county administrative analyst and liaison to the committee, disagreed with the group's findings. He said the service rates were not peculiar to Marin, but in fact standard in the Bay Area, and asserted that history has shown that Marin's emergency ambulance business cannot support two companies.

"The old system became unworkable," Jackson said, referring to a year-long jurisdictional feud between Doctors and the United Ambulance Co. that climaxed last October in an exclusive contract to Doctors.

Jackson said the county has been generally pleased with Doctors' performance alone.

The committee also called for local and state aid to maintain ambulance services "in a high state of readiness and efficiency." It urged improved training opportunities for ambulance crews, police and firemen.

The group urged coordination of hospital disaster planning and countywide disaster planning and said hospital facilities in Marin should be categorized so as to guide ambulances on where to take the most critically ill patients.

Police and firemen should be "encouraged by state legislation to respond beyond their territorial limits to render first aid, do rescue work and extricate victims without incurring any liability," the committee, composed largely of public safety and health officials, said.

Outing Planned To Candlestick

The San Rafael Goldenaires will travel to Candlestick Park July 9 for a game between the Giants and the Houston Astros.

The trip open to all Marin adults over 50, will be made by chartered buses which will leave the city recreation center, Second and Brooks Streets at 11 a.m.

The deadline for reservations, which may be at the center, is Wednesday.

Drunken Driving Fines Ordered

Judge Peter Allen Smith of Marin Municipal Court has sentenced two men for drunken driving and placed both on one year probation.

He also fine Gudger Van Sorenson, 23, of Oakland, who was arrested last Saturday on Highway 101, $240.

Isaac Gonzales Valaquez, 30, of 1355 San Anselmo, Avenue, San Anselmo, was fined $211. He was arrested May 27 on Highway 101.

He said he even saw Werber get his cat "loaded" by blowing marijuana smoke in its face, causing it "to slide off the refrigerator like a snake."

Mulligan said he asked Werber if he and Barrett, who he said were paid $2,650 for the marijuana, were to be dealt in on proceeds of its sale.

"No, you're working exclusively for me," Mulligan quoted Werber as replying.

They were to fly the marijuana back to Marin County and deliver it to Werber's home on da Silva Island near Mill Valley, he said, where Werber was arrested last Oct. 14.

Another witness yesterday was Joseph Cabazos, a customs agent at Laredo who arrested Mulligan and Barrett when they tried to pick up the marijuana at a garbage dump near the Mexican border.

A jury of six men and six women is hearing the case before U.S. Dist. Judge Lloyd C. Burke.

In Texas there are about 97 males to every 100 females.

A Tentative Budget Of $788,000

The Old Adobe School District Board, Petaluma, last night approved a tentative budget of $788,000 for the 1969-70 year which would continue the present tax rate.

Supt. Dean D. Magowan said the budget represented an increase of $79,000 over last year's expenditures and that the present tax rate of $2.11 per $100 assessed valuation would continue.

Included in the budget was a 6 per cent salary scale increase for teachers, but the raise will not take effect until anticipated state funds are received. Teachers will, however, receive the automatic annual step increase.

The Old Adobe School board also:

TESTING — Approved the continuation of the maturity testing program for pre-kindergarten students. The youngsters are tested for maturity level and placed in groups accordingly.

MINI COACH — Approved the receipt of bids for the purchase of a minicoach as a classroom on wheels for the speech therapy program. Cost of the vehicle was estimated at $8,300.

HIRED — Approved the employment of Linda Edwards as a kindergarten teacher at a salary of $6,688 and Eleanor Daggett as teacher of the educationally handicapped class at a salary of $7,104.

INSTALLATION Set July 3 for a meeting to install new trustees and to elect board officers.

Marin-Connected Drug Suspect Booked Again

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A 41-year-old San Francisco man — already awaiting trial on charges of selling drugs to a Corte Madera youth who later died — was arrested again last night for the sale and possession of dangerous drugs.

San Francisco police reported they arrested Everett LeForrest Hill, of 1308 Fourth Street, after he reportedly sold methamphetamine to a state narcotics agent.

Police reported finding four ounces of the drug in Hill's home after the arrest. They valued the methamphetamine at about $1,000.

Hill is scheduled to appear next Wednesday in San Francisco Superior Court to set a trial date on the charges that he sold methamphetamine to Richard K. Yager, 20, last September.

Yager, a soldier on leave, collapsed and died the day after the sale allegedly took place. A coroner's report later said that Yager was found to have died of poisoning by impure methamphetamine.

Marin County Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales yesterday said no charges were contemplated against Hill in connection with Yager's death, because it could not be established that the fatal methamphetamine was the same allegedly sold by Hill.

Hill has been released on $2,500 bail. He was arrested last February and pleaded innocent to the charges.

Hub Council Eyes Engineer's Office

An addition to the San Anselmo engineering department quarters, which could someday provide for expansion of the city's library, was among items discussed last night in the continuing budget review by the city council.

The addition is proposed beneath the library, where three of the four walls are in place and the basic ceiling and floor already constructed.

Estimated cost of the addition, which would provide 433 square feet, is $3,000.

The council took no action on the addition or any other budget items last night, but finished the review — except for employees' salaries which will be discussed at 8 p.m. Tuesday at city hall.

The engineering department requested no other major changes in its budget which this year totals $32,627. The department requested $41,471 and Administrator-Controller Alfred C. Kaeppel recommended $38,406, making cuts in proposed salaries.

A street maintenance budget of $126,645, considerably less than department requests of $227,538, was also discussed. The major reduction was in the number of streets to be repaired this year. Nineteen projects were asked, but only 10 recommended by Kaeppel.

In the street construction budget, which uses gas tax money, projects totaling $198,419 were recommended by Kaeppel.

The major project, realignment of the Hub intersection, was not discussed last night because the council has already approved it.

Other work includes traffic signals totaling $20,520 for installation of two sets—at Butterfield Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, and at San Francisco Avenue, and Drake, along with engineering studies on a total of six signals.

The council also studied budgets for storm drains, $25,074, up from $11,100; street lighting, $24,000, up slightly from $23,300; building inspection, $17,949, up from $15,680; street sweeping, $16,557 up from $15,156 and municipal shop, $16,357, up from $14,358.

The total proposed budget calls for spending $1,337,234, $385,818 higher than 1968-69 expenditures. It would be within the present tax rate of $2.555 per $100 assessed valuation.

Teen-Age Burglar Eludes Deputies

Marin sheriff's deputies today were on the lookout for a slim, teen-age boy who was seen fleeing from a Bel Aire home Monday after a neighbor reported a burglary in progress.

Deputies arrived on the scene as the youth fled through the door of the home of Mary A. Deffenbach at 21 Barn Road, but were unable to capture him.

Mrs. Deffenbach later reported missing some jewelry, a radio and an antique sword.

First Unloading In 19 Years By A Soviet Ship

SEATTLE (AP) — The captain of the first Soviet ship to unload cargo in a U.S. port in 19 years says there should be closer ties between the two nations "so that we might live in peace together."

While crewmen of the 15,000-ton freighter Orsha unloaded 900 tons of sponge titanium, a strategic metal, Capt. Arkady Tabakar, 50, said he expected his "pioneer voyage" would lead to more Soviet ships docking at U.S. ports.

A dozen men and women from the Tacoma Servicemen's Center, a church-related organization, picketed the ship yesterday but didn't interfere with the unloading operation.

Bank Holding Plan Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to regulate one-bank holding companies, forged by a conservative coalition, was approved 29-5 today by the House Banking Committee.

The committee's chairman, Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., had backed stronger regulations and indicated he would carry his battle to the House floor.

The major change written into the bill provides that such companies would not be required to divest themselves of nonbanking affiliates acquired before Feb. 17, 1969.

The administration had proposed a cutoff date of June 30, 1968, and Patman's own bill would have required disposal of the outside interests regardless of when they were acquired.

A Tentative Budget Of $788,000

The Old Adobe School District Board, Petaluma, last night approved a tentative budget of $788,000 for the 1969-70 year which would continue the present tax rate.

Supt. Dean D. Magowan said the budget represented an increase of $79,000 over last year's expenditures and that the present tax rate of $2.11 per $100 assessed valuation would continue.

Included in the budget was a 6 per cent salary scale increase for teachers, but the raise will not take effect until anticipated state funds are received. Teachers will, however, receive the automatic annual step increase.

The Old Adobe School board also:

TESTING — Approved the continuation of the maturity testing program for pre-kindergarten students. The youngsters are tested for maturity level and placed in groups accordingly.

MINI COACH — Approved the receipt of bids for the purchase of a minicoach as a classroom on wheels for the speech therapy program. Cost of the vehicle was estimated at $8,300.

HIRED — Approved the employment of Linda Edwards as a kindergarten teacher at a salary of $6,688 and Eleanor Daggett as teacher of the educationally handicapped class at a salary of $7,104.

INSTALLATION Set July 3 for a meeting to install new trustees and to elect board officers.

Marin-Connected Drug Suspect Booked Again

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A 41-year-old San Francisco man — already awaiting trial on charges of selling drugs to a Corte Madera youth who later died — was arrested again last night for the sale and possession of dangerous drugs.

San Francisco police reported they arrested Everett LeForrest Hill, of 1308 Fourth Street, after he reportedly sold methamphetamine to a state narcotics agent.

Police reported finding four ounces of the drug in Hill's home after the arrest. They valued the methamphetamine at about $1,000.

Hill is scheduled to appear next Wednesday in San Francisco Superior Court to set a trial date on the charges that he sold methamphetamine to Richard K. Yager, 20, last September.

Yager, a soldier on leave, collapsed and died the day after the sale allegedly took place. A coroner's report later said that Yager was found to have died of poisoning by impure methamphetamine.

Marin County Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales yesterday said no charges were contemplated against Hill in connection with Yager's death, because it could not be established that the fatal methamphetamine was the same allegedly sold by Hill.

Hill has been released on $2,500 bail. He was arrested last February and pleaded innocent to the charges.

Bogus Check Of $15,373 Is Cashed

A good looking blonde who said she needed some cash to buy a house and furniture and pay some bills cashed a $15,372 forged cashier's check in Corte Madera Monday, then disappeared, police reported today.

Officers said that bank officials at the Bank of America at 663 Tamalpais Drive reported on Wednesday that the woman who used the name of Margaret Joyce Taylor, PO Box 162, Fairfax, took out an account.

She cashed the casher's check, drawin on the Oakland Bank of America main office, taking $13,500 and leaving the remainder in her account.

Police said the forged check is one of six reportedly stolen from the Oakland bank.

The woman is described as weighing 120 pounds, about 30 to 35 years of age and wearing heavy eye makeup, police said. She was reported to be driving a new gold and black Plymouth Fury and had two children with her in the car.

The woman told the bank that she was from Cleveland, Ohio, divorced, and looking for a home, police reported.

Deer Causes Auto Accident

Janis Lee Glatzer, an 18-year-old College of Marin student who lives at 32A Circle Drive, Tiburon, was treated for cuts and bruises on the nose at Marin General Hospital yesterday after a one-car accident on Lucas Valley Road.

A passenger in the car, Stewart Johnson of 401 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, also received minor injuries, according to the California Highway Patrol, but apparently did not require treatment.

The patrol said Miss Glatzer's car hit a tree when she swerved to avoid a deer on Lucas Valley Road about a mile west of Big Rock. The accident occurred at 3:30 p.m.

Full-Time Juvenile Court Need Stressed

The "tremendous increase" in juvenile court hearings — and the need for a full-time juvenile judge or referee to handle them were discussed Wednesday by the Marin County Juvenile Justice Commission.

Jack L. Blaine one of two unpaid referees who handle most juvenile matters reported there have been 1,500 juvenile hearings in the fiscal year ending Monday.

He and James D. Adams the only two volunteer referees in the state, began the job about a year ago, giving 30 minutes two mornings a week. Juvenile Judge Samuel W. Gardiner also handles juvenile matters most of each Monday.

Now Blaine said, he is giving three full days a week to hearing juvenile matters.

"I feel the county is reaching a point where they should have a full-time juvenile judge, or as many counties do, hire a full-time paid referee," said Blaine.

Reasons for the increase in time are the growing number of juveniles involved in crime, the expanding number of contested hearings and the belief of Adams and Blaine that more time should be spent with juveniles and their parents in detention hearings.

Detention hearings, Blaine said, are held between the child's arrest and formal hearing to determine what will be done with the child. For many of them, it is their first experience in court, he explained.

Plans Approved For 48 Units Of Apartments

Development of a 48-unit apartment unit on two acres between Olema Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard won approval of the Fairfax Planning Commission last night.

The planners voted 4-3 to approve the apartments proposed by Matthew Farr, owner of the land.

The commissioners required Farr to landscape along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, provide a walkway and bicycle path on the property, limit development ot 24 units per acre and to preserve the large oak tree on the property.

Voting against approval were commissioners John T. Hourihan, Harold S. Lezzeni and Martin Zernicke.

In other business, the commission denied by 4-3 vote, a request by Forrest Morphew to operate a gas station and store at 85 Bolinas Road, noting that such a business did not meet with the city's master plan.

The commission also approved a request for a lot split on Bolinas Road by Jane Forster. Approval was unanimous.

North Marin Group Raps Rezoning

A rezoning in Sonoma County across the Petaluma River from Black Point drew objections last night from the North Marin Federation, according to secretary Evelyn Johnson.

Shellmaker Inc. has asked the Sonoma County Planning Commission to rezone 109 acres east of the Petaluma River to multiple residential and heavy industrial. The multiple zoned area would contain garden type apartments and a mobile home park.

The federatpon will write to the Sonoma County planners objecting to the heavy industrial zoning and suggesting light industrial instead, and also objecting to the mobile home park, according to Mrs. Johnson.

The federation will also send letters to Gov. Ronald Reagan, State Senator John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley supporting Assembly Bill 409 which would give more aid to impoverished districts.

The federation also opposed the proposed development by Peter Lind for the area just south of Gnoss Field, she said.

More Fires Set In Marin City

Incendiarists set fires in Marin City last night for the fourth straight day although the number was cut to three, sheriff's deputies said today.

The fires were set in a 21-minute period and did no damage, according to deputies. The first was touched off at 9 p.m. in back of the Marin City Recreation Center. A second was set near Drake Avenue and Donahue at 9:16 p.m. and the third was next to the recreation center at 9:21 p.m.

The Marin County Fire Department yesterday burned a large portion of dry grassy areas in Marin City in an attempt to eliminate a major fire hazard.

Antique Guns, Liquor Stolen

Antique guns and an undetermined amount of whiskey were reported stolen from a Petaluma tavern yesterday or Wednesday.

Thomas Ielmarini, owner of the Longhorn Bar, 401 East Washington Street, said that his bar had been closed for repairs and that the items were taken from a second floor room. Police said the front door had been pried.

Harbor Board Faces Puzzle Over Budget

The Bolinas Harbor District board, voted out of existence last winter, last night received a $35,100 tentative budget it doesn't know whether it will ever need.

The preliminary budget, on which no action was taken, is the same as the current fiscal year's, President Thomas J. Barfield said.

Bolinas citizens in March voted to dissolve the district but a bill to carry out the dissolution, sponsored by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is still pending in the Legislature. Barfield and others have staunchly opposed dissolution and the Bagley bill.

As a result of its tenuous future, the board is in a sticky position, accoring to Barfield. If it passes a budget and the Bagley bill passes, the budget will still be on the tax rolls of the county although the board would no longer exist.

On the other hand, Barfield said, it it doesn't pass a budget and the Bagley bill fails, the board would find itself with no funds with which to operate.

The Bagley bill, which goes to Senate hearings next Thursday (9:30 a.m. in Room 2040 the Senate office building), has passed the Assembly and is expected to pass the Senate with little trouble.

Barfield also said the board discussed a recent U. S. District Court decision which held that the dissolution of the San Mateo Harbor District by the San Mateo supervisors was invalid. The district board had sued the county after voters approved the dissolution.

Asked whether the Bolinas board was considering suing Marin County to overturn its dissolution, Barfield said it had been discussed but he though any legal action taken probably would be brought by private citizens. "Several people have indicated they are considering it," he said.

In other action last night the Bolinas board appointed a committee to review the leases of the Audubon Canyon Ranch and the Finley interests in Bolinas.

Art Member Status Eyed

The Mill Valley Art Commission Wednesday night passed a resolution urging the city council to continue to allow one or two of the commission's seven members to live outside the city.

The council Monday night approved the first reading of an ordinance which would require all members of the art commission, planning commission and library board to live within the city limits.

Commission secretary Priscilla Dillingham said today the art commission also set a concert by the Tamalpais High School Madrigal for 4 p.m. Aug. 3, in Mill Valley Park.

A preliminary discussion on bringing an opera to Mill Valley also was held with a representative of Talent Bank of San Francisco, Mrs. Dillingham said.

Vandals, Bike Thieves Busy

San Rafael police today reportted three cases of vandalism and three bicycle thefts.

Police said three windows were broken yesterday at San Rafael cooperative Nursery and sprinklers at the home of Mrs. Annie Laurie Sweeny of 38 Las Casas Drive were damaged.

Police reported the breakage of lights outside the Medical Buildings at 880 and 750 Las Gallinas Avenue and at the Dental Building at 920 Northgate.

Police also reported the theft of bikes belonging to Cherie Ann Preston of 305 Irwin Street, Bruce Alan Kraemer of 109 Oakmont Avenue and Thomas Oliva of 87 Wallace Way.

TAM CREEK RESEARCH

Co-Eds Change View In Classroom Probe

Digging into the facts of a community issue can bring about a change of mind — at least temporarily.

This is the initial finding of two Redwood High School seniors who, with 48 other students, selected the controversial Tamalpais Creek flood control project as an issue to probe.

Members of the newspaper committee, Pam Shirley of Greenbrae and Patty Klein of Kentfield, say they both changed some of their views since they started the project.

"When I first heard about it, I became very protective for the trees," said Pam. "Since I have been looking into it I get the feeling that maybe they (the demonstrators against the concrete creek now being built between Kent Avenue and Goodhill Road in Kent Woodlands) were not all that right."

Patty said she felt "kind of" the same. "I was kind of for the people protesting at first. After going down there (to the project) and talking to them and reading articles about it, I found out that I felt somewhat different."

She said she doesn't think the Army Corps of Engineers is doing "that much damage for the good they are doing for all the floods. I have been down there in winter and seen all the floods." But, she indicated she might change her mind again. "We haven't heard the people's views yet," she said.

The class in American institutions agreed to take on Tamalpais Creek issue after some initial rebellion by a few students who thought they knew all they needed to know about it, Pam said.

The class was divided into committees, Patty and Pam being named to the newspaper committee and asked to find out all they could from the Independent-Journal files plus those of the College of Marin Times. Two other students wre assigned to two Marin county weeklies.

Other committees are covering the sheriff's office, judges and lawyers, Kent Woodlands and Ross residents, the Marin County Board of Suprvisors and the Corps of Engineers.

When students have completed their research next week, they will have a bullsession, argue over different points of view and then write individual papers presenting their own views. The community issue is but one assignment during the eight-week course.

The course has two teachers —Freeman D. Blake and John M. Thompson.

Asked for their impression of the assignment, Pam replied, "It's neat," and Patty said, "It's good."

"The work gives us an idea of the complications and different points of view and what a community is really made up of," added Pam.

One of the best happenings so far took place on Goodhilll Road bridge, the girls related.

They were inspecting the creek site when Dr. Joseph B. Wheelwright, a Kent Woodlands resident who was arrested in the demonstrations, drove by. Soon the girls had a debate going between Wheelwright and the contractor's superintendent Jim Matheson.

"It was a confrontation," Pam said excitedly.

Humphrey Calls On Demos For Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey has urged Democratic leaders to forgo the traditional congressional func*tion of following* the president's leadership.

"I didn't expect much from them," Humphrey said of the administration, but "I do expect a good deal from us."

He called on the Democratic majorities in the House and Senate to "put the imprint of congressional leadership on this country . . . We better make our own record because we may not get one from the other side."

The former vice president, his party's standard bearer in the 1968 presidential contest, spoke last night to a $500-a-plate Democratic Congressional Committee dinner.

Humphrey, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Speaker of the House John W. McCormack were the headlines speakers at the dinner which raised an estimated $750,000 for next year's congressional campaign.

Rock Concert

The rock band Red Mountain will appear at the benefit concert and dance at 7:30 p.m. today at Tamalpais High School. Earlier, student sponsors of the event for the Boy's Club of Southern Marin and the Mill Valley drop-in house, had announced Southern Comfort would appear. Four other bands are also scheduled.

Court Shuns Restaurant Case Ruling

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday refused to rule on any portion of the continuing battle between restaurant owner Sam Zakessian and the City of Sausalito until after the next meeting of the Sausalito City Council.

Zakessian has filed two suits aimed at halting construction of a restaurant being built next to his Zack's, in Sausalito.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson said that since the matter is still under consideration by the city council and will be on its agenda Tuesday, he will delay any consideration of the matter until July 11.

Zakessian has maintained before the planning commission, city council and finally in court that the City of Sausalito has acted illegally in issuing permits and a variance for the restaurant.

The developers of the new restaurant; Eric Groneman and Kenneth Underwood of the Edgewater Yacht Co., says, however, that Zakessian is merely trying to remove threatened competition to Zack's.

In 9th century England, King Alfred decreed that the Christmas season should include Christmas day and the 12 days following.

Skyscraper's Plans Get Nod

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The controversial pyramid-shaped Transamerica Building has been approved by the city's planning commission.

The commission ignored the recommendation of its own director yesterday and voted 5-2 to approve the design of the spire-topped building, which will rise 843 feet above the northern edge of the financial district.

Prior to approving the design of the $30 million skyscraper, the commission voted 4-3 to close 183 feet of Merchant Street as part of the plan for the building.

Russ Expert Is Named To Arms Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, one of the foremost U.S. authorities on relations with Russia, has been appointed to a six-man delegation which will handle negotiations wtih the Soviet Union on a proposed agreement to limit nuclear missiles.

The delegation, due for early White House announcement, will be headed by Gerard C. Smith, director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, with Philip J. Farley, a deputy assistant secretary of state and expert in nuclear arms policy as alternate U.S. representative.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers disclosed earlier this year that Smith would be the chief negotiator in talks with the Soviet group. The rest of the delegation was only recently chosen by President Nixon.

Other members are Paul H. Nitze, former deputy secretary of defense; Dr. Harold Brown, former Air Force secretary, and Maj. Gen. Paul B. Allison, former specialist on arms control policy for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Allison is presently serving with the Pacific Ocean Command in Honolulu.

Divorce Suit Is Quietly Settled

A divorce suit in which Marin Coroner Donovan O. Cooke had been previously named as correspondent was quietly settled yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Michael Ainbinder, 59-year-old Belvedere investor, withdrew his cross complaint against his wife, Hildegard, 53, and she won an uncontested divorce and a $102,500 tax free property settlement.

The couple has no children, and Mrs. Ainbinder waived alimony. Judge Joseph G. Wilson also restored her maiden name, Hildegard Kaufman.

Ainbinder had filed a cross complaint to the divorce suit in 1967 charging that his wife had committed adultery with Dr. Cooke, who had been her physician for many years.

The Ainbinders were married in Las Vegas, Nev. on Dec. 18, 1950 and separated on June 26, 1965.

State PUC Studies Issues Of Long Beach Jet Pleas

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The state Public Utilities Commission has taken under submission requests by three California air lines to expand service between Long Beach and the Bay area.

The city and area residents oppose the action.

Air California wants to expand its service between Long Beach and San Jose. Pacific Southwest Airways wants routes from Long Beach to Oakland, San Jose and San Francisco, with a turnaround route from San Francisco to Sacramento.

Russ Expert Is Named To Arms Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, one of the foremost U.S. authorities on relations with Russia, has been appointed to a six-man delegation which will handle negotiations wtih the Soviet Union on a proposed agreement to limit nuclear missiles.

The delegation, due for early White House announcement, will be headed by Gerard C. Smith, director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, with Philip J. Farley, a deputy assistant secretary of state and expert in nuclear arms policy as alternate U.S. representative.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers disclosed earlier this year that Smith would be the chief negotiator in talks with the Soviet group. The rest of the delegation was only recently chosen by President Nixon.

Other members are Paul H. Nitze, former deputy secretary of defense; Dr. Harold Brown, former Air Force secretary, and Maj. Gen. Paul B. Allison, former specialist on arms control policy for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Allison is presently serving with the Pacific Ocean Command in Honolulu.

Divorce Suit Is Quietly Settled

A divorce suit in which Marin Coroner Donovan O. Cooke had been previously named as correspondent was quietly settled yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Michael Ainbinder, 59-year-old Belvedere investor, withdrew his cross complaint against his wife, Hildegard, 53, and she won an uncontested divorce and a $102,500 tax free property settlement.

The couple has no children, and Mrs. Ainbinder waived alimony. Judge Joseph G. Wilson also restored her maiden name, Hildegard Kaufman.

Ainbinder had filed a cross complaint to the divorce suit in 1967 charging that his wife had committed adultery with Dr. Cooke, who had been her physician for many years.

The Ainbinders were married in Las Vegas, Nev. on Dec. 18, 1950 and separated on June 26, 1965.

Tear Gas Authorizer Admits Mishandling

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The man who authorized tear gas during a demonstration at the University of California May 20 says he wouldn't have given the permission if he had known the way the National Guard intended to use it.

Thomas L. Houchins, chief of the Alameda County sheriff's made the statement last night to members of Sigma Delta Chi, a journalistic fraternity.

Houchins said the gas, sprayed from a helicopter, "was not dispersed in the manner in which they (the guard) said they would."

"We were told the gas could be dropped immediately over the target area," he said, but instead it spread over Sproul Hall Plaza, nearby homes, university classrooms and offices and the hospital.

Houchins said he had seen demonstrations where gas was dispersed directly downwards, pushed by the helicopter's blades.

"I assumed this was how it would be done," he continued. "I don't know who is to blame—someone must know. But it wasn't dropped in the manner it was intended."

Otherwise, Houchins had praise for National guardsmen. "They conducted themselves admirably and adjusted themselves well to the new situation they were in," he said.

The guard was called out during rioting over People's Park, a university-owned plot appropriated by students and Berkeley "street people" for an impromptu park.

The university had intended to use the plot for a sports field, but since has announced that residential halls will be built there.

San Rafael Council Raises Workers' Pay

The San Rafael City Council last night granted 10 per cent salary scale increases to most city employees and gave 17 job classifications — including police patrolman — wage scale hikes ranging as high as 17 per cent.

The scale increase is in addition automatic annual 5 per cent pay raises built into the scale.

The council also decided, however, that the proposed 2.5 per cent cost-of-living increase which was being considered for next January will be dropped.

Cost of the salary package will be about $200,000 next year, according to City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen, who said the salary hikes would not affect the city tax rate of 86 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

James O. Kennon, president of the San Rafael Fireman's Association, told the council that the 12.5 per cent raise granted policemen and while fireman got only a 10 per cent raise "would have a demoralizing effect on the city's firefighting force."

Kennon produced figures from the National Safety Council which showed, he claimed, that a fireman's job was more hazardous than a police officer's.

Andersen, who made the salary recommendation, told the council that Kennon had previously told him several times "not to compare fire and police when considering salary increases."

Andersen told the council that the higher salary figure for police patrolmen would put the city in a better position for recruitment of officers.

"Has the city ever been short of policemen?" Kennon countered hotly.

"Yes." Andersen replied, "but that hasn't hasn't been the case with the fire department."

The salary package was approved by the council 3-1, with councilman Harry A. Barbier voting against. "I was under the impression we wanted to keep the firemen and policemen equal and on that basis I will vote no," he said.

The positions of senior building inspector and electrician each received 17.5 per cent increases to a range of $815 to $991. Receiving 15 per cent raises were police captain to a range of $1,067-$1,176; police lieutenant, $967-1,067; police sergeant, $877-967; police detective, $877-967; police identification officer, $877-967; police juvenile inspector, $877-967; and chief auto mechanic, $739-899.

Receiving 12.5 per cent raises were police patrolmen, to range of $704-856; park supervisor, $739-899; auto mechanic, $654-795 and recreation center supervisor, $608-739.

Ten per cent raises went to the maintenance foreman to range of $835-1,016; equipment operator, $623-759 and senior engineering saide, $623-757.

All other city employees — except department heads — will receive 10 per cent raises effective Tuesday. The council took no action on department heads' salaries pending further study.

The council did shorten the fireman's work week from the existing 67 hours to 63 hours by hiring two additional firemen. The fire association had requested a 63-hour week for next year, dropping to a 60-hour week in 1970 and a 56-hour work week in 1971. The council made no committment for future lowering of hours.

The council also approved increasing the yearly clothing allowance for fire and policemen from $120 to $150. The fire department had requested an increase to $200 a year.

Councilmen took no action on altering the city's vacation schedule, but did ask Andersen to bring in cost figures on granting three weeks of vacation after three years of service instead of five years.

Another fire department request — pay for the Eisenhower day of mourning — was denied.

The council approved changing the city's pay periods to every other Friday rather than the current twice per month, on the 5th and 20th. They also approved a request that the day following Thanksgiving be substituted for Columbus Day as a holiday.

Longevity pay for two senior patrolmen was also rejected by the council.

The city council did approve reimbursement of unused sick leave whereby after 10 years of service, employees would receive 10 per cent pay on the unused amount upon retirement or departure from the city's payroll for any other reason.

Mayor's Pay Hike Stalled By Bettini

San Rafael City Council last night tabled until the next regular meeting a suggestion that Mayor C. Paul Bettini's pay be increased from $200 to $300 per month.

Councilman Frederick C. Robbins suggested the action but Bettini himself tabled the matter until a later date.

"I would rather that something like this came up at a regular meeting," he said.

The council was meeting in special budget session last night.

Chicago Police Elude New Trial On Beatings

CHICAGO (UPI) — Three Chicago policeman acquitted earlier this month of federal charges they violated the civil rights of a newsman during the Democratic National Convention will not be tried on state charges.

State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan yesterday said his office has concluded that prosectuion in state courts is barred by the state's double jeopardy statute.

Sgt. George Jurish, 36, and patrolmen Vincent D'amico, 23, and Edward M. Becht, 28, were charged with violating the civil rights of Chicago Daily News reported John Linstead by beating him. All were acquitted by a U.S. District Court jury June 11.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry said after the trial he was convinced the policemen had used excessive force in dealing with Linstead. But he said the matter should have been tried in the state courts on assault and battery charges.

The salary package was approved by the council 3-1, with councilman Harry A. Barbier voting against. "I was under the impression we wanted to keep the firemen and policemen equal and on that basis I will vote no," he said.

The positions of senior building inspector and electrician each received 17.5 per cent increases to a range of $815 to $991. Receiving 15 per cent raises were police captain to a range of $1,067-$1,176; police lieutenant, $967-1,067; police sergeant, $877-967; police detective, $877-967; police identification officer, $877-967; police juvenile inspector, $877-967; and chief auto mechanic, $739-899.

Receiving 12.5 per cent raises were police patrolmen, to range of $704-856; park supervisor, $739-899; auto mechanic, $654-795 and recreation center supervisor, $608-739.

Ten per cent raises went to the maintenance foreman to range of $835-1,016; equipment operator, $623-759 and senior engineering saide, $623-757.

All other city employees — except department heads — will receive 10 per cent raises effective Tuesday. The council took no action on department heads' salaries pending further study.

The council did shorten the fireman's work week from the existing 67 hours to 63 hours by hiring two additional firemen. The fire association had requested a 63-hour week for next year, dropping to a 60-hour week in 1970 and a 56-hour work week in 1971. The council made no committment for future lowering of hours.

The council also approved increasing the yearly clothing allowance for fire and policemen from $120 to $150. The fire department had requested an increase to $200 a year.

Councilmen took no action on altering the city's vacation schedule, but did ask Andersen to bring in cost figures on granting three weeks of vacation after three years of service instead of five years.

Another fire department request — pay for the Eisenhower day of mourning — was denied.

The council approved changing the city's pay periods to every other Friday rather than the current twice per month, on the 5th and 20th. They also approved a request that the day following Thanksgiving be substituted for Columbus Day as a holiday.

Longevity pay for two senior patrolmen was also rejected by the council.

The city council did approve reimbursement of unused sick leave whereby after 10 years of service, employees would receive 10 per cent pay on the unused amount upon retirement or departure from the city's payroll for any other reason.

Mayor's Pay Hike Stalled By Bettini

San Rafael City Council last night tabled until the next regular meeting a suggestion that Mayor C. Paul Bettini's pay be increased from $200 to $300 per month.

Councilman Frederick C. Robbins suggested the action but Bettini himself tabled the matter until a later date.

"I would rather that something like this came up at a regular meeting," he said.

The council was meeting in special budget session last night.

Chicago Police Elude New Trial On Beatings

CHICAGO (UPI) — Three Chicago policeman acquitted earlier this month of federal charges they violated the civil rights of a newsman during the Democratic National Convention will not be tried on state charges.

State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan yesterday said his office has concluded that prosectuion in state courts is barred by the state's double jeopardy statute.

Sgt. George Jurish, 36, and patrolmen Vincent D'amico, 23, and Edward M. Becht, 28, were charged with violating the civil rights of Chicago Daily News reported John Linstead by beating him. All were acquitted by a U.S. District Court jury June 11.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry said after the trial he was convinced the policemen had used excessive force in dealing with Linstead. But he said the matter should have been tried in the state courts on assault and battery charges.

Trustees Unhappily Studying High Bids

Marin Junior College District trustees were dismayed last night to hear that the low bid on the proposed Harlan and Science centers was about $650,000 more than expected.

Planning Director Dale A. Fleming reported that S. J. Amoroso Construction Co. of Foster City was low bidder with a price of $3,670,000 for both buildings.

He said he wasn't prepared to make any recommendation to the board on the bid, but felt it would be difficult to make any major reduction in costs.

"The other alternative would be to redesign and re-bid,"Fleming said.

In a series of salary moves, the board increased the salary of substitute teachers 9 per cent, and approved the new salary schedule for administrators representing a 7 per cent raise.

The new salary schedule will range depending upon experience for administrative assistants from $14,240 to $15,590; assistant deans and librarians, from $17,970 to $19,320; deans of instruction, dean of students, director of business and director of planning, from $20,990 to $22,340.

Trustees also approved broader health insurance coverage for all employees at a cost of $9,851.

Earlier this month the board granted a 9 per cent increase in the faculty salary schedule, and a 7 per cent increase for non-teaching employees.

Marin Junior College District Board Also:

HIRING — Authorized the hiring of James A. Webster, basketball coach at Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, as physical education instructor, at $11,438 a year; rehired Cynthia Bennett as half-time librarian at $4,286 a year; and hired Robert N. Thompson, heating and ventilation maintenance, at $778 a month.

RECLASSIFICATION — Reclassified Hollis Hardin, assistant to the business manager, on the salary schedule boosting his salary from $1,095 to $1,177 a month, by a 3-2 vote with Trustee Harry J. Moore and Charles W. Gray dissenting.

RETIREMENT AGE — Set the retirement age for adult education instructiors at the end of the school year in which they reach their 65th birthday anniversary.

LECTURE FEES — Adopted a schedule of fees to pay for lectures ranging from $20 to $50 for local speakers to groups of 60 or less to $150 to $1,000 for recognized authorities where audiences of 300 or more are expected.

MARIN CITY COURSES — Approved two courses in Marin City, basic English and high school diploma preparation, and to allow Marin City students to attend machine shop and office machine classes at the college, and authorized a summer course "Becoming a Better Neighbor Through Love for Man and Beast," starting Monday at the Manzanita Center.

NEW POSITIONS — Established the positaion of personnel officer at a salary range of $900 to $1,095 a month, and a part-time position of physics laboratory attendant.

FOR SALE — Authorized the sale of the turf of the old football field, and authorized Business Mgr. Norman Bird to negotiate with the Larkspur School District to sell two potter's wheels, declared surplus.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned until 8 p.m. Thursday at the Fine Arts Building to complete the agenda and conduct its organization meeting, and tentatively scheduled a tour of the old art building, scheduled for remodeling, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy, out of town, and Trustee Robert E. Oliver, who was ill, were absent.

Blind Get Guide To Nature Walk

SEATTLE (AP) — Three high school students who wanted to help the blind "see" the University of Washington arboretum spent hours making 100 braille copies of its "native plant walk" booklet.

The trio—Mark Johnson, Rhonda Nelson and Anne Grant—all are sightless.

The project was underwritten by the special education department of the Seattle public schools and a civic club.

$4.25 Million Budget Voted For College

Marin Junior College District trustees last night approved a tentative 1969-70 general fund budget of $4,253,211, down $12,184 from this year's estimated expenditures.

The general fund budget doesn't include the college building budget, which is listed at $5,284,397, as compared to $3,626,737, the estimated expenditure this year.

The district's tax rate is limited at 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation for the general fund and 35 cents for the building fund plus overrides, which reached 12.5 cents last year. The total tax rate was 82.5 cents.

Bird estimated there would be a 7.5 cent increase in the building fund rate, if trustees decide to levy a newly-authorized override to match state funds for capital outlay projects.

Otherwise, the tax rate wouldn't vary one cent, one way or the other, he estimated.

Bird pointed out that the tentative building budget includes $388,194 for matching funds. These projects would include $170,000 for land acquisition at the north campus and $120,000 for site development there.

Trustees discussed the tentative budget briefly with Board President Theodore C. Wellman pointing out that trustees had reviewed it in detail at workshop sessions.

Bird reported that the budget includes funds for a special election during the year if trustees decide to call one.

The district's bid for a 77-cent tax rate override increase was defeated by voters April 15, and there is a possibility that trustees might place a bond measure before voters during the 1969-70 college year.

The board is scheduled to adopt a publication budget by July 17, and hold a public hearing and adopt a final budget Aug. 7.

Teacher's Union Flays Hayakawa

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The teachers union at San Francisco State College has announced plans to go to court to have acting president S.I. Hayakawa, of Mill Valley, removed from his post.

Erwin Kelly, local president of the American Federation of Teachers, said yesterday the suit would be based on the faculty disiplinary panel's recommendation that Hayakawa be removed and "severely reprimanded" for his conduct since assuming office last year.

Kelly said Hayakawa's refusal to follow the recommendation is one of the principal reasons why he should be ousted.

Hayakawa reacted at once by denouncing the suit as evidence of the union's "extreme vindictiveness" and its "determination never to let the campus be peaceful."

Herkenhoff Handed New Acting Title

Louis H. Herkenhoff, acting president of the College of Marin for the past year, last night was appointed acting district superintendent-president for one year.

Trustees appointed Herkenhoff to the dual post after a half-hour closed session to consider other candidates.

Herkenhoff was given a new contract at $23,058 a year, up $1,508 from his past salary.

Board President Theodore C. Wellman explained that the search for a permanent superintendent-president will continue.

Rather than seeking a college president, the board will seek someone to serve in a dual role as district superintendent as well.

Trustees then approved formation of a new screening committee headed by Trustee Charles W. Gray to start the search.

The committee will consist of two board members, Gray and Wellman, two representatives of the faculty, two administrators, two representatives of nonteaching employees, and two representatives of the associated students organization on campus.

Student representatives were appointed at the request of Kimo Campbell, president of associated students.

Correct Number

The addition of two lieutenants to the Novato Fire Department will increase the number to eight instead of seven lieutenants, Fire Chief Jack Kidder said. Kidder said that he made the mistake in reporting the number of lieutenants yesterday to the Independent-Journal.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Sonoma Turkey Farmers Create Restaurant, Elegant Menu

Here is a new Sonoma County restaurant that should prove to be an interesting spot for diners-out on a tour:

Gobblers Roostaurant "By ye olde waterwheel" at 5186 Gravenstein Highway South between Cotati and Sebastopol has been opend by Fred and Silvie Vast, who have operated the Vast Turkeyland Farm for the past 18 years. Marinites will know this road better as Highway 116.

The Vasts have taken one of the erstwhile turkey buildings, completely remodeled it — and now seat about 42 diners.

The Vasts still raise turkeys on the rest of the property and continue to smoke hams, pastrami, bacon, turkey, pork loin, beef and lamb as well as sell these products in a delicatessen operation.

They also smoke suckling pigs for parties, and since the smokehouse is kept perpetually busy I imagine you can have your own meats and game smoked here as well.

All the Vast smoked foods are available at their restaurant tables, along with dinners featuring turkey as lasagne, curry, Aloha, Creole, filet sec and the regular old fashioned down-by-the-farm roast turkey with all the trimmings. Complete dinners are from $2.75 to $4.25, with smoked meats going at the higher prices. And they serve a la carte as well.

Dinners are served Thursdays and Fridays from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m.; with lunches from noon to 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays and dinners after that; and Sunday dinners from 2 p.m. A special "Thanksgiving every Thursday" with the regular $3.50 turkey dinner goes that day for $2.95.

Recipes for all dishes are those of Silvie Vast herself, followed by chef Ernest Galbraith. Wines, champagnes and beers are served, with the biggest play given to Sonoma and Napa County wines, naturally.

Keep your eyes open for the old water wheel as you drive up Gravenstein Highway.

IT'S PROBABLY DIFFICULT for many former diners at the Old Viking in Lagunitas to get used to the idea these days that reservations for dinner are now advisable on most occasions, and definitely required on others.

This could be annoying to those who may remember when there was no difficulty getting an immediate table, but things have changed. It's not snobbishness but simple arithmetic. There are two dining rooms but they are small and seating is still limited.

People who enjoy a small, intimate place to dine must also accept the chance of everything being taken when they arrive. They can't have things both ways in view of the Old Viking's almost phenomenal rise in popularity.

Once reconciled to this, there is no reason why you shouldn't enjoy your dinner here as much as you ever did. The menu is virtually the same now as when the restaurant first opened. Fewer than a dozen entrees make up the entire list, indicating that an endless variety of selections is not necessarily needed to satisfy the average diner-out.

Over a period of time I've tried most of the Scandinavian specials which are the big attraction and I can't say that I've grown tired of any one of them. My current favorite is the jagar schnitzel with fresh mushroom sauce.

If you are the type that must have a martini or highball before dinner, forget the Old Viking or do your drinking first. It doesn't have that kind of liquor license, but Matts Mattsson performs a few tricks with wines, champagnes, juices and vermouths that will amaze and satisfy most imbibers.

Make a reservation for any night but Wednesday (it's closed then). You won't regret it.

REOPENED UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP at 1311 Bridgeway Sausalito after being closed for the past six months is the Lighthouse, formerly known as Lighthouse Grill and Paul's Lighthouse Grill.

New proprietor Bob Martin has remodeled, repainted and redecorated and is keeping open every day except Sunday from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. for breakfast (served all day long), lunch and early dinner. Short orders, a la carte items and one hot daily special are on the menu.

Bob was formerly co-owner of Patty's of Sausalito, but recently sold out to his partner Phil Kabich.

DOMINIC'S in San Rafael has been selected by the Marin Shakespeare Festival as its "official" restaurant for the coming season as a result of its long support of cultural activities through its art museum, charity golf tournament and interest in Bay Area theatrical undertakings.

Throughout the season, which opens July 17 and offers performances of Richard II, Midsummer Night's Dream and Two Gentlemen from Verona, festival madrigal singers will entertain various times at Dominic's.

McKEE'S HOFBRAU in San Rafael will open Sunday in a day-long benefit for Herb Holzmann, widely known Marin waiter and restaurant employee, who is extremely ill. Jim McKee will start things at noon, with all money raised from the bar and a special buffet contributed to Herb.

Besides working at McKee's, Herb will be remembered for his years at Rubini's.

THE COSCARATS — Raymond, Eugenie and Johnny — were expected back at Le Chalet Basque in Santa Venetia yesterday after a month vacation in France. You should find them there this weekend.

Also Sunday brunches were scheduled to be renewed again on June 29.

DENNY'S RESTAURANTS has lined up a piece of property on Paradise Drive, Corte Madera for another Marin restaurant. No timetable on construction has been posted.

FOR ROAD TRAVELERS, the Dodge news magazine for July has some pointers on how to choose a good restaurant along the way.

There is no one simple indicator, but Dodge suggests these checks: Is there a parking lot adjoining? This may indicate a well established, well patronized restaurant. While checking this, look over the number of local rather than out of state automobiles; if the place is good the local people will patronize it.

Recommending auto club and gasoline company guides carry some weight — but you can try out their judgment for size by matching recommendations in your home nieghborhood with your own experiences first. Service club signs are another clue — Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and others. These organizations look for local quality restaurants and leave them if they don't measure up.

Food in chain restaruants is usually uniform and if you have had a satisfactory experience at one place it's worth trying the next one.

Without seeing the menu in advance you'll have to resort to your own shrewd judgment as to whether a restaurant is in your budget bracket. Obviously you will need a full pocketbook when you find uniformed doormen, name entertainers, lavish marquees, plush American and foreign automobiles in the parking lot or other signs of the good life.

"Truck stops" are a fair indication of good food at reasonable prices, but they may not be the place for you if you are looking for a quiet, leisurely place to dine.

THE ENTIRE REGULAR DINNER MENU will be served from noon every Sunday at Cafe Bon Vin, San Anselmo. Sunday champagne brunches are being suspended until September.

Owner Fred Cherry will represent the North Bay Wine and Food Society at the international convention of wine and food societies in London next October.

Suspect Denies Check Charges

Paul Vincent Zuick, 27, of Davenport, Santa Cruz County, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to two charges of possessing other people's checks with intent to defraud and one charge of passing a bad check.

A preliminary hearing was set for July 15.

Judge Peter Allen Smith released Zuick on his own recognizance.

Judge Dismisses Arrest Charges

Various charges arising from an arrest by the California Highway Patrol were dismissed yesterday by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. of Marin Municipal Court against Delbert C. Clark, 29, of San Francisco.

Clark had been accused of possessing methamphetamine and another person's credit card as well as a misdemeanor count of possessing a hypodermic needle. The case was dismissed for insufficient evidence.

Another man arrested with Clark, Richard L. Givens, 28, also of San Francisco, has been bound over to Superior Court on charge of auto theft.

State To Pioneer In Criminal Data Plans

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California will serve as the coordinating state in a six-state, $1 million project to develop the prototype of a new computerized criminal justice statistics system.

Kai Martensen, executive officer of the California Council on riminal Justice, announced yesterday that Arizona, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota and New York will join California in the 14-month project.

The states will develop a standardized record system on offenders, containing information on arrests, results of trials, whether probation was granted, prison sentences, time served in prison, date of release, and subsequent arrests or violation of parole.

The effort will be financed by a $600,000 federal grant and $400,000 from the participating states.

The Mariner 2 spacecraft sent data from the planet Venus across 36 million miles of space using only three watts of power — about the amount used for an ordinary flashlight bulb.

Berkeley Trial Evidence Barred

BERKELEY (UPI)—Municipal Judge Floyd Talbott yesterday granted a motion to suppress certain evidence against demonstrators being tried for offenses during the May Peoples Park riots.

The judge said that fingerprints, photographs and statements taken from nine defendants when they were caught in a roundup of almost 500 persons May 22 may not be used in their trials. The arrests were made without warrant and the crimes allegedly committed were not witnessed by the arresting officer, the judge said.

The nine, whose trial begins today, are among 328 to be tried in groups. Others among the total of 482 persons arrested at the time have had the charges against them dropped.

WINE DISCOVERIES at CAFE BON VIN

WINE, FOOD, AND . . .

Home made wine vinegar — white and red — flavored (and decorated) with lovely sprigs of savory herbs. A dozen flavors, plus the incomparable Bouquet Garni, are sold here "to go." Special, $1.00 large bottle.

Home made wine jellies . . . unusual combinations such as pear and mint and sherry, pineapple and muscatel, and a dozen others. The jellies are prepared by an old-fashioned lady who makes such flavors as her whims allow. She has never disappointed us or our customers. Special price, all flavors, $1.00 jar.

THE GOOD LIFE!

At Cafe Bon Vin, there is a dedication to civilized pleasure not often found in American restaurants. Our guests quickly feel this spirit; and dinner becomes a leisurely pursuit of the pleasure which properly chosen wine adds to food, and properly-prepared food adds to wine. A dining experience without compare, so many tell us. And this appreciation continues to be our greatest reward.

State To Pioneer In Criminal Data Plans

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California will serve as the coordinating state in a six-state, $1 million project to develop the prototype of a new computerized criminal justice statistics system.

Kai Martensen, executive officer of the California Council on riminal Justice, announced yesterday that Arizona, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota and New York will join California in the 14-month project.

The states will develop a standardized record system on offenders, containing information on arrests, results of trials, whether probation was granted, prison sentences, time served in prison, date of release, and subsequent arrests or violation of parole.

The effort will be financed by a $600,000 federal grant and $400,000 from the participating states.

The Mariner 2 spacecraft sent data from the planet Venus across 36 million miles of space using only three watts of power — about the amount used for an ordinary flashlight bulb.

Berkeley Trial Evidence Barred

BERKELEY (UPI)—Municipal Judge Floyd Talbott yesterday granted a motion to suppress certain evidence against demonstrators being tried for offenses during the May Peoples Park riots.

The judge said that fingerprints, photographs and statements taken from nine defendants when they were caught in a roundup of almost 500 persons May 22 may not be used in their trials. The arrests were made without warrant and the crimes allegedly committed were not witnessed by the arresting officer, the judge said.

The nine, whose trial begins today, are among 328 to be tried in groups. Others among the total of 482 persons arrested at the time have had the charges against them dropped.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Strike Would Destroy Trust, Understanding

The fact that the county is "preparing" for a possible strike by county probation and social workers next Tuesday should not be construed to mean that the county concedes the legality of such a strike.

Neither should it be taken as a sign that the county has given up all hope of reaching accord on a new contract to replace the existing agreement which expires on Monday.

County negotiators have expressed hope, and so has the spokesman for the 120 employees in the two unions, that a new agreement can be reached by deadline or that the present contract extended so that normal governmental functions can proceed along with the negotiations.

Even if a strike by county employees were found to be legal, a fact which is disputed by the county counsel, we would hope that the county's pioneering efforts at employee relations will not be greeted with the rude rebuke of a walkout.

A strike, coupled with a crippling of the two departments (public social services and probation) most concerned with human and social needs, would hurt, not only orderly government but more importantly those in greatest need of daily attention from experienced social and probation workers.

In the opinion of County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, a strike by either group is illegal and a direct threat to the public interest.

There is no decision of the California Supreme Court that resolves the question of the public employees' right to strike. However, there are lower court decisions which tend to support the county counsel's opinion, particularly when public interest is at stake.

Legal precedents have been established, enjoining teachers from striking. Under federal law, a strike by federal employees is illegal.

A recent superior court decision in San Diego County did rule that county employees have the right to strike. But this is still to be tested in higher courts.

A big majority of Marin County's 1,200 employees have come to terms with the county on new contracts for 1969-70, with a five per cent salary increase next month and 2.5 per cent cost-of-living raise in January. Thus far, negotiations between the county team and employee groups have been conducted in an atmosphere of mutual trust and understanding.

That trust and understanding would be destroyed if the county were to grant to the holdouts concessions beyond those given to the big majority.

It would be ironic indeed if the county, which is leading the state in the field of employee relations and in recognizing public employees' rights to collective bargaining, were to suffer a slap in the face for its pioneering efforts.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Little Chance Of Reduction In $6.2 Billion State Budget

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Once again the senate of the State of California has produced a "record" budget for the taxpayers of the state to finance during the 1969-70 fiscal year. This time, the figure reached $6,198,431,922, which in anybody's book, is a lot of money.

Just how much money it amounts to can be figured roughly on the basis of per capita costs. Assuming the population of California is 20 million, the state's expenditures will amount next fiscal year to approximately $410 for every man, woman and child in the state.

Thus, for the head of a household with an average of three dependents, the per capita tax next year will be approximately $1,640, or more than $136 per month. This is figured, of course, on the basis that taxes are equal, which they aren't.

WHEN THIS sort of a state tax bill is piled on top of local government taxes, and federal taxes, it is not difficult to see why inflation grows at such a rapid rate.

For every dollar of the $6,198 million has to come out of the taxpayers' earnings in one form or another, and the relation of taxes to the economic welfare of the citizen is more apparent when the astronomical figure is broken down into thousands, which the average person can understand.

The 1969-70 budget does not stand much chance of being reduced in appreciable manner, despite the fact that the Senate, in adopting it, brought the total down more than $27 million from the request of Gov. Ronald Reagan when he submitted it to the legislature.

It goes to the Assembly for approval. First, it must be adopted by the Assembly, which already earlier in the session, refused adoption of its own version of the governor's budget.

THIS REFUSAL resulted from delaying action by the Democrats, who claim they want a specific tax reform program before approving the next year's expenditure program. And the situation has not changed in this respect. There is no approved specific program of tax reform, and from all indications, there is not likely to be one before the June 30 deadline for passing the budget.

So unless some Democratic votes are secured for passage in the assembly, there will be no budget.

All of which keeps the operating departments of government on pins and needles, including the school districts throughout the state, which are now fixing tax rates for the next fiscal year.

HOWEVER, SHOULD the Assembly pass the Senate version with amendments, the document will go to free conference, where three senators and three assemblymen will reconcile the figures, and pass it back to both houses for approval.

All this takes time, and the indications are now that if the legislature meets the June 30 deadline, some fast work will have to be effected.

This situation is not unique; it happens almost every year. The legislature has had the budget for five months, the Assembly ways and means committee, and the Senate finance committee, have worked long hours, but still the dissidents manage to hold it up until the last minute.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Remember 'Purge' Of Dr. Upton

The purge of Dr. Upton, a qualified, experienced, dedicated member of the Marin County Planning Commission, by Supervisor McInnis, should be remembered by Marin County First District residents. They have only to look at San Rafael to see what happened during the many years Mr. McInnis was a member of the City Council and mayor of that city.

Unless they wish to see the county San Rafaelized into a similar but larger area of messy mediocrity, let them register their opposition when they go to the polls at the next Supervisorial election.

Ban The Use Of DDT Pesticide

As a marine biologist and citizen concerned with the wise use of the natural environment, I urge your readers to support legislation banning the use of DDT at state and national levels.

DDT is an effective pesticide, but studies have shown that it is a "hard" pesticide, one that accumulates in the tissues of organism feeding in DDT-contaminated environments because it does not decompose readily under the influence of either weathering or biological activity. The amount of DDT in the tissues of some commercially important fish has already reached the level, in certain areas, where the fish are considered unfit for human consumption according to food and drug regulations. The toxicity of DDT, affecting reproduction, has been implicated in damage to populations of crabs, shrimp, and oysters.

Apart from pragmatic consideration of the effects of DDT on food organisms, man should be loathe to permit, for the sake of short term advantages, the use of a pesticide which in the long run promises to impoverish his total environment by diminishing the number and variety of organisms which can live in it.

The use of DDT must eventually be banned by international agreement, but a step in the right direction may be taken by writing your state senator and assemblyman urging support of California State Senate Bill 1430.

Apology Due For Houseboat Raid

In regard to Monday's raid on the houseboat community, I believe at least a personal apology is in order, from whoever is responsible, to Piro Caro. Nobody with a rudimentary grasp of the situation and personalities would ever accuse Mr. Caro of advocating violence or making cowardly threats by mail. His "resistance" to the county, for principles dear to him, has always been through administrative channels and legal action (so far successful) in the courts.

It seems that the county is reacting to rebuffs in the same manner they insinuate the houseboaters are acting, that is, emotionally and outside the province of due process. For men who hold positions of serious public trust to act in such an irrational manner is unthinkable. To direct such actions against a senior citizen of unquestionable personal integrity is frightening.

It is high time this whole non-issue is laid to rest.

Certainly the money the county is now spending and proposes to spend in its actions against the houseboaters can be better spent on programs that benefit the people of Marin County, such as education and improvements to real streets.

This might also be a good time for responsible men to question the use of force as an expediency in carrying out official policy. The system can certainly stand the occasional threatening letter — it cannot stand ill-considered use of its police power.

Developer Praised For Neat Road Job

I would like to compliment the developers of the new subdivision presently being graded and excavated above Bell Lane here in Tamalpais Valley. I am only sorry that I don't know the name of either the developers or the firm responsible for the roadwork.

Our end of the little valley is a very windy place, and it could be pure hell (with all of the earth-moving going on) were it not for the fact that they constantly wet down the hillside all day long and even clean and hose off the streets that their heavy equipment move in and out on daily. Such professionalism is a far cry indeed from some of the amateurish and unsightly work being done in the neighborhood by other interests.

Our compliments on a job well done.

Preserve Charm Of Magnificent Creek

"Skunk cabbage" is the name of a western native plant, and is attached to a stream in California's northwest. Above this clear creek rise arrow-columns.

Skunk Cabbage Creek possesses quality and location. Positioned most prominently beside the Redwood Highway, it is a portal of the Redwood National Park of which it is not now, but should be, a foremost part. The perhaps prosaic name gives no indication of the magnificence through which it flows.

Little Skunk Cabbage Creek is too fine to let its transparent flow become fouled, and flanked by great stumps caught in a mesh of torn earth.

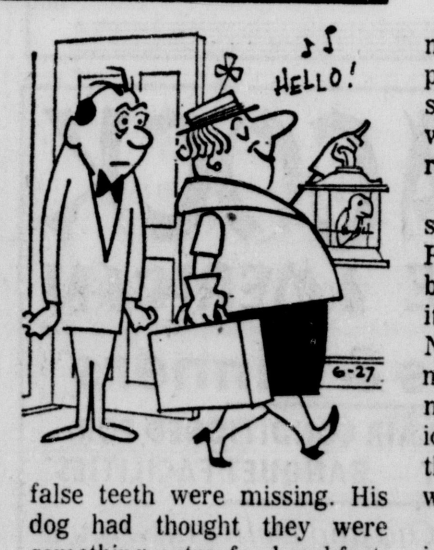
TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

Fellow at a neighborhood bar was complaining to all and sundry because his mother-in-law had moved in with him. "I've seen her," consoled a friend, "and she's not bad at all. Worse things could happen to you." "I know," mourned the fellow, "but I wish at least that she had waited till after the ceremony!"

One day last month a rumor spread like wildfire in Norwich, England that the town had an animal that might rival the Loch Ness monster as a tourist attraction. It was nothing less than a Labrador dog with two complete sets of teeth — and the resultant fixed grin that sent observers screaming into the highway. It was then, alas, that the dog's owner turned up to report that his false teeth were missing. His dog had thought they were something extra for breakfast, and they had become lodged in his mouth. He was caught sunning himself outside Collum's butcher shop, and the teeth, unbroken, returned to where they belonged.



THE DRUMMONDS

Nixon Counts On South Viet To Assume Brunt Of Fighting

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON — Behind Clark Clifford's proposal to withdraw all U. S. combat ground troops from Vietnam in 18 months and the President's "hope" to do better lies a riskful dilemma which Mr. Nixon must face.

Horn One of the dilemma is that, if South Vietnam can't take over most of the fighting by next year, U. S. casualties will continue at a level the American people will not accept.

Home-front pressure could well be so great that the President would feel compelled to abandon the war, whatever the consequences.

Horn Two is that, if American casualties aren't radically reduced in the coming months, the peace-at-any-price advocates will be hounding Richard Nixon as powerfully as they did Lyndon Johnson.

SUCH PRESSURE could well be so great that Mr. Nixon might feel he had no other choice at the Paris talks but to capitulate to a counterfeit peace, however labeled.

In expressing "hope" that he can "beat Mr. Clifford's timetable," the President appears to be putting all his bets on another hope —that the South Vietnamese armed forces, now better led, better trained and better equipped, will before the end of 1970 be able to successfully bear the brunt of the major fighting.

If it turns out that way — and this is the unknown quantity —the planned withdrawal will not precipitate a Viet Cong victory but will so reduce American casualties to allow Mr. Nixon the needed time in Paris to get a negotiated peace.

This is the rationale of the Clifford plan, and this is why the President hopes that his timetable for withdrawal will be even faster.

SINCE HIS PRESS conference, the President has taken pains to make it clear that while his goal is the same as Clifford's, his approach to achieving it is different.

Mr. Nixon seeks mutual withdrawal, Clifford unilateral withdrawal.

Mr. Nixon seeks mutual cease-fire, Clifford unilateral cease-fire.

Mr. Nixon seeks fulfillment of one or more of his conditions as the basis for a large withdrawal: (1) progress toward a negotiated peace; (2) South Vietnamese combat readiness; (3) withdrawal of some North Vietnamese troops. Clifford proposes a large U. S. withdrawal even if none of these conditions is met.

Mr. Nixon is working closely and co-operatively with President Thieu. Clifford seems to take a very casual if not disdainful attitude toward the Thieu government.

BUT NEITHER the President nor Clifford would leave the entire burden of the fighting to the South Vietnamese. Clifford stated very carefully that he was proposing the withdrawal of "all ground combat troops" by the end of 1970. He proposed to leave U. S. air power and other support which could give South Vietnam military dominance.

Undoubtedly, the extreme scuttle-and-run, peace-at-any-price advocates would scream at even this much U. S. support for Vietnam, but the President and Clifford apparently believe that a radical reduction of U. S. casualties would deprive the extremists of decisive public support.

THE PRESIDENT'S Democratic opponents are quite obviously out to capitalize on what must be put down as an unwise Nixon press conference statement. Over-optimism about Vietnam has been the pit into which many U. S. officials have fallen, and Mr. Nixon put one foot into it by publicly "hoping" to beat Clifford's timetable.

If he can elude the horns of his dilemma, he will have performed a near miracle. If he cannot, both he and the nation will be in trouble, and Vietnam will be lost.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Military Dubious About All-Volunteer Army

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's plan for an all-volunteer Army, after the Vietnam war, has been taking quite a drubbing behind the closed doors of executive congressional hearings.

Top military leaders have expressed personal doubts about the President's plan for ending the military draft. Many-starred skeptics include Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the former commander in Vietnam who is now Chief-of-Staff of the Army.

President Nixon proposed the all-volunteer Army concept during last year's presidential campaign but said such a move must await the end of the Vietnam fighting. For the present, the concept is under study in the Pentagon.

PROJECTED HIGH costs of attracting manpower for an all-volunteer force are a major hurdle cited by military leaders in their assessments. The comment that, even after Vietnam, worldwide U. S. commitments will require a sizeable military back-up.

The generals say many volunteers now join up because of the draft's hot breath. They are concerned about what will happen without that persuasive influence.

The military brass also ask what is to serve as a trained manpower pool for vital military reserve forces after the services stop enlisting and training more than 800,000 citizen-soldiers every year.

All these reservations are hedged somewhat, by the military spokesmen, with notations that the whole question is still under study. Their doubts are expressed quite properly in response to direct questions by members of the House and Senate.

Under ground rules long insisted upon by congressional leaders, military spokesmen are pledged to give their candid, personal views in response to such questions, even if their answers put them at odds with their civilian bosses.

PRACTICAL PROBLEMS — Wheeler has testified that, before the Vietnam war, at least half of the enlistments in the Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps resulted "under the incentive of being drafted."

"If you were going back to a force of pre-Vietnam, somewhere around 2.5 million men, I personally don't think you could maintain such a force by an all-volunteer means within any reasonable fiscal program that you might lay down," the General declared.

Wheeler conceded that the implications of an all-volunteer force are difficult to assess. He said, however, that he was basing his comments on his experience with the draft and military manpower problems over the years.

Westmoreland told one congressional committee that present U. S. commitments will require a post-war force of a size which would need "substantial inducements" to man with volunteers. He thought it would be possible "theoretically" to attract the necessary manpower, but he warned that there would be "practical" problems.

The former Vietnam commander said the Army should try for more volunteer, long-term enlistments. He suggested, however, that "the selective service machinery would have to continue, in order to provide the incentive to volunteer. . . ."

Legal precedents have been established, enjoining teachers from striking. Under federal law, a strike by federal employees is illegal.

A recent superior court decision in San Diego County did rule that county employees have the right to strike. But this is still to be tested in higher courts.

A big majority of Marin County's 1,200 employees have come to terms with the county on new contracts for 1969-70, with a five per cent salary increase next month and 2.5 per cent cost-of-living raise in January. Thus far, negotiations between the county team and employee groups have been conducted in an atmosphere of mutual trust and understanding.

That trust and understanding would be destroyed if the county were to grant to the holdouts concessions beyond those given to the big majority.

It would be ironic indeed if the county, which is leading the state in the field of employee relations and in recognizing public employees' rights to collective bargaining, were to suffer a slap in the face for its pioneering efforts.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Little Chance Of Reduction In $6.2 Billion State Budget

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Once again the senate of the State of California has produced a "record" budget for the taxpayers of the state to finance during the 1969-70 fiscal year. This time, the figure reached $6,198,431,922, which in anybody's book, is a lot of money.

Just how much money it amounts to can be figured roughly on the basis of per capita costs. Assuming the population of California is 20 million, the state's expenditures will amount next fiscal year to approximately $410 for every man, woman and child in the state.

Thus, for the head of a household with an average of three dependents, the per capita tax next year will be approximately $1,640, or more than $136 per month. This is figured, of course, on the basis that taxes are equal, which they aren't.

WHEN THIS sort of a state tax bill is piled on top of local government taxes, and federal taxes, it is not difficult to see why inflation grows at such a rapid rate.

For every dollar of the $6,198 million has to come out of the taxpayers' earnings in one form or another, and the relation of taxes to the economic welfare of the citizen is more apparent when the astronomical figure is broken down into thousands, which the average person can understand.

The 1969-70 budget does not stand much chance of being reduced in appreciable manner, despite the fact that the Senate, in adopting it, brought the total down more than $27 million from the request of Gov. Ronald Reagan when he submitted it to the legislature.

It goes to the Assembly for approval. First, it must be adopted by the Assembly, which already earlier in the session, refused adoption of its own version of the governor's budget.

THIS REFUSAL resulted from delaying action by the Democrats, who claim they want a specific tax reform program before approving the next year's expenditure program. And the situation has not changed in this respect. There is no approved specific program of tax reform, and from all indications, there is not likely to be one before the June 30 deadline for passing the budget.

So unless some Democratic votes are secured for passage in the assembly, there will be no budget.

All of which keeps the operating departments of government on pins and needles, including the school districts throughout the state, which are now fixing tax rates for the next fiscal year.

HOWEVER, SHOULD the Assembly pass the Senate version with amendments, the document will go to free conference, where three senators and three assemblymen will reconcile the figures, and pass it back to both houses for approval.

All this takes time, and the indications are now that if the legislature meets the June 30 deadline, some fast work will have to be effected.

This situation is not unique; it happens almost every year. The legislature has had the budget for five months, the Assembly ways and means committee, and the Senate finance committee, have worked long hours, but still the dissidents manage to hold it up until the last minute.

Remember 'Purge' Of Dr. Upton

The purge of Dr. Upton, a qualified, experienced, dedicated member of the Marin County Planning Commission, by Supervisor McInnis, should be remembered by Marin County First District residents. Ban The Use Of DDT Pesticide

As a marine biologist and citizen concerned with the wise use of the natural environment, I urge your readers to support legislation banning the use of DDT at state and national levels.

DDT is an effective pesticide, but studies have shown that it is a "hard" pesticide, one that accumulates in the tissues of organism feeding in DDT-contaminated environments because it does not decompose readily under the influence of either weathering or biological activity. The amount of DDT in the tissues of some commercially important fish has already reached the level, in certain areas, where the fish are considered unfit for human consumption according to food and drug regulations. The toxicity of DDT, affecting reproduction, has been implicated in damage to populations of crabs, shrimp, and oysters.

Apart from pragmatic consideration of the effects of DDT on food organisms, man should be loathe to permit, for the sake of short term advantages, the use of a pesticide which in the long run promises to impoverish his total environment by diminishing the number and variety of organisms which can live in it.

The use of DDT must eventually be banned by international agreement, but a step in the right direction may be taken by writing your state senator and assemblyman urging support of California State Senate Bill 1430.

Apology Due For Houseboat Raid

In regard to Monday's raid on the houseboat community, I believe at least a personal apology is in order, from whoever is responsible, to Piro Caro. Nobody with a rudimentary grasp of the situation and personalities would ever accuse Mr. Caro of advocating violence or making cowardly threats by mail. His "resistance" to the county, for principles dear to him, has always been through administrative channels and legal action (so far successful) in the courts.

It seems that the county is reacting to rebuffs in the same manner they insinuate the houseboaters are acting, that is, emotionally and outside the province of due process. For men who hold positions of serious public trust to act in such an irrational manner is unthinkable. To direct such actions against a senior citizen of unquestionable personal integrity is frightening.

It is high time this whole non-issue is laid to rest.

Certainly the money the county is now spending and proposes to spend in its actions against the houseboaters can be better spent on programs that benefit the people of Marin County, such as education and improvements to real streets.

This might also be a good time for responsible men to question the use of force as an expediency in carrying out official policy. The system can certainly stand the occasional threatening letter — it cannot stand ill-considered use of its police power.

Developer Praised For Neat Road Job

I would like to compliment the developers of the new subdivision presently being graded and excavated above Bell Lane here in Tamalpais Valley. I am only sorry that I don't know the name of either the developers or the firm responsible for the roadwork.

Our end of the little valley is a very windy place, and it could be pure hell (with all of the earth-moving going on) were it not for the fact that they constantly wet down the hillside all day long and even clean and hose off the streets that their heavy equipment move in and out on daily. Such professionalism is a far cry indeed from some of the amateurish and unsightly work being done in the neighborhood by other interests.

Our compliments on a job well done.

Preserve Charm Of Magnificent Creek

"Skunk cabbage" is the name of a western native plant, and is attached to a stream in California's northwest. Above this clear creek rise arrow-columns.

Skunk Cabbage Creek possesses quality and location. Positioned most prominently beside the Redwood Highway, it is a portal of the Redwood National Park of which it is not now, but should be, a foremost part. The perhaps prosaic name gives no indication of the magnificence through which it flows.

Little Skunk Cabbage Creek is too fine to let its transparent flow become fouled, and flanked by great stumps caught in a mesh of torn earth.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

Fellow at a neighborhood bar was complaining to all and sundry because his mother-in-law had moved in with him. "I've seen her," consoled a friend, "and she's not bad at all. Worse things could happen to you." "I know," mourned the fellow, "but I wish at least that she had waited till after the ceremony!"

One day last month a rumor spread like wildfire in Norwich, England that the town had an animal that might rival the Loch Ness monster as a tourist attraction. It was nothing less than a Labrador dog with two complete sets of teeth — and the resultant fixed grin that sent observers screaming into the highway. It was then, alas, that the dog's owner turned up to report that his false teeth were missing. His dog had thought they were something extra for breakfast, and they had become lodged in his mouth. He was caught sunning himself outside Collum's butcher shop, and the teeth, unbroken, returned to where they belonged.

Nixon Counts On South Viet To Assume Brunt Of Fighting

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON — Behind Clark Clifford's proposal to withdraw all U. S. combat ground troops from Vietnam in 18 months and the President's "hope" to do better lies a riskful dilemma which Mr. Nixon must face.

Horn One of the dilemma is that, if South Vietnam can't take over most of the fighting by next year, U. S. casualties will continue at a level the American people will not accept.

Home-front pressure could well be so great that the President would feel compelled to abandon the war, whatever the consequences.

Horn Two is that, if American casualties aren't radically reduced in the coming months, the peace-at-any-price advocates will be hounding Richard Nixon as powerfully as they did Lyndon Johnson.

SUCH PRESSURE could well be so great that Mr. Nixon might feel he had no other choice at the Paris talks but to capitulate to a counterfeit peace, however labeled.

In expressing "hope" that he can "beat Mr. Clifford's timetable," the President appears to be putting all his bets on another hope —that the South Vietnamese armed forces, now better led, better trained and better equipped, will before the end of 1970 be able to successfully bear the brunt of the major fighting.

If it turns out that way — and this is the unknown quantity —the planned withdrawal will not precipitate a Viet Cong victory but will so reduce American casualties to allow Mr. Nixon the needed time in Paris to get a negotiated peace.

This is the rationale of the Clifford plan, and this is why the President hopes that his timetable for withdrawal will be even faster.

SINCE HIS PRESS conference, the President has taken pains to make it clear that while his goal is the same as Clifford's, his approach to achieving it is different.

Mr. Nixon seeks mutual withdrawal, Clifford unilateral withdrawal.

Mr. Nixon seeks mutual cease-fire, Clifford unilateral cease-fire.

Mr. Nixon seeks fulfillment of one or more of his conditions as the basis for a large withdrawal: (1) progress toward a negotiated peace; (2) South Vietnamese combat readiness; (3) withdrawal of some North Vietnamese troops. Clifford proposes a large U. S. withdrawal even if none of these conditions is met.

Mr. Nixon is working closely and co-operatively with President Thieu. Clifford seems to take a very casual if not disdainful attitude toward the Thieu government.

BUT NEITHER the President nor Clifford would leave the entire burden of the fighting to the South Vietnamese. Clifford stated very carefully that he was proposing the withdrawal of "all ground combat troops" by the end of 1970. He proposed to leave U. S. air power and other support which could give South Vietnam military dominance.

Undoubtedly, the extreme scuttle-and-run, peace-at-any-price advocates would scream at even this much U. S. support for Vietnam, but the President and Clifford apparently believe that a radical reduction of U. S. casualties would deprive the extremists of decisive public support.

THE PRESIDENT'S Democratic opponents are quite obviously out to capitalize on what must be put down as an unwise Nixon press conference statement. Over-optimism about Vietnam has been the pit into which many U. S. officials have fallen, and Mr. Nixon put one foot into it by publicly "hoping" to beat Clifford's timetable.

If he can elude the horns of his dilemma, he will have performed a near miracle. If he cannot, both he and the nation will be in trouble, and Vietnam will be lost.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Military Dubious About All-Volunteer Army

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's plan for an all-volunteer Army, after the Vietnam war, has been taking quite a drubbing behind the closed doors of executive congressional hearings.

Top military leaders have expressed personal doubts about the President's plan for ending the military draft. Many-starred skeptics include Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the former commander in Vietnam who is now Chief-of-Staff of the Army.

President Nixon proposed the all-volunteer Army concept during last year's presidential campaign but said such a move must await the end of the Vietnam fighting. For the present, the concept is under study in the Pentagon.

PROJECTED HIGH costs of attracting manpower for an all-volunteer force are a major hurdle cited by military leaders in their assessments. The comment that, even after Vietnam, worldwide U. S. commitments will require a sizeable military back-up.

The generals say many volunteers now join up because of the draft's hot breath. They are concerned about what will happen without that persuasive influence.

The military brass also ask what is to serve as a trained manpower pool for vital military reserve forces after the services stop enlisting and training more than 800,000 citizen-soldiers every year.

All these reservations are hedged somewhat, by the military spokesmen, with notations that the whole question is still under study. Their doubts are expressed quite properly in response to direct questions by members of the House and Senate.

Under ground rules long insisted upon by congressional leaders, military spokesmen are pledged to give their candid, personal views in response to such questions, even if their answers put them at odds with their civilian bosses.

PRACTICAL PROBLEMS — Wheeler has testified that, before the Vietnam war, at least half of the enlistments in the Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps resulted "under the incentive of being drafted."

"If you were going back to a force of pre-Vietnam, somewhere around 2.5 million men, I personally don't think you could maintain such a force by an all-volunteer means within any reasonable fiscal program that you might lay down," the General declared.

Wheeler conceded that the implications of an all-volunteer force are difficult to assess. He said, however, that he was basing his comments on his experience with the draft and military manpower problems over the years.

Westmoreland told one congressional committee that present U. S. commitments will require a post-war force of a size which would need "substantial inducements" to man with volunteers. He thought it would be possible "theoretically" to attract the necessary manpower, but he warned that there would be "practical" problems.

The former Vietnam commander said the Army should try for more volunteer, long-term enlistments. He suggested, however, that "the selective service machinery would have to continue, in order to provide the incentive to volunteer. . . ."

If City Donates For Fireworks It Wants Credit For The Boom

City councils can be just as vain as individuals. Well, not vain, maybe, but anxious to see their good deeds recorded.

One reason the Sausalito council lopped $250 Tuesday from its contribution to the Fourth of July fireworks display was that councilmen felt the city never gets any credit for its contribution.

Councilmen said the chamber of commerce and Sausalito Artists and Merchants send out publicity about the fireworks, but don't mention that the city puts up half the cost.

One councilman went on to suggest that instead of a city contribution, the chamber should do something for Sausalito.

With that, they cut the fireworks money to $500. The chamber will have to find the remaining $1,000 in its own pocket or those of Sausalito Artists and Merchants, or Strawberry Shopping Center, which are helping foot the fireworks.

A LOT of good things are happening in Marin City this summer. An Oakland troupe presented "Back to Black" early this month at the Manzanita Center, and now a group called Black Women, Inc., has started a summer black drama workshop.

The Marin City Mothers' Guild is raising money with its second annual festival from 11 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church. The summer youth program of the Economic Opportunity office has started, and the Neighborhood Youth Corps job program is starting for youths 16 or older who lack high school diplomas.

The YWCA is sponsoring a Saturday afternoon program at Manzanita Center for girls from 7 to 11 with nature trips scheduled to the ocean, woods and museums.

An expanded secretarial training program is starting. A Memorial Day barbecue drew more than 200 people.

There are other things too, like the rash of grass fires believed set by children, but the good things somehow aren't noticed very often. If they were, maybe people would stop thinking of Marin City as "somewhere else" and start thinking of it as the town next door.

It's only an impertinent question, but why is it county officials are so worried about the hazard at Gate 5 from rotten electrical wiring, but unworried about hazards from cutting off the juice, like loss of heat, bilge pump power and refrigeration? That's what gate 5 residents are asking.

THE SAUSALITO City Council Tuesday sounded like nervous parents coaching a daughter for her first dance. In a sense, they were — the Sausalito teen group was seeking approval to hold a rock dance at Martin Luther King School.

Councilman Robin Sweeny was afraid dance promotion would attract a horde of outsiders who might make trouble. Mayor Earl N. Dunphy wanted to check the list of chaperones, and said he would show up during the dance to make sure the chaperones were there. (The dance will be held July 3 or July 10, incidentally.)

The council was plainly apprehensive Sausalito might suffer the fate of Fairfax and other cities where dances have led to trouble, but teen recreation director Richard Paris was able to reassure councilmen things would be kept under control.

Like teens chafing under a parental curfew, the youth group who came to the council with Paris seemed restive under council questioning. They were cool enough to keep quiet and let their representative Paris do the talking, which is more than many adult applicants do at city hall.

To an outsider, the questions sounded less like nagging than like a concern that things should go well at the dance.

Whatever the teens think, it's nice to know someone cares enough about them to ask questions before handing them a responsibility.

Where Is Transportation Study, Or Transit District's Report?

Fusselman

"Supervisors Pass Record High Budget." It wasn't much of a story, as far as space to tell it goes: Single column — six and a half inches. It was on the front page all right, where people could read it. You might have missed it though. It said: "The Marin County Board of Supervisors today (Tuesday) approved a record spending program of $34.3 million next fiscal year, up about $4.6 million from the present budget. . . . "

"The supervisors completed deliberations two weeks ago." When I read that, I had just finished looking over my files of County Comments, that I had bought space for in the I-J, to express my views and concerns when I was supervisor.

IN THE ONE of August 11, 1962, these are some of the things I wrote about: "The hearing is scheduled to begin next Monday at 9 a.m. It may legally continue for ten days. (This was on the preliminary budget). What usually happens is that one or two people appear and as a result the meeting is closed the first day."

"I have a deep conviction that the tax paying public (and how few are not) should be urged to come in and talk to the supervisors, ask questions, inquire about the items." (Thus allowing a full discussion).

"The important factor is what your tax dollars are to be spent for." (Not the tax rate comparison.) "During the years I have spent on budget considerations, time after time it has become evident that you would have been better served had certain items been included and others omitted."

That year, 1962-63, the budget was $13,916,971. Now, in seven years it is $34.3 million — up $20.4 million.

TIME MAGAZINE, that week of 1962, carried a story that $15 million would be the ultimate cost of the complex at the Civic Center site. The figure is now $30 million or more. As I said recently, those responsible for the elaborate, expensive layout "don't live there anymore."

The other day I read that someone was saying that the only way the present board of supervisors could avoid a heavy tax take this year would be to quickly sell the courthouse square and use that money to reduce the levy this year. Then what will they use next year and the next and the next?

SURE THE COUNTY is stuck with certain costs not of the local making. The supervisors can't duck the fact though that they are giving the planning director, Paul Zucker, a whopping big appropriation this year. May we ask where is the transportation study? He has been supplied copiously for the past two years.

Then let's take a look, if we can find it, at the activity of one Seymour Kashin and his transit commission staff report. Just where is it? Both of these gents have been long on the conversation — yea rhetoric yet. Their forensic ability is a sample of the things that produce a $34.3 million budget.

This year the high command in the administrative department used the hatchet with mighty strokes. Results!! "You can't blame us. The supervisors did it." Quite a nice little ploy. No?

Thieves Get Coins

Burglars who ransacked the home of Alfred Bangert at 1028 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, Tuesday took $60 in cash, mostly Kennedy half dollars, sheriff's officers said yesterday.

Too Much Grass Is Bad Even If Not Marijuana

Three teen-age Ross boys, arrested Wednesday by sheriff's deputies with what appeared to be 10 large shopping bags full of marijuana, spent a few hours in jail learning the hard way not to dump trash on private property.

Deputies said they were called by private guards to a site at the end of Phoenix Road in Ross where the two guards had cornered the three youths and their car.

One of the boys reluctantly opened the trunk of the car, where the bags of "vegetable material" reposed. The oldest boy, who is 18, was jailed and his companions taken to juvenile hall.

Smiling officers released them a few hours later when the "vegetable material" turned out to be garden clippings, which the youths apparently were preparing to dump.

An autopsy was performed when the cause of death was not readily apparent.

Stinson Beach Fire Budget Up $1,341

A final 1969-70 budget of $18,324 was passed Wednesday night by the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District board, unchanged from the preliminary budget, secretary Harriet M. Greene reported.

The budget is a $1,341 increase over last year but directors are hopeful increased property values will hold the district tax rate at the present 39 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The budget includes $10,560 for maintenance, $5,724 for capital outlay and $2,040 for salaries.

"The important factor is what your tax dollars are to be spent for." (Not the tax rate comparison.) "During the years I have spent on budget considerations, time after time it has become evident that you would have been better served had certain items been included and others omitted."

That year, 1962-63, the budget was $13,916,971. Now, in seven years it is $34.3 million — up $20.4 million.

TIME MAGAZINE, that week of 1962, carried a story that $15 million would be the ultimate cost of the complex at the Civic Center site. The figure is now $30 million or more. As I said recently, those responsible for the elaborate, expensive layout "don't live there anymore."

The other day I read that someone was saying that the only way the present board of supervisors could avoid a heavy tax take this year would be to quickly sell the courthouse square and use that money to reduce the levy this year. Then what will they use next year and the next and the next?

SURE THE COUNTY is stuck with certain costs not of the local making. The supervisors can't duck the fact though that they are giving the planning director, Paul Zucker, a whopping big appropriation this year. May we ask where is the transportation study? He has been supplied copiously for the past two years.

Then let's take a look, if we can find it, at the activity of one Seymour Kashin and his transit commission staff report. Just where is it? Both of these gents have been long on the conversation — yea rhetoric yet. Their forensic ability is a sample of the things that produce a $34.3 million budget.

This year the high command in the administrative department used the hatchet with mighty strokes. Results!! "You can't blame us. The supervisors did it." Quite a nice little ploy. No?

Thieves Get Coins

Burglars who ransacked the home of Alfred Bangert at 1028 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, Tuesday took $60 in cash, mostly Kennedy half dollars, sheriff's officers said yesterday.

Too Much Grass Is Bad Even If Not Marijuana

Three teen-age Ross boys, arrested Wednesday by sheriff's deputies with what appeared to be 10 large shopping bags full of marijuana, spent a few hours in jail learning the hard way not to dump trash on private property.

Deputies said they were called by private guards to a site at the end of Phoenix Road in Ross where the two guards had cornered the three youths and their car.

One of the boys reluctantly opened the trunk of the car, where the bags of "vegetable material" reposed. The oldest boy, who is 18, was jailed and his companions taken to juvenile hall.

Smiling officers released them a few hours later when the "vegetable material" turned out to be garden clippings, which the youths apparently were preparing to dump.

Colombia is fortunate in that it faces two oceans and its seaports are near the Panama Canal.

Death Due To Asphyxiation

Francis Wayne Leja, 24-year-old Novato man who was found dead in his house trailer May 29, apparently died of asphyxiation during an asthma attack, Marin Deputy Coroner Keith Craig said yesterday.

Leja's body was found by his wife, Robin.

An autopsy was performed when the cause of death was not readily apparent.

Stinson Beach Fire Budget Up $1,341

A final 1969-70 budget of $18,324 was passed Wednesday night by the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District board, unchanged from the preliminary budget, secretary Harriet M. Greene reported.

The budget is a $1,341 increase over last year but directors are hopeful increased property values will hold the district tax rate at the present 39 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The budget includes $10,560 for maintenance, $5,724 for capital outlay and $2,040 for salaries.

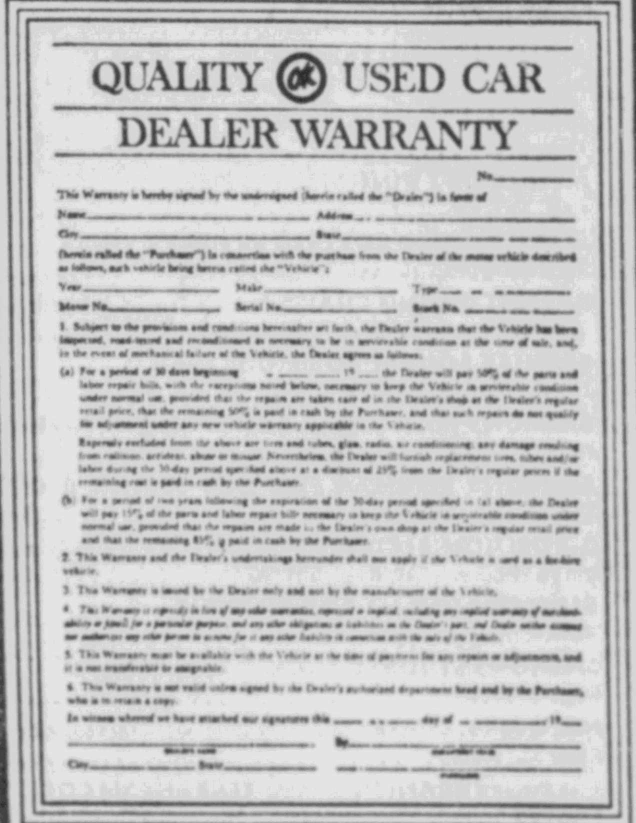
One of the finest things about a Chevy dealer's OK used cars is the fine print.



QUALITY OK USED CAR
DEALER WARRANTY

Buy a used car from some people and you drive away knowing there's no return.

Not so at your Chevy dealer's OK lot. He gives you a round-trip ticket. The OK Quality Used Car Dealer Warranty.

Whereas some warranties seem to bog down in confusing details, the OK Warranty clearly protects you. And it lasts for 25 months.

So if the OK used car your Chevy dealer sells you doesn't make good (perish the thought!), he does. That's your protection.

His protection is that he inspects, road-tests and reconditions, as necessary, every used car worthy of the OK tag. Regardless of make, model or breed.

That way he can proudly read the fine print to you. Instead of you loudly reading the fine print to him.

USED OK CARS

More makes. More models. More use in a used car at your Chevy Dealer's OK lot.

Program For Handicapped Needs Summer Volunteers

By JOAN LISETOR

"Help! We need volunteers," is the cry of a usually soft-spoken young woman, Chris Hammond, coordinator of the summer volunteer program for handicapped youngsters, which began Wednesday at nine San Rafael, Corte Madera and Larkspur schools.

School is held Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to noon, and will continue through July 31.

"We need high school and college students as well as adults," Chris explains, "and a volunteer does not necessarily have to work everyday."

This is the fifth summer for the program serving physically handicapped, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, slow learning and hard-of-hearing youngsters pre-school age through 21-year-olds. In the past there has been little difficulty recruiting volunteers, but this summer there are only 50 of the required 100 helpers.

The first hour of the morning is devoted to academic work and conducted by teachers, who need assistants for the informal classes.

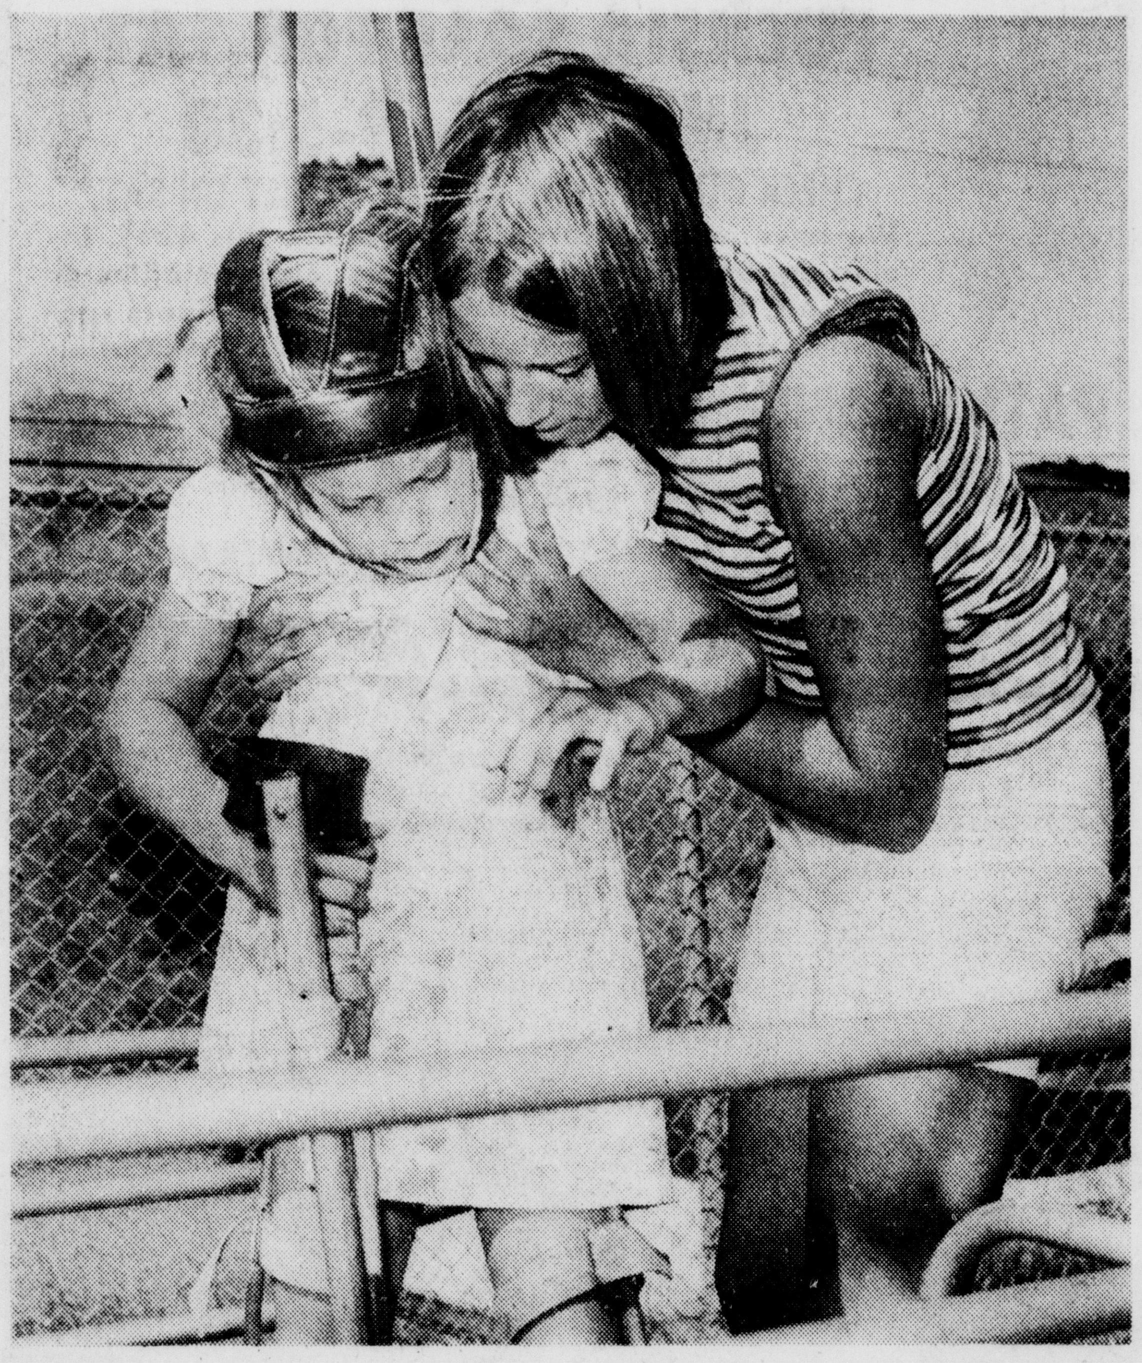
During the half-hour-recess that follows the children need help getting on and off the swings, slides and merry-go-round in the school yard. The remainder of the morning includes either arts and *crafts, field trips, story telling or whatever seems to in*terest the children, who take part in planning the activities.

Volunteers are needed during these activity sessions and also to participate in one-to-one tutoring and therapy programs.

"Professionals to talk to the children or anyone with a special talent that has even an hour during the summer would help the program," Chris says.

"I have gotten three times as much out of the program as I've put in," says Chris, a student at San Francisco State College. "It is beautiful the way you can communicate with these children. They are very special."

Anyone interested in volunteering can contact Chris at the Marindale School in San Rafael.



GETTING ON a swing is made easier for Jimmy Dee Flynn by volunteer Marilyn Rhoads, one of 50 volunteers in the summer program, which requires at least 100. Anyone with even an hour of time during the summer may contact Chris Hammond at the Marindale School regarding the program.

Pfuetze-Bruff Vows Read At Post Chapel

The Post Protestant chapel at the Presidio in San Francisco was the setting for the wedding Sunday of Dana Cartland Bruff of Mill Valley and Dr. Bruce Leonard Pfuetze of Corte Madera.

Mrs. Edvard Hemmingsen of La Jolla was her sister's matron of honor. They are the daughters of Mrs. Stephen Cartland Bruff of Kentfield and the late Mr. Bruff. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Vickers Trownsell and the bridegroom's sister, Rogene Pfuetze, both of San Francisco.

The bridegroom, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Pfuetze of Overland Park, Kan., had as his best man Dr. Thomas Smith of Corte Madera. Ushers were Dr. Douglas Hanks and Dr. George McMullen Jr., both of Tiburon.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Officers Club at Ft. Mason in San Francisco. On their return from a wedding trip to Kansas City, Kan., and national parks the couple will live in Mill Valley.

A graduate of Novato High School, the bride received an A.A. degree from the College of Marin and was graduated as a registered nurse from Merritt College in Oakland. She is employed at the Pacific Presbyterian Medical Center in San Francisco.

She is the sister of Stephen Bruff of Kentfield and the granddaughter of Mrs. Florence Alexander of Portola Valley.

The bridegroom was graduated from Kansas University and Kansas University Medical School and is a resident in pediatrics at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco. He was a brother, Dr. Karl Pfuetze, who is with the Army in Southeast Asia.

Clyde Curley To Wed In August

Mrs. B. V. Mitchell of Chico has announced the engagement of her daughter, Robin Lee, to Clyde J. Curley III.

The future bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Curley Jr., will honor the couple at a party in their San Anselmo home Saturday. They plan an Aug. 30 wedding in Chico.

Robin attended Chico High School and Chico State College.

William N. and Kevin M. Curley are the bridegroom's brother. They are the grandsons of Mrs. William T. Nicholson of Palo Alto and Mrs. C. J. Curley of Fairfax. Clyde was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and the University of Nevada, where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Program For Handicapped Needs Summer Volunteers

By JOAN LISETOR

"Help! We need volunteers," is the cry of a usually soft-spoken young woman, Chris Hammond, coordinator of the summer volunteer program for handicapped youngsters, which began Wednesday at nine San Rafael, Corte Madera and Larkspur schools.

School is held Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to noon, and will continue through July 31.

"We need high school and college students as well as adults," Chris explains, "and a volunteer does not necessarily have to work everyday."

This is the fifth summer for the program serving physically handicapped, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, slow learning and hard-of-hearing youngsters pre-school age through 21-year-olds. In the past there has been little difficulty recruiting volunteers, but this summer there are only 50 of the required 100 helpers.

The first hour of the morning is devoted to academic work and conducted by teachers, who need assistants for the informal classes.

During the half-hour-recess that follows the children need help getting on and off the swings, slides and merry-go-round in the school yard. The remainder of the morning includes either arts and *crafts, field trips, story telling or whatever seems to in*terest the children, who take part in planning the activities.

Volunteers are needed during these activity sessions and also to participate in one-to-one tutoring and therapy programs.

"Professionals to talk to the children or anyone with a special talent that has even an hour during the summer would help the program," Chris says.

"I have gotten three times as much out of the program as I've put in," says Chris, a student at San Francisco State College. "It is beautiful the way you can communicate with these children. They are very special."

Anyone interested in volunteering can contact Chris at the Marindale School in San Rafael.

GETTING ON a swing is made easier for Jimmy Dee Flynn by volunteer Marilyn Rhoads, one of 50 volunteers in the summer program, which requires at least 100. Anyone with even an hour of time during the summer may contact Chris Hammond at the Marindale School regarding the program.

Pfuetze-Bruff Vows Read At Post Chapel

The Post Protestant chapel at the Presidio in San Francisco was the setting for the wedding Sunday of Dana Cartland Bruff of Mill Valley and Dr. Bruce Leonard Pfuetze of Corte Madera.

Mrs. Edvard Hemmingsen of La Jolla was her sister's matron of honor. They are the daughters of Mrs. Stephen Cartland Bruff of Kentfield and the late Mr. Bruff. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Vickers Trownsell and the bridegeroom's sister, Rogene Pfuetze, both of San Francisco.

The bridegroom, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Pfuetze of Overland Park, Kan., had as his best man Dr. Thomas Smith of Corte Madera. Ushers were Dr. Douglas Hanks and Dr. George McMullen Jr., both of Tiburon.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Officers Club at Ft. Mason in San Francisco. On their return from a wedding trip to Kansas City, Kan., and national parks the couple will live in Mill Valley.

A graduate of Novato High School, the bride received an A.A. degree from the College of Marin and was graduated as a registered nurse from Merritt College in Oakland. She is employed at the Pacific Presbyterian Medical Center in San Francisco.

She is the sister of Stephen Bruff of Kentfield and the granddaughter of Mrs. Florence Alexander of Portola Valley.

The bridegroom was graduated from Kansas University and Kansas University Medical School and is a resident in pediatrics at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco. He was a brother, Dr. Karl Pfuetze, who is with the Army in Southeast Asia.

Clyde Curley To Wed In August

Mrs. B. V. Mitchell of Chico has announced the engagement of her daughter, Robin Lee, to Clyde J. Curley III.

The future bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Curley Jr., will honor the couple at a party in their San Anselmo home Saturday. They plan an Aug. 30 wedding in Chico.

Robin attended Chico High School and Chico State College.

William N. and Kevin M. Curley are the bridegroom's brother. They are the grandsons of Mrs. William T. Nicholson of Palo Alto and Mrs. C. J. Curley of Fairfax. Clyde was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and the University of Nevada, where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Father-In-Law Should Learn To Not Drop In Unannounced

DEAR HELEN:

My father-in-law still thinks after 20-plus years that he has a God-given right to drop in unannounced at any blasted time he gets the urge, and since he retired, the urge is much too often.

He doesn't have any more regard for my right of privacy than a slave-owner, which he thinks he is since I married his daughter.

He has never helped our family, but the solemn old bird believes he knows exactly how to run my life. He does — if you spell it "ruin," not "run."

Don't suggest that he call first before coming over. He was told that years ago, but the crusty rhinoceros decided this would spoil his fun, which is snooping. He doesn't believe in doorbells. He and my mother-in-law just walk in. Yech-h! If the door is locked, they lean on the chimes till the welkin rings.

How about telling all in-laws that a little absence makes the heart grow fonder? Maybe Pop will get the message. —HARASSED

DEAR HARASSED:

"Pop-in" laws seldom figure the message is meant for them.

You might try turning the tables with a family "pop-in" at their home every night for a week — right at dinner time. Or —

Have you considered a job transfer to a distant city? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

We loved each other when we were 17, but his mother made us break up. She had already picked out the girl she wanted him to marry, and the two of them had their way.

In three years, we were both married to someone else. I thought about Len occasionally, but my husband was a good man and we were reasonably happy.

Now 30 years later, I am a widow, with my children grown. I have heard through friends that Len's marriage was a miserable failure, but his wife won't give him a divorce. They live about 60 miles from me. His mother lives with them. Oddly enough, I haven't seen him in 25 years.

I keep thinking about Len more and more. He sent a beautiful personal letter of sympathy when my husband died a year ago, and I know he'd like to see me. Should I arrange a meeting? Don't we deserve a little love after all these years of separation? —NEVER FORGOT HIM

DEAR NEVER:

A hag-ridden man of 50 isn't the Len of your dreams, nor are you the girl Len loved when he was 17. Why try for a married stranger when there are surely available widowers in your own home town? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'd like to share with you and your readers an experience that made my life more worthwhile. It might help others.

My sister and I, orphaned in our late teens, were very close. We worked hard to put ourselves thorough school and never married. When she died suddenly I found myself all alone in the world. I turned to a married friend for help, and got in the habit of dropping in on her whenever I felt sorry for myself, which was often. For a time she was very sympathetic, and listened as I magnified my problems.

The one day she exclaimed, "Why don't you stop being such a whiner and start thinking of someone besides yourself? With all your talent, and all you have to offer, surely you can find someone who needs you." I was hurt and indignant, but when I cooled off, I started thinking, and knew she was right.

I've been finding others to help ever since, and now my life is full and happy. Best of all, my married friend is still my dearest friend. Her wisdom and courage literally saved my life. —FORMER CRYBABY

MR. AND MRS. LARRY BROWN

Miss Anderson Becomes Bride Of Larry Brown

Candice Rose Andersen and Larry George Brown were married at a nuptial Mass at Mission San Rafael Arcangel on Saturday.

Candice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Herbert Andersen of Novato. She chose as her maid of honor the bridegroom's sister, Bonnie Brown.

Mark Brown served as best man for his brother, and Todd Brown, also a brother of the bridegroom, and David Williamson of Novato were ushers.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Brown of Novato.

The reception was held at Dominic's restaurant in San Rafael.

Officers' Wives Elect President

Hamilton Air Force Base is the eighth base that Mrs. James Randall Galloway has called home since marrying her husband, Major Galloway, chief of safety, 78th Fighter Wing.

Willie Joe Galloway, new president of the Officers Wives Club at Hamilton, and her husband have lived in Florida, Texas, Georgia, Michigan, Oxnard, Montana and most recently in Kansas City, Mo. Major Galloway has also served in Saigon and Goose Bay, Labrador, but Mrs. Galloway stayed in the states.

They both grew up in Omaha, Tex., and Mrs. Galloway was graduated from East Texas University where she received a degree in home economics education.

They have lived at Hamilton for 19 months and have two sons. Joe is 13, a Sinaloa eighth grader and an Independent-Journal newspaper boy, and Scott, 8, is a Pleasant Valley School fourth grader.

A substitute teacher in the junior high school in Novato, Mrs. Galloway lists sewing, reading, gardening and bridge as her favorite pastimes and enjoys "doing things with the family."

Listed among the activities planned by the Officers Wives Club this year are visits to Hill Cottage at Sonoma State Hospital, working as volunteers with the blood bank, well baby clinic at the base hospital, monthly luncheons, Christmas ball and their main fund-raising event in October, "Western Night."

Officers to serve with Mrs. Galloway are Mmes. Duncan Ashe, first vice president; Louis Giuntini, second vice president; Edward Morrow, recording secretary; Patrick Whitaker, corresponding secretary; William Folin, first assistant treasurer; and Charles Arnold, second assistant treasurer.

Birthday Dinner Brings Surprise

A birthday dinner for 20 turned into a surprise party when Mrs. George B. McClellan of San Francisco announced the engagement of her daughter, Meredith Ann, to Christian John Peetz Jr. The dinner was given on Saturday, Merry's 19th birthday.

Jack, the future bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Christian J. Peetz of Corte Madera. He spent two and one-half years in Vietnam, and is attending the College of Marin, but will continue at the University of California at Davis next spring. He plans to enter the College of Veterinary Medicine.

Merry attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart and St. Rose Academy in San Francisco, but later moved to Marin and was graduated from Redwood High School.

The couple will be married Aug. 23 at Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco.

Food Poisoning Is On The Rise

The National Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta, Ga. reports that a rise in food poisoning caused by staphylococci is expected this summer.

In 1968 this type of food poisoning was the most commonly reported, and accounted for nearly 25 per cent of all outbreaks in the United States. It generally originates from unclean hands. Therefore, everyone handling food — in restaurants, schools, camps, on picnics and at home — should keep hands as germ-free as possible by washing them thoroughly and often, preferably with an antibacterial skin cleanser.

Salzberg-Frate Vows Are Read

Victoria Ann Frate became the bride of Philip Meyer Salzberg Saturday in a ceremony at the Treasure Island Chapel.

Capt. and Mrs. Lawrence Peter Frate of San Rafael are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David Aaron Salzberg of Palo Alto.

A reception at Casa de la Vista on Treasure Island followed the ceremony.

Carol Ann Frate was her sister's maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Judith Salzberg, Susan King of Hillsborough and Linda Segarini of Stockton were bridesmaids.

Joel Salzberg was his brother's best man. Another brother, Daniel Salzberg; Tim Zeff of Modesto, Albert Combatalade of Sacramento, Brian Mickel of Novato and Martin Lunch of Mountain View ushered guests to their seats.

Following a wedding trip to Southern California the couple will live in Davis, where the bride is in her senior year at the University of California. The bridegroom is enrolled in graduate school at Sacramento State College. He is a graduate of U. C. at Davis.

Victoria is a graduate of Fairfax High School in Fairfax, Va.

Mrs. Gaskell Jacobs of San Francisco is the bridegroom's grandmother. He was graduated from Cubberley High School in Palo Alto.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Marin's unique art and garden fair will be taking place in Ross next week, and to salute that popular and colorful event, tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine is a special issue devoted largely to features on fair activities and personalities. And to help set the stage for the fair's "In Old New Orleans" theme, members of the Ross Valley Players have donned period costumes to portray characters of that time and place for photographer Ken Molino.

Among the personalities at the fair will be a long-time favorite of KCBS radio listeners — Friendly Fred. That folksy character is no longer heard on the San Francisco radio station. But he is still very much alive, and pounding the keyboard in a manner to protect his claim to the title of "the world's worst piano player." He'll demonstrate that ability for fair-goers next week. And he is the subject of a special feature written for tomorrow's Marin Magazine by its editor, Don Keown.

Designs Come Alive On Woman

By MARY ELLEN MYRENE

NEW YORK (AP) — Drape them anywhere but on a woman and the fall fashion creations of Greek-born designer George Stavropoulos look more like experiments in geometry than the stuff high style is made of.

But put them on a woman and they come alive.

One of Stavropoulos's most complicated productions is the "puzzle pants," a one-piece affair that starts down the shoulder like a cape, then somehow turns into a jumpsuit with two flouncy skirts of chiffon. It looks and moves like a dream.

Mystery is the keynote of Stavropoulos's seamless coat—both for the way it makes a woman look and for the way it was made. The single round piece of black wool somehow sprouts a stand-up collar while swirling around into a diagonal row of buttons in the front.

Stavropoulos unveiled his fall designs Wednesday at the American Designer Showings. And when it wasn't dramatic, this Greek-inspired collection was at the very least alluring.

An elegant chiffon gown, a tall silhouette in white, bares one shoulder.

Proving he's willing to go mod as well as traditional, Stavropoulos completed his collection with a brushed blue wool coat and matching skirt that ended halfway up between the knee and ankle.

The young, free, bold look—by way of the 1930s—dominated the fall offerings of Gayle Kirkpatrick, who designed with the long and lean in mind.

Deep-colored satin minidresses and shirts were sprinkled throughout the collection, along with some daring dips in the neckline.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Father-In-Law Should Learn To Not Drop In Unannounced

DEAR HELEN:

My father-in-law still thinks after 20-plus years that he has a God-given right to drop in unannounced at any blasted time he gets the urge, and since he retired, the urge is much too often.

He doesn't have any more regard for my right of privacy than a slave-owner, which he thinks he is since I married his daughter.

He has never helped our family, but the solemn old bird believes he knows exactly how to run my life. He does — if you spell it "ruin," not "run."

Don't suggest that he call first before coming over. He was told that years ago, but the crusty rhinoceros decided this would spoil his fun, which is snooping. He doesn't believe in doorbells. He and my mother-in-law just walk in. Yech-h! If the door is locked, they lean on the chimes till the welkin rings.

How about telling all in-laws that a little absence makes the heart grow fonder? Maybe Pop will get the message. — HARASSED

DEAR HARASSED:

"Pop-in" laws seldom figure the message is meant for them.

You might try turning the tables with a family "pop-in" at their home every night for a week — right at dinner time. Or —

Have you considered a job transfer to a distant city? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

We loved each other when we were 17, but his mother made us break up. She had already picked out the girl she wanted him to marry, and the two of them had their way.

In three years, we were both married to someone else. I thought about Len occasionally, but my husband was a good man and we were reasonably happy.

Now 30 years later, I am a widow, with my children grown. I have heard through friends that Len's marriage was a miserable failure, but his wife won't give him a divorce. They live about 60 miles from me. His mother lives with them. Oddly enough, I haven't seen him in 25 years.

I keep thinking about Len more and more. He sent a beautiful personal letter of sympathy when my husband died a year ago, and I know he'd like to see me. Should I arrange a meeting? Don't we deserve a little love after all these years of separation? —NEVER FORGOT HIM

DEAR NEVER:

A hag-ridden man of 50 isn't the Len of your dreams, nor are you the girl Len loved when he was 17. Why try for a married stranger when there are surely available widowers in your own home town? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'd like to share with you and your readers an experience that made my life more worthwhile. It might help others.

My sister and I, orphaned in cur late teens, were very close. We worked hard to put ourselves thorough school and never married. When she died suddenly I found myself all alone in the world. I turned to a married friend for help, and got in the habit of dropping in on her whenever I felt sorry for myself, which was often. For a time she was very sympathetic, and listened as I magnified my problems.

The one day she exclaimed, "Why don't you stop being such a whiner and start thinking of someone besides yourself? With all your talent, and all you have to offer, surely you can find someone who needs you." I was hurt and indignant, but when I cooled off, I started thinking, and knew she was right.

I've been finding others to help ever since, and now my life is full and happy. Best of all, my married friend is still my dearest friend. Her wisdom and courage literally saved my life. —FORMER CRYBABY

Officers' Wives Elect President

Hamilton Air Force Base is the eighth base that Mrs. James Randall Galloway has called home since marrying her husband, Major Galloway, chief of safety, 78th Fighter Wing.

Willie Joe Galloway, new president of the Officers Wives Club at Hamilton, and her husband have lived in Florida, Texas, Georgia, Michigan, Oxnard, Montana and most recently in Kansas City, Mo. Major Galloway has also served in Saigon and Goose Bay, Labrador, but Mrs. Galloway stayed in the states.

They both grew up in Omaha, Tex., and Mrs. Galloway was graduated from East Texas University where she received a degree in home economics education.

They have lived at Hamilton for 19 months and have two sons. Joe is 13, a Sinaloa eighth grader and an Independent-Journal newspaper boy, and Scott, 8, is a Pleasant Valley School fourth grader.

A substitute teacher in the junior high school in Novato, Mrs. Galloway lists sewing, reading, gardening and bridge as her favorite pastimes and enjoys "doing things with the family."

Listed among the activities planned by the Officers Wives Club this year are visits to Hill Cottage at Sonoma State Hospital, working as volunteers with the blood bank, well baby clinic at the base hospital, monthly luncheons, Christmas ball and their main fund-raising event in October, "Western Night."

Officers to serve with Mrs. Galloway are Mmes. Duncan Ashe, first vice president; Louis Giuntini, second vice president; Edward Morrow, recording secretary; Patrick Whitaker, corresponding secretary; William Folin, first assistant treasurer; and Charles Arnold, second assistant treasurer.

Birthday Dinner Brings Surprise

A birthday dinner for 20 turned into a surprise party when Mrs. George B. McClellan of San Francisco announced the engagement of her daughter, Meredith Ann, to Christian John Peetz Jr. The dinner was given on Saturday, Merry's 19th birthday.

Jack, the future bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Christian J. Peetz of Corte Madera. He spent two and one-half years in Vietnam, and is attending the College of Marin, but will continue at the University of California at Davis next spring. He plans to enter the College of Veterinary Medicine.

Merry attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart and St. Rose Academy in San Francisco, but later moved to Marin and was graduated from Redwood High School.

The couple will be married Aug. 23 at Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco.

Food Poisoning Is On The Rise

The National Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta, Ga. reports that a rise in food poisoning caused by staphylococci is expected this summer.

In 1968 this type of food poisoning was the most commonly reported, and accounted for nearly 25 per cent of all outbreaks in the United States. It generally originates from unclean hands. Therefore, everyone handling food — in restaurants, schools, camps, on picnics and at home — should keep hands as germ-free as possible by washing them thoroughly and often, preferably with an antibacterial skin cleanser.

Salzberg-Frate Vows Are Read

Victoria Ann Frate became the bride of Philip Meyer Salzberg Saturday in a ceremony at the Treasure Island Chapel.

Capt. and Mrs. Lawrence Peter Frate of San Rafael are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David Aaron Salzberg of Palo Alto.

A reception at Casa de la Vista on Treasure Island followed the ceremony.

Carol Ann Frate was her sister's maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Judith Salzberg, Susan King of Hillsborough and Linda Segarini of Stockton were bridesmaids.

Joel Salzberg was his brother's best man. Another brother, Daniel Salzberg; Tim Zeff of Modesto, Albert Combatalade of Sacramento, Brian Mickel of Novato and Martin Lunch of Mountain View ushered guests to their seats.

Following a wedding trip to Southern California the couple will live in Davis, where the bride is in her senior year at the University of California. The bridegroom is enrolled in graduate school at Sacramento State College. He is a graduate of U. C. at Davis.

Victoria is a graduate of Fairfax High School in Fairfax, Va.

Mrs. Gaskell Jacobs of San Francisco is the bridegroom's grandmother. He was graduated from Cubberley High School in Palo Alto.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Marin's unique art and garden fair will be taking place in Ross next week, and to salute that popular and colorful event, tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine is a special issue devoted largely to features on fair activities and personalities. And to help set the stage for the fair's "In Old New Orleans" theme, members of the Ross Valley Players have donned period costumes to portray characters of that time and place for photographer Ken Molino.

Among the personalities at the fair will be a long-time favorite of KCBS radio listeners — Friendly Fred. That folksy character is no longer heard on the San Francisco radio station. But he is still very much alive, and pounding the keyboard in a manner to protect his claim to the title of "the world's worst piano player." He'll demonstrate that ability for fair-goers next week. And he is the subject of a special feature written for tomorrow's Marin Magazine by its editor, Don Keown.

Teacher's Antiwar Final Stirs Uproar

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's top education adviser today praised as "a welcome thing" the request by five Chico State College professors that a "radical" colleague resign.

The controversial colleague, Jack Zeilenga, assistant physics professor, gave his students exam problems on germ warfare and napalm.

Zeilenga, who describes his own attitude as "militant radical left," previously had been embroiled in campus political turmoil.

This spring he gave the 40 students in his basic physics course a final examination with 10 problems. Seven of them were phrased in terms of such topics as an airplane carrying napalm, botulism-bearing bombs, a train carrying nerve gas, a student being shot with buckshot and a helicopter "macing the people of Berkeley."

Zeilenga's five colleagues, representing the entire physics department, except for one professor who is abroad, told him he "failed to uphold (his) obligations to the students."

They criticized the exam and his "class discussions concerning non-physics matters."

Zeilenga, who holds tenure, has refused to say whether he will quit.

Alex C. Sherriffs, Reagan's top educational adviser, praised the professors' message and called the exam "a stinking, lousy production."

Myles Tracy, Chico State's assistant vice president for academic affairs, said that he know of no actions taken to fire Zeilenga. Physics department chairman E. C. Mallary, one of the signers of the letter, was asked if Zeilenga might be fired.

"Hevens, no, there's no basis for that," he said.

Zeilenga on May 22 was one of a group of demonstrators who lowered the American flag at the college to half-staff in memory of James Rector, the young man fatally shot by police during the People's Park disturbances at Berkeley.

Also in May, he wrote an open letter to the entire faculty of the School of Natural Sciences protesting the fact that he was not promoted to associate professor.

"Let it be unmistakenly clear that I have no intention of weakening my militant radical left stance," he said in that letter.

Asked to comment on the request for his resignation, Zeilenga said, "My colleagues don't want to stifle freedom of speech, they just want me to resign."

The letter was signed by Mallary and Fred Boos, Michael McGie, L. Edward Millet and Robert Plumb.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Senate Panel Can't Agree On State's Stand On DDT Checks

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate Agriculture Committee will meet behind closed doors next week in its continuing effort to decide how far the state should go in controlling the use of DDT in California.

The committee held a closed meeting last night but failed to agree on what action should be taken on anti-DDT legislation before it.

Chairman Fred Marler Jr., R-Redding, later told reporters the committee will approve at least one bill declaring a "strong concern" of the Legislature about the use of DDT and hard pesticides.

"We will put a bill out that is better than nothing," he said.

Sen. John Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, who said he was not invited to the meeting, is author of a bill which bans DDT starting in 1972. He had amended the measure to change the cutoff date from next January.

Marler said the committee must decide whether it wants a firm cutoff date or to "leave the cutoff open and let the director of agriculture cut it off as soon as it is practical." Marler has said he favors the latter approach.

He said the Nejedly bill might be coupled with two bills by Sen. Anthony Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, which require the reporting of pesticide sales and give the department new standards under which a harmful pesticide could be banned by administrative order.

Both the Nejedly and Beilenson bills were held for further study by the committee last week after a six-hour hearing.

BOND WORRY

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Reagan administration has a problem: It can't finish the California Water Project without selling bonds. And bonds aren't being sold in today's tight money market.

Its solution is to raise the maximum interest rate on general obligation bonds from 5 to 7 per cent. That idea was endorsed yesterday by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

It already had been by the Senate.

"I think we'll have high interst rates for an extended period into the future," warned Harold Ostergren, vice president of Dillon, Read & Co., a New York firm which acts as financial consultant for the state water project.

"It would be tremendously advantageous for the state to have as much leeway as possible on interest rates," he said.

The committee, on a voice vote, sent a bill hiking the interest ceiling to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. It also sent a proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the change to the elections and constitutional amendments committee. A third measure permitting the constitutional amendment to be placed on the 1970 primary ballot was sent to the floor.

The committee, also on a voice vote, rejected a proposal to place the constitutional amendment before voters at a special statewide election this November.

CAMPUS UNREST

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill authorizing jail sentences for campus troublemakers has passed the Assembly despite complaints by some lawmakers that it would fail to discourge militants.

On a 54-10 vote, the Assembly yesterday approved and sent to the Senate the measure by Assemblyman Frank Murphy, R-Santa Cruz, which would crack down on illegal demonstrators at the University of California, state colleges and junior colleges.

But Negro Assemblyman John Miller, D-Berkeley, said the bill "does absolutely nothing. The people who precipitate campus disturbances don't really care about what the law says."

Murphy replied the bill "does do something. It gives to the administrations the ability to act."

The bill provides jail terms for persons repeatedly convicted of using indecent language on campus, makes it a misdemeanor for a student barred from campus to return without special permission, authorizes campus administrators to ban potential troublemakers and prohibits use of loudspeaking equipment on campus without approval of the administration.

BARGAINING

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A union-sponsored bill to establish collective bargaining procedures for California farm workers is dead for the current session of the Legislature.

The Senate Agriculture Committee yesterday sent the measure by Sen. Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, to a between-sessions study.

Petris said his proposal would enable farm workers to hold an election and select an agent to bargain for them with growers.

IMMUNITY PLAN

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting the California attorney general to guarantee immunity from prosecution to persons who testify about activities of the Mafia or other underworld organizations has won approval in the state Assembly.

The measure by Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, was cleared to the Senate yesterday on a 55-5 vote of the lower house.

The bill would permit Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch's investigators to request courts to force persons with knowledge about criminal activities to testify. They would be granted immunity.

CIGARETTES

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The tobacco industry today prepared its case against a bill to ban cigarette advertising in California.

Joseph F. Mahoney, top lobbyist for the California Association of Tobacco Distributors, said yesterday he would oppose the measure when it is heard by an Assembly committee.

"We will testify very strongly against it in the Assembly," he said. "Cigarettes are a legally constituted product and I don't think legislators have a right to regulate such a product through its advertising."

The measure was assigned to the Assembly Commerce and Public Utilities Committee by Republican Speaker Robert T. Monagan of Tracy. The referral represented a setback for the author.

Chiropractor Urges Medicare Inclusion

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Gerald M. Brassard of Beaumont, Tex., newly elected president of the American Chiropractic Association, yesterday urged that chiropractic services be included in Medicare.

Speaking at the association's national convention, Brassard said, "We have facts and figures to prove that the inclusion of chiropractic in Medicare will save costs on the hospitalization benefit and will not add costs to the supplementary insurance benefits in any significant way."

Gorgeous & Borges
2 GOOD REASONS TO COME TO THE MIYAKO
(OR 1 GOOD REASON TO COME TWICE)

Yukiko Hirasawa and Jimmy Borges. A couple of singers who really know how to show people a good time. And both are currently appearing in our Garden Bar. Yukiko specializes in Japanese songs—from folk to folk rock. You'll find her charming. Jimmy, well Jimmy's specialty is having fun, musically. And it's contagious. Come see for yourself. Yukiko sings Sundays and Mondays from 9 'til 2; Jimmy Tuesdays through Saturdays—same hours. And when they're coffeebreaking, there's dancing and drinking to keep you awake. The dinners are good and the parking is plentiful. So plan to spend the evening when you come. (And plan to come twice. To hear both.)

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from the California and National Parent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

"Ballad of Josie" — An amusing western set in Wyoming at the time the state was a struggling territory and Doris Day struggles for woman's independence.

"Finian's Rainbow" — Musical comedy combines fantasy with satire. Sets are lovely, songs a delight and an excellent dance group.

"Gone With the Wind" — Famous film classic now transposed to super screen with stereophonic sound remains one of the landmarks in American filmmaking.

"High, Wild and Free" — Filmed in northern British Columbia. Photographer Gordon Eastman gives us a tribute of some of the last unspoiled country left in the northern hemisphere. Excellent.

"Paper Lion" — Hilarious account of a writer's adventures at the training camp of Detroit Lions football team.

"Swiss Family Robinson" — Adventure story is a delight of all ages.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Charly" — Poignant dramatization of a fictional case history of first human subject of a new type of brain surgery on a mentally retarded young man. Thought-provoking, sensitive performances from the cast.

"Guns of the Magnificent Seven" — Mexican revolutionaries fighting the tyrannical Diaz regime in 1890's. Much violence and torture shown.

"Hannibal Brooks" — A warm gently comic wartime film that affirms human values can surmount the brutalities of war. Too much violence for young children.

"Illustrated Man" — Carnival man has each of his adventures tatooed on his body. The stories are, to say the least, weird and best left to interpretation of the viewer.

"Where Eagles Dare" — Tale of rescue of American general from Nazi stronghold high atop a Bavarian mountain by a group of allied agents. Lots of exciting action, surprise twists, very suspenseful and violent.

"Winning" — Story of a race driver, his wife and stepson. Will appeal to those who enjoy car racing.

BORDERLINE
(Some say adults only)

"I Love You, Alice B. Toklas" — Establishment and the hippies are spoofed to a fare-thee-well in this lively contemporary comedy.

ADULTS ONLY

"Goodbye, Columbus" — Picture of a Jewish family is real and humorous. The warmth of the people comes through all the surface vulgarity. Explicit sex and nudity.

"Killing of Sister George" — Title taken from character which an actress portrays on TV. Film treats lesbiansim with unprescendented explicitness with lewd scenes blatantly shown.

Dance Class Set

A creative dance class for children, ages three through 12, will be held at Terra Linda High School on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon. The last day to register will be Tuesday at the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department.

International Folk Dances On Program

The Kopachka and Rikudom dance groups will perform folk dances from various countries at 2 p.m. Sunday in the amphitheater of Old Mill Park in Mill Valley.

The performance will be sponsored by the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts and the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department.

San Marin Concert

The San Marin High School Band of Novato will present a one-hour concert on Sept. 4 at the California State Fair in Sacramento. The 50-member band will join other high school bands from California who will perform at the fair, Aug. 22 through Sept. 9.

JOYCE PAYNE

Virginia Rite Planned

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bruce Ryburn Payne of Alexandria, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joyce Elizabeth, to Craig Diven Johnston of San Rafael.

Joyce was graduated from Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pa., with a B.A. degree as did Craig.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Johnston Jr. of San Rafael.

The wedding is planned for Sept. 6 at the Trinity Methodist Church in Alexandria.

Richard Clark Claims Joyce Heifner Bride

Joyce Heifner and Richard Clark, both of Novato, were married at the United Methodist Church on Saturday.

Maid of honor for the bride was Bonnie Brown and bridesmaid was Debbie Thompson.

David Fields was best man and Tim Brock and Dennis Heifner, all of Novato, were ushers.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Heifner had a reception at their home in Novato following the wedding. The couple will live in Novato following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and Reno.

The bridegroom is the brother of Alan and Dennis Heifner of Novato, Larry Heifner, serving in Vietnam and Mrs. Dwight Dempsey of Quebec, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Nels H. Johnson of Orland are their grandparents.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Herman Herzog of Novato and is employed at West Novato Shell Station.

Rodriguez-Griffith Rite Held Saturday In Novato

Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato was the setting on Saturday for the wedding of Judith Ann Griffith and Robert Joseph Rodriguez.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Griffith of Novato, chose as her matron of honor her sister, Mrs. Bruce Madsen of San Francisco. Bridesmaids were Christine Brondello of San Francisco, Sandra Cardinale of Pacifica; her sister, Pamela Griffith of Novato, and Christine Russo of San Francisco.

John Rodriguez served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Paul Coccellato and brother of the bride, Robert Griffith, both of San Francisco; Richard Gradwohl of Sonoma and Anthony Russo of San Francisco.

Following a reception at the San Marin Club, the couple left on a wedding trip to Disneyland. They will reside in San Francisco.

The bride was graduated from Galileo High School in San Francisco and is employed with the Teamsters International headquarters in San Francisco.

The bride's grandmothers are Mrs. Orbie S. Griffith of San Anselmo and Mrs. James Mann of Australia, who attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rodriguez of San Francisco are the bridegroom's parents. He was graduated from Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco and is a student at Heald's College, San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Salcedo of San Francisco are his grandparents.

Greg's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Moore of Mill Valley. A graduate of Tamalpais High School, he attends the College of Marin and is employed by Marin Auto Body in Mill Valley. He is the brother of Terry Moore of Mill Valley.

A fall wedding is planned.

Designs Come Alive On Woman

By MARY ELLEN MYRENE

NEW YORK (AP) — Drape them anywhere but on a woman and the fall fashion creations of Greek-born designer George Stavropoulos look more like experiments in geometry than the stuff high style is made of.

But put them on a woman and they come alive.

One of Stavropoulos's most complicated productions is the "puzzle pants," a one-piece affair that starts down the shoulder like a cape, then somehow turns into a jumpsuit with two flouncy skirts of chiffon. It looks and moves like a dream.

Mystery is the keynote of Stavropoulos's seamless coat—both for the way it makes a woman look and for the way it was made. The single round piece of black wool somehow sprouts a stand-up collar while swirling around into a diagonal row of buttons in the front.

Stavropoulos unveiled his fall designs Wednesday at the American Designer Showings. And when it wasn't dramatic, this Greek-inspired collection was at the very least alluring.

An elegant chiffon gown, a tall silhouette in white, bares one shoulder.

Proving he's willing to go mod as well as traditional, Stavropoulos completed his collection with a brushed blue wool coat and matching skirt that ended halfway up between the knee and ankle.

The young, free, bold look—by way of the 1930s—dominated the fall offerings of Gayle Kirkpatrick, who designed with the long and lean in mind.

Deep-colored satin minidresses and shirts were sprinkled throughout the collection, along with some daring dips in the neckline.

Teacher's Antiwar Final Stirs Uproar

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's top education adviser today praised as "a welcome thing" the request by five Chico State College professors that a "radical" colleague resign.

The controversial colleague, Jack Zeilenga, assistant physics professor, gave his students exam problems on germ warfare and napalm.

Zeilenga, who describes his own attitude as "militant radical left," previously had been embroiled in campus political turmoil.

This spring he gave the 40 students in his basic physics course a final examination with 10 problems. Seven of them were phrased in terms of such topics as an airplane carrying napalm, botulism-bearing bombs, a train carrying nerve gas, a student being shot with buckshot and a helicopter "macing the people of Berkeley."

Zeilenga's five colleagues, representing the entire physics department, except for one professor who is abroad, told him he "failed to uphold (his) obligations to the students."

They criticized the exam and his "class discussions concerning non-physics matters."

Zeilenga, who holds tenure, has refused to say whether he will quit.

Alex C. Sherriffs, Reagan's top educational adviser, praised the professors' message and called the exam "a stinking, lousy production."

Myles Tracy, Chico State's assistant vice president for academic affairs, said that he know of no actions taken to fire Zeilenga. Physics department chairman E. C. Mallary, one of the signers of the letter, was asked if Zeilenga might be fired.

"Hevens, no, there's no basis for that," he said.

Zeilenga on May 22 was one of a group of demonstrators who lowered the American flag at the college to half-staff in memory of James Rector, the young man fatally shot by police during the People's Park disturbances at Berkeley.

Also in May, he wrote an open letter to the entire faculty of the School of Natural Sciences protesting the fact that he was not promoted to associate professor.

"Let it be unmistakenly clear that I have no intention of weakening my militant radical left stance," he said in that letter.

Asked to comment on the request for his resignation, Zeilenga said, "My colleagues don't want to stifle freedom of speech, they just want me to resign."

The letter was signed by Mallary and Fred Boos, Michael McGie, L. Edward Millet and Robert Plumb.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Senate Panel Can't Agree On State's Stand On DDT Checks

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate Agriculture Committee will meet behind closed doors next week in its continuing effort to decide how far the state should go in controlling the use of DDT in California.

The committee held a closed meeting last night but failed to agree on what action should be taken on anti-DDT legislation before it.

Chairman Fred Marler Jr., R-Redding, later told reporters the committee will approve at least one bill declaring a "strong concern" of the Legislature about the use of DDT and hard pesticides.

"We will put a bill out that is better than nothing," he said.

Sen. John Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, who said he was not invited to the meeting, is author of a bill which bans DDT starting in 1972. He had amended the measure to change the cutoff date from next January.

Marler said the committee must decide whether it wants a firm cutoff date or to "leave the cutoff open and let the director of agriculture cut it off as soon as it is practical." Marler has said he favors the latter approach.

He said the Nejedly bill might be coupled with two bills by Sen. Anthony Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, which require the reporting of pesticide sales and give the department new standards under which a harmful pesticide could be banned by administrative order.

Both the Nejedly and Beilenson bills were held for further study by the committee last week after a six-hour hearing.

BOND WORRY

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Reagan administration has a problem: It can't finish the California Water Project without selling bonds. And bonds aren't being sold in today's tight money market.

Its solution is to raise the maximum interest rate on general obligation bonds from 5 to 7 per cent. That idea was endorsed yesterday by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

It already had been by the Senate.

"I think we'll have high interst rates for an extended period into the future," warned Harold Ostergren, vice president of Dillon, Read & Co., a New York firm which acts as financial consultant for the state water project.

"It would be tremendously advantageous for the state to have as much leeway as possible on interest rates," he said.

The committee, on a voice vote, sent a bill hiking the interest ceiling to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. It also sent a proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the change to the elections and constitutional amendments committee. A third measure permitting the constitutional amendment to be placed on the 1970 primary ballot was sent to the floor.

The committee, also on a voice vote, rejected a proposal to place the constitutional amendment before voters at a special statewide election this November.

CAMPUS UNREST

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill authorizing jail sentences for campus troublemakers has passed the Assembly despite complaints by some lawmakers that it would fail to discourge militants.

On a 54-10 vote, the Assembly yesterday approved and sent to the Senate the measure by Assemblyman Frank Murphy, R-Santa Cruz, which would crack down on illegal demonstrators at the University of California, state colleges and junior colleges.

But Negro Assemblyman John Miller, D-Berkeley, said the bill "does absolutely nothing. The people who precipitate campus disturbances don't really care about what the law says."

Murphy replied the bill "does do something. It gives to the administrations the ability to act."

The bill provides jail terms for persons repeatedly convicted of using indecent language on campus, makes it a misdemeanor for a student barred from campus to return without special permission, authorizes campus administrators to ban potential troublemakers and prohibits use of loudspeaking equipment on campus without approval of the administration.

BARGAINING

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A union-sponsored bill to establish collective bargaining procedures for California farm workers is dead for the current session of the Legislature.

The Senate Agriculture Committee yesterday sent the measure by Sen. Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, to a between-sessions study.

Petris said his proposal would enable farm workers to hold an election and select an agent to bargain for them with growers.

IMMUNITY PLAN

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting the California attorney general to guarantee immunity from prosecution to persons who testify about activities of the Mafia or other underworld organizations has won approval in the state Assembly.

The measure by Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, was cleared to the Senate yesterday on a 55-5 vote of the lower house.

The bill would permit Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch's investigators to request courts to force persons with knowledge about criminal activities to testify. They would be granted immunity.

CIGARETTES

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The tobacco industry today prepared its case against a bill to ban cigarette advertising in California.

Joseph F. Mahoney, top lobbyist for the California Association of Tobacco Distributors, said yesterday he would oppose the measure when it is heard by an Assembly committee.

"We will testify very strongly against it in the Assembly," he said. "Cigarettes are a legally constituted product and I don't think legislators have a right to regulate such a product through its advertising."

The measure was assigned to the Assembly Commerce and Public Utilities Committee by Republican Speaker Robert T. Monagan of Tracy. The referral represented a setback for the author.

Chiropractor Urges Medicare Inclusion

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Gerald M. Brassard of Beaumont, Tex., newly elected president of the American Chiropractic Association, yesterday urged that chiropractic services be included in Medicare.

Speaking at the association's national convention, Brassard said, "We have facts and figures to prove that the inclusion of chiropractic in Medicare will save costs on the hospitalization benefit and will not add costs to the supplementary insurance benefits in any significant way."

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from the California and National Parent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

"Ballad of Josie" — An amusing western set in Wyoming at the time the state was a struggling territory and Doris Day struggles for woman's independence.

"Finian's Rainbow" — Musical comedy combines fantasy with satire. Sets are lovely, songs a delight and an excellent dance group.

"Gone With the Wind" — Famous film classic now transposed to super screen with stereophonic sound remains one of the landmarks in American filmmaking.

"High, Wild and Free" — Filmed in northern British Columbia. Photographer Gordon Eastman gives us a tribute of some of the last unspoiled country left in the northern hemisphere. Excellent.

"Paper Lion" — Hilarious account of a writer's adventures at the training camp of Detroit Lions football team.

"Swiss Family Robinson" — Adventure story is a delight of all ages.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Charly" — Poignant dramatization of a fictional case history of first human subject of a new type of brain surgery on a mentally retarded young man. Thought-provoking, sensitive performances from the cast.

"Guns of the Magnificent Seven" — Mexican revolutionaries fighting the tyrannical Diaz regime in 1890's. Much violence and torture shown.

"Hannibal Brooks" — A warm gently comic wartime film that affirms human values can surmount the brutalities of war. Too much violence for young children.

"Illustrated Man" — Carnival man has each of his adventures tatooed on his body. The stories are, to say the least, weird and best left to interpretation of the viewer.

"Where Eagles Dare" — Tale of rescue of American general from Nazi stronghold high atop a Bavarian mountain by a group of allied agents. Lots of exciting action, surprise twists, very suspenseful and violent.

"Winning" — Story of a race driver, his wife and stepson. Will appeal to those who enjoy car racing.

BORDERLINE
(Some say adults only)

"I Love You, Alice B. Toklas" — Establishment and the hippies are spoofed to a fare-thee-well in this lively contemporary comedy.

ADULTS ONLY

"Goodbye, Columbus" — Picture of a Jewish family is real and humorous. The warmth of the people comes through all the surface vulgarity. Explicit sex and nudity.

"Killing of Sister George" — Title taken from character which an actress portrays on TV. Film treats lesbiansim with unprescendented explicitness with lewd scenes blatantly shown.

Dance Class Set

A creative dance class for children, ages three through 12, will be held at Terra Linda High School on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon. The last day to register will be Tuesday at the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department.

International Folk Dances On Program

The Kopachka and Rikudom dance groups will perform folk dances from various countries at 2 p.m. Sunday in the amphitheater of Old Mill Park in Mill Valley.

The performance will be sponsored by the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts and the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department.

San Marin Concert

The San Marin High School Band of Novato will present a one-hour concert on Sept. 4 at the California State Fair in Sacramento. The 50-member band will join other high school bands from California who will perform at the fair, Aug. 22 through Sept. 9.

2 GOOD REASONS TO COME TO THE MIYAKO
(OR 1 GOOD REASON TO COME TWICE)

Yukiko Hirasawa and Jimmy Borges. A couple of singers who really know how to show people a good time. And both are currently appearing in our Garden Bar. Yukiko specializes in Japanese songs—from folk to folk rock. You'll find her charming. Jimmy, well Jimmy's specialty is having fun, musically. And it's contagious. Come see for yourself. Yukiko sings Sundays and Mondays from 9 'til 2; Jimmy Tuesdays through Saturdays—same hours. And when they're coffeebreaking, there's dancing and drinking to keep you awake. The dinners are good and the parking is plentiful. So plan to spend the evening when you come. (And plan to come twice. To hear both.)

Walsh Jury Fails On Manslaughter

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — A Sonoma County jury failed to return a verdict yesterday against Vera Mae Walsh, former Fairfax practical nurse, on a charge of manslaughter, but found her guilty on two counts of forgery.

After 12 hours of deliberation, the jury returned to the courtroom at 12:30 a.m. and told Superior Court Judge Joseph P. Murphy Jr. that it would be impossible to agree on a verdict. The judge accepted the jury's decision that continued deliberation would serve no purpose.

John W. Hawkes, assistant district attorney, said his office would proceed with their case against Mrs. Walsh on July 7 and ask for a new trial. Sentencing on the forgery charges is also set for July 7.

Mrs. Walsh is accused of the Jan. 5 death of her patient, Mrs. Gloria Giannis, who was found dead in Mrs. Walsh's Santa Rosa apartment on Jan. 10. Toxicology tests showed that she had died from an overdose of drugs.

In the course of the trial, Mrs. Walsh's attorney, Albert Rizzo, presented evidence that Mrs. Giannis, a former mental patient, had been despondent and may have committed suicide.

Hawkes offered witnesses who testified that Mrs. Giannis had been in a good frame of mind and psychologists who said she was not suicide-prone. Hawkes said that Mrs. Walsh must have felt some guilt concerning her patient's death or she would not have concealed the death for five days.

On the forgery charges, Mrs. Walsh was found guilty of forging Mrs. Giannis's name to two checks totaling $235 after her death.

Mrs. Walsh will be sentenced Monday in Marin Superior Court for the theft of valuables from the home of a Fairfax couple by whom she had been employed.

$3,915,000 Dixie School Budget Set

Dixie School District trustees have adopted a tentative 1969-70 budget of $3,915,000, up $330,000 from the present spending program.

Dist. Supt. Clifford W. Campbell estimated the budget would require the maximum general operating tax of $3.35 per $100 of assessed valuation voted by district residents three years ago. The total district tax rate is currently $3.69.

Dr. Campbell attributed the higher budget to a projected 153-student increase in the district this fall and a 6 per cent rise in per-pupil cost.

Trustees, who earlier this month voted a 10 per cent increase in the teachers' salary schedule, Wednesday night adopted a psychologists' pay scheduled ranging from $10,500 to $18,550 a year and a schedule for principals and the director of personnel ranging from $14,000 to $18,500. The board also awarded two-year contracts to Asst. Supt. Joseph B. Goff and Raymond Riley at $20,900 each and set Campbell's salary at $23,200.

Campbell was hired last month to replace the district's long-time superintendent, Dennie B. Willis.

In other business, the board named Walter M. Vater, 39, of Vacaville, as principal of Vallecito Junior High School, replacing Dr. Earl Thomason, who was transferred to the principalship of Bernard Hoffman School.

Vater, principal of a 1,000-student junior high school in Vacaville, was selected from among 28 applicants. He has been an elementary school principal for seven years and a junior high school principal for four years.

Vater, who will be paid $18,050 a year, will begin work in the Dixie district on Tuesday.

The Dixie School District board also:

SALARIES — Delayed action on new salaries for nonteaching personnel for further employee study.

TENURE — Granted tenure to 23 teachers who have been in the district three years.

BUS — Approved use of district school buses by the Terra Linda Recreation and Park District for recreational activities at a cost of 25 cents per mile and drivers' salaries.

LANGUAGE — Decided to increase emphasis on foreign language education in the seventh and eighth grades, while dropping the program in the sixth grade.

ORGANIZATION — Set the board's annual organizational meeting for 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Highway Official Sees Mass Transit Need

The chairman of the California Highway Commission uncharacteristically admitted yesterday that mass transit is necessary to help move the mass of people around — as he spoke at a meeting sponsored by Citizens for Freeways and Highways.

"I can't see freeways moving the people around — the mass of people that need to be moved," said Vernon J. Cristina, commenting that he hopes Bay Area Rapid Transit and other mass transit will be able to help move them.

More predictably, he did not mention how the necessary mass transit would be financed.

Mostly, however, Cristina talked about freeways and the need for more of them, and the commission's role in providing them.

He called the commission a buffer between the state Highway Division and the people; outlined the criteria used by the commission to decide where freeways should go, and emphasized commission concern for landscaping and conservation.

He said he had been challenged by conservationists and explained, that while he considered effects on ecology and esthetics, his major concern is safety.

"The most beautiful thing in the world is a human life and that's what I'm out to protect," he said.

He commented on Marin's two major state highways, calling Highway 1 "atrocious," and reporting he has "misgivings about Highway 101."

Bruce, Mitchell Feud Again, Over City 'Double Taxation'

By JOANNE GRANT

The long-simmering feud between county Administrator Alan Bruce and Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell has erupted again — this time over a report by Mitchell on "double taxation" of city dwellers.

It all began last week when Mill Valley Mayor Dean N. Meyer, strongly opposed to the policy of "double taxation" in Marin, asked Mitchell for some figures.

Mitchell complied, using figures from the 1969-70 budget, and sent a copy of his report to Bruce.

Bruce immediately wrote Meyer, claiming "serious and obvious errors" in the analysis and tentative conclusions of Mitchell's report.

Bruce warned Meyer that if he used the documents "the results could only be embarrassing to both Mr. Mitchell and yourself," and asked him to wait for a report from the City-County Services Committee.

(Meyer didn't. He used the report at the meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen Wednesday night.)

Bruce added a postscript to Mitchell in his letter to Meyer, calling his attention to the county code section "which places exclusive authority for intergovernmental relationships with the County Administrator."

Bruce continued, "On tax equity questions, you are instructed henceforth to respond only to such requests as you may receive from the City-County Services Committee through this office, and to refer requests from other sources to the committee through this office."

Mitchell replied in a memorandum to Bruce this week, maintaining his analysis "is a factual one" using the proposed budget, with minor differences to conform with the final budget.

"The use of these figures would not embarrass me in the least," Mitchell told Bruce.

He pointed out Meyer made the request as a citizen and a taxpayer of the county and "he was entitled to an answer."

Wrote Mitchell: "I do not question your authority relative to intergovernmental relationships (with the City-County Services Committee). However, I feel your position is irrelevant since I responded to an inquiry made by an individual who happens to be the mayor of Mill Valley and vitally interested in this problem, and I did not write to the City-County Services Committee," Mitchell said.

"Finally, as an elected official, I am very jealous of my perogative 'not to be muzzled' and I am certain that the entire board of supervisors respects this constitutional right," said Mitchell.

He noted in a postscript that the entire exchange had been forwarded to George Blackwell, chairman of the municipalities, districts and commissions committee of the 1969 Grand Jury as he is "very interested in this subject."

The exchange follows a May feud sparked by the auditor-controller's report of estimated county tax requirements for the 1969-70 fiscal year.

Eagle Honor For Michael Gosliner, 15

Michael Gosliner, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goliner of 859 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo will receive his Eagle Scout award Monday at 8 p.m. at a Court of Honor at Deer Park School, Fairfax.

Gosliner has been in scouting four years and is junior assistant scoutmaster of Troop 49 in Fairfax. He will attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Farragut, Idaho in July as a patrol leader.

He will be a sophomore in the fall at Sir Francis Drake High School where he has ben active in basketball, swimming and is a member of the honor crew and the California Scholarship Federation.

New Macy's Store Due At Bon Air

A second Macy's California store will open in Marin.

In a joint statement by the San Francisco headquarters of the department store chain and the Bon Air Development Co., it has been announced that plans are being made for the construction of a full-line Macy's store of 160,000 square feet at Bon Air Shopping Center in Greenbrae. An opening date has not been established.

James M. Lundy, chairman of the board of Macy's, said there is no intention to close the present store in downtown San Rafael.

The addition of Macy's to the Bon Air complex is the key factor in a program which has been under development for more than a year to make it a regional shopping center. Besides Macy's, plans call for another major department store and approximately 45 fashion and gift stores, according to Niels Schultz Sr., head of Bon Air Development Co.

All stores in the new addition, to be constructed east of the existing Bon Air stores, will face a climate-controlled mall. They will add another 500,000 square feet of retail shopping area to the present estimated 90,000 square feet. The entire center will cover approximately 49 acres between Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Corte Madera Creek, including parking for about 3,300 automobiles.

Neal Butler, Bon Air project manager, said Macy's will occupy two stories at the east end of the new addition and the second department store will be at the west end, a short distance from Petrini's market. Smaller shops will be located between the two major stores, he said.

No commitments in writing to enter Bon Air have been received from any other stores, according to Schultz, but he said that Winmar Co., Inc., a national real estate development company has been appointed to handle the leasing program.

Wells Still Polluted At Tomales

The majority of the wells in Tomales remain contaminated with bacteria and the warning to boil water drawn from them may continue indefinitely, according to district sanitarian James Wong of the environmental health office.

Since the outbreak of hepatitis in Tomales early this month, there have been no more than the original three cases, Wong said.

However, his office has taken samples from 39 wells and found only 14 wells with water pure enough for human use, he said. All of the other wells have a bacteria count too high to be safe for human consumption, according to state standards, he said.

The contamination may come from septic tanks which are less than the required 100 feet from a well, or it may come from contaminated surface seepage, possibly caused by animals, he said.

"No one can say for sure where the contamination comes from," Wong said.

He also said that there was no direct evidence that the hepatitis cases are connected to impure water.

Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer, on June 11 advised all persons in Tomales to boil all water.

Those who want to avoid boiling water may put a chlorinator on their well, Wong said. There are now five that have chlorinators and are safe, according to Wong.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, June 27, the 178th day of 1969 with 187 to follow.

The moon is between the first quarter and new phase. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1787 English historian, Edward Gibbon, completed the writing of "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire."

In 1893 a major economic depression began as prices on the New York Stock Exchange collapsed.

In 1950 President Harry S. Truman ordered U.S. Naval and Air Forces to help repel the North Korean invasion of South Korea.

In 1960 more than 100 persons were killed when a typhoon struck Luzon in the Philippines.

A thought for the day: Oliver Wendell Holmes once said... "Knowledge and timber shouldn't be used much until they are seasoned."

Library Cards On First Visit

Library cards for Mill Valley residents will be issued whenever residents come in for books, librarian Dorothy Thomas said yesterday.

Residents do not face a Tuesday deadline, she said, although the library will start charging nonresidents then for library use.

Residents will need cards in order to check out books, but cards can be issued whenever a resident comes in, Mrs. Thomas said. There is no waiting period. Residents should bring some proof of residence in the city, she said.

Farsighted Stripping Play Produces Flawless Six Spades

No discussion of throw-in plays would be complete without a glance at Harry Fishbein's farsighted stripping play, executed many years ago at a national tournament. Now in his 70s, Fishbein is still one of the most admired partners and feared opponents in the game.

TAKES WITH ACE

Fishbein naturally took the first trick with dummy's ace of clubs. The average player would next lead a trump from dummy, but Fishbein saw it might be important to strip out the clubs. He therefore led dummy's low club and ruffed it in his hand.

Now Fishbein led the ace of spades, and West's club discard gave him the bad news. Declarer cashed the queen of hearts and led diamonds from the top down.

When South led the king of diamonds, East ruffed because he could not gain by discarding. But East could not return a club thanks to Fishbein's play at the second trick. East's best return was the jack of hearts to dummy's king, but this gave declarer an entry to dummy.

DISCARDS DIAMOND

Fishbein discarded a diamond on the heart return and promptly led dummy's ace of hearts. East couldn't afford to discard, since then South would get rid of the ten of diamonds and draw trumps.

When East ruffed for the second time, South overruffed and drew the last trump. This left one trump still in dummy. Fishbein could cash the queen of diamonds and ruff his last diamond in dummy, assuring the slam.

NEEDS ENTRY

If Fishbein had led a trump from dummy at the second trick East would have been able to get out safely with a club on ruffing the king of diamonds. Without an entry to dummy South would have been unable to make his slam.

Finch Drops Fight For Health Officer

Dirksen, AMA Play Part In Knowles' Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Robert H. Finch dropped today his fight to have Dr. John H. Knowles nominated as the nation's top health officer, and Knowles blamed segments of the American Medical Association for his failure to get the job.

"In all modesty," Knowles said at Boston, "this is the only group—the trustees of the AMA and AMPAC the political action committee of the AMA—in the country that was against Secretary Finch's decision to have me nominated."

There was a general agreement here that the opposition of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader in the Senate, played a major port in the administration decision to give up the fight for Knowles.

"I have reluctantly and regretfully decided and today advised Dr. John Knowles that the protracted and distorted discussion regarding his appointment as assistant secretary for health and scientific affairs has resulted in a situation in which he would not be able to function effectively," Finch said.

Finch said he would soon ask President Richard M. Nixon to nominate someone else, but he did not name a candidate.

Finch's simple nine-line statement was handed out by a department information officer in a tiny, crowded press room down the hall from Finch's office.

The statement came after a week of bitter behind-the-scenes struggling in the administration.

There were reports only a day earlier that Finch, the health, education and welfare boss, had said he would quit if the President did not end a six-month political stalemate and nominate Knowles, director of Massachusetts General Hospital and a long-time backer of causes unpopular to elements of organized medicine.

Both Finch and the White House denied these resignation reports.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said on the presidential plane en route to Massena, N.Y.: "I am quite confident the final decision will be made soon and it is very likely that an announcement regarding the nomination for this position by the President will be made tomorrow at the 10 a.m. briefing at the Waldorf-Astoria."

President Nixon was on his way to a visit to the St. Lawrence Seaway. He will be in

GOP PROPOSAL

1 Pct. Sales Tax Hike In New Reform Package

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan and Assembly Republicans proposed a 1 per cent sales tax increase today to finance a new property tax reduction plan as a means of breaking a bitter legislative fiscal deadlock.

The proposal would raise $458 million by boosting the statewide sales tax from 5 to 6 per cent. It would go up to 6.5 per cent in the three counties in the Bay Area Rapid Transit District, Alameda, Contra Costa and San Francisco, where a higher rate will be in effect to finance the transit system.

The plan would raise another $7 million by cutting down the tax credits that single people and married couples are permitted to deduct from their in*come taxes.*

This would raise $465 million to finance major property tax cuts.

This would raise money to finance an increase in the homeowners' property tax reduction, reductions in the business inventory tax, more senior citizens property tax relief and other property tax cuts.

The program, proposed by the Assembly Republican leaders and endorsed by Reagan, was put forth to win the support of minority Democrats who refuse to support the Republican governor's $6.19 billion budget.

They are holding out for major concessions—an acceptable tax reform plan and more state aid to local schools. Without their votes, Republicans can't get the two-thirds majority of 54 needed for budget passage in the house, which is 41-39 Republican.

And, unless a budget is sent to the governor by midnight Monday, the end of the fiscal year, the state won't have the funds to pay its bills.

Assemblyman W. Craig Biddle, R-Riverside, who presented the new plan to the Republican caucus, said he didn't know if the Democrats would support it.

The plan differs substantially from the one Reagan presented to the Legislature in April.

Reagan then proposed a two

City Is Barricaded After Police Shot

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty-two blocks of a predominantly Negro section of Kokomo, Ind., were sealed off by police today after shotgun snipers wounded 10 police, including Chief Raymond Kellar. Violence also broke out in Omaha, Neb., and Cairo, Ill.

None of the Kokomo policemen were hurt seriously, according to Chief Kellar who was treated on the scene for a shotgun pellet wound on his right shoulder.

Supt. Robert Konkle of the Indiana State Police ordered units of specially trained riot troopers sent to the city after he received reports that the officers had been fired on. The troopers stood by outside the trouble area.

The disturbance broke out last night when police cars sent to investigate youth smashing fruit from a stand were hits by bricks and bottles. Kellar said the fruit was being thrown in the heart of the Negro section where a cross was burned early yesterday.

He said 11 whites—nine men and two women ranging in age from 18 to 40—were arrested in the cross burning incident.

The chief said 200 to 300 persons gathered and some began throwing bricks and bottles at cars. Store windows were broken and six shops were looted, Kellar said.

The only fire damage was to a delivery van which was overturned and burned.

In Omaha, small bands firebombed some buildings and pelted cars in the city's Near North Side, a largely Negro area. Police said sporadic gunfire came from buildings but no serious injuries were reported during the city's third night of turmoil.

A dry goods store and a liquor store were destroyed last night by firebombs and a branch post office damaged.

A Negro patrolman, Arnold Daley, was hospitalized with se-

Army Will Burn Poisonous Gas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon said today the Army will burn 12,643 tons of poisonous mustard gas at U.S. military installations as recommended by the National Academy of Sciences last week.

Burning was proposed by the scientific group which suggested alternatives to the Army's controversial plan to dump 27,000 tons of obsolete chemical munitions, among them the mustard gas, into the Atlantic Ocean.

The Army said it has not decided where all of the mustard liquid, contained in one-ton steel containers, will be burned but most of the incineration is expected to be handled by the Rocky Mountain arsenal in Colorado.

Final Rites For Judy In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — A private funeral service was held today for Judy Garland after 21,000 people had filed by her casket to say a last goodbye. Actor James Mason said in his eulogy that she had given so much, so richly, that there was really no way for anyone to repay her.

"She could sing so that it would break your heart," Mason said. She was the "most sympathetic, the funniest, the sharpest, and the most stimulating woman I ever knew.

"She was a lady who gave so much and richly both to the vast audience whom she entertained and to the friends around her whom she loved that there was no currency in which to repay her."

Ray Bolger, who played the Scarecrow in Miss Garland's famous film, "The Wizard of Oz" was among the first of the celebrities to arrive.

Mickey Rooney, who starred with Miss Garland in "Andy Hardy" walked very quickly into the chapel, head down.

Miss Garland, who was found dead by her fifth husband, Mickey Deans, on Sunday in their London apartment from an accidental dose of sleeping pills, was to be buried in Ferncliff Cemetery Mausoleum, Hartsdale, N.Y.

F111 Wings Will Be Strengthened

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force announced today it is lifting operating restrictions on the F111 fighter and will start next month on a $15 million program of strengthening the plane's wings.

The restrictions on the amount of stress to which the plane might be subjected in flight were imposed last October after indications that a F111 had crashed because of wing cracks.

Starting next month, Glasser said, 140 to 150 planes will be strengthened at a cost of about $100,000 each.

Stopgap Tax Measure Rushed To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress completed action today on an emergency bill to continue through July present tax withholding rates pending a decision on extending the 10 per cent income surtax.

The House sent the measure to President Richard M. Nixon by voice vote. The Senate passed it Wednesday.

Supporters of the withholding extension emphasized that the bill did not commit anyone to support the surtax continuance.

"This is a matter of housekeeping," said Chairman William M. Colmer, D-Miss., of the Rules Committee. Without it, Clomer added, there would be "a lot of confusion" later if the surtax was continued but withholding had ceased.

The surtax, imposed last year, expires at midnight next Monday. Legislation to extend it is pending but has not been acted on by either branch of Congress The House has scheduled a vote on the controversial proposal for next Monday.

Without the withholding extension, the government and employers would have to stop withholding at present rates starting next Tuesday, and then change the system later if the surtax was continued.

Should the surtax be allowed to die, most taxpayers would get a refund of the money withheld.

Meanwhile, Rep. Richard Fulton, D-Tenn., a member of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, served notice he would vote against an extension of the surtax.

The temporary bill drew much less opposition in Congress than original proposals to extend the surtax through Dec. 31, then cut it by half through the first half of next year, as President Nixon asked.

Democratic House leaders decided on Monday they didn't have the votes to grant Nixon's request.

The next day, the Senate

Nixon, Trudeau Confer At Seaway Anniversary Event

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon shook hands with Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau today in an international meeting on the St. Lawrence Seaway, a joint Canadian-American project that has breathed the life of sea travel into a vast segment of North America.

The two heads of state met on the Moses-Saunders Power Dam, then left for ceremonies on the New York State side of the 181-mile seaway.

A Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman stood by as Nixon and Trudeau met and chatted briefly. The big power dam was decked out in flowers and bunting for the meeting.

Nixon's airplane landed at Plattsburgh Air Force Base at 12:20 p.m. (EDT), and the presidential party made the 50-mile trip to Massena in helicopters.

The Nixon visit coincided with the 10th anniversary of the opening of the Seaway. An afternoon visit to Montreal with Trudeau was to herald Nixon's first presidential mission north of the border since taking office.

Five Booked After Check Cashing Try

Five persons from San Francisco were booked into Marin County Jail yesterday afternoon after one of the group, according to police, attempted to pass a $125 stolen check at Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera.

The arrests led to the discovery of a paper bag containing eight apparently stolen checks, plus a narcotics kit which one of the group jettisoned into a waste basket while alone in the police interrogation room, officers said.

Booked were Michael Erin Mur'ray, 24, on suspicion of passing a fraudulent check, conspiracy, possessing a stolen credit card and on a hold for his parole officer; Margaret Louise Johnson, 36, for investigation of a narcotics kit; Aray Turner, 30, Roy Lee Walker, 23 and Tina Turner, 28, all on suspicion of passing a fraudulent check.

Miss Johnson gave her address as San Francisco; the other four suspects gave no addresses, police reported. All remained in jail today in lieu of $6,250 bail.

Officer Fred Talmadge responded to a call at the store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center at 1:33 p.m., where a store security officer said Walker had Nonprofit Corporation Bus Needs Answer?

Formation of a non-profit corporation to lease buses to Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District was proposed today by the district's auditor, Gordon E. Dahlgren.

The corporation's directors would be appointed by the bridge board, and would sell tax-free bonds to finance the purchase of the buses the corporation would lease to the district.

Dahlgren, noting "it doesn't cost anyone any money," told directors it would be the "best approach to financing any of the bus systems being considered by the district.

Director Peter Tamaras, of San Francisco, termed the proposal "a very ingenious gimmick," and asked Dahlgren to come up with further facts on the idea.

Director Lowell Edington, of Napa County, commented, "We have a complexion of being rich, but we know if we get into some of these things, we're going to need more money."

Dahlgren made his suggestion at the finance committee meeting.

In other business, the finance committee shelved a suggestion by several directors that their automobile mileage expense allowance be raised from 12 to 14 cents per mile. Tamaras, vice chairman of the committee, noted that state and San Francisco paid only 11 cents per mile.

Meeting as the full board, the directors learned that Napa County Superior Court had rejected San Francisco's motion to move Napa County's suit against the district to a San Francisco court.

The suit, filed late last year by Napa County, challenged a 1968 state law that added city councilmen and county supervisors to the bridge district's board of directors.

The district's attorney, Jerome B. White, said the Napa Court had ruled there was nor Did Armstrong Pull Rank For Historic Moon Walk?

NEIL A. ARMSTRONG
First footprints

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Neil A. Armstrong used his "commander's prerogative" to become the first man on the moon, a former space agency official says. But other officials say no firm plan ever was made to have anyone else make the first footprints on the moon.

Paul Haney, former public affairs officer at the Manned Spacecraft Center, said yesterday that for almost three years the lunar module pilot, not the commander, had been scheduled to be first on the moon regardless of personalities.

Asked if he thought Armstrong pulled rank to become the first on the moon, Haney said:

"It shouldn't be that he pulled rank, but I think he was not unaware of the importance of the first man who stepped onto the moon and looked at it very carefully and decided that perhaps it should be the commander's prerogative."

George M. Low, Apollo program manager, said that the selection of Armstrong as the first man represents no change, although preliminary studies had been made with the lunar module pilot as the first man on the moon.

"The only firm plan ever made was the one we're going to go with," said Low. He said it is based on rehearsals of the moon surface activities and on the recommendation of flight crew training officials.

Present plans call for Armstrong and Eduard E. Aldrin Jr. to land the Apollo 11 lunar module on the moon July 20. In the early hours of July 21, Armstrong is to walk down a ladder to the moon's surface. He is to be followed 27 minutes later by Aldrin.

It was after the Apollo 11 crew of Armstrong, a civilian, as commander, Air Force Colonel Aldrin as lunar module pilot and Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Collins as command module pilot was named that the change was made, Haney said.

Aldrin even practiced the maneuvers planned for the first man on the moon, Haney said.

It was decided in mid-April, Haney said, that Armstrong and not Aldrin would be the first man to walk on another celestial body.

"Precisely why the change, I don't know, but I do know it caused quite an upset," Haney said. The former space official said he was present at the meeting where the change was announced.

Low said Armstrong could exercise no personal prerogative in the decision. He said the final plan had to be approved by the Configuration Control Board.

Special Camp Still Under Cong Attack

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong claimed today forces under the Communist command have thrown South Vietnamese troops into a "desperate position" at Ben Het, where the South Vietnamese are facing their first hard test against a sizable enemy force.

A clandestine broadcast by the Viet Cong said the Special Forces camp in the central highlands is encircled and under continuous attack.

The supply road to the camp has been cut since Tuesday but U.S. cargo planes have dropped more than 40 tons of supplies since then. A company of fresh South Vietnamese irregulars—civilian militiamen—also was flown in.

The Viet Cong broadcast spoke of National Liberation Front troops and local guerrillas as the enemy force beseiging Ben Het. But the U.S. Command has identified the enemy force as two regiments of North Vietnamese, totaling about 3,000 men.

The camp is manned by 700 South Vietnamese irregulars, U.S. Green Berets and American artillery men. About 4,500 South Vietnamese army regulars are operating around the camp.

The U.S. Command views the Ben Het campaign as a test of how the South Vietnamese can handle themselves against the North Vietnamese.

The United States and South Vietnam hope to turn more of the fighting on the allied side over to government forces as U.S. troops go home.

The Viet Cong broadcast said the Communist command's force at Ben Het has been pressing attacks on the South Vietnamese at Ben Het since June 6, although the enemy presence there had been noted two months ago.

U.S. Air Force men flying to Ben Het also reported the situation at Ben Het is tight for the allies.

The Air Force said its cargo planes have been dropping water into the camp, but one report said Americans manning one of three hilltop artillery batteries at Ben Het have been out of fresh water for five days.

Bad weather and what some American officers said was South Vietnamese reluctance to push the infantry war limited allied attempts to lift the siege.

North Vietnamese gunners rained 125 shells on the Special Forces camp yesterday — the fourth day Ben Het withstood a barrage of more than 100 rounds. Another 88 mortar shells fell between midnight and 4 p.m. today.

Spokesmen said nine Americans and three South Vietnamese irregulars were wounded today, while casualties yesterday were termed light.

Elsewhere in South Vietnam, 10 enemy rocket and mortar attacks hit allied towns and bases, the lowest number in more than three weeks.

Ground fighting also was light. Two brief clashes were reported today, one near the abandoned combat base at Khe Sanh.

First Seat Move, Then Jet Hijack

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Robert DeFreitas didn't like his seat on his Los Angeles-to-New York flight and asked for another.

He was moved back several rows to where a young, cleancut man sat alone. Minutes later the man stuck a pistol in DeFreitas' ribs and said, "Get up, let's go."

The young man marched DeFreitas to the cockpit of the DC8 and went inside. This was Wednesday afternoon, shortly after the United Air Lines jetliner had taken off from Los Angeles.

DeFreitas, of Upper Saddle River, N.J., recounted his experience yesterday after he, 49 other passengers and the eight crewmen arrived in Miami, via Havana.

The hijacker, a slim man in his mid-20s, left DeFreitas, unharmed, standing outside the cockpit.

Once inside, said Capt. Edward Nibur, the hijacker said, "Let's go to Cuba."

Nibur said the young man, whom he said told him he was from Santa Monica, held the pistol at the back of his neck for almost two hours before he relaxed.

"I told him to have a seat," said Nibur, "and he pressed a little harder and said, 'Keep going, baby'."

Black Point Owner Requests Variance

Contractor L. W. Pedersen will ask Marin County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill Monday to grant a variance to permit construction of a garage within two feet of the rear property line at his home at 136 Harbor Drive, Black Point.

A hearing will be held at 10 a.m. in the Civic Center administration building.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Leg Broken In Leap To Flee Fire

Hodges

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Luther H. Hodges, 70, former North Carolina governor and U.S. secretary of commerce from 1961 to 1965, broke a foot when he jumped from the second story of his home as it was swept by fire last night.

He also suffered smoke inhalation but was reported in satisfactory condition in a hospital. However, his wife was reported in serious condition in North Carolina Memorial Hospital. A doctor said she suffered smoke inhalation, shock and a possible heart attack. She was placed in an intensive care section.

Firemen said Hodges telephoned the alarm, and when they arrived they found him lying on the ground, conscious after his jump. He told them to get Mrs. Hodges from the house.

Students Riot

SEOUL (AP) — About 1,000 rock-hurling students battled 400 riot police on a Seoul street today in a bloody demonstration against moves to amend the constitution so that President Chung Hee Park can seek election to a third term.

Two students were seriously injured and about 10 demonstrators were held for police questioning.

Sirhan Plea

NEW YORK (AP) —Former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg has written Gov. Ronald Reagan of California asking commutation of the death sentence on Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, assassin of Robert F. Kennedy.

Noting that he himself had been listed in Sirhan's diary as an assassination prospect, Goldberg said:

"The evolving standards of decency that mark the progresss of our society now condenn as barbaric and inhuam the deliberate institutionalized taking of human life by the state."

Gaming License

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Entertainer Dean Martin has received a license from the state Gaming Commission to be part owner of the Rivera Hotel, which runs a gambling casino in Las Vegas. In his petition, Martin said he had a 10 per cent interest in the enterprise.

SDS Ban Backed By GOP Women

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The board of directors of the California Republican Women has endorsed a proposal that the Students for a Democratic Society be banned from state campuses.

The board, meeting at San Francisco International Airport, yesterday concluded a two-day session by passing resolutions supporting Dr. Max Rafferty's recommendations regarding a ban on the SDS.

Education was the main topic discussed by the GOP women who endorsed Reagan Administration school programs, pass a resolution critical of sex education programs, and backed the proposal that college students who get state aid should pay it back.

To Visit Royalty

WASHINGTON (UPI) Tricia Nixon will fly to London tomorrow for a week-long whirl of hobnobbing with royalty at parties and traditional British sporting events.

It will be the President's 23-year-old daughter's first solo adventure abroad. She has been to England three times previously with her family in 1963, 1964 and 1965.

World Tour

ROME (AP) — Italian film maker Federico Fellini says he plans to take time off to 'go around the world as a journalist, observing reality," as a prelude to making a movie on "the great characters of our time."

He siad he already had arranged to visit Red China next April and hoped to meet Mao Tse-tung.

Granted Divorce

SANTA MONICA (AP) — Actress Kathryn Hays has won a divorce from actor Glenn Ford on a cruelty charge. Miss Hays, 33, said in her petition granted yesterday that Ford, 52, ignored her and showed no interest in her acting career.

The were married, each for the second time, on March 27, 1966.

First Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — In his first official public act since becoming U.S. chief justice, Warren E. Burger swore in Harold F. Faught yesterday as assistant postmaster general.

$10 Million For Vietnam Land Reform

SAIGON (AP) — The United States today allocated $10 million to support a radical new South Vietnamese land reform program which would give land to more than 800,000 rice farmers.

The plan is the most sweeping in a long series of largely ineffective reform attempts and could have strong political implications.

The enemy long has capitalized on the fact that a handful of landlords own most land used in producing rice, South Vietnam's most important crop. Attempts at land reform have been made for nearly two decades, but vested interests and administrative snarls sharply limited their effect.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's government is pushing for legislative approval of the program within a month so it can begin redistributing land in August.

As outlined by the agriculture and land reform minister, Cao Van Than, the plan would involve expropriation of 3.2 million acres of rice land from private landlords, religious groups and local governments, which would be paid 20 per cent of the land value in cash and the remainder in eight-year, 5 per cent bonds.

Tenants would be "allowed and encouraged" to apply for title to their plots, which would be free of taxes the first year.

The three-year program would cost $400 million, 10 per cent of which the government hopes to get from the United States.

U.N. Observer Policy Argued

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — If U.N. military observers go to Vietnam or Biafra to oversee any cease-fire, should they report to the secretary-general as they do now or to a committee of the Security Council?

The United States wants them to be directed by the secretary-general. The Soviet Union wants them to be responsible to the Security Council.

The disagreement surfaced today in proposals to the U.N. Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations which is drafting guidelines for observers. It will have to be resolved before the committee's report is prepared Aug. 18 for the General Assembly.

The U.S. working paper calls for "a clear line of control from the authorizing political organ," the council, "through the secretary-general to the field."

This is the system under which U.N. observers on the cease-fire lines in the Middle East now operate, with Norwegian Lt. Gen. Odd Bull reporting to Secretary-General U Thant.

But the Soviet Union wants a change, remembering its 1960-61 dispute with former Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold over the U.N. peacekeeping force in the Congo.

CEREMONY SITE — State, county and San Rafael officials will gather at 2 p.m. Monday for groundbreaking ceremonies between Third and Fourth streets to mark the start of construction of Highway 101 widening through San Rafael.

State Official Due At Rites For San Rafael's Viaduct

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new parallel viaduct in San Rafael that will continue the widening of Highway 101 in Marin from four to six lanes will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Fourth Street just west of the existing viaduct.

James A. Moe, state director of public works, is expected to attend the ceremonies, sponsored jointly by the City of San Rafael and the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

The groundbreaking will mark the beginning of construction of the eight-tenths of a mile project to build a new structure, parallel to and west of the existing viaduct, to carry the three new southbound lanes of Route 101.

The existing viaduct — installed in 1940 with a median barrier added in 1965 — now carries two lanes in each direction. It will be converted to carry the three northbound lanes.

The contract for the viaduct include highway illumination, soffit lights at street crossings, modifications of signals at Second Street for on-and off-ramps, a new drainage channel, and accompanying structures. Contractor for the new viaduct, with official job limits of one-third of a mile south of Irwin Street to one-third mile north of Mission Avenue, is Murphy Pacific Corp. of Oakland, low bidder, at $2,699,904.

The viaduct is the second recent project to improve freeway service through San Rafael.

The southerly approach to the viaduct is already six lanes. North of the viaduct project, construction is under way to widen 101 from four to six lanes for two miles from Third Street, near the north end of the viaduct, up to North San Pedro Road. This $1.9 million job is now 30 per cent done and is scheduled for completion in late 1969.

In addition to highway widening, the work will include a pedestrian overcrossing at Paloma Avenue near the Coleman School, and major improvements to the existing interchange at North San Pedro Road.

Two years will be required to complete the viaduct project in San Rafael but when it is finished it will eliminate the last four-lane section of 101 within San Rafael.

In fact, with the completion of these two projects, plus the recent widening project northward from San Pedro Road to Miller Creek Road in Marinwood, 101 will be a full six lanes, at the least, through Marin County from the Golden Gate Bridge to the Ignacio Interchange of Routes 101 and 37 with another project now in design that will construct 101 on new alignment as a six lane freeway through to Atherton Avenue in Novato.

Memorial Pool Hit By Vandals

SAN MATEO (UPI)—The swimming pool at the new Martin Luther King Recreation Center was closed today because rampaging youths caused $3,000 damage to pool equipment.

The destruction resulted from the banishing from the pool by a black lifeguard of some black swimmers for refusal to obey rules.

Police said the damage occurred later when about 50 youths swarmed through the center with knives and blackjacks. The pool will not be reopened until the damaged equipment is replaced, recreation officials said.

Mill Valley Home Looted Of Items

Items valued at $400 were taken in the burglary of a Mill Valley home between 9 and 11:21 p.m. yesterday, Mill Valley police reported today.

Taken from the John Laverine residence at 79 Keats Drive were a suitcase, several watches, $125 in coins, two pair of alligator shoes and television-radio set police said.

Antibiotics Refunds Set By Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — Consumers who purchased certain antibiotics between 1954 and 1966 are going to get a chance to share in a $120 million settlement resulting from a damage suit against five drug manufacturers.

Advertisements to appear in newspapers across the country next Tuesday will inform the consumer that if he bought Aureomycin, Terramycin and Tetracycline during the specified period he can file a claim.

The settlement stems from a suit initiated by New York City —and later joined in by 43 states, other cities and concerns —charging the manufacturers illegally agreed to fix prices and overcharged purchasers.

The five companies are American Cyanamid Co., Chas. Pfizer & Co., Bristol-Myers Co., Upjohn Co. and Squibb Beech-Nut, Inc. They have denied liability while making the settlement offer.

Instructions for filing the claim will be contained in the advertisement. Claimants will receive a percentage of what they originally paid.

The cost of the advertisements will be borne by the five companies.

Consumers in New York City were expected to get about $1 million in refunds.

The city expected $5.5 million refund on the drugs it purchased for municipal hospitals and welfare programs.

Drug wholesalers and retail pharmacists also will be eligible to recover.

Smoke Darkens Alaska's Skies

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Visibility dropped to less than half a mile over several thousand square miles of interior Alaska as smoke from more than 50 forest fires—ranging in size up to 300,000 acres—blanketed much of the state.

Nearly 1,400 Bureau of Land Management and military firefighters battled to control 15 fires in the Fairbanks district, including a 300,000-acre blaze northwest of the city. The city was in no danger.

At least 30 fires elsewhere were unchecked because of their "low priority" and a lack of manpower, officials said.

Six major fires were burning in the Anchorage district, the bureau said, but the city was not threatened.

Major Parts Of Back Hoe Stolen

Petaluma police reported today that a back hoe tractor being used for construction of a shopping center on East Washington Street and McDowell Boulevard North was dismantled and stolen some time last night.

Leroy Ress, owner of the equipment, said that major parts of the tractor had been taken and esimated the loss at $504.

West Germans Revise Child Support Laws

(Special to the I-J)

BONN — Illegitimate children in the Federal Republic will enjoy the same rights as legitimate children under a law to go into effect this week.

Under the new law, an illegitimate child will be regarded as related to its father even though the mother acts as guardian. Fathers will be given increased responsibility for the support of illegitimate children.

Child support payment will no longer depend solely on the mother's needs but also on the father's financial resources. Illegitimate children will also be entitled to support after the age of 18.

The most significant innovation is a provision assuring the illegitimate child of a claim to the father's estate. Even in advance of the father's death, the illegitimate offspring will have the right to demand an advance settlement in lieu of an inheritance.

$6,325 Burglary

Hand tools, rifles, watches and cash valued at $6,325 were taken from his home at 1631 Center Road, Novato, between 5:30 and 11 a.m. Tuesday, Joaquin P. Miranda reported yesterday to Novato police.

vere leg cuts. Police were seen escorting firemen into the area.

Police Capt. Gene Scarpino said early today the disruption was "tapering off."

The violence started Tuesday night after a white policemen fatally shot a 14-year-old Negro girl. Firebombs destroyed six businesses Wednesday and police arrested 40 Negroes. Three persons had been arrested by midnight yesterday.

Patrolman James Loder, 30, was charged with manslaughter in connection with the girl's death. He is the adopted son of movie actress Hedy Lamarr. He pleaded innocent and was released in $500 bond.

Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann has ordered a task force of National Guardsmen placed on alert at a local armory.

But Mayor Eugene Leahy decided yesterday against calling in the guardsmen, imposing a curfew or prohibiting liquor and gasoline sales in the neighborhood.

"The condition is under control," said Leahy after meeting with Negro and white leaders.

A curfew was reimposed in Cairo yesterday after whites and Negroes squared off on opposite sides of a street and hurled bricks, bottles, rocks and jeers at one another, near the police station.

Police broke up the encounter quickly. Police Chief William Petersen ordered the 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew immediately afterwards.

Earlier yesterday, a fire which swept a warehouse complex stretching along five blocks, drove about 3,000 residents out of the area when it was feared chemical fumes released by the blaze might be toxic. They returned to their homes when the fumes proved to be nonpoisonous.

passed the temporary measure and House Republican Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford said after a GOP caucus that he counted an additional 40 Republican votes—or 170.

There are 188 Republicans in the House.

If Ford's count was correct, Nixon's proposal needs only about 50 of the House's 245 Democratic votes to gain passage.

Many of the surtax extension opponents are holding the measure hostage for more sweeping tax reform than was drafted by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The committee wrote in a provision providing a tax break to an estimated 13 million low-income wage earners.

The House leadership decided in putting off the surtax showdown to resume work on Nixon's plan after the four-day Independence Day recess.

Clausen Sees No Closing Of Hamilton

Rep. Don H. Clausen today reaffirmed that Hamilton Air Force Base will not close, but said the Defense Department had shut the door for now on any use of the installation by civilian aircraft.

Clausen, R-First District, appeared at a meeting of Marin County officials, aviation representatives and civilian and military employees of Hamilton in the Marin Civic Center.

He read a letter from Robert C. Seamans, secretary of the Air Force, in which Seamans said there were no plans to close Hamilton, despite the recently announced transfer of the headquarters of the Fourth Air Force and the Western Region of the North American Air Defense Command.

Seaman's letter also went on to say that replacement units still were being considered for the ones being pulled out and that the Air Force had no plans for other major changes at Hamilton in the "forseeable future."

A letter from Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard to Clausen ruled out at least for the time being any possibility of joint military-civilian use of Hamilton runways. Packard said increased military traffic is forseen at Hamilton in upcoming years.

Clausen said he disagreed with the decision and hoped an agreement for joint usage could be worked out.

"I think it will be proper for us to keep pressure against the lid," Clausen said.

John F. McInnis, chairman of Marin supervisors, said that "military aircraft operations might be phased out entirely at Hamilton — let's not put our heads in the sand."

"If there is to be a lessening of military use," McInnis said, "We want first opportunity to phase in an industrial operation for Marin."

Clausen said he favored a nationwide airport master plan for construction of large airports and satellite ones around metropolitan areas.

REAGAN

phase program, with $100 million in tax cuts and increases this year and a massive income hike and other changes next year, if approved by the voters.

The second phase, boosting the income tax by an average of 50 per cent to finance property tax cuts of roughly the same amount, was part of a complex program that would require a 1970 vote of the people.

Biddle said the second phase — the most controversial — still is awaiting a hearing and wouldn't be abandoned.

The biggest boon to the property owner in the new plan would come from increasing the homeowners exemption to $1,650. Now it is $7500.

Biddle said this higher exemption would mean an average $165 reduction for taxpayers with a $10 property tax rate, the statewide average.

This would amount a $319 million tax cut.

Earlier, the administration pledged its support to efforts to break the impasse.

$64,100 Budget For Terra Linda

A fiscal 1969-70 budget of $64,100, up $3,455, was approved last night by directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District.

Helen Lontz, district secretary, said the major reason for the budget increase was the absence of carryover funds from the present spending program.

The board estimated the new budget would require a tax rate of 90 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, up six cents.

The budget is made up of $36,730 for salaries, $13,700 for maintenance, $7,500 for street lighting $6,100 for capital outlay, including the final payment on a new fire truck.

KNOWLES

New York Saturday.

Previously Dirksen has said that six persons other than Knowles were under consideration for the appointment.

Of these, he named Dr. Richard Wilbur, in private practice in California and a nephew of Dr. Dwight Wilbur, AMA head; Dr. John Hogeness of the University of Washington faculty, and Dr. John Point of the University of Oklahoma.

At the time, Dirksen could not remember the name of "a doctor from Galveston, Tex.," he said was one of the six nor could he name the other two prospective appointees.

But he said that all six were satisfactory to him—and presumably the AMA.

Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., said "the outrageous pressures which have frustrated the nomination of Dr. John Knowles . . . are a calamity for the country and an offense to the democratic process."

"Only Dr. Knowles himself emerges from this episode with enhanced personal stature," Brooke added in a statement.

A Finch spokesman said the secretary would hold a news conference tomorrow at a time to be announced.

grounds for a change of venue.

Directors took no action on the legislation-public relations committee's recommendations for the 1969-70 budget. Only directors were present, so the recommendations were postponed.

The recommrendations included appropriating $25,000 to the Redwood Empire Association, $8,500 to the San Francisco Visitor's and Convention Bureau, $25,000 for lobbying in Sacramento and $5,000 for direct mail and display advertising.

College Musical Cast Completed

Casting has been completed for "The Unvonventionals," and original musical comedy to be presented by the Young Actors Company at the College of Marin. The play opens July 17 and will run for three consecutive weekends.

The play was written by Alex Herrmann of Kentfield and focuses on the actions of a political convention.

Social Workers Picket At Center

About 30 informational pickets from the Social Workers Union appeared twice today at the Marin Civic Center.

A contract between the county and social and probation workers expires at midnight Monday. No negotiation sessions have been set.

The pickets appeared before work this morning and again at noon. The major issue blocking a new contract is caseloads.

Young Bike Rider Hurt By Collision

Seven-year-old Christopher Knightson, son of Perison Knightson of 706 Drake Avenue, Marin City, was treated for a bruised knee at Marin General Hospital yesterday after he was struck by a car while riding his bicycle near his home.

The California Highway Patrol said the boy was hit by a car driven by Eliot Tyrone Hardy, 18, of 45 Cole Drive, Marin City, at 6:15 p.m. Further details of the mishap were not available.

Revised Plan Approved For Hospital

Plans for the Hy-Lond Convalescent Hospital of 185 beds for the southwest corner of Hill and Indian Valley roads in Novato, were approved last night by the Novato Plan Review Committee.

The plans for the hospital had been approved, but were appealed by Betty Machado of 1424 Dawes Street because of a 60-foot cutbank. The new plans have been revised, changing the structure of the hospital and moving it forward on the lot. This will bring the cutbank in the hill within the city requirement of 20 feet, according to assistant planner Warren Baker.

The plan review committee also approved the plans for the Cloudburst car wash facility on Ford Way and Highway 101.

A 28-square-foot free-standing sign, a 32-square-foot menu sign and an entrance sign were approved for Tiajuana Tacos on Seventh Street south of Grant Avenue.

The plans for landscaping for the Los Robles mobile home park on Bel Marin Keys Boulevard east of Nave Lane were continued until the July 10 meeting of the committee.

tried to pass a stolen check.

The check was drawn on Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, in the account of Darrell, Gatsby, Felson, Advertising Marketing, San Francisco, and the security officer told police two, previous checks on the same account had been passed on April 14 for $96 and on May 22 for $125 and that he had determined them to be stolen.

Walker told police that a friend, who was awaiting in a car in the parking lot, had told him the check was good, officers said.

Talmadage, joined by Officer Charles Newman, took Walker and the other four persons, waiting in a car driven by Mur'ray, to the police station.

Walker said he met the three women that morning and they had taken him to Mur'ray's apartment in San Francisco where the occupants were smoking banana peels, according to police.

The quintet drove around San Francisco, then agreed to drive to Corte Madera to cash the check, Walker told police. Walker said that Miss Turner claimed she couldn't cash the check because she was on welfare, but she had written the check, police said.

Police said they noticed that Mur'ray had a Shell Oil credit card in the name of James T. McBride and on investigation, it was learned to be stolen from Kilpatrick's Bakery in San Francisco where McBride works. Officers said Mur'ray had apparently charged $278 worth of purchases to the credit card.

Newman reported that, he saw Miss Johnson remove something from her brassiere and drop it into a wastebasket.

This was a narcotics kit wrapped in white gauze and pink tissue paper containing two disposable hypodermic needles, an eye dropper syringe and a home made syringe with a rubber nipple off a baby bottle and a red rubber band, police said.

Officers said they also found other narcotics equipment in Miss Johnson's purse.

A brown paper bag was discovered in the vehicle containing a $112 U. S. Treasurer's check made out to Anthony R. Norris, P. O. Box 15441, San Francisco, three Wells Fargo Bank of San Francisco checks for $125, $96, and $115 in the account of Darrell, Gatsby, Felson; three blank Wells Fargo checks on the same account, and a $45 Liberty National Bank of San Francisco check made out to Thomas Williams.

On the floorboard was found a blue plastic, disposable hypodermic needle, officers said.

WILLIAM F. WEGNER
Long-time public servant

OBITUARIES

William F. Wegner Dies At 85

William Frederick Wegner, a former Larkspur City Councilman who also served as that city's building inspector until he was 80, died Wednesday in a local hospital following a long illness. He was 85.

Wegner, a native of Black Hawk, Wis., came to Larkspur in 1907. In 1925 he was appointed to the City Council to fill an unexpired term and then elected in 1926. He left the council in 1928. In 1952 he was named Larkspur's building inspector and he served in that position until 1963.

Prior to being named building inspector, Wegner was in the general contracting business, working in that field for 38 years.

He was also a volunteer fireman in Larkspur and served as the treasurer of that organization for 15 years.

Wegner moved to San Leandro in 1963, but returned to Marin County about nine months ago to enter the hospital.

He was a 25-year-member of the Muir Lodge No. 136 of the Knights of Pythias of Mill Valley and a member of the Marin Rod and Cun Club and the Redwood Presbyterian Church. He is survived by a son, Jean, of Tiburon; a brother, Gus, of Viroqua, Wis., and one granddaughter.

His wife, Elizabeth, to whom he was married for 54 years, died in 1963.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Harry Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Memorial services will be conducted tonight at 8 p.m. at the mortuary by the Knights of Pythias of Mill Valley.

Burial will be private.

MARGARETA LORIGAN

Funeral for Margareta Boyd Lorigan of San Rafael and San Francisco wah held today in San Francisco, with burial in San Francisco National Cemetery.

Mrs. Lorigan, widow of Frank B. Lorigan, a San Francisco attorney, died Wednesday in a San Francisco hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Lorigan was a builder for many years, pioneering in the use of the breakfast nook and apartment balconies. Her Nob Hill apartment house was the first condominium in that area.

In San Rafael, she maintained a home at 1450 Grand Avenue and had lived in the two cities for 60 years. She was a native of California.

She was a member of the Pacific Musical Society, Valley Opera Association, Legion of Honor and the Opera Guild in San Francisco and was active in museum work and civic and charitable activities.

Survivors are four brothers, Edwin C. Street of Piedmont; Clarence H. Street of Walnut Creek; Henry B. Street of Berkeley, and George Street of Florida, and a sister, Mrs. Ann Fehlman of Honolulu.

MRS. JORGENSON

Sophie A. Jorgenson, 87, of Terra Linda, died yesterday at a local hospital after a lengthy illness. She lived with her son, Walter R. Jorgenson at 837 Del Ganado Road.

A native of Iowa, Mrs. Jorgenson same to California in 1956. She had lived in Marin County for eight years. She was a member of the Faith Lutheran Church, San Rafael.

Also surviving are three sisters, Olga Waddill of Sacramento, Emma Miller of Missoula, Mont., and Lydia Arnegard of Redlands.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Valley View Cemetery, Silverton, Ore.

COSY M. WUORI

Cosy Martha Wuori, 69, of 90 Jesse Lane, Petaluma, died yesterday at a local hospital after a short illness.

A native of Kansas, she had lived in California for 40 years and in Petaluma for the past 10 years. Mrs. Wuori was a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

She is survived by four daughters, Faye Diamond of Petaluma, Ilene Clapham of San Jose, Lorene Miller of Reedley, San Joaquin County and Iva Hose of Delano; two stepdaughters, Bessie Howe of Dinuba, San Josquin County, and Rilla McHone of Sacramento; three stepsons, William Stafford and Louis Stafford of Sacramento and Cecil Stafford of Dinuba; and a sister, Viola Martin of Kansas.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma.

CORINA BACIGALUPI

Corina Bacigalupi, 58, of 89 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera, died yesterday at a local hospital after a lengthy illness.

A native of Elk, Mendocino County, she had lived in Marin County 11 years after coming from San Francisco. She was a member of St. Patrick's Church, the Holy Family Guilds and St. James Chapter of the Italian Catholic Federation. She was also active in county bowling leagues.

She is survived by her husband, Laurence J. Bacigalupi, a lithographer with a San Francisco firm, and a sister, Mrs. Gina Urbani of Fort Bragg.

A Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's Church, Larkspur. Entombment will be at St. Helena Catholic Cemetery, St. Helena. The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. today at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

MRS. SINCLAIR

Eleanor B. Sinclair, 80, of Mill Valley, died yesterday at a local hospital following a long illness.

She was the wife of Thomas Sinclair, retired freight supervisor for Canadian Pacific Railway. The couple has lived in Mill Valley for three years, the last two in a rest home. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last year.

A native of Dunfermline, Scotland, Mrs. Sinclair moved to Canada in 1913 and in 1923 moved to Seattle, Wash., living there until Sinclair retired in 1954. She had lived in San Clemente, Orange County, before moving to Marin.

Other survivors are a son, Alexander T. Sinclair of Mill Valley; a daughter, Mrs. Roger H. Duffy of La Crescenta, Glendale County, and a granddaughter.

Private inurnment will be held at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Memorial services will be at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Sausalito Presbyterian Church.

RAMON J. TRUMAN

Private funeral for Ramon J. Truman, 75, a great-grandson of the first elected alcalde (mayor) of San Francisco, was held yesterday in San Francisco.

Truman, the father of Ramon R. Truman of Tiburon, died Tuesday.

He was with the firm of McDonnell and Company, stockbrokers, for 22 years and then became a trustee for the federal bankruptcy court in San Francisco, retiring four years ago.

His great-grandfather was Francisco De Haro, elected alcalde of San Francisco in 1834. He was also a descendant of Jose Antonio Sanchez who came with the Anza expedition of 1775 as one of the first settlers of San Francisco. Later Sanchez was commandante of the Presidio.

Other survivors are his wife, Ruth, of the home in San Francisco; a son, William Clayton of near Washington, D.C., and a sister, Anita M. Truman of San Francisco.

★ ★ COLDWELL, BANKER'S ★ ★ SELECTION OF FINE HOMES

APPEALING MILL VALLEY HOME MILL VALLEY

A very charming small home in an excellent location near Miller Avenue. The living room and dining room are wood paneled, all windows are shuttered. It has 2 bedrooms, 1½ baths and a separate utility room. The landscaping is beautiful with many mature trees and shrubs and a large brick patio completes the picture. $35,000. Eves. 456-3383.

BETTER THAN NEW SAN RAFAEL

Very attractive ranch style home on a level lot in a quiet street. Only 2 years old and in mint condition, this 3 bedroom, 2 bath home offers in-town convenience with a suburban atmosphere. Close to schools and shops. Sunken living room and dining ell. Oak plank floor in family room with brick fireplace. Beautifully landscaped. Dog run at side of house. $41,500. Eves. 453-9583.

Directions: Take Freeway 101 to Terra Linda turnoff, take Manuel Freitas, right on Las Gallinas, right on Skyview Terrace, left on Lucas Park Drive.

DOMINICAN HEIGHTS SAN RAFAEL

A very pleasing 4 bedroom, 2½ bath family home, only four years old, in an excellent residential area. In a beautifully landscaped setting with an abundance of flowers and large oaks, custom swimming POOL for those lazy summer days, outdoor brick barbecue. Home has a formal dining room, large family room with fireplace and is well designed for entertaining and gracious living. Three spacious decks offer a nice view over the hills to Mount Tamalpais. $62,000. Eves. 456-3383.

LOADED WITH EXTRAS SAN ANSELMO

Panoramic view of Mt. Tam and S.F. over the Ross Valley is yours from this large, attractive home, custom built to present owners' requirements. Four bedrooms + den and 4 baths. Home features air conditioning, elevator, water softener, automatic timed sprinkler for low maintenance landscaping, special shutters on all glass doors and windows. Property includes 3-room apartment downstairs. $69,500. Eves. 456-6037.

EXCLUSIVE COUNTRY CLUB AREA SAN RAFAEL

On a really lovely acre of land, tranquil and clustered with lovely specimen trees with a serene view of the hills and bay, this older 2-story residence offers peace and quiet combined with convenience to town. From the spacious living room and master bedroom you walk out to a large deck. A separate entrance hall, separate dining room, den, 3 bedrooms and 2 baths, large storage areas complete the picture. The unfinished but roughed-in basement area could be made into a family room — lots of possibilities. Excellent pool site available. Owner will carry first deed of trust at 7½% with $20,000 down. $75,000. Eves. 453-5718.

UNIQUE DESIGN MILL VALLEY

This extraordinary 2,300 sq. ft. home is supported entirely on Baxter poles — startling and spectacular. All the rooms are unusually large with beamed ceilings. It has a roomy den or family room with circular fireplace opening to one of three spacious decks. There is dining space and a breakfast area, 3 bedrooms and 3 baths, and this splendid home is not yet a year old. Woodsy atmosphere but convenient to town with easy San Francisco commute. $79,500. Eves. 435-1590.

EAGLE'S EYE VIEW NOVATO

can be yours from this superb custom built contemporary 3 bedroom, 2 bath home high above Marin Country Club. Enormous sunken living room with great stone fireplace offers a dramatic view all the way to the bay over valley and lush green golf course. Huge master bedroom has sunken tub. Beautiful carpets and drapes throughout this spectacular home. Three-room guest house, ideal for in-laws. Large protected pool, oak studded grounds. $89,500. Eves. 453-8881.

THIS IS HORSE COUNTRY! NOVATO

Eleven acres of level and gently sloping land, lovely trees and beautiful view. Solid older home, with 4-5 bedrooms, 1½ baths, 1 bath rough-d-in, family room. Two-car garage has small room also. Barn. Attractive financing — 1 acre parcels could also be developed. $112,000. Eves. 453-5718.

Berkeley Launches People's Pad Plan

BERKELEY (UPI) — Hundreds of University of California students and residents of hippie areas adjoining the campus opened a nation-wide People's Pad program yesterday "for the kids who are looking to Berkeley and who are coming to Berkeley."

They also made it clear that recent setbacks have not dampened their determination to continue the battle for People's Park, a plot of university-owned land which touched off bloody battles between police and demonstrators six weeks ago.

The new pad program, which involves the conversion of a city block of unused World War II buildings to a summer haven, was announced at a campus rally which saw the return of Mario Savio to a microphone in Sproul Plaza.

It was Savio, who now sports a red beard to go with his bushy locks, who led the Free Speech Movement in 1964—the forerunner of student revolt across the nation.

"We of the post-industrial generation are natural Communists," said the once fiery ad-lib orator, who yesterday read from a prepared text.

"We believe property is not a thing to keep men apart and at war but a thing to keep men together," Savio said. "We hope to live to see the time when he can take up the means of leisure without preparing to battle police."

However, there should be no trouble with police over the "People's Pad" program.

The eight two-story stucco buildings on a site called Savo Island are owned by the Berkeley School District whose superintendent, Dr. Richard Foster, confirmed execution of a $1 lease for three months with the Telegraph Avenue Concern Committee.

"It's perfectly legal," said Frank Bardacke, also a leader of the People's Park Committee. "We will make a youth hostel for the kids who are looking to Berkeley and who are coming to Berkeley."

Advisers Favor Returning To Two Ambulance Firms

The County of Marin Emergency Medical Care Committee has recommended returning to the system under which two ambulance companies served the emergency needs of Marin's citizens.

In its annual report, the seven-member committee said emergency ambulance service should be provided on a zone or call basis, rather than under the present system of giving all service to the lowest bidder.

The committee did not criticize current ambulance service. In fact, it said that Doctors Ambulance Co., the private firm now serving most of the county under contract, is "generally giving prompt, efficient service."

The committee said, however, that the modest rate charged the county by Doctors for what is known as a "Dry run" — $14.95—attributes to higer private rates.

"There is no control over the rates charged for completed calls or private work and there has been considerable complaint because of what some people consider exorbitant charges," the committee wrote.

The report said the present flat service rate is $35, plus $1 per mile, plus $5 for emergency, $5 for oxygen and $5 for a night call. The current rate for Medicare and Medi-Cal patients is $25, plus $1 per mile.

Timothy M. Jackson, county administrative analyst and liaison to the committee, disagreed with the group's findings. He said the service rates were not peculiar to Marin, but in fact standard in the Bay Area, and asserted that history has shown that Marin's emergency ambulance business cannot support two companies.

"The old system became unworkable," Jackson said, referring to a year-long jurisdictional feud between Doctors and the United Ambulance Co. that climaxed last October in an exclusive contract to Doctors.

Jackson said the county has been generally pleased with Doctors' performance alone.

The committee also called for local and state aid to maintain ambulance services "in a high state of readiness and efficiency." It urged improved training opportunities for ambulance crews, police and firemen.

The group urged coordination of hospital disaster planning and countywide disaster planning and said hospital facilities in Marin should be categorized so as to guide ambulances on where to take the most critically ill patients.

Police and firemen should be "encouraged by state legislation to respond beyond their territorial limits to render first aid, do rescue work and extricate victims without incurring any liability," the committee, composed largely of public safety and health officials, said.

Outing Planned To Candlestick

The San Rafael Goldenaires will travel to Candlestick Park July 9 for a game between the Giants and the Houston Astros.

The trip open to all Marin adults over 50, will be made by chartered buses which will leave the city recreation center, Second and Brooks Streets at 11 a.m.

The deadline for reservations, which may be at the center, is Wednesday.

Confessions Rule Altered By Justices

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California Supreme Court has slightly modified the "Miranda rule" limiting confessions in a case involving a tape recording made before the suspect was taken into custody.

The 6-1 decision yesterday was in the case of Liskie T. Mabry, found guilty in 1967 of the 1954 murder of Francis Rea, a North Sacramento policeman killed while investigating a burglary.

Mabry's appeal was based on the fact that a tape recording used at his trial contained damaging statements he had made during a conversation with the son of his common-law wife.

The court held that the "Miranda rule" making confessions inadmissable unless the suspect had been warned it could be used as evidence applies only to suspects in custody.

Justice Raymond E. Peters dissented, saying the son was acting as a police agent at the time he made the tape recording

Peters also contended the high court had the power to reduce Mabry's death sentence to life imprisonment and should do so. Justice Stanley Mosk agreed with Peters on this point.

Drunken Driving Fines Ordered

Judge Peter Allen Smith of Marin Municipal Court has sentenced two men for drunken driving and placed both on one year probation.

He also fine Gudger Van Sorenson, 23, of Oakland, who was arrested last Saturday on Highway 101, $240.

Isaac Gonzales Valaquez, 30, of 1355 San Anselmo, Avenue, San Anselmo, was fined $211. He was arrested May 27 on Highway 101.

Sausalitan Describes Pot Pact, Loaded Cat

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A witness accused of smuggling marijuana from Texas has testified that the former manager of the Kingston Trio wanted exclusive control of the contraband.

Stanley Mulligan testified most of yesterday in the second day of testimony in the trial of the former manager, Frank N. Werber charged with conspiracy to smuggle marijuana.

Mulligan, 35, and his partner at the Latitude 38 bar in Sausalito, Charles P. Barrett, are charged with smuggling but the charge of conspiring with Werber was dropped after they agreed to testify for the government.

Mulligan said Werber was smoking marijuana when the deal was set up for them to fly to Loredo, Tex., to pick up 258 pounds of marijuana and fly it back to Marin County.

He said he even saw Werber get his cat "loaded" by blowing marijuana smoke in its face, causing it "to slide off the refrigerator like a snake."

Mulligan said he asked Werber if he and Barrett, who he said were paid $2,650 for the marijuana, were to be dealt in on proceeds of its sale.

"No, you're working exclusively for me," Mulligan quoted Werber as replying.

They were to fly the marijuana back to Marin County and deliver it to Werber's home on da Silva Island near Mill Valley, he said, where Werber was arrested last Oct. 14.

Another witness yesterday was Joseph Cabazos, a customs agent at Laredo who arrested Mulligan and Barrett when they tried to pick up the marijuana at a garbage dump near the Mexican border.

A jury of six men and six women is hearing the case before U.S. Dist. Judge Lloyd C. Burke.

In Texas there are about 97 males to every 100 females.

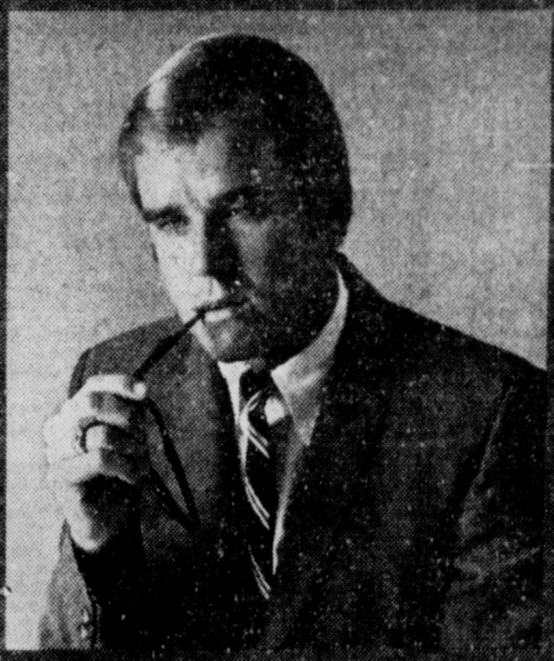
Where's all that money you were going to save?



UCB has a plan that guarantees you'll save

For all your good intentions, you can't seem to save a nickel to save your soul. Paychecks come. Paychecks go. And still there's little or no money in the bank for savings.

United California Bank knows how hard it is to save. That's why we have a plan that guarantees you'll save $10.—$20.—$30. a month or more, and hardly miss it. It's UCB's Automatic Savings Plan. Just decide how much you want to save each month. UCB deducts that amount from your UCB checking account and adds it to your savings.

Most savers tell us, it's virtually painless. And at UCB, your savings always earn the highest bank interest rate permissible by law.

Isn't there something you've wanted to save for anyway? Like Europe. It's as easy as saving just $2.00 a day for one year at UCB! Whatever your goal, sign this coupon and send it along today. You can save. You will save.

OLD SEA SKILLS REMEMBERED

Crewmen of the Japanese training bark Nippon Maru show how a square-rigger is run in sail-raising ceremonies. Hub Council Eyes Engineer's Office

An addition to the San Anselmo engineering department quarters, which could someday provide for expansion of the city's library, was among items discussed last night in the continuing budget review by the city council.

The addition is proposed beneath the library, where three of the four walls are in place and the basic ceiling and floor already constructed.

Estimated cost of the addition, which would provide 433 square feet, is $3,000.

The council took no action on the addition or any other budget items last night, but finished the review — except for employees' salaries which will be discussed at 8 p.m. Tuesday at city hall.

The engineering department requested no other major changes in its budget which this year totals $32,627. The department requested $41,471 and Administrator-Controller Alfred C. Kaeppel recommended $38,406, making cuts in proposed salaries.

A street maintenance budget of $126,645, considerably less than department requests of $227,538, was also discussed. The major reduction was in the number of streets to be repaired this year. Nineteen projects were asked, but only 10 recommended by Kaeppel.

In the street construction budget, which uses gas tax money, projects totaling $198,419 were recommended by Kaeppel.

The major project, realignment of the Hub intersection, was not discussed last night because the council has already approved it.

Other work includes traffic signals totaling $20,520 for installation of two sets—at Butterfield Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, and at San Francisco Avenue, and Drake, along with engineering studies on a total of six signals.

The council also studied budgets for storm drains, $25,074, up from $11,100; street lighting, $24,000, up slightly from $23,300; building inspection, $17,949, up from $15,680; street sweeping, $16,557 up from $15,156 and municipal shop, $16,357, up from $14,358.

The total proposed budget calls for spending $1,337,234, $385,818 higher than 1968-69 expenditures. It would be within the present tax rate of $2.555 per $100 assessed valuation.

Teen-Age Burglar Eludes Deputies

Marin sheriff's deputies today were on the lookout for a slim, teen-age boy who was seen fleeing from a Bel Aire home Monday after a neighbor reported a burglary in progress.

Deputies arrived on the scene as the youth fled through the door of the home of Mary A. Deffenbach at 21 Barn Road, but were unable to capture him.

Mrs. Deffenbach later reported missing some jewelry, a radio and an antique sword.

First Unloading In 19 Years By A Soviet Ship

SEATTLE (AP) — The captain of the first Soviet ship to unload cargo in a U.S. port in 19 years says there should be closer ties between the two nations "so that we might live in peace together."

While crewmen of the 15,000-ton freighter Orsha unloaded 900 tons of sponge titanium, a strategic metal, Capt. Arkady Tabakar, 50, said he expected his "pioneer voyage" would lead to more Soviet ships docking at U.S. ports.

A dozen men and women from the Tacoma Servicemen's Center, a church-related organization, picketed the ship yesterday but didn't interfere with the unloading operation.

Bank Holding Plan Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to regulate one-bank holding companies, forged by a conservative coalition, was approved 29-5 today by the House Banking Committee.

The committee's chairman, Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., had backed stronger regulations and indicated he would carry his battle to the House floor.

The major change written into the bill provides that such companies would not be required to divest themselves of nonbanking affiliates acquired before Feb. 17, 1969.

The administration had proposed a cutoff date of June 30, 1968, and Patman's own bill would have required disposal of the outside interests regardless of when they were acquired.

A Tentative Budget Of $788,000

The Old Adobe School District Board, Petaluma, last night approved a tentative budget of $788,000 for the 1969-70 year which would continue the present tax rate.

Supt. Dean D. Magowan said the budget represented an increase of $79,000 over last year's expenditures and that the present tax rate of $2.11 per $100 assessed valuation would continue.

Included in the budget was a 6 per cent salary scale increase for teachers, but the raise will not take effect until anticipated state funds are received. Teachers will, however, receive the automatic annual step increase.

The Old Adobe School board also:

TESTING — Approved the continuation of the maturity testing program for prekindergarten students. The youngsters are tested for maturity level and placed in groups accordingly.

MINI COACH — Approved the receipt of bids for the purchase of a minicoach as a classroom on wheels for the speech therapy program. Cost of the vehicle was estimated at $8,300.

HIRED — Approved the employment of Linda Edwards as a kindergarten teacher at a salary of $6,688 and Eleanor Daggett as teacher of the educationally handicapped class at a salary of $7,104.

INSTALLATION Set July 3 for a meeting to install new trustees and to elect board officers.

Marin-Connected Drug Suspect Booked Again

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A 41-year-old San Francisco man — already awaiting trial on charges of selling drugs to a Corte Madera youth who later died — was arrested again last night for the sale and possession of dangerous drugs.

San Francisco police reported they arrested Everett LeForrest Hill, of 1308 Fourth Street, after he reportedly sold methamphetamine to a state narcotics agent.

Police reported finding four ounces of the drug in Hill's home after the arrest. They valued the methamphetamine at about $1,000.

Hill is scheduled to appear next Wednesday in San Francisco Superior Court to set a trial date on the charges that he sold methamphetamine to Richard K. Yager, 20, last September.

Yager, a soldier on leave, collapsed and died the day after the sale allegedly took place. A coroner's report later said that Yager was found to have died of poisoning by impure methamphetamine.

Marin County Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales yesterday said no charges were contemplated against Hill in connection with Yager's death, because it could not be established that the fatal methamphetamine was the same allegedly sold by Hill.

Hill has been released on $2,500 bail. He was arrested last February and pleaded innocent to the charges.

Bogus Check Of $15,373 Is Cashed

A good looking blonde who said she needed some cash to buy a house and furniture and pay some bills cashed a $15,372 forged cashier's check in Corte Madera Monday, then disappeared, police reported today.

Officers said that bank officials at the Bank of America at 663 Tamalpais Drive reported on Wednesday that the woman who used the name of Margaret Joyce Taylor, PO Box 162, Fairfax, took out an account.

She cashed the casher's check, drawn on the Oakland Bank of America main office, taking $13,500 and leaving the remainder in her account.

Police said the forged check is one of six reportedly stolen from the Oakland bank.

The woman is described as weighing 120 pounds, about 30 to 35 years of age and wearing heavy eye makeup, police said. She was reported to be driving a new gold and black Plymouth Fury and had two children with her in the car.

The woman told the bank that she was from Cleveland, Ohio, divorced, and looking for a home, police reported.

Deer Causes Auto Accident

Janis Lee Glatzer, an 18-year-old College of Marin student who lives at 32A Circle Drive, Tiburon, was treated for cuts and bruises on the nose at Marin General Hospital yesterday after a one-car accident on Lucas Valley Road.

A passenger in the car, Stewart Johnson of 401 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, also received minor injuries, according to the California Highway Patrol, but apparently did not require treatment.

The patrol said Miss Glatzer's car hit a tree when she swerved to avoid a deer on Lucas Valley Road about a mile west of Big Rock. The accident occurred at 3:30 p.m.

Full-Time Juvenile Court Need Stressed

The "tremendous increase" in juvenile court hearings — and the need for a full-time juvenile judge or referee to handle them were discussed Wednesday by the Marin County Juvenile Justice Commission.

Jack L. Blaine one of two unpaid referees who handle most juvenile matters reported there have been 1,500 juvenile hearings in the fiscal year ending Monday.

He and James D. Adams the only two volunteer referees in the state, began the job about a year ago, giving 30 minutes two mornings a week. Juvenile Judge Samuel W. Gardiner also handles juvenile matters most of each Monday.

Now Blaine said, he is giving three full days a week to hearing juvenile matters.

"I feel the county is reaching a point where they should have a full-time juvenile judge, or as many counties do, hire a full-time paid referee," said Blaine.

Reasons for the increase in time are the growing number of juveniles involved in crime, the expanding number of contested hearings and the belief of Adams and Blaine that more time should be spent with juveniles and their parents in detention hearings.

Detention hearings, Blaine said, are held between the child's arrest and formal hearing to determine what will be done with the child. For many of them, it is their first experience in court, he explained.

Plans Approved For 48 Units Of Apartments

Development of a 48-unit apartment unit on two acres between Olema Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard won approval of the Fairfax Planning Commission last night.

The planners voted 4-3 to approve the apartments proposed by Matthew Farr, owner of the land.

The commissioners required Farr to landscape along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, provide a walkway and bicycle path on the property, limit development ot 24 units per acre and to preserve the large oak tree on the property.

Voting against approval were commissioners John T. Hourihan, Harold S. Lezzeni and Martin Zernicke.

In other business, the commission denied by 4-3 vote, a request by Forrest Morphew to operate a gas station and store at 85 Bolinas Road, noting that such a business did not meet with the city's master plan.

The commission also approved a request for a lot split on Bolinas Road by Jane Forster. Approval was unanimous.

More Fires Set In Marin City

Incendiarists set fires in Marin City last night for the fourth straight day although the number was cut to three, sheriff's deputies said today.

The fires were set in a 21-minute period and did no damage, according to deputies. The first was touched off at 9 p.m. in back of the Marin City Recreation Center. A second was set near Drake Avenue and Donahue at 9:16 p.m. and the third was next to the recreation center at 9:21 p.m.

The Marin County Fire Department yesterday burned a large portion of dry grassy areas in Marin City in an attempt to eliminate a major fire hazard.

North Marin Group Raps Rezoning

A rezoning in Sonoma County across the Petaluma River from Black Point drew objections last night from the North Marin Federation, according to secretary Evelyn Johnson.

Shellmaker Inc. has asked the Sonoma County Planning Commission to rezone 109 acres east of the Petaluma River to multiple residential and heavy industrial. The multiple zoned area would contain garden type apartments and a mobile home park.

The federatpon will write to the Sonoma County planners objecting to the heavy industrial zoning and suggesting light industrial instead, and also objecting to the mobile home park, according to Mrs. Johnson.

The federation will also send letters to Gov. Ronald Reagan, State Senator John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley supporting Assembly Bill 409 which would give more aid to impoverished districts.

The federation also opposed the proposed development by Peter Lind for the area just south of Gnoss Field, she said.

Antique Guns, Liquor Stolen

Antique guns and an undetermined amount of whiskey were reported stolen from a Petaluma tavern yesterday or Wednesday.

Thomas Ielmarini, owner of the Longhorn Bar, 401 East Washington Street, said that his bar had been closed for repairs and that the items were taken from a second floor room. Police said the front door had been pried.

Harbor Board Faces Puzzle Over Budget

The Bolinas Harbor District board, voted out of existence last winter, last night received a $35,100 tentative budget it doesn't know whether it will ever need.

The preliminary budget, on which no action was taken, is the same as the current fiscal year's, President Thomas J. Barfield said.

Bolinas citizens in March voted to dissolve the district but a bill to carry out the dissolution, sponsored by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is still pending in the Legislature. Barfield and others have staunchly opposed dissolution and the Bagley bill.

As a result of its tenuous future, the board is in a sticky position, accoring to Barfield. If it passes a budget and the Bagley bill passes, the budget will still be on the tax rolls of the county although the board would no longer exist.

On the other hand, Barfield said, it it doesn't pass a budget and the Bagley bill fails, the board would find itself with no funds with which to operate.

The Bagley bill, which goes to Senate hearings next Thursday (9:30 a.m. in Room 2040 the Senate office building), has passed the Assembly and is expected to pass the Senate with little trouble.

Barfield also said the board discussed a recent U. S. District Court decision which held that the dissolution of the San Mateo Harbor District by the San Mateo supervisors was invalid. The district board had sued the county after voters approved the dissolution.

Asked whether the Bolinas board was considering suing Marin County to overturn its dissolution, Barfield said it had been discussed but he though any legal action taken probably would be brought by private citizens. "Several people have indicated they are considering it," he said.

In other action last night the Bolinas board appointed a committee to review the leases of the Audubon Canyon Ranch and the Finley interests in Bolinas.

Art Member Status Eyed

The Mill Valley Art Commission Wednesday night passed a resolution urging the city council to continue to allow one or two of the commission's seven members to live outside the city.

The council Monday night approved the first reading of an ordinance which would require all members of the art commission, planning commission and library board to live within the city limits.

Commission secretary Priscilla Dillingham said today the art commission also set a concert by the Tamalpais High School Madrigal for 4 p.m. Aug. 3, in Mill Valley Park.

A preliminary discussion on bringing an opera to Mill Valley also was held with a representative of Talent Bank of San Francisco, Mrs. Dillingham said.

Vandals, Bike Thieves Busy

San Rafael police today reportted three cases of vandalism and three bicycle thefts.

Police said three windows were broken yesterday at San Rafael cooperative Nursery and sprinklers at the home of Mrs. Annie Laurie Sweeny of 38 Las Casas Drive were damaged.

Police reported the breakage of lights outside the Medical Buildings at 880 and 750 Las Gallinas Avenue and at the Dental Building at 920 Northgate.

Police also reported the theft of bikes belonging to Cherie Ann Preston of 305 Irwin Street, Bruce Alan Kraemer of 109 Oakmont Avenue and Thomas Oliva of 87 Wallace Way.

TAM CREEK RESEARCH

Co-Eds Change View In Classroom Probe

Digging into the facts of a community issue can bring about a change of mind — at least temporarily.

This is the initial finding of two Redwood High School seniors who, with 48 other students, selected the controversial Tamalpais Creek flood control project as an issue to probe.

Members of the newspaper committee, Pam Shirley of Greenbrae and Patty Klein of Kentfield, say they both changed some of their views since they started the project.

"When I first heard about it, I became very protective for the trees," said Pam. "Since I have been looking into it I get the feeling that maybe they (the demonstrators against the concrete creek now being built between Kent Avenue and Goodhill Road in Kent Woodlands) were not all that right."

Patty said she felt "kind of" the same. "I was kind of for the people protesting at first. After going down there (to the project) and talking to them and reading articles about it, I found out that I felt somewhat different."

She said she doesn't think the Army Corps of Engineers is doing "that much damage for the good they are doing for all the floods. I have been down there in winter and seen all the floods." But, she indicated she might change her mind again. "We haven't heard the people's views yet," she said.

The class in American institutions agreed to take on Tamalpais Creek issue after some initial rebellion by a few students who thought they knew all they needed to know about it, Pam said.

The class was divided into committees, Patty and Pam being named to the newspaper committee and asked to find out all they could from the Independent-Journal files plus those of the College of Marin Times. Two other students wre assigned to two Marin county weeklies.

Other committees are covering the sheriff's office, judges and lawyers, Kent Woodlands and Ross residents, the Marin County Board of Suprvisors and the Corps of Engineers.

When students have completed their research next week, they will have a bullsession, argue over different points of view and then write individual papers presenting their own views. The community issue is but one assignment during the eight-week course.

The course has two teachers —Freeman D. Blake and John M. Thompson.

Asked for their impression of the assignment, Pam replied, "It's neat," and Patty said, "It's good."

"The work gives us an idea of the complications and different points of view and what a community is really made up of," added Pam.

One of the best happenings so far took place on Goodhilll Road bridge, the girls related.

They were inspecting the creek site when Dr. Joseph B. Wheelwright, a Kent Woodlands resident who was arrested in the demonstrations, drove by. Soon the girls had a debate going between Wheelwright and the contractor's superintendent Jim Matheson.

"It was a confrontation," Pam said excitedly.

Humphrey Calls On Demos For Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey has urged Democratic leaders to forgo the traditional congressional function of following the president's leadership.

"I didn't expect much from them," Humphrey said of the administration, but "I do expect a good deal from us."

He called on the Democratic majorities in the House and Senate to "put the imprint of congressional leadership on this country . . . We better make our own record because we may not get one from the other side."

The former vice president, his party's standard bearer in the 1968 presidential contest, spoke last night to a $500-a-plate Democratic Congressional Committee dinner.

Humphrey, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Speaker of the House John W. McCormack were the headlines speakers at the dinner which raised an estimated $750,000 for next year's congressional campaign.

Rock Concert

The rock band Red Mountain will appear at the benefit concert and dance at 7:30 p.m. today at Tamalpais High School. Earlier, student sponsors of the event for the Boy's Club of Southern Marin and the Mill Valley drop-in house, had announced Southern Comfort would appear. Four other bands are also scheduled.

Court Shuns Restaurant Case Ruling

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday refused to rule on any portion of the continuing battle between restaurant owner Sam Zakessian and the City of Sausalito until after the next meeting of the Sausalito City Council.

Zakessian has filed two suits aimed at halting construction of a restaurant being built next to his Zack's, in Sausalito.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson said that since the matter is still under consideration by the city council and will be on its agenda Tuesday, he will delay any consideration of the matter until July 11.

Zakessian has maintained before the planning commission, city council and finally in court that the City of Sausalito has acted illegally in issuing permits and a variance for the restaurant.

The developers of the new restaurant; Eric Groneman and Kenneth Underwood of the Edgewater Yacht Co., says, however, that Zakessian is merely trying to remove threatened competition to Zack's.

In 9th century England, King Alfred decreed that the Christmas season should include Christmas day and the 12 days following.

Skyscraper's Plans Get Nod

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The controversial pyramid-shaped Transamerica Building has been approved by the city's planning commission.

The commission ignored the recommendation of its own director yesterday and voted 5-2 to approve the design of the spire-topped building, which will rise 843 feet above the northern edge of the financial district.

Prior to approving the design of the $30 million skyscraper, the commission voted 4-3 to close 183 feet of Merchant Street as part of the plan for the building.

Marin, Cloverdale Co-Eds Win Twin Beauty Crowns

ROLANDA OSMON
Sonoma Queen

KATHLEEN HODGE
Marin Queen

A San Quentin Village girl and A Cloverdae citrus princess won titles last night as Miss Marin and Miss Sonoma at the Sonoma-Marin Fair beauty pageant in Petaluma.

Kathleen Hodge, a 19-year-old College of Marin freshman, was selected from among six Marin candidates. She was first runner-up in the competition last year.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Laffsa, Miss Hodge serves as an aide at Letterman General Hospital and was active in girl scouting through high school.

Runner-up in the Miss Marin competition was Suzanne Nattress 18, of Novato. Also a freshman at the College of Marin, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nattress.

Seelected as Miss Sonoma was Rolanda Osmon, 18, of Cloverdale. Active in 4-H club work, she had been selected as a princess in the citrus festival in her hometown.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Osmon, she is a student in a business college and works as a model and teacher's aide in an elementary school.

Runner-up in the Miss Sonoma category was Mariann Orchard, 18, a cheerleader at Petaluma Senior High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Orchard.

The girls, who were judged solely on beauty and poise, will represent their counties in the Maid of California pageant at the state fair in Sacramento.

The Sonoma-Marin fair, featuring stock judging, entertainment, a rodeo and auto racing, continues through Sunday. Fair sponsors estimated yesterday's opening day attendance at 7,826 persons, compared to 7,297 on last year's opening day.

Ribbons were awarded yesterday in the arts and crafts department of the fair in Petaluma.

The arts category is one of the few for adults at the fair that runs through Sunday.

Donabel Carley of Sebastopol took first place in professional oils with Frances McKinney of San Rafael second and Connie Ford of Santa Rosa, third.

For professional water colors, Alice Cox of Petaluma won second place and Lillian Kern of Penngrove, third. No first place was awarded.

In professional, other media, Mrs. Kern won first, Mrs. Carley second and Betty J. Norton of Larkspur, third.

Amateur Division, Oils — Robyn Nommsen, of Petaluma, first; Martin Forbes of Petaluma, second; Peter Rose of Petaluma, third.

Amateur Water Color — Frederick Thomas Sharp of Petaluma, first.

Amatuer, other media — Constance Morgan of Petaluma, first; Linda Cardone of Cotati, second; Dora Sherwood of Petaluma, third.

Photography, prints and monochrome — Harvey Halvorson of Petaluma, first and third; Steve Trenam of Petaluma, second.

Sculpture, professional metal — John Zeen of Petaluma, first; Rosa Estebanez of Petaluma, second.

Sculpture, professional, other media — Mrs. Estebanez, first.

Sculpture, amateur metal — John Bodle, of Santa Rosa, first; Cleona Ternes, of Petaluma, third.

Sculpture, amateur carving— Peggie Bartlett of Petaluma, first; Hubbard Prevette of Petaluma, second and third.

Sculpture, amateur other media — Jim Rodgers of Santa Rosa, first; Peggie Bartlett of Petaluma, second; Hubbard Prevette of Petaluma, third.

State PUC Studies Issues Of Long Beach Jet Pleas

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The state Public Utilities Commission has taken under submission requests by three California air lines to expand service between Long Beach and the Bay area.

The city and area residents oppose the action.

Air California wants to expand its service between Long Beach and San Jose. Pacific Southwest Airways wants routes from Long Beach to Oakland, San Jose and San Francisco, with a turnaround route from San Francisco to Sacramento.

Pacific Air Transport seeks intra state certification and expansion of routes from Long Beach to San Jose and Oakland.

The requests would expand jet traffic at Long Beach Municipal Airport. A petition signed by 20,000 Long Beach residents oppose the plan on grounds it would mean excessive noise. The petition was submitted by the Jet Control Association.

Long Beach City Council, which at first favored the expanded service, since has reversed its stand.

The airlines said the PUC shoud approve their applications and let the airlines settle the noise problem, which they said was mostly a local political matter.

Chamber Music At Dominican

A free concert of instrumental chamber music under the direction of Adolph Baller will be presented Sunday at 8 p.m. in Angelico Hall, Dominican College, San Ragael.

Musicians performing will be violinists Patricia Isham and Cecile Cox, violist Elizabeth Perry, cellist Betty Musser, flutist Elizabeth Phillips and pianists Ted Blair and Carol Fingerroth.

The program will be Brahms's Quintet in F Minor, Opus 34, and Trio in B Major, Opus 8, and Telemann's Suite in A Minor.

Russ Expert Is Named To Arms Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, one of the foremost U.S. authorities on relations with Russia, has been appointed to a six-man delegation which will handle negotiations wtih the Soviet Union on a proposed agreement to limit nuclear missiles.

The delegation, due for early White House announcement, will be headed by Gerard C. Smith, director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, with Philip J. Farley, a deputy assistant secretary of state and expert in nuclear arms policy as alternate U.S. representative.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers disclosed earlier this year that Smith would be the chief negotiator in talks with the Soviet group. The rest of the delegation was only recently chosen by President Nixon.

Other members are Paul H. Nitze, former deputy secretary of defense; Dr. Harold Brown, former Air Force secretary, and Maj. Gen. Paul B. Allison, former specialist on arms control policy for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Allison is presently serving with the Pacific Ocean Command in Honolulu.

Divorce Suit Is Quietly Settled

A divorce suit in which Marin Coroner Donovan O. Cooke had been previously named as correspondent was quietly settled yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Michael Ainbinder, 59-year-old Belvedere investor, withdrew his cross complaint against his wife, Hildegard, 53, and she won an uncontested divorce and a $102,500 tax free property settlement.

The couple has no children, and Mrs. Ainbinder waived alimony. Judge Joseph G. Wilson also restored her maiden name, Hildegard Kaufman.

Ainbinder had filed a cross complaint to the divorce suit in 1967 charging that his wife had committed adultery with Dr. Cooke, who had been her physician for many years.

The Ainbinders were married in Las Vegas, Nev. on Dec. 18, 1950 and separated on June 26, 1965.

Tear Gas Authorizer Admits Mishandling

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The man who authorized tear gas during a demonstration at the University of California May 20 says he wouldn't have given the permission if he had known the way the National Guard intended to use it.

Thomas L. Houchins, chief of the Alameda County sheriff's made the statement last night to members of Sigma Delta Chi, a journalistic fraternity.

Houchins said the gas, sprayed from a helicopter, "was not dispersed in the manner in which they (the guard) said they would."

"We were told the gas could be dropped immediately over the target area," he said, but instead it spread over Sproul Hall Plaza, nearby homes, university classrooms and offices and the hospital.

Houchins said he had seen demonstrations where gas was dispersed directly downwards, pushed by the helicopter's blades.

"I assumed this was how it would be done," he continued. "I don't know who is to blame—someone must know. But it wasn't dropped in the manner it was intended."

Otherwise, Houchins had praise for National guardsmen. "They conducted themselves admirably and adjusted themselves well to the new situation they were in," he said.

The guard was called out during rioting over People's Park, a university - owned plot appropriated by students and Berkeley "street people" for an impromptu park.

The university had intended to use the plot for a sports field, but since has announced that residential halls will be built there.

San Rafael Council Raises Workers' Pay

The San Rafael City Council last night granted 10 per cent salary scale increases to most city employees and gave 17 job classifications — including police patrolman — wage scale hikes ranging as high as 17 per cent.

The scale increase is in addition automatic annual 5 per cent pay raises built into the scale.

The council also decided, however, that the proposed 2.5 per cent cost-of-living increase which was being considered for next January will be dropped.

Cost of the salary package will be about $200,000 next year, according to City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen, who said the salary hikes would not affect the city tax rate of 86 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

James O. Kennon, president of the San Rafael Fireman's Association, told the council that the 12.5 per cent raise granted policemen and while fireman got only a 10 per cent raise "would have a demoralizing effect on the city's firefighting force."

Kennon produced figures from the National Safety Council which showed, he claimed, that a fireman's job was more hazardous than a police officer's.

Andersen, who made the salary recommendation, told the council that Kennon had previously told him several times "not to compare fire and police when considering salary increases."

Andersen told the council that the higher salary figure for police patrolmen would put the city in a better position for recruitment of officers.

"Has the city ever been short of policemen?" Kennon countered hotly.

"Yes," Andersen replied, "but that hasn't hasn't been the case with the fire department."

The salary package was approved by the council 3-1, with councilman Harry A. Barbier voting against. "I was under the impression we wanted to keep the firemen and policemen equal and on that basis I will vote no," he said.

The positions of senior building inspector and electrician each received 17.5 per cent increases to a range of $815 to $991. Receiving 15 per cent raises were police captain to a range of $1,067-$1,176; police lieutenant, $967-1,067; police sergeant, $877-967, police detective, $877-967; police identification officer, $877-967; police juvenile inspector, $877-967; and chief auto mechanic, $739-899.

Receiving 12.5 per cent raises were police patrolmen, to range of $704-856; park supervisor, $739-899; auto mechanic, $654-795 and recreation center supervisor, $608-739.

Ten per cent raises went to the maintenance foreman to range of $835-1,016; equipment operator, $623-759 and senior engineering saide, $623-757.

All other city employees — except department heads — will receive 10 per cent raises effective Tuesday. The council took no action on department heads' salaries pending further study.

The council did shorten the fireman's work week from the existing 67 hours to 63 hours by hiring two additional firemen. The fire association had requested a 63-hour week for next year, dropping to a 60-hour week in 1970 and a 56-hour work week in 1971. The council made no committment for future lowering of hours.

The council also approved increasing the yearly clothing allowance for fire and policemen from $120 to $150. The fire department had requested an increase to $200 a year.

Councilmen took no action on altering the city's vacation schedule, but did ask Andersen to bring in cost figures on granting three weeks of vacation after three years of service instead of five years.

Another fire department request — pay for the Eisenhower day of mourning — was denied.

The council approved changing the city's pay periods to every other Friday rather than the current twice per month, on the 5th and 20th. They also approved a request that the day following Thanksgiving be substituted for Columbus Day as a holiday.

Longevity pay for two senior patrolmen was also rejected by the council.

The city council did approve reimbursement of unused sick leave whereby after 10 years of service, employees would receive 10 per cent pay on the unused amount upon retirement or departure from the city's payroll for any other reason.

Mayor's Pay Hike Stalled By Bettini

San Rafael City Council last night tabled until the next regular meeting a suggestion that Mayor C. Paul Bettini's pay be increased from $200 to $300 per month.

Councilman Frederick C. Robbins suggested the action but Bettini himself tabled the matter until a later date.

"I would rather that something like this came up at a regular meeting," he said.

The council was meeting in special budget session last night.

Chicago Police Elude New Trial On Beatings

CHICAGO (UPI) — Three Chicago policeman acquitted earlier this month of federal charges they violated the civil rights of a newsman during the Democratic National Convention will not be tried on state charges.

State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan yesterday said his office has concluded that prosectuion in state courts is barred by the state's double jeopardy statute.

Sgt. George Jurish, 36, and patrolmen Vincent D'amico, 23, and Edward M. Becht, 28, were charged with violating the civil rights of Chicago Daily News reported John Linstead by beating him. All were acquitted by a U.S. District Court jury June 11.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry said after the trial he was convinced the policemen had used excessive force in dealing with Linstead. But he said the matter should have been tried in the state courts on assault and battery charges.

Trustees Unhappily Studying High Bids

Marin Junior College District trustees were dismayed last night to hear that the low bid on the proposed Harlan and Science centers was about $650,000 more than expected.

Planning Director Dale A. Fleming reported that S. J. Amoroso Construction Co. of Foster City was low bidder with a price of $3,670,000 for both buildings.

He said he wasn't prepared to make any recommendation to the board on the bid, but felt it would be difficult to make any major reduction in costs.

"The other alternative would be to redesign and rebid,"Fleming said.

In a series of salary moves, the board increased the salary of substitute teachers 9 per cent, and approved the new salary schedule for administrators representing a 7 per cent raise.

The new salary schedule will range depending upon experience for administrative assistants from $14,240 to $15,590; assistant deans and librarians, from $17,970 to $19,320; deans of instruction, dean of students, director of business and director of planning, from $20,990 to $22,340.

Trustees also approved broader health insurance coverage for all employees at a cost of $9,851.

Earlier this month the board granted a 9 per cent increase in the faculty salary schedule, and a 7 per cent increase for non-teaching employees.

Marin Junior College District Board Also:

HIRING — Authorized the hiring of James A. Webster, basketball coach at Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, as physical education instructor, at $11,438 a year; rehired Cynthia Bennett as half-time librarian at $4,286 a year; and hired Robert N. Thompson, heating and ventilation maintenance, at $778 a month.

RECLASSIFICATION — Reclassified Hollis Hardin, assistant to the business manager, on the salary schedule boosting his salary from $1,095 to $1,177 a month, by a 3-2 vote with Trustee Harry J. Moore and Charles W. Gray dissenting.

RETIREMENT AGE — Set the retirement age for adult education instructiors at the end of the school year in which they reach their 65th birthday anniversary.

LECTURE FEES — Adopted a schedule of fees to pay for lectures ranging from $20 to $50 for local speakers to groups of 60 or less to $150 to $1,000 for recognized authorities where audiences of 300 or more are expected.

MARIN CITY COURSES — Approved two courses in Marin City, basic English and high school diploma preparation, and to allow Marin City students to attend machine shop and office machine classes at the college, and authorized a summer course "Becoming a Better Neighbor Through Love for Man and Beast," starting Monday at the Manzanita Center.

NEW POSITIONS — Established the positaion of personnel officer at a salary range of $900 to $1,095 a month, and a part-time position of physics laboratory attendant.

FOR SALE — Authorized the sale of the turf of the old football field, and authorized Business Mgr. Norman Bird to negotiate with the Larkspur School District to sell two potter's wheels, declared surplus.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned until 8 p.m. Thursday at the Fine Arts Building to complete the agenda and conduct its organization meeting, and tentatively scheduled a tour of the old art building, scheduled for remodeling, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy, out of town, and Trustee Robert E. Oliver, who was ill, were absent.

Blind Get Guide To Nature Walk

SEATTLE (AP) — Three high school students who wanted to help the blind "see" the University of Washington arboretum spent hours making 100 braille copies of its "native plant walk" booklet.

The trio—Mark Johnson, Rhonda Nelson and Anne Grant—all are sightless.

The project was underwritten by the special education department of the Seattle public schools and a civic club.

$4.25 Million Budget Voted For College

Marin Junior College District trustees last night approved a tentative 1969-70 general fund budget of $4,253,211, down $12,184 from this year's estimated expenditures.

The general fund budget doesn't include the college building budget, which is listed at $5,284,397, as compared to $3,626,737, the estimated expenditure this year.

The district's tax rate is limited at 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation for the general fund and 35 cents for the building fund plus overrides, which reached 12.5 cents last year. The total tax rate was 82.5 cents.

Bird estimated there would be a 7.5 cent increase in the building fund rate, if trustees decide to levy a newly-authorized override to match state funds for capital outlay projects.

Otherwise, the tax rate wouldn't vary one cent, one way or the other, he estimated.

Bird pointed out that the tentative building budget includes $388,194 for matching funds. These projects would include $170,000 for land acquisition at the north campus and $120,000 for site development there.

Trustees discussed the tentative budget briefly with Board President Theodore C. Wellman pointing out that trustees had reviewed it in detail at workshop sessions.

Bird reported that the budget includes funds for a special election during the year if trustees decide to call one.

The district's bid for a 77-cent tax rate override increase was defeated by voters April 15, and there is a possibility that trustees might place a bond measure before voters during the 1969-70 college year.

The board is scheduled to adopt a publication budget by July 17, and hold a public hearing and adopt a final budget Aug. 7.

Teacher's Union Flays Hayakawa

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The teachers union at San Francisco State College has announced plans to go to court to have acting president S.I. Hayakawa, of Mill Valley, removed from his post.

Erwin Kelly, local president of the American Federation of Teachers, said yesterday the suit would be based on the faculty disiplinary panel's recommendation that Hayakawa be removed and "severely reprimanded" for his conduct since assuming office last year.

Kelly said Hayakawa's refusal to follow the recommendation is one of the principal reasons why he should be ousted.

Hayakawa reacted at once by denouncing the suit as evidence of the union's "extreme vindictiveness" and its "determination never to let the campus be peaceful."

Herkenhoff Handed New Acting Title

Louis H. Herkenhoff, acting president of the College of Marin for the past year, last night was appointed acting district superintendent-president for one year.

Trustees appointed Herkenhoff to the dual post after a half-hour closed session to consider other candidates.

Herkenhoff was given a new contract at $23,058 a year, up $1,508 from his past salary.

Board President Theodore C. Wellman explained that the search for a permanent superintendent-president will continue.

Rather than seeking a college president, the board will seek someone to serve in a dual role as district superintendent as well.

Trustees then approved formation of a new screening committee headed by Trustee Charles W. Gray to start the search.

The committee will consist of two board members, Gray and Wellman, two representatives of the faculty, two administrators, two representatives of nonteaching employees, and two representatives of the associated students organization on campus.

Student representatives were appointed at the request of Kimo Campbell, president of associated students.

Correct Number

The addition of two lieutenants to the Novato Fire Department will increase the number to eight instead of seven lieutenants, Fire Chief Jack Kidder said. Kidder said that he made the mistake in reporting the number of lieutenants yesterday to the Independent-Journal.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Office of Architecture and Construction, Room 1228, 1120 N Street, Sacramento, California, until 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 8, 1969, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in Hearing Room in Basement at said address, for:

DREDGING AND BOATING FACILITIES
DEPARTMENT OF PARKS AND RECREATION
ANGEL ISLAND STATE PARK
AYALA COVE, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA (W.O. CB01 307 C)

in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, and such addenda thereto as may be issued prior to bid opening date.

The bidder's attention is directed to a provision in the Proposal by which the bidder certifies relative to obtaining sub-bidder quotations through bid depositories.

In general, this project comprises dredging of harbor areas, construction of a 20′ x 80′ steel float, steel ramp, concrete launching ramp, addition to concrete pier, and other improvements at Angel Island in San Francisco Bay.

Construction includes site clearing, removal of wood dolphins, furnishing and installing timber and concrete piling, mooring buoys and lines, untreated rock surfacing, and other work as indicated.

Bidders may see the plans and specifications at the area Builders' Exchange Offices, and the Office of Architecture and Construction, 1120 N Street, Sacramento, and 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland.

Bidders can obtain plans and specifications, Proposal forms, and Bidder's Bond form by requesting them in writing (P.O. Box 1079, Sacramento, Calif. 95805) through June 30 and thereafter at P.O. Box 1441, Sacramento, California 95807) or in person from the Office of Architecture and Construction in Sacramento.

Plans and specifications may be obtained without charge and are not to be returned.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a Proposal form furnished by the Office of Architecture and Construction, and is made in accordance with the "Instructions to Bidder". Each bidder must be licensed and also prequalified when required. The Department of General Services reserves the right to reject any or all bids and waive any irregularity in any bid received.

Bids will be entertained on a combination unit price and lump sum basis as follows:

Item 1: Furnishing 575 linear feet of timber piling.
Item 2: Driving 10 timber piles.
Item 3: Furnishing 975 linear feet of concrete piling.
Item 4: Driving 16 concrete piles.
Item 5: Furnishing all other materials and performing all other work of the project NOT included in Items 1 through 4.

The quantities set forth in the foregoing State Architect's estimate are an approximation, and are given as a basis for comparison of bids. The Office of Architecture and Construction does not, expressly or by implication, agree that the actual amount of work will correspond therewith, but reserves the right to increase or decrease the quantity as may be deemed advisable by the State Architect.

Marin Dining And Wining

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Sonoma Turkey Farmers Create Restaurant, Elegant Menu

Here is a new Sonoma County restaurant that should prove to be an interesting spot for diners-out on a tour:

Gobblers Roostaurant "By ye olde waterwheel" at 5186 Gravenstein Highway South between Cotati and Sebastopol has been opend by Fred and Silvie Vast, who have operated the Vast Turkeyland Farm for the past 18 years. Marinites will know this road better as Highway 116.

The Vasts have taken one of the erstwhile turkey buildings, completely remodeled it — and now seat about 42 diners.

The Vasts still raise turkeys on the rest of the property and continue to smoke hams, pastrami, bacon, turkey, pork loin, beef and lamb as well as sell these products in a delicatessen operation.

They also smoke suckling pigs for parties, and since the smokehouse is kept perpetually busy I imagine you can have your own meats and game smoked here as well.

All the Vast smoked foods are available at their restaurant tables, along with dinners featuring turkey as lasagne, curry, Aloha, Creole, filet sec and the regular old fashioned down-by-the-farm roast turkey with all the trimmings. Complete dinners are from $2.75 to $4.25, with smoked meats going at the higher prices. And they serve a la carte as well.

Dinners are served Thursdays and Fridays from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m.; with lunches from noon to 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays and dinners after that; and Sunday dinners from 2 p.m. A special "Thanksgiving every Thursday" with the regular $3.50 turkey dinner goes that day for $2.95.

Recipes for all dishes are those of Silvie Vast herself, followed by chef Ernest Galbraith. Wines, champagnes and beers are served, with the biggest play given to Sonoma and Napa County wines, naturally.

Keep your eyes open for the old water wheel as you drive up Gravenstein Highway.

IT'S PROBABLY DIFFICULT for many former diners at the Old Viking in Lagunitas to get used to the idea these days that reservations for dinner are now advisable on most occasions, and definitely required on others.

This could be annoying to those who may remember when there was no difficulty getting an immediate table, but things have changed. It's not snobbishness but simple arithmetic. There are two dining rooms but they are small and seating is still limited.

People who enjoy a small, intimate place to dine must also accept the chance of everything being taken when they arrive. They can't have things both ways in view of the Old Viking's almost phenomenal rise in popularity.

Once reconciled to this, there is no reason why you shouldn't enjoy your dinner here as much as you ever did. The menu is virtually the same now as when the restaurant first opened. Fewer than a dozen entrees make up the entire list, indicating that an endless variety of selections is not necessarily needed to satisfy the average diner-out.

Over a period of time I've tried most of the Scandinavian specials which are the big attraction and I can't say that I've grown tired of any one of them. My current favorite is the jagar schnitzel with fresh mushroom sauce.

If you are the type that must have a martini or highball before dinner, forget the Old Viking or do your drinking first. It doesn't have that kind of liquor license, but Matts Mattsson performs a few tricks with wines, champagnes, juices and vermouths that will amaze and satisfy most imbibers.

Make a reservation for any night but Wednesday (it's closed then). You won't regret it.

REOPENED UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP at 1311 Bridgeway Sausalito after being closed for the past six months is the Lighthouse, formerly known as Lighthouse Grill and Paul's Lighthouse Grill.

New proprietor Bob Martin has remodeled, repainted and redecorated and is keeping open every day except Sunday from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. for breakfast (served all day long), lunch and early dinner. Short orders, a la carte items and one hot daily special are on the menu.

Bob was formerly co-owner of Patty's of Sausalito, but recently sold out to his partner Phil Kabich.

DOMINIC'S in San Rafael has been selected by the Marin Shakespeare Festival as its "official" restaurant for the coming season as a result of its long support of cultural activities through its art museum, charity golf tournament and interest in Bay Area theatrical undertakings.

Throughout the season, which opens July 17 and offers performances of Richard II, Midsummer Night's Dream and Two Gentlemen from Verona, festival madrigal singers will entertain various times at Dominic's.

McKEE'S HOFBRAU in San Rafael will open Sunday in a day-long benefit for Herb Holzmann, widely known Marin waiter and restaurant employee, who is extremely ill. Jim McKee will start things at noon, with all money raised from the bar and a special buffet contributed to Herb.

Besides working at McKee's, Herb will be remembered for his years at Rubini's.

THE COSCARATS — Raymond, Eugenie and Johnny — were expected back at Le Chalet Basque in Santa Venetia yesterday after a month vacation in France. You should find them there this weekend.

Also Sunday brunches were scheduled to be renewed again on June 29.

DENNY'S RESTAURANTS has lined up a piece of property on Paradise Drive, Corte Madera for another Marin restaurant. No timetable on construction has been posted.

FOR ROAD TRAVELERS, the Dodge news magazine for July has some pointers on how to choose a good restaurant along the way.

There is no one simple indicator, but Dodge suggests these checks: Is there a parking lot adjoining? This may indicate a well established, well patronized restaurant. While checking this, look over the number of local rather than out of state automobiles; if the place is good the local people will patronize it.

Recommending auto club and gasoline company guides carry some weight — but you can try out their judgment for size by matching recommendations in your home nieghborhood with your own experiences first. Service club signs are another clue — Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and others. These organizations look for local quality restaurants and leave them if they don't measure up.

Food in chain restaurants is usually uniform and if you have had a satisfactory experience at one place it's worth trying the next one.

Without seeing the menu in advance you'll have to resort to your own shrewd judgment as to whether a restaurant is in your budget bracket. Obviously you will need a full pocketbook when you find uniformed doormen, name entertainers, lavish marquees, plush American and foreign automobiles in the parking lot or other signs of the good life.

"Truck stops" are a fair indication of good food at reasonable prices, but they may not be the place for you if you are looking for a quiet, leisurely place to dine.

THE ENTIRE REGULAR DINNER MENU will be served from noon every Sunday at Cafe Bon Vin, San Anselmo. Sunday champagne brunches are being suspended until September.

Owner Fred Cherry will represent the North Bay Wine and Food Society at the international convention of wine and food societies in London next October.

Suspect Denies Check Charges

Paul Vincent Zuick, 27, of Davenport, Santa Cruz County, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to two charges of possessing other people's checks with intent to defraud and one charge of passing a bad check.

A preliminary hearing was set for July 15.

Judge Peter Allen Smith released Zuick on his own recognizance.

Judge Dismisses Arrest Charges

Various charges arising from an arrest by the California Highway Patrol were dismissed yesterday by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. of Marin Municipal Court against Delbert C. Clark, 29, of San Francisco.

Clark had been accused of possessing methamphetamine and another person's credit card as well as a misdemeanor count of possessing a hypodermic needle. The case was dismissed for insufficient evidence.

Another man arrested with Clark, Richard L. Givens, 28, also of San Francisco, has been bound over to Superior Court on charge of auto theft.

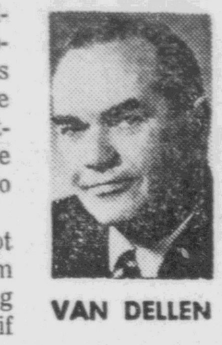
HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Make Use Of Vacation Time By Avoiding Last Minute Rush



VAN DELLEN

An ideal vacation provides a restful period away from the daily grind of business obligations and household chores. To some people, this means a weekend jaunt or two weeks at a resort whereas others prefer to tour the country. Well-spent holidays recharge the batteries. Many people, however, return home in a state of collapse and need a week to recuperate from the vacation.

Marathon-like schedules certainly do not promote relaxation and may do more harm than good. Those who insist on tooling along at breakneck speeds would get more rest if they spent two weeks on the back porch or patio. Many tourists cannot resist a "See Skunk Gulch" sign without taking the invitation literally. So what, if the 40-mile detour means driving late into the night?

ONCE THE FAMILY chooses between the seashore and the Grand Canyon, they should make a few plans. Letting things slide until the last minute creates feelings of panic. Not having the car thoroughly checked is a gilt-edged invitation to trouble. Mechanical failures not only fray the nerves and the budget, but may result in serious injuries.

Jot down items used daily. For example, if you can't see two feet ahead without glasses, bring along a spare. Include medications that are taken regularly and order refills if necessary. Comfortable walking shoes and clothing are a must. Nature's almost impressive setting is hardly enjoyable when the feet hurt.

TRAVELING with children need not be a chore if a few rules are followed. Feed the brood early and stop often to let them stretch their legs. Coloring books or games ward off boredom. Nonsticky snacks such as raisins, dried fruits or apples stem the tide of starvation. (Our leaflet on this subject offers useful suggestions along this line and may be obtained by sending stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.)

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope to the I-J.)

SPEEDY THROAT RELIEF

A reader writes: I had three attacks of rheumatic fever between the ages of 13 and 30. Is it possible this infection was active in my system during those years?

REPLY

No. Recurrences are common in rheumatic fever but each attack is preceded by a respiratory ailment of streptococcal origin. Further attacks are discouraged by avoiding strep infections or by the routine use of a sulfonamide or an antibiotic The moment a throat infection occurs it should be treated immediately.

Today's Health Hint—

The tourist should wear comfortable shoes.

PROJECT 42

RESURFACING OF EXISTING STREETS TOWN OF ROSS, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Town of Ross, County of Marin, State of California, until 2:00 P.M. July 10, 1969 for:

The work of resurfacing existing streets, Ross, Marin County, California; consisting of site preparation, placement of asphaltic concrete overlays on existing roadway pavement and other miscellaneous work.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, P. O. Box "O", Civic Center Branch, San Rafael, California 94903.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Three Dollars ($3.00) cash or check made payable to the Town of Ross, which deposit is non-refundable.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Ross Town Engineer and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guarantees shall be in the form of a Certified or Cashier's Check or Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted, shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the Town of Ross shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Virginia Stott, Clerk of the Town of Ross, Town Hall, Ross, California.

For securing plans and specifications, please refer to paragraph 4 above.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 2:00 P.M. in the Ross Town Hall Council Chambers, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross will award the bid at 8:00 P.M. July 10, 1969, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

TIME LIMIT

The contractor shall commence work on or before the tenth (10th) day following the date of written notification of approval of the contract by the Ross Town Engineer, and shall complete all work on the project within thirty (30) calendar days counting from and including the said tenth (10th) day.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1969, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the Town of Ross (at no expense to the Town of Ross), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the Town in the prescribed form:

a) Faithful Performance Bond
b) Labor and Materials Bond

The Faithful Performance Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

The Labor and Materials Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion and transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractors shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provision of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies and raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to the Town of Ross, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs, to achieve this goal.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Ross Town Engineer and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guarantees shall be in the form of a Certified or Cashier's Check or Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted, shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the Town of Ross shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Virginia Stott, Clerk of the Town of Ross, Town Hall, Ross, California.

For securing plans and specifications, please refer to paragraph 4 above.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 2:00 P.M. in the Ross Town Hall Council Chambers, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross will award the bid at 8:00 P.M. July 10, 1969, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Separate bids will be taken for the general project work and furnishing of Traffic Controller Equipment.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

TIME LIMIT

The contractor awarded the contract for furnishing Traffic Controller Equipment shall begin work within ten (10) calendar days following the Notice to Proceed issued by the Ross Town Engineer and shall deliver all required equipment to the site of the work within sixty (60) calendar days thereafter. The contractor awarded the contract for general project work shall begin work no sooner than thirty (30) calendar days prior to estimated delivery of Traffic Controller Equipment and shall complete all work including installation of Traffic Controller Equipment within twenty (20) calendar days following delivery of Traffic Controller Equipment.

The engineer's estimate of quantities of work is a part of the plans and specifications available at the office of the Ross Town Engineer.

LABOR

The attention of the bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications relative to labor.

In accordance with the provisions of the labor code, the Ross Town Council has determined that the general prevailing rate of wages applicable to the work to be done which shall be the minimum rates paid on the project, are as follows:

For positions not listed above, the minimum rate paid for skilled, intermediate or unskilled labor shall be not less than minimum wage per hour and shall conform to the particular craft or classification of workmen employed on the project.

The attention of bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications regarding legal relations and responsibility.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1969, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the Town of Ross (at no expense to the Town of Ross), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the Town in the prescribed form:

a) Faithful Performance Bond
b) Labor and Materials Bond

The Faithful Performance Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

The Labor and Materials Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion and transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractors shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies and raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to the Town of Ross, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs, to achieve this goal.

State To Pioneer In Criminal Data Plans

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California will serve as the coordinating state in a six-state $1 million project to develop the prototype of a new computerized criminal justice statistics system.

Kai Martensen, executive officer of the California Council on Criminal Justice, announced yesterday that Arizona, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota and New York will join California in the 14-month project.

The states will develop a standardized record system on offenders, containing information on arrests, results of trials, whether probation was granted, prison sentences, time served in prison, date of release, and subsequent arrests or violation of parole.

The effort will be financed by a $600,000 federal grant and $400,000 from the participating states.

The Mariner 2 spacecraft sent data from the planet Venus across 36 million miles of space using only three watts of power — about the amount used for an ordinary flashlight bulb.

Berkeley Trial Evidence Barred

BERKELEY (UPI)—Municipal Judge Floyd Talbott yesterday granted a motion to suppress certain evidence against demonstrators being tried for offenses during the May Peoples Park riots.

The judge said that fingerprints, photographs and statements taken from nine defendants when they were caught in a roundup of almost 500 persons May 22 may not be used in their trials. The arrests were made without warrant and the crimes allegedly committed were not witnessed by the arresting officer, the judge said.

The nine, whose trial begins today, are among 328 to be tried in groups. Others among the total of 482 persons arrested at the time have had the charges against them dropped.

WINE DISCOVERIES
at CAFE BON VIN

WINE, FOOD, AND . . .

Home made wine vinegar — white and red — flavored (and decorated) with lovely sprigs of savory herbs. A dozen flavors, plus the incomparable Bouquet Garni, are sold here "to go." Special, $1.00 large bottle.

Home made wine jellies . . . unusual combinations such as pear and mint and sherry, pineapple and muscatel, and a dozen others. The jellies are prepared by an old-fashioned lady who makes such flavors as her whims allow. She has never disappointed us or our customers. Special price, all flavors, $1.00 jar.

THE GOOD LIFE!

At Cafe Bon Vin, there is a dedication to civilized pleasure not often found in American restaurants. Our guests quickly feel this spirit; and dinner becomes a leisurely pursuit of the pleasure which properly chosen wine adds to food, and properly-prepared food adds to wine. A dining experience without compare, so many tell us. And this appreciation continues to be our greatest reward.

Two ABAG Bills Killed For Year

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Two bills to set up a San Francisco Bay Area regional government were killed yesterday by the Assembly Local Government Committee.

One bill by Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, provided that voters elect members of the regional agency's governing board.

The other measure by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, placed county and city officials on the governing board.

Knox, committee chairman, said both proposals would be the subjects of a between-sessions study.

Work Is Behind Schedule On Project Bridge

Workers are behind schedule on construction of College Avenue bridge in Kentfield but expect to finish the overall Corte Madera Creek flood control project on schedule.

Jim Matheson, Elmer J. Freethy Co. superintendent, said the total job is expected to be completed by the end of November provided there are no early storms.

Workmen are behind schedule on the bridge because of the sleep-in protest and a delay in getting the right of entry for the detour onto College of Marin land.

We're ahead of schedule in pouring concrete at Corte Madera Creek, Matheson said, and just about caught up on Tamalpais Creek, following the 11-day shutdown when vandals damaged two submersible pumps. Completion date on this segment is estimated at Aug. 31, Matheson reported.

Matheson said workers poured 400 yards of cement yesterday in the Corte Madera Creek "invert" and will pour 500 yards—or 63 truck loads — next Tuesday in the project's biggest pouring job.

Jackie's '61 Clothes Tab At $40,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy, who once ridiculed reports that she spent $30,000 a year on clothes, actually spent just over $40,000 on clothes in 1961, says her former personal secretary.

Mrs. Kennedy's passion for clothes, battles with the family budget when she was First Lady and mimicry of her mother-in-law are among the topics covered by Mary Barelli Gallagher in her book, "My Life with Jacqueline Kennedy."

"It always amazed me," Mrs. Gallagher writes in an excerpt in the current Ladies Home Journal, "that Jackie spent more in a year on family expenses than the President's salary of $100,000:"

$100,000-PLUS

In 1962, she writes, Mrs. Kennedy spent $121,461.61 on family expenses and President John F. Kennedy called in a family friend and financial adviser to straighten out the family bookkeeping.

The ensuing economy move led Mrs. Kennedy, now Mrs. Aristotle Onassis, to order the White House staff to restrict guests at official functions to two cocktails apiece, Mrs. Gallagher writes.

She said further that Mrs. Kennedy decided "she wanted White House aide Kenny O'Donnell to be on his guard if anyone ever wanted to know what to give the President, to suggest that liquor was always welcome."

JACKIE DENIES

Mrs. Gallagher recalls that during the 1960 presidential campaign when a story broke "that Jackie was spending $30,000 a year for her clothes, she retorted. 'I would have to wear sable underwear to spend that much'."

The actual amount of Mrs. Kennedy's clothing expenditures for 1961 was just over $40,000, the author says.

On the subject of Mrs. Kennedy's mother-in-law, Mrs. Gallagher says that Rose Kennedy wanted her daughter-in-law to come out of her bedroom at the Palm Beach home when important guests were invited to lunch.

"I immediately went in to relay the message to Jackie, but she took it gaily. She imitated her mother-in-law's voice and manner of speech, and singsonged, 'You might remind her we're having important guests for lunch . . .' The luncheon guests arrived and departed without any sight of Jackie," Mrs. Gallagher said.

Weed Smuggling Eyed For Transfer

The case of Kevin Wiley Good, 18, of Mill Valley, who is accused of attempting to smuggle marijuana into the Marin County Jail, yesterday was referred to the probation department for possible transferral to juvenile court.

Good is accused of possessing a marijuana cigarette and trying to bring it with him when he entered the jail June 14 to serve a weekend on a traffic offense.

TELEVISION IN REVIEW

Mama Cass Special Is Smooth, Entertaining

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Mama Cass Television Program on ABC last night was a very pleasant, music-filled hour. It also seemed to be a try out for some group singers who, like Cass, were eager to go it alone.

Miss Elliot placed her plump foot on the first rung of the success ladder as a member of the popular Mamas and the Papas quartet. Among her guests on the special were Mary Travis, without the other two members of the Peter, Paul and Mary trio, and John Sebastian, who once was a part of The Lovin' Spoonful.

They were interesting in their solos, but it seemed that the former group singers—except Cass—were more comfortable and relaxed when working with other singers.

Miss Elliot has a beguiling way with a song—forthright, sweet and true. From popular standards like "Dream a Little Dream of Me," by Cass to John Sebastian's haunting compositions, the musical segments were outstanding.

The rest was a bit of a come down. Buddy Hackett's funniest moments came when he was explaining why he quit gambling at Las Vegas—"They've added something called baccarat so now you lose in French."

The two sketches aimed more for irony and pathos than comedy and just escaped being embarrassing to watch. Buddy played a hospital patient about to have eye bandages removed and learn if he would see again. A romance had developed with another patient—Cass—with a broken arm. The snapper came when Buddy left and the fracture patient picked up a blind person's white cane and was helped off.

Barbara Bain and Martin Landau played a shy, elderly man and woman hunting new mates at a computerized dating bureau. They liked each other, but the computer never matched them, so each walked out alone.

The program obviously was taped several months ago. Since then Cass has gone on a well-publicized and highly successful weight reduction regime.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Strike Would Destroy Trust, Understanding

The fact that the county is "preparing" for a possible strike by county probation and social workers next Tuesday should not be construed to mean that the county concedes the legality of such a strike.

Neither should it be taken as a sign that the county has given up all hope of reaching accord on a new contract to replace the existing agreement which expires on Monday.

County negotiators have expressed hope, and so has the spokesman for the 120 employees in the two unions, that a new agreement can be reached by deadline or that the present contract extended so that normal governmental functions can proceed along with the negotiations.

Even if a strike by county employees were found to be legal, a fact which is disputed by the county counsel, we would hope that the county's pioneering efforts at employee relations will not be greeted with the rude rebuke of a walkout.

A strike, coupled with a crippling of the two departments (public social services and probation) most concerned with human and social needs, would hurt, not only orderly government but more importantly those in greatest need of daily attention from experienced social and probation workers.

In the opinion of County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, a strike by either group is illegal and a direct threat to the public interest.

There is no decision of the California Supreme Court that resolves the question of the public employees' right to strike. However, there are lower court decisions which tend to support the county counsel's opinion, particularly when public interest is at stake.

Legal precedents have been established, enjoining teachers from striking. Under federal law, a strike by federal employees is illegal.

A recent superior court decision in San Diego County did rule that county employees have the right to strike. But this is still to be tested in higher courts.

A big majority of Marin County's 1,200 employees have come to terms with the county on new contracts for 1969-70, with a five per cent salary increase next month and 2.5 per cent cost-of-living raise in January. Thus far, negotiations between the county team and employee groups have been conducted in an atmosphere of mutual trust and understanding.

That trust and understanding would be destroyed if the county were to grant to the holdouts concessions beyond those given to the big majority.

It would be ironic indeed if the county, which is leading the state in the field of employee relations and in recognizing public employees' rights to collective bargaining, were to suffer a slap in the face for its pioneering efforts.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Little Chance Of Reduction In $6.2 Billion State Budget

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Once again the senate of the State of California has produced a "record" budget for the taxpayers of the state to finance during the 1969-70 fiscal year. This time, the figure reached $6,198,431,922, which in anybody's book, is a lot of money.

Just how much money it amounts to can be figured roughly on the basis of per capita costs. Assuming the population of California is 20 million, the state's expenditures will amount next fiscal year to approximately $410 for every man, woman and child in the state.

Thus, for the head of a household with an average of three dependents, the per capita tax next year will be approximately $1,640, or more than $136 per month. This is figured, of course, on the basis that taxes are equal, which they aren't.

WHEN THIS sort of a state tax bill is piled on top of local government taxes, and federal taxes, it is not difficult to see why inflation grows at such a rapid rate.

For every dollar of the $6,198 million has to come out of the taxpayers' earnings in one form or another, and the relation of taxes to the economic welfare of the citizen is more apparent when the astronomical figure is broken down into thousands, which the average person can understand.

The 1969-70 budget does not stand much chance of being reduced in appreciable manner, despite the fact that the Senate, in adopting it, brought the total down more than $27 million from the request of Gov. Ronald Reagan when he submitted it to the legislature.

It goes to the Assembly for approval. First, it must be adopted by the Assembly, which already earlier in the session, refused adoption of its own version of the governor's budget.

THIS REFUSAL resulted from delaying action by the Democrats, who claim they want a specific tax reform program before approving the next year's expenditure program. And the situation has not changed in this respect. There is no approved specific program of tax reform, and from all indications, there is not likely to be one before the June 30 deadline for passing the budget.

So unless some Democratic votes are secured for passage in the assembly, there will be no budget.

All of which keeps the operating departments of government on pins and needles, including the school districts throughout the state, which are now fixing tax rates for the next fiscal year.

HOWEVER, SHOULD the Assembly pass the Senate version with amendments, the document will go to free conference, where three senators and three assemblymen will reconcile the figures, and pass it back to both houses for approval.

All this takes time, and the indications are now that if the legislature meets the June 30 deadline, some fast work will have to be effected.

This situation is not unique; it happens almost every year. The legislature has had the budget for five months, the Assembly ways and means committee, and the Senate finance committee, have worked long hours, but still the dissidents manage to hold it up until the last minute.

Remember 'Purge' Of Dr. Upton

The purge of Dr. Upton, a qualified, experienced, dedicated member of the Marin County Planning Commission, by Supervisor McInnis, should be remembered by Marin County First District residents. They have only to look at San Rafael to see what happened during the many years Mr. McInnis was a member of the City Council and mayor of that city.

Unless they wish to see the county San Rafaelized into a similar but larger area of messy mediocrity, let them register their opposition when they go to the polls at the next Supervisorial election.

Ban The Use Of DDT Pesticide

As a marine biologist and citizen concerned with the wise use of the natural environment, I urge your readers to support legislation banning the use of DDT at state and national levels.

DDT is an effective pesticide, but studies have shown that it is a "hard" pesticide, one that accumulates in the tissues of organism feeding in DDT-contaminated environments because it does not decompose readily under the influence of either weathering or biological activity. The amount of DDT in the tissues of some commercially important fish has already reached the level, in certain areas, where the fish are considered unfit for human consumption according to food and drug regulations. The toxicity of DDT, affecting reproduction, has been implicated in damage to populations of crabs, shrimp, and oysters.

Apart from pragmatic consideration of the effects of DDT on food organisms, man should be loathe to permit, for the sake of short term advantages, the use of a pesticide which in the long run promises to impoverish his total environment by diminishing the number and variety of organisms which can live in it.

The use of DDT must eventually be banned by international agreement, but a step in the right direction may be taken by writing your state senator and assemblyman urging support of California State Senate Bill 1430.

Apology Due For Houseboat Raid

In regard to Monday's raid on the houseboat community, I believe at least a personal apology is in order, from whoever is responsible, to Piro Caro. Nobody with a rudimentary grasp of the situation and personalities would ever accuse Mr. Caro of advocating violence or making cowardly threats by mail. His "resistance" to the county, for principles dear to him, has always been through administrative channels and legal action (so far successful) in the courts.

It seems that the county is reacting to rebuffs in the same manner they insinuate the houseboaters are acting, that is, emotionally and outside the province of due process. For men who hold positions of serious public trust to act in such an irrational manner is unthinkable. To direct such actions against a senior citizen of unquestionable personal integrity is frightening.

It is high time this whole non-issue is laid to rest.

Certainly the money the county is now spending and proposes to spend in its actions against the houseboaters can be better spent on programs that benefit the people of Marin County, such as education and improvements to real streets.

This might also be a good time for responsible men to question the use of force as an expediency in carrying out official policy. The system can certainly stand the occasional threatening letter — it cannot stand ill-considered use of its police power.

Developer Praised For Neat Road Job

I would like to compliment the developers of the new subdivision presently being graded and excavated above Bell Lane here in Tamalpais Valley. I am only sorry that I don't know the name of either the developers or the firm responsible for the roadwork.

Our end of the little valley is a very windy place, and it could be pure hell (with all of the earth-moving going on) were it not for the fact that they constantly wet down the hillside all day long and even clean and hose off the streets that their heavy equipment move in and out on daily. Such professionalism is a far cry indeed from some of the amateurish and unsightly work being done in the neighborhood by other interests.

Our compliments on a job well done.

Preserve Charm Of Magnificent Creek

"Skunk cabbage" is the name of a western native plant, and is attached to a stream in California's northwest. Above this clear creek rise arrow-columns.

Skunk Cabbage Creek possesses quality and location. Positioned most prominently beside the Redwood Highway, it is a portal of the Redwood National Park of which it is not now, but should be, a foremost part. The perhaps prosaic name gives no indication of the magnificence through which it flows.

Little Skunk Cabbage Creek is too fine to let its transparent flow become fouled, and flanked by great stumps caught in a mesh of torn earth.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

Fellow at a neighborhood bar was complaining to all and sundry because his mother-in-law had moved in with him. "I've seen her," consoled a friend, "and she's not bad at all. Worse things could happen to you." "I know," mourned the fellow, "but I wish at least that she had waited till after the ceremony!"

One day last month a rumor spread like wildfire in Norwich, England that the town had an animal that might rival the Loch Ness monster as a tourist attraction. It was nothing less than a Labrador dog with two complete sets of teeth — and the resultant fixed grin that sent observers screaming into the highway. It was then, alas, that the dog's owner turned up to report that his false teeth were missing. His dog had thought they were something extra for breakfast, and they had become lodged in his mouth. He was caught sunning himself outside Collum's butcher shop, and the teeth, unbroken, returned to where they belonged.

THE DRUMMONDS

Nixon Counts On South Viet To Assume Brunt Of Fighting

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON — Behind Clark Clifford's proposal to withdraw all U. S. combat ground troops from Vietnam in 18 months and the President's "hope" to do better lies a riskful dilemma which Mr. Nixon must face.

Horn One of the dilemma is that, if South Vietnam can't take over most of the fighting by next year, U. S. casualties will continue at a level the American people will not accept.

Home-front pressure could well be so great that the President would feel compelled to abandon the war, whatever the consequences.

Horn Two is that, if American casualties aren't radically reduced in the coming months, the peace-at-any-price advocates will be hounding Richard Nixon as powerfully as they did Lyndon Johnson.

SUCH PRESSURE could well be so great that Mr. Nixon might feel he had no other choice at the Paris talks but to capitulate to a counterfeit peace, however labeled.

In expressing "hope" that he can "beat Mr. Clifford's timetable," the President appears to be putting all his bets on another hope —that the South Vietnamese armed forces, now better led, better trained and better equipped, will before the end of 1970 be able to successfully bear the brunt of the major fighting.

If it turns out that way — and this is the unknown quantity —the planned withdrawal will not precipitate a Viet Cong victory but will so reduce American casualties to allow Mr. Nixon the needed time in Paris to get a negotiated peace.

This is the rationale of the Clifford plan, and this is why the President hopes that his timetable for withdrawal will be even faster.

SINCE HIS PRESS conference, the President has taken pains to make it clear that while his goal is the same as Clifford's, his approach to achieving it is different.

Mr. Nixon seeks mutual withdrawal, Clifford unilateral withdrawal.

Mr. Nixon seeks mutual cease-fire, Clifford unilateral cease-fire.

Mr. Nixon seeks fulfillment of one or more of his conditions as the basis for a large withdrawal: (1) progress toward a negotiated peace; (2) South Vietnamese combat readiness; (3) withdrawal of some North Vietnamese troops. Clifford proposes a large U. S. withdrawal even if none of these conditions is met.

Mr. Nixon is working closely and co-operatively with President Thieu. Clifford seems to take a very casual if not disdainful attitude toward the Thieu government.

BUT NEITHER the President nor Clifford would leave the entire burden of the fighting to the South Vietnamese. Clifford stated very carefully that he was proposing the withdrawal of "all ground combat troops" by the end of 1970. He proposed to leave U. S. air power and other support which could give South Vietnam military dominance.

Undoubtedly, the extreme scuttle-and-run, peace-at-any-price advocates would scream at even this much U. S. support for Vietnam, but the President and Clifford apparently believe that a radical reduction of U. S. casualties would deprive the extremists of decisive public support.

THE PRESIDENT'S Democratic opponents are quite obviously out to capitalize on what must be put down as an unwise Nixon press conference statement. Over-optimism about Vietnam has been the pit into which many U. S. officials have fallen, and Mr. Nixon put one foot into it by publicly "hoping" to beat Clifford's timetable.

If he can elude the horns of his dilemma, he will have performed a near miracle. If he cannot, both he and the nation will be in trouble, and Vietnam will be lost.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Military Dubious About All-Volunteer Army

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's plan for an all-volunteer Army, after the Vietnam war, has been taking quite a drubbing behind the closed doors of executive congressional hearings.

Top military leaders have expressed personal doubts about the President's plan for ending the military draft. Many-starred skeptics include Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the former commander in Vietnam who is now Chief-of-Staff of the Army.

President Nixon proposed the all-volunteer Army concept during last year's presidential campaign but said such a move must await the end of the Vietnam fighting. For the present, the concept is under study in the Pentagon.

PROJECTED HIGH costs of attracting manpower for an all-volunteer force are a major hurdle cited by military leaders in their assessments. The comment that, even after Vietnam, worldwide U. S. commitments will require a sizeable military back-up.

The generals say many volunteers now join up because of the draft's hot breath. They are concerned about what will happen without that persuasive influence.

The military brass also ask what is to serve as a trained manpower pool for vital military reserve forces after the services stop enlisting and training more than 800,000 citizen-soldiers every year.

All these reservations are hedged somewhat, by the military spokesmen, with notations that the whole question is still under study. Their doubts are expressed quite properly in response to direct questions by members of the House and Senate.

Under ground rules long insisted upon by congressional leaders, military spokesmen are pledged to give their candid, personal views in response to such questions, even if their answers put them at odds with their civilian bosses.

PRACTICAL PROBLEMS — Wheeler has testified that, before the Vietnam war, at least half of the enlistments in the Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps resulted "under the incentive of being drafted."

"If you were going back to a force of pre-Vietnam, somewhere around 2.5 million men, I personally don't think you could maintain such a force by an all-volunteer means within any reasonable fiscal program that you might lay down," the General declared.

Wheeler conceded that the implications of an all-volunteer force are difficult to assess. He said, however, that he was basing his comments on his experience with the draft and military manpower problems over the years.

Westmoreland told one congressional committee that present U. S. commitments will require a post-war force of a size which would need "substantial inducements" to man with volunteers. He thought it would be possible "theoretically" to attract the necessary manpower, but he warned that there would be "practical" problems.

The former Vietnam commander said the Army should try for more volunteer, long-term enlistments. He suggested, however, that "the selective service machinery would have to continue, in order to provide the incentive to volunteer. . . ."

If City Donates For Fireworks It Wants Credit For The Boom

City councils can be just as vain as individuals. Well, not vain, maybe, but anxious to see their good deeds recorded.

One reason the Sausalito council lopped $250 Tuesday from its contribution to the Fourth of July fireworks display was that councilmen felt the city never gets any credit for its contribution.

Councilmen said the chamber of commerce and Sausalito Artists and Merchants send out publicity about the fireworks, but don't mention that the city puts up half the cost.

One councilman went on to suggest that instead of a city contribution, the chamber should do something for Sausalito.

With that, they cut the fireworks money to $500. The chamber will have to find the remaining $1,000 in its own pocket or those of Sausalito Artists and Merchants, or Strawberry Shopping Center, which are helping foot the fireworks.

A LOT of good things are happening in Marin City this summer. An Oakland troupe presented "Back to Black" early this month at the Manzanita Center, and now a group called Black Women, Inc., has started a summer black drama workshop.

The Marin City Mothers' Guild is raising money with its second annual festival from 11 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church. The summer youth program of the Economic Opportunity office has started, and the Neighborhood Youth Corps job program is starting for youths 16 or older who lack high school diplomas.

The YWCA is sponsoring a Saturday afternoon program at Manzanita Center for girls from 7 to 11 with nature trips scheduled to the ocean, woods and museums.

An expanded secretarial training program is starting. A Memorial Day barbecue drew more than 200 people.

There are other things too, like the rash of grass fires believed set by children, but the good things somehow aren't noticed very often. If they were, maybe people would stop thinking of Marin City as "somewhere else" and start thinking of it as the town next door.

It's only an impertinent question, but why is it county officials are so worried about the hazard at Gate 5 from rotten electrical wiring, but unworried about hazards from cutting off the juice, like loss of heat, bilge pump power and refrigeration? That's what gate 5 residents are asking.

THE SAUSALITO City Council Tuesday sounded like nervous parents coaching a daughter for her first dance. In a sense, they were — the Sausalito teen group was seeking approval to hold a rock dance at Martin Luther King School.

Councilman Robin Sweeny was afraid dance promotion would attract a horde of outsiders who might make trouble. Mayor Earl N. Dunphy wanted to check the list of chaperones, and said he would show up during the dance to make sure the chaperones were there. (The dance will be held July 3 or July 10, incidentally.)

The council was plainly apprehensive Sausalito might suffer the fate of Fairfax and other cities where dances have led to trouble, but teen recreation director Richard Paris was able to reassure councilmen things would be kept under control.

Like teens chafing under a parental curfew, the youth group who came to the council with Paris seemed restive under council questioning. They were cool enough to keep quiet and let their representative Paris do the talking, which is more than many adult applicants do at city hall.

To an outsider, the questions sounded less like nagging than like a concern that things should go well at the dance.

Whatever the teens think, it's nice to know someone cares enough about them to ask questions before handing them a responsibility.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Where Is Transportation Study, Or Transit District's Report?

Fusselman

"Supervisors Pass Record High Budget." It wasn't much of a story, as far as space to tell it goes: Single column — six and a half inches. It was on the front page all right, where people could read it. You might have missed it though. It said: "The Marin County Board of Supervisors today (Tuesday) approved a record spending program of $34.3 million next fiscal year, up about $4.6 million from the present budget. . . ."

"The supervisors completed deliberations two weeks ago." When I read that, I had just finished looking over my files of County Comments, that I had bought space for in the I-J, to express my views and concerns when I was supervisor.

IN THE ONE of August 11, 1962, these are some of the things I wrote about: "The hearing is scheduled to begin next Monday at 9 a.m. It may legally continue for ten days. (This was on the preliminary budget). What usually happens is that one or two people appear and as a result the meeting is closed the first day."

"I have a deep conviction that the tax paying public (and how few are not) should be urged to come in and talk to the supervisors, ask questions, inquire about the items." (Thus allowing a full discussion).

"The important factor is what your tax dollars are to be spent for." (Not the tax rate comparison.) "During the years I have spent on budget considerations, time after time it has become evident that you would have been better served had certain items been included and others omitted."

That year, 1962-63, the budget was $13,916,971. Now, in seven years it is $34.3 million — up $20.4 million.

TIME MAGAZINE, that week of 1962, carried a story that $15 million would be the ultimate cost of the complex at the Civic Center site. The figure is now $30 million or more. As I said recently, those responsible for the elaborate, expensive layout "don't live there anymore."

The other day I read that someone was saying that the only way the present board of supervisors could avoid a heavy tax take this year would be to quickly sell the courthouse square and use that money to reduce the levy this year. Then what will they use next year and the next and the next?

SURE THE COUNTY is stuck with certain costs not of the local making. The supervisors can't duck the fact though that they are giving the planning director, Paul Zucker, a whopping big appropriation this year. May we ask where is the transportation study? He has been supplied copiously for the past two years.

Then let's take a look, if we can find it, at the activity of one Seymour Kashin and his transit commission staff report. Just where is it? Both of these gents have been long on the conversation — yea rhetoric yet. Their forensic ability is a sample of the things that produce a $34.3 million budget.

This year the high command in the administrative department used the hatchet with mighty strokes. Results!! "You can't blame us. The supervisors did it." Quite a nice little ploy. No?

Thieves Get Coins

Burglars who ransacked the home of Alfred Bangert at 1028 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, Tuesday took $60 in cash, mostly Kennedy half dollars, sheriff's officers said yesterday.

Too Much Grass Is Bad Even If Not Marijuana

Three teen-age Ross boys, arrested Wednesday by sheriff's deputies with what appeared to be 10 large shopping bags full of marijuana, spent a few hours in jail learning the hard way not to dump trash on private property.

Deputies said they were called by private guards to a site at the end of Phoenix Road in Ross where the two guards had cornered the three youths and their car.

One of the boys reluctantly opened the trunk of the car, where the bags of "vegetable material" reposed. The oldest boy, who is 18, was jailed and his companions taken to juvenile hall.

Smiling officers released them a few hours later when the "vegetable material" turned out to be garden clippings, which the youths apparently were preparing to dump.

Colombia is fortunate in that it faces two oceans and its seaports are near the Panama Canal.

Death Due To Asphyxiation

Francis Wayne Leja, 24-year-old Novato man who was found dead in his house trailer May 29, apparently died of asphyxiation during an asthma attack, Marin Deputy Coroner Keith Craig said yesterday.

Leja's body was found by his wife, Robin.

An autopsy was performed when the cause of death was not readily apparent.

Stinson Beach Fire Budget Up $1,341

A final 1969-70 budget of $18,324 was passed Wednesday night by the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District board, unchanged from the preliminary budget, secretary Harriet M. Greene reported.

The budget is a $1,341 increase over last year but directors are hopeful increased property values will hold the district tax rate at the present 39 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The budget includes $10,560 for maintenance, $5,724 for capital outlay and $2,040 for salaries.

One of the finest things about a Chevy dealer's OK used cars is the fine print.

QUALITY OK USED CAR DEALER WARRANTY

Buy a used car from some people and you drive away knowing there's no return.

Not so at your Chevy dealer's OK lot. He gives you a round-trip ticket. The OK Quality Used Car Dealer Warranty.

Whereas some warranties seem to bog down in confusing details, the OK Warranty clearly protects you. And it lasts for 25 months.

So if the OK used car your Chevy dealer sells you doesn't make good (perish the thought!), he does. That's your protection.

His protection is that he inspects, road-tests and reconditions, as necessary, every used car worthy of the OK tag. Regardless of make, model or breed.

That way he can proudly read the fine print to you. Instead of you loudly reading the fine print to him.

USED OK CARS

More makes. More models. More use in a used car at your Chevy Dealer's OK lot.

Leach Leads NCAA Golf Action

THE LEADER IN ACTION — Ray Leach of Novato chips on the edge of a green.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — This is the first year that freshmen have been eligible for the National Collegiate Golf Championship.

Could it be the year for a freshman to win it?

Brown-eyed Ray Leach, of Novato, who turned 19 this month and has just wound up his first year at Brigham Young University, might well be the one if any rookie does it.

The slender youngster is the leader at the halfway mark of the 72-hole NCAA Championships at Broadmoor with 18 more holes stretching ahead today and 18 tomorrow.

Leach shot a one-under-par 69 Thursday to go with his opening 74 for a 143, and a four-stroke lead over a strong field that features a large majority of older and more experienced collegiate swingers.

The field was sliced to 62 players for the two-day final charge with 157 strokes, 17 over par, the cutoff point.

Leach's father is manager of Indian Valley Golf Course at their home in Novato, and the boy has been playing since he was 9.

He conceded he was fortunate in finishing yesterday before chilly, powerful wind gusts buffeted the course for the second day, but added, "My game was generally good all the way."

"I hit 16 greens in regulation and took only 33 putts," he said. It was remarkable with the slick greens, his coach said.

Tim Miller of Ohio State, who played in the same foursome, predicted Leach is going to win this tournament. "His game is solid all the way and his putting is terrific."

But hard on the fledgling's trail are such experienced players as Nick Raasch of Penn State, Barry Wilson of Oklahoma, Bob Barbarossa of Houston and Steve Melnyk of Florida, who yesterday reached the green of the 575-yard 11th hole with two mighty blasts for a birdie 4.

Raasch, Wilson and Bob Clark of California State at Los Angeles are tied at 147 for second place.

For a study in scoring contrasts, consider Marty Huget's case. The Louisiana State player has the highest first round score—85—of any player qualifying for the finals, yet was the only other one to break par, taking 69 yesterday.

Melnyk's Florida team is driving toward its second team title with 609, nine strokes ahead of Houston, winner of 10 such championships in recent years.

JACK HANLEY

Marichal, McCovey On Skipper's Side

CINCINNATI — Juan Marichal and Willie McCovey let Clyde King know they were on his side in the rhubarb with Willie Mays. McCovey made a point of sitting next to King after the near clash in the Giant dugout between the team captain and the team manager. Marichal patted King on the back in a gesture that seemed to say "I, Juan Marichal, am on your side."

Mays was a lonely looking captain after being restrained by McCovey, Larry Jansen and Gaylord Perry from an obvious effort to get at King as the second game of a three-game Astrodome series was starting. He sat by himself and none of his teammates moved next to him.

By their actions Marichal and McCovey assured King of their support in any showdown with Mays. Neither Marichal nor McCovey needed to say anything to reveal their own feelings. Their actions spoke louder than any words.

Players Tipped Off Feelings

The actions of other players later on the team bus tipped off their feelings.

Player after player patted King on the shoulder as they passed his No. 1 seat at the head of the bus.

Any rhubarb between a manager and team captain naturally creates an extremely delicate situation. It's a time of strained silence after the shouting is over. And, make no mistake about it, Mays was screaming at King and angrily waving his right index finger at the manager when Jansen, the pitching coach, and McCovey and Perry intervened.

The incident that triggered the angry confrontation between King and Mays was a matter of two days rest for Willie in Houston. Mays volunteered for a day game following a night game in Atlanta with the understanding that he might need two days rest after the Atlanta series with the Braves. That was all right with King except that King didn't believe Mays expected two days off in a row.

Here Comes The Confusion

Mays didn't play Monday night in the first game of the Astrodome series. And he didn't expect to play Tuesday night. But King put his name in the lineup.

Willie was in the clubhouse at game time and heard the lineup announced over the radio. He stormed down the runway leading from the clubhouse to the dugout. By this time King had taken the lineup to home plate and deleted Willie's name from it.

As team captain, Mays usually takes the lineup to home plate but when King couldn't find him at game time King assumed Willie felt in need of more rest.

So it was a rather confused Mays who bounded into the dugout. He heard the radio say he was in the lineup. Now, King was telling him he wasn't.

Quiet Words From McCovey

That's when the screaming started. Until McCovey intervened, Jansen and Perry was having a difficult time restraining Mays. McCovey talked quietly to him.

McCovey now has reached superstar status, along with Mays and Marichal. The 3Ms collectively receive more than $300,000 a year — Mays $125,000, Marichal $120,000 and McCovey $85,000. Mays still is the top drawing star of the Giants. But Marichal and McCovey also put more than a few customers in ball parks now. And when Mays, now 38, retires Marichal and McCovey will be the top drawing stars.

Thus, it was comforting to King to have Marichal and McCovey on his side because in any rhubarb between superstar and manager, the front office isn't as interested in equities as who attracts the customers through the turnstiles.

Fingers Does Fine As A's Fireman

OAKLAND (AP)—John "Blue Moon" Odom, 9-3, will be the starting pitcher for the Oakland Athletics against the Chicago White Sox tonight, but don't be surprised if Rollie Fingers is on the mound before the game is over.

Fingers made his sixth appearance in the last seven Oakland games when he saved a 3-2 victory for Chuck Dobson over the Kansas City Royals yesterday afternoon.

"I could pitch an inning or so tonight if they need me," the 22-year-old Fingers said.

WAS STARTER

Until this season, Fingers never had been a relief pitcher.

"But I don't mind it," he said. "I'll do anything just so I stay in the major leagues."

Bill Wynne, 2-0, will pitch for Chicago tonight.

Manager Hank Bauer of the A's figured that the bullpen would be the weak spot on the Oakland team this season after the A's lost their two top relief pitchers, Jack Aker and Diego Segui to Seattle in the expansion draft.

TWO PITCHES

Fingers was given a shot at a relief job and has been spectacular. He threw only two pitches to end yesterday's game.

With two runners on base in the ninth inning, Fingers got Pat Kelly to hit into a game-ending double-play. That gave Fingers his sixth save of the season.

Dobson was headed for the clubhouse when the game ended.

Reggie Jackson had a perfect day for the A's with two singles and his 28th homer of the season.

FEW TIMES

It was one of the few games this season in which Jackson had two singles.

"The law of averages was against me early in the year when I wasn't getting any singles," Jackson said. "I'm not a home run or nothing guy."

Jackson's homer put him 13 games ahead of Babe Ruth's pace in 1927 and eight games ahead of Roger Maris, who hit 61 homers in 1961.

Graebner, Smith Advance In Wimbledon Tournament

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Clark Graebner and Stan Smith, members of the U.S. Davis Cup team, slammed into the fourth round today in the All-England Tennis Championships.

Graebner, New York paper executive, scored a straight-set victory over Ilie Nastase of Romania 7-5, 8-6, 6-4. The six-foot-five Smith, from Los Angeles, rallied after a slow start for a 3-6, 9-7, 6-3, 6-4 triumph over Bill Bowrey, Australian Davis Cup ace.

Graebner lost his cannonball service only once against Nastase. That was in the ninth game of the third set when he relaxed after getting to a 40-0 lead.

Earlier, defending champion Rod Laver of Australia gained the round of 16 by crushing Jan Lesly of Denmark 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

He was joined by another Australian, Fred Stolle, who ousted Milan Holocek of Czechoslovakia 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Julie Heldman of New York became the first American woman to enter the round of 16 when she defeated Denise Carter of Los Altos, 6-2, 6-3.

She was joined shortly afterward by Margaret Michel of Pacific Palisades, who won over Anita Van Deventer of South Africa 6-4, 6-2.

The tournament, washed out on opening day Monday, sought to fill the 16 brackets in both men's and women's singles, bringing the event up to schedule.

In the biggest upset so far in the tourney, Bob Lutz, U.S. Davis Cupper from Los Angeles, yesterday defeated No. 4-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia, 8-6, 7-9, 6-3, 6-2.

Americans continued to move along in the women's division, as defending champion Billie Jean King of Long Beach led the advance with a 6-0, 6-4 victory over Marianne Brummer of South Africa.

Golf's Man With Mission

CLEVELAND (AP) — Orville Moody, a recent refugee from obscurity, is a man with a mission.

"I don't want to be the Open champion who never won anything else," said the ruddy-faced Old Sarge who came out of nowhere and won the national championship.

"I'd hate that. I don't mean I have to win everything, but as the National Open champion, I want to play well, there'd be satisfaction in that."

Moody, on the rebound from a bout with tonsillitis, made the observation yesterday after he had fashioned a three-under par 67 and tied red-hot Charles Coody and long shot Jerry McGee for the first-round lead in the $110,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament.

"I played better and I'm sure I putted better than I have in any other round this year," said the man who threatens to create a craze with his crosshanded putting style.

"I played it bold, but then I always do," he said. "I was putting bold, too," and he laughed.

"It's easy to do when you've got some money. When I was trying to make the cut, I was pretty much a lag putter."

Moody, a 14-year Army veteran, birdied five of the last nine holes on the par 70, 6,661-yard Aurora Country Club course and gained a share of the lead with an eight-foot putt on the 18th.

Moody, a 6-foot-2 Texan, had been in the clubhouse for hours when Moody and McGee, who had failed to qualify in the last five events, came in.

Just one stroke back at 68 was a trio of relative unknowns, George Hixson, who got into the field only because of a late withdrawal, Bob Stone, a club pro from Independence, Mo., and Cesar Sanudo.

A huge group followed at 69, including Charlie Sifford, Frank Beard, Bruce Crampton, Al Balding and Ron Cerrudo, onetime San Rafael resident.

49er Quarterback Brodie Among Favorites

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—A quartet of torrid shooting golfers from Los Angeles and John Brodie of the San Francisco 49ers were the favorites going into today's third and fourth rounds of the California Amateur Golf championships.

Before the day is through, the field of 16 survivors will be trimmed to four semifinalists.

Brodie, the favorite of the galleries, met veteran Bill Colm of Pebble Beach in this morning's third round. Yesterday the quarterback was four-over-par as he routed veteran San Francisco golfer Bob Roos, 3 and 2.

However, the top match today features Southern California champion Barry Jaeckel and attorney Dick Runkle, both of Los Angeles. Both golfers carded five birdies in winning their second round matches yesterday.

Runkle, who had only one bogey, was four-under while sidelining two-time runnerup Walt Gilliam of Burlingame, 4 and 3, while Jaeckel offset his birdie barrage with three bogies on his way to ousting two-time champ Verne Callison of Sacramento, 5 and 3.

Long Beach's John Richardson, 1962 state amateur champ, was three under regulation figures in besting Doug Behl, Fair Oaks, 5 and 4, and today met young Vic Loustalot, Sacramento, who disposed of a third former champion, 57-year-old Ernie Pieper Jr. of San Jose, 3 and 2.

Handsome Bud Bradley of Los Angeles also was four-under in winning his match against Kent Winton of Menlo Park, 5 and 4, dropping five birdies and three-putting one hole.

Today Bradley met Phil Arrino of Sacramento, a 5 and 3 victor over Bill Lytle, San Jose.

In other third round matches, medalist Ted Lyford, Redlands, met Steve Bogan of Montebello, Forrest Fezler of San Jose tangled with Ed Korylak of North Hollywood, Ray Arrino of Sacramento played Steve Stimac, Walnut Creek, and Jack Bariteau, San Jose, met Rick Ewing, Bakersfield.

DOLINSEK INKS ASTRO CONTRACT

John Dolinsek of Novato, who picked up the Most Valuable Player trophy in the 1969 NCAA College Baseball World Series, now has a professional contract in his pocket.

Dolinsek, who led Arizona State to the 1969 title in the series, has signed a pro contract in excess of $20,000 with the Houston Astros and has reported to the Astros' Class A rookie league team at Covington, Va., in the Appalachian League.

The former Novato High School standout still has a year of school left at Arizona State. He was signed by Astro scouts John Miller and Jim Bauer.

The 6-foot-2, 180-pounder was the top hitter in the series, with a .476 batting average, and he was the Sun Devils' second-best hitter on the regular season with a .346 average on 73 hits, 17 doubles and nine homers. He drove in 40 runs and scored 55 times.

Former Champ Louis Resting In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — Former boxing great Joe Louis was reported "resting comfortably" in a hospital today after he collapsed on a lower Manhattan street yesterday.

At first, it was feared that the 55-year-old Louis had suffered a heart attack, but a later report said the collapse was due to a physical breakdown.

A spokesman at Beekman-Downtown Hospital said the ex-heavyweight king was in "good" condition. He was expected to remain in the hospital for observation for a few days.

Leon Charney, an attorney, said Louis had just stepped from Charney's car when Louis complained of feeling ill and bent over. Charney drove Louis to the hospital.

Louis was in New York to promote a newly formed Joe Louis Food Franchise Corp., an interracial fast-food company.

The Brown Bomber, heavyweight champion from 1937 until 1949, won 68 fights and lost only three.

Marin 49er Booster Club Being Formed

San Francisco 49er football fans will get a chance to come out of the woodworks and become real boosters July 7 when the Marin 49er Goldrushers hold a kickoff luncheon at Dominic's Restaurant at noon in San Rafael.

The 49er Goldrushers, an official booster club for the 49ers, will have outlets in Marin County, San Francisco, Sacramento and San Jose. Once the National Football League season gets underway, there will be weekly luncheons at noon each Monday following 49er games, at home or away. They're expected to be strictly football luncheons with players and coaches making appearances for question and answer sessions.

Expected to be on hand for the Marin organizational meeting July 7 are 49er president Lou Spadia, general manager Jack White, publicist George McFadden, fullback Gary Lewis, offensive tackle Len Rohde, linebacker Matt Hazeltine, and guard Elmer Collett.

Cost for this first meeting which is open to all 49er fans, is $3. For information and reservations, write to 49er Goldrushers, P.O. Bo 88; Tiburon. Reservations must be in by next Thursday.

Bob Bolin Shows His Muscles With Bat

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Bob Bolin figured he might as well do it all himself.

The 6-foot-4 native of Hickory Grove, S.C., cracked a two-run homer and limited the normally hard-hitting Cincinnati Reds to four singles in pitching the San Francisco Giants to a 4-2 win last night. The victory snapped a four-game losing string for the Giants and moved them to within half a game of third-place Cincinnati in the National League West.

LINZY

Bolin went 8 2-3 innings before Frank Linzy came on to retire the final batter and preserve Bob's fourth win against a like number of losses. It was Linzy's seventh save.

There could be a slightly more emphatic upheaval in the standings today when the Giants and Reds battle in a twi-night doubleheader. Juan Marichal chases his 10th victory of the season with Rich Robertson (1-1) going in the other contest. Jim Merritt (7-3) and Gerry Arrigo (0-0) will be the opposition hurlers.

Dodgers, Braves Stage Own Skit

By ASSOCOATED PRESS

With apologies to Abbott and Costello, the Los Angeles Dodgers and Atlanta Braves are staging their own little baseball skit called Who's In First.

Last night's episode, starring Bill Singer and Willie Davis, went to the Dodgers, 3-0, vaulting them back into first place in the National League West by one-half game over the Braves.

The Dodgers had held or shared second place until they caught and passed the Braves last weekend. They fell back to second Wednesday night for 24 hours, but promptly overtook the Braves again behind Singer's four-hit pitching and Davis' homer and two runs batted in.

ELSEWHERE

Elsewhere, San Francisco beat Cincinnati 4-2, the Chicago Cubs outlasted Pittsburgh 7-5, Philadelphia tripped the New York Mets 2-0 and Montreal slugged St. Louis 8-6. Houston and San Diego were not scheduled.

Singer checked the Braves on four hits until he tired with one out in the ninth in the 94-degree Alanta heat. Jim Brewer came on to nail the last two outs and preserve Singer's ninth victory.

Although the hard-throwing right-hander fanned only three, he was so in command that the Braves didn't even beef that he was throwing spitballs. Earlier this season, Atlanta skipper Luman Harris charged that Singer was using the outlawed pitch and even sent the hurler a button reading, "Bring back the spitter."

DIDN'T NEED TO

"He only throws it with runners on base—so he didn't need to against us," said Braves slugger Hank Aaron, who doubled for one of Atlanta's four hits.

The Cubs and Pirates staged a wild seven-homer slugfest at Wrigley Field—the wind was blowing out at 28 miles an hour—before Jim Hickman's two-run shot in the 10th won it and boosted Chicago's lead in the N.L. East to 6½ games over the Mets.

Billy Williams connected for the Cubs in the first to tie the score 1-1 but the Pirates went ahead in the sixth on solo homers by Willie Stargell and Manny Sanguillen. Ken Rudolph's first major league homer with a man on base tied it again in the last of the sixth.

MORE HOMERS

Roberto Clemente put the Pirates back in front 5-3 with a two-run homer in the eighth, but Ron Santo got it right back with a two-run shot of his own. It remined 5-5 until Hickman sent a capacity Ladies' Day crowd of 40,334—29,473 paid—home happy.

Grant Jackson fired a four-hitter and Larry Hisle scored both runs as the crippled Phillies knocked off the Mets. In the sixth, Hisle singled and scored on a single by Rick Joseph. In the eighth, he doubled and rode home on a double by Johnny Briggs. Jackson, a fireballing lefty, struck out 10, getting Ron Swoboda four times.

Stottlemyre Tames Tigers On Shutout

By ASSOCOATED PRESS

Mel Stottlemyre found the best way to beat the heat was to get a quick jump on it.

Stottlemyre, given a five-run working margin in the second inning, hurled a four-hetter last night as the New York Yankees tamed Detroit 6-0 in hot and humid Tiger Stadium.

The smooth right-hander's 10th triumph of the season salvaged the finale of a four-game series for the Yankees. The loss dropped the Tigers 11½ games behind Baltimore's idle American League East Division leaders going into their critical four-game weekend set with the high flying Orioles.

Elsewhere in the A.L., Seattle scored two ninth inning runs for a 3-2 nod over the Chicago White Sox; Oakland edged Kansas City 3-2; Boston nipped Cleveland 4-3 in 10 innings and Minnesota trimmed California 7-4.

CONTROL PROBLEM

Stottlemyre, who had failed to win in three previous starts while battling a typical control problem, mastered the Tigers easily after Joe Pepitone's three-run double climaxed the Yanks' second inning uprising. The New York mound ace, 10-6, scattered three singles didn't walk anybody and coasted to his 12th complete game in 19 starts—despite the 92-degree weather.

It was Stottlemyre's second shutout—both at the Tigers' expense. He fired a one-hitter against them in his only previous start at Detroit.

The Pilots fell behind 2-1 in the top of the ninth, then rallied to nip Chicago on Jerry McNertney's RBI double and pinch hitter Tommy Davis' run-scoring single—both with two out in the bottom half.

Piro Leads Team To Cage Victory

Jerry Piro, Redwood High School's all-Marin County Athletic League forward, whipped in 19 points to lead Shafer's Ice Cream to a 59-45 thumping of the Pirates in a high school division game of the Drake Summer Basketball League at Drake High School yesterday.

In other games, the Cardinals, behind Bill Glasgow's 24 points, dumped the Bulldogs, 67-49 and Pier 15 demolished the Buccaneers, 58-26.

Russ Basketballers Whip Rocket Rookies

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Russia's national basketball team, featuring its giant Olympic players, crushed the San Diego Rickets' rookies 81-75 last night at the International Sports Arena.

The Rockets, trailing 45-28 in the first half, attempted a comeback int the second half but the Soviets used a balanced attack to stay ahead of the National Basketball Association freshmen.

Rich Allen Say He Wants To Apologize For Actions

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rich Allen, the Philadelphia Phillies star first baseman suspended for missing a game, says he wants to apologize.

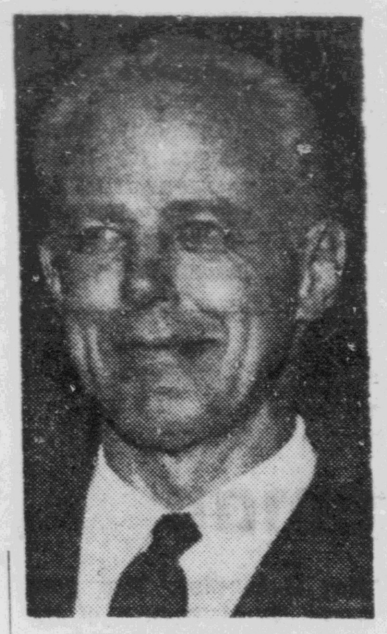
Allen appeared last night with disc jockey Sonny Hobson a friend, on radio station WHAT.

During the exchange, Allen said, "I'd like to make it publicly known that I'd like to apologize to my manager, my teammates and to the fans of Philadelphia. The small-minded people here who see men in the wrong will have to learn how to accept it. The real fans are the ones I'd like to apologize to."

CHAMPS GOLF ON JULY 13

Third annual Marin County Golf Tournament of Champions will be held July 13 at the Meadow club in Fairfax, it was announced yesterday by Meadow Club officials.

The 18-hole, medal play tournament will start at 9:30 a.m., with two threesomes competing. Club champs from Meadow, Marin Country Club, San Geronimo National, Peacock Gap, Indian Valley and Mill Valley will be competing.



BUD WILKINSON

FOOTBALL

NEW YORK — Joe Namath, New York Jets retired quarterback, held a two-hour conference with pro football commissioner Pete Rozelle yesterday and they failed to resolve their dispute over Namath's part-ownership of an East Side nightclub.

GOLF

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Peggy Wilson, a Florida pro, shot a two-under-par 71 for a one-stroke lead after the opening round of the U.S. Women's Open.

AUTO RACING

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Jim Paschal, driving a 1969 Javelin, won the 100-mile NASCAR Grand Touring car race at the Columbia Speedway.

GENERAL

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. — Charles "Bud " Wilkinson, former Oklahoma University coaching great, was named to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

TORONTO — Stafford Smythe, whose father built Maple Leaf Gardens to house the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, has been fired as Gardens president by its board of directors.

66-Year-Old Golfer Fires His First Ace

Clint Mosher of Tiburon, 66-year-old golfer who has been playing golf for 45 years, finally did it.

Mosher, using a four-iron, made a hole-in-one on the 134-yard seventh hole at Mill Valley Municipal course yesterday. In his threesome were David Ballati of Mill Valley and Mrs. Martha Goolis of Larkspur.

Belvedere Girl Wins Match

Bee Kilgore of Belvedere stayed alive in girls 14 play at the 69th annual California Junior Tennis Championships at the San Jose Swim and Racquet Club yesterday.

Bee downed Mary Jane Schovaers, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5. Two other Marin netters weren't so fortunate. Bob Knight of Tiburon lost to Jake Warde in boys 16, 6-3, 6-3, and Anne Lamott was ousted by Ann Kiyomura in girls 16, 6-3, 6-1.

Started As Yankee

CHICAGO (UPI)—Leo Durocher, identified with the National League throughout his baseball career, started his active playing days as a second baseman with the New York Yankees in 1926.

WHEE! DOWN the slide go Jim Ragland, left, and Steve Kuhl during recess at Marindale School, one of nine Marin schools, where a summer program for handicapped children is being held. Volunteer Mary Lucia studies sand Joseph Simon has put in a cup in the elevated sand box built especially for the orthopedically handicapped children who attend the school in the center photo. Beth Begeal is able to ride a bicycle because volunteers such as John Cass are in the yard to supervise play. Volunteers are urgently needed for the program to continue to offer a normal summer to the children.

Program For Handicapped Needs Summer Volunteers

By JOAN LISETOR

"Help! We need volunteers," is the cry of a usually soft-spoken young woman, Chris Hammond, coordinator of the summer volunteer program for handicapped youngsters, which began Wednesday at nine San Rafael, Corte Madera and Larkspur schools.

School is held Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to noon, and will continue through July 31.

"We need high school and college students as well as adults," Chris explains, "and a volunteer does not necessarily have to work everyday."

This is the fifth summer for the program serving physically handicapped, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, slow learning and hard-of-hearing youngsters pre-school age through 21-year-olds. In the past there has been little difficulty recruiting volunteers, but this summer there are only 50 of the required 100 helpers.

The first hour of the morning is devoted to academic work and conducted by teachers, who need assistants for the informal classes.

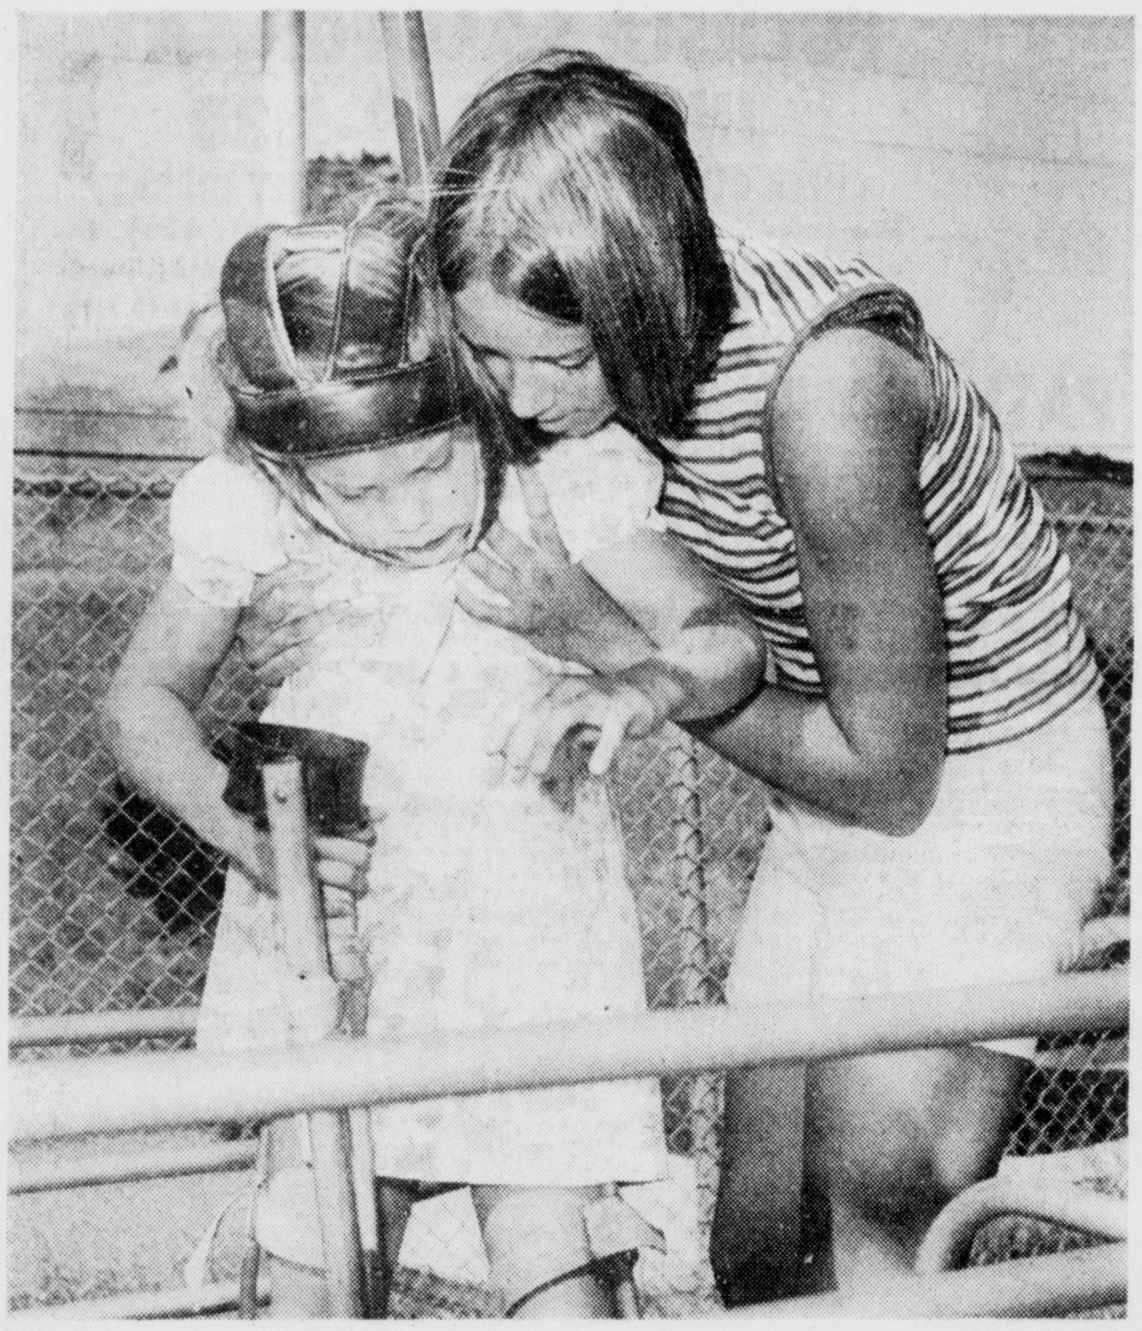
During the half-hour-recess that follows the children need help getting on and off the swings, slides and merry-go-round in the school yard. The remainder of the morning includes either arts and crafts, field trips, story telling or whatever seems to interest the children, who take part in planning the activities.

Volunteers are needed during these activity sessions and also to participate in one-to-one tutoring and therapy programs.

"Professionals to talk to the children or anyone with a special talent that has even an hour during the summer would help the program," Chris says.

"I have gotten three times as much out of the program as I've put in," says Chris, a student at San Francisco State College. "It is beautiful the way you can communicate with these children. They are very special."

Anyone interested in volunteering can contact Chris at the Marindale School in San Rafael.



GETTING ON a swing is made easier for Jimmy Dee Flynn by volunteer Marilyn Rhoads, one of 50 volunteers in the summer program, which requires at least 100. Anyone with even an hour of time during the summer may contact Chris Hammond at the Marindale School regarding the program.

Pfuetze-Bruff Vows Read At Post Chapel

The Post Protestant chapel at the Presidio in San Francisco was the setting for the wedding Sunday of Dana Cartland Bruff of Mill Valley and Dr. Bruce Leonard Pfuetze of Corte Madera.

Mrs. Edvard Hemmingsen of La Jolla was her sister's matron of honor. They are the daughters of Mrs. Stephen Cartland Bruff of Kentfield and the late Mr. Bruff. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Vickers Trownsell and the bridegroom's sister, Rogene Pfuetze, both of San Francisco.

The bridegroom, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Pfuetze of Overland Park, Kan., had as his best man Dr. Thomas Smith of Corte Madera. Ushers were Dr. Douglas Hanks and Dr. George McMullen Jr., both of Tiburon.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Officers Club at Ft. Mason in San Francisco. On their return from a wedding trip to Kansas City, Kan., and national parks the couple will live in Mill Valley.

A graduate of Novato High School, the bride received an A.A. degree from the College of Marin and was graduated as a registered nurse from Merritt College in Oakland. She is employed at the Pacific Presbyterian Medical Center in San Francisco.

She is the sister of Stephen Bruff of Kentfield and the granddaughter of Mrs. Florence Alexander of Portola Valley.

The bridegroom was graduated from Kansas University and Kansas University Medical School and is a resident in pediatrics at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco. He was a brother, Dr. Karl Pfuetze, who is with the Army in Southeast Asia.

Clyde Curley To Wed In August

Mrs. B. V. Mitchell of Chico has announced the engagement of her daughter, Robin Lee, to Clyde J. Curley III.

The future bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Curley Jr., will honor the couple at a party in their San Anselmo home Saturday. They plan an Aug. 30 wedding in Chico.

Robin attended Chico High School and Chico State College.

William N. and Kevin M. Curley are the bridegroom's brother. They are the grandsons of Mrs. William T. Nicholson of Palo Alto and Mrs. C. J. Curley of Fairfax. Clyde was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and the University of Nevada, where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Winds Keep Anglers In; Gun Laws In Detail

With the winds blowing all week, most of the striped bass, sturgeon and salmon have been pretty safe in their native haunts. It's been almost impossible to get out, and you would be seasick if you did make it.

Two skindivers, though, were cited for taking 59 abalone at the Slide Ranch area east of Stinson Beach last Monday, and the wind was blowing at 30 m.p.h. there.

All were large legal sized abalone. Maybe this is a good area for you skin divers to try. It takes a skin diving suit, but tanks and self-contained (SCUBA) gear is illegal to use when taking abalones. The limit on abalone is five per person.

RABBIT SEASON opens July 4 and runs to Jan. 11 statewide, except for Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino and eastern Kern counties. Bag and possession limit for brush, pigmy, cottontail and varying hares is five per day in the aggregate.

There's no closed season or bag limit on jack rabbits. You need the new hunting license for 1969-70 starting July 1. Legal weapons for rabbit hunting are shotguns with a plug, falcons, muzzle-loading shotguns, bow and arrow, rifles and pistols.

Here are two laws covering loaded guns:

Section 2006 of Fish and Game Code provides: "It is unlawful to possess a loaded rifle or shotgun in any vehicle or conveyance or its attachments which is standing on or along or is being driven on or along any public highway or other way open to the public.

"A rifle or shotgun shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell in the firing chamber but not when the only cartridge or shells are in the magazine.

"The provisions of this section shall not apply to peace officers or to members of the armed forces of this state or the United States, while on duty or going to or returning from duty."

Section 12031 to the Penal Code, enacted after Section 2006, prohibits the carrying of any loaded firearms on the person or in a vehicle in "public places" and "public streets," as follows:

"Except as provided in subdivision (b) (exceptions for peace officers and certain others), every person who carries a loaded firearm on his person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or in any public place or any public street in a prohibited area of unincorporated territory is guilty of a misdeameanor. As used in this section 'prohibited area' means any place where it is unlawful to discharge a weapon.

The definition of "loaded" as is used in Penal Code Section 12031 is:

"(E) A firearm shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpected cartridge or shell, consisting of a case which holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm; except that a muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder."

Thus a rifle or shotgun, for the purpose of this section, is "loaded" when the unexpended shell or cartridge is in the magazine or clip, as well as in the chamber, as distinguished from Fish and Game Code Section 2006, which, as previously indicated, provided that a rifle or shotgun is not loaded if all the shells or cartridges are in the magazine.

Assuming, as previously mentioned, that "public street" in Penal Code Section 12031 requires public maintnance as well as the element of being open to public use, Fish and Game Code Section 2006, which is applicable to any way or road open to the public, would be applicable to some roads not within the scope of Section 12031. As to such roads, at least, the unexpended shell or cartridge would have to be in the firing chamber in order for the rifle or shotgun to be "loaded." Section 2006 being the applicable statute. On the other hand, for example, if a person carries a rifle in a vehicle on a public city street and there is an unexpended cartridge or shell in the magazine but not in the firing chamber, he will not be in violation of Section 2006, but he will be in violation of Section 12031.

Finally, if persons are hunting from a vehicle on private property which is not a public place and the vehicle is not on or along a way or road open to the public, neither Section 2006 nor Section 12031 would be applicable.

Father-In-Law Should Learn To Not Drop In Unannounced

DEAR HELEN:

My father-in-law still thinks after 20-plus years that he has a God-given right to drop in unannounced at any blasted time he gets the urge, and since he retired, the urge is much too often.

He doesn't have any more regard for my right of privacy than a slave-owner, which he thinks he is since I married his daughter.

He has never helped our family, but the solemn old bird believes he knows exactly how to run my life. He does — if you spell it "ruin," not "run."

Don't suggest that he call first before coming over. He was told that years ago, but the crusty rhinoceros decided this would spoil his fun, which is snooping. He doesn't believe in doorbells. He and my mother-in-law just walk in. Yech-h! If the door is locked, they lean on the chimes till the welkin rings.

How about telling all in-laws that a little absence makes the heart grow fonder? Maybe Pop will get the message. —HARASSED

DEAR HARASSED:

"Pop-in" laws seldom figure the message is meant for them.

You might try turning the tables with a family "pop-in" at their home every night for a week — right at dinner time. Or —

Have you considered a job transfer to a distant city? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

We loved each other when we were 17, but his mother made us break up. She had already picked out the girl she wanted him to marry, and the two of them had their way.

In three years, we were both married to someone else. I thought about Len occasionally, but my husband was a good man and we were reasonably happy.

Now 30 years later, I am a widow, with my children grown. I have heard through friends that Len's marriage was a miserable failure, but his wife won't give him a divorce. They live about 60 miles from me. His mother lives with them. Oddly enough, I haven't seen him in 25 years.

I keep thinking about Len more and more. He sent a beautiful personal letter of sympathy when my husband died a year ago, and I know he'd like to see me. Should I arrange a meeting? Don't we deserve a little love after all these years of separation? —NEVER FORGOT HIM

DEAR NEVER:

A hag-ridden man of 50 isn't the Len of your dreams, nor are you the girl Len loved when he was 17. Why try for a married stranger when there are surely available widowers in your own home town? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'd like to share with you and your readers an experience that made my life more worthwhile. It might help others.

My sister and I, orphaned in our late teens, were very close. We worked hard to put ourselves thorough school and never married. When she died suddenly I found myself all alone in the world. I turned to a married friend for help, and got in the habit of dropping in on her whenever I felt sorry for myself, which was often. For a time she was very sympathetic, and listened as I magnified my problems.

The one day she exclaimed, "Why don't you stop being such a whiner and start thinking of someone besides yourself? With all your talent, and all you have to offer, surely you can find someone who needs you." I was hurt and indignant, but when I cooled off, I started thinking, and knew she was right.

I've been finding others to help ever since, and now my life is full and happy. Best of all, my married friend is still my dearest friend. Her wisdom and courage literally saved my life. —FORMER CRYBABY

MR. AND MRS. LARRY BROWN

Miss Anderson Becomes Bride Of Larry Brown

Candice Rose Andersen and Larry George Brown were married at a nuptial Mass at Mission San Rafael Arcangel on Saturday.

Candice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Herbert Andersen of Novato. She chose as her maid of honor the bridegroom's sister, Bonnie Brown.

Mark Brown served as best man for his brother, and Todd Brown, also a brother of the bridegroom, and David Williamson of Novato were ushers.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Brown of Novato.

The reception was held at Dominic's restaurant in San Rafael.

Officers' Wives Elect President

Hamilton Air Force Base is the eighth base that Mrs. James Randall Galloway has called home since marrying her husband, Major Galloway, chief of safety, 78th Fighter Wing.

Willie Joe Galloway, new president of the Officers Wives Club at Hamilton, and her husband have lived in Florida, Texas, Georgia, Michigan, Oxnard, Montana and most recently in Kansas City, Mo. Major Galloway has also served in Saigon and Goose Bay, Labrador, but Mrs. Galloway stayed in the states.

They both grew up in Omaha, Tex., and Mrs. Galloway was graduated from East Texas University where she received a degree in home economics education.

They have lived at Hamilton for 19 months and have two sons. Joe is 13, a Sinaloa eighth grader and an Independent-Journal newspaper boy, and Scott, 8, is a Pleasant Valley School fourth grader.

A substitute teacher in the junior high school in Novato, Mrs. Galloway lists sewing, reading, gardening and bridge as her favorite pastimes and enjoys "doing things with the family."

Listed among the activities planned by the Officers Wives Club this year are visits to Hill Cottage at Sonoma State Hospital, working as volunteers with the blood bank, well baby clinic at the base hospital, monthly luncheons, Christmas ball and their main fund-raising event in October, "Western Night."

Officers to serve with Mrs. Galloway are Mmes. Duncan Ashe, first vice president; Louis Giuntini, second vice president; Edward Morrow, recording secretary; Patrick Whitaker, corresponding secretary; William Folin, first assistant treasurer; and Charles Arnold, second assistant treasurer.

Birthday Dinner Brings Surprise

A birthday dinner for 20 turned into a surprise party when Mrs. George B. McClellan of San Francisco announced the engagement of her daughter, Meredith Ann, to Christian John Peetz Jr. The dinner was given on Saturday, Merry's 19th birthday.

Jack, the future bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Christian J. Peetz of Corte Madera. He spent two and one-half years in Vietnam, and is attending the College of Marin, but will continue at the University of California at Davis next spring. He plans to enter the College of Veterinary Medicine.

Merry attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart and St. Rose Academy in San Francisco, but later moved to Marin and was graduated from Redwood High School.

The couple will be married Aug. 23 at Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco.

Food Poisoning Is On The Rise

The National Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta, Ga. reports that a rise in food poisoning caused by staphylococci is expected this summer.

In 1968 this type of food poisoning was the most commonly reported, and accounted for nearly 25 per cent of all outbreaks in the United States. It generally originates from unclean hands. Therefore, everyone handling food — in restaurants, schools, camps, on picnics and at home — should keep hands as germ-free as possible by washing them thoroughly and often, preferably with an antibacterial skin cleanser.

Salzberg-Frate Vows Are Read

Victoria Ann Frate became the bride of Philip Meyer Salzberg Saturday in a ceremony at the Treasure Island Chapel.

Capt. and Mrs. Lawrence Peter Frate of San Rafael are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David Aaron Salzberg of Palo Alto.

A reception at Casa de la Vista on Treasure Island followed the ceremony.

Carol Ann Frate was her sister's maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Judith Salzberg, Susan King of Hillsborough and Linda Segarini of Stockton were bridesmaids.

Joel Salzberg was his brother's best man. Another brother, Daniel Salzberg; Tim Zeff of Modesto, Albert Combatalade of Sacramento, Brian Mickel of Novato and Martin Lunch of Mountain View ushered guests to their seats.

Following a wedding trip to Southern California the couple will live in Davis, where the bride is in her senior year at the University of California. The bridegroom is enrolled in graduate school at Sacramento State College. He is a graduate of U. C. at Davis.

Victoria is a graduate of Fairfax High School in Fairfax, Va.

Mrs. Gaskell Jacobs of San Francisco is the bridegroom's grandmother. He was graduated from Cubberley High School in Palo Alto.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Marin's unique art and garden fair will be taking place in Ross next week, and to salute that popular and colorful event, tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine is a special issue devoted largely to features on fair activities and personalities. And to help set the stage for the fair's "In Old New Orleans" theme, members of the Ross Valley Players have donned period costumes to portray characters of that time and place for photographer Ken Molino.

Among the personalities at the fair will be a long-time favorite of KCBS radio listeners — Friendly Fred. That folksy character is no longer heard on the San Francisco radio station. But he is still very much alive, and pounding the keyboard in a manner to protect his claim to the title of "the world's worst piano player." He'll demonstrate that ability for fair-goers next week. And he is the subject of a special feature written for tomorrow's Marin Magazine by its editor, Don Keown.

Lew Krausse Talks Of Quitting Game

OAKLAND — Dick Green, Lew Krausse's closest friend in baseball, was talking about athletes, particularly one. "We're competitive people," Greenie was saying. "If we aren't playing or aren't playing well, we feel like hell."

For most of the 1969 season, Lew Krausse has very much felt like hell. Consider these acts in his performance as a relief pitcher for the Athletics:

ON APRIL 20 in Kansas City with the A's leading, he gave up a three-run pinch homer to nondescript Hawk Taylor. The A's lost 7-5.

On May 1 in Anaheim, he hit a man with the basses loaded in the 10th inning. The A's lost 3-2.

On June 3 here against Baltimore, he came in to pitch the 11th inning and served home runs to the first (and only) two men he faced. The A's lost 3-1.

On June 21 here against Minnesota, he came on in the 10th inning and faced only five batters. The first homered; two others walked; the other two singled. The A's lost 14-4.

IN THE MIDST of this miasma of misery, Lew Lew shrieked to be traded. He felt certain he was physically and emotionally a starting pitcher — and had been most of the time since the A's signed him as a high-falutin' bonus baby when he was still 17 years old back in '61.

There were contenders who could use him, Lew Lew said. He didn't have a reliever's arm, he said. Even when he was in rotation, he started slowly, he said. So please, Krausse told anyone who would listen, trade me.

And on June 6, when the A's began a road trip in Detroit, owner Charlie Finley was prepared to do precisely that.

FINLEY TOLD Krausse that Seattle wanted him in trade for catcher Larry Haney. Here's your chance, said Finley.

"Not Seattle," said Lew. "I told Charlie that I'd been with a last place or second division club in Kansas City so long that I didn't want to go back to another one," said Lew.

"A lot of people say a lot of bad things about Charlie," said Lew Lew. "But he's got this rare quality when it comes to certain people. There's this thing he feels about some of us he signed as kids. He's concerned about us — not just if we're playing good or bad, but about how we feel, about our feelings."

SO INFIELDER John Donaldson, another Finley favorite, got the same phone call. And he went to Seattle for Haney.

Krausse said his mood changed after that. When he gave up those back-to-back homers to the Orioles, he said, he really couldn't have cared less. But after the call from Finley, Lew Lew decided that "this club is like my family. It's the only team I know. All my friends are here."

During the remainder of the post-Detroit road trip, he pitched well. Then came that big Minnesota outburst back home and immense inner-dissatisfaction for Lew.

"I WANT TO help this club. But I keep hurting 'em. And all these guys are so decent about these things. I guess because they're my friends they want me to do well."

Before Krausse came on to pitch in Minny's 11-run 10th inning on June 21 he had only two minutes warmup time. "So I get in there and throw 10 pitches and none was where I wanted it. I just wasn't ready, and that's the crummy thing about being a relief pitcher. You always, always have to be ready because you're almost always coming into a jam."

KRAUSSE RUMPLES his red hair when he talks and no longer exudes the cockiness of a one-time playboy of Missouri and the rest of the Western World.

"I can't understand how come the manager keeps using me in these tough spots. I know that Charlie has ordered his managers to play or not play certain players. But there are no orders, as far as I know, on me. "I'll tell you this, I would have given up on Bauer a long time before he's given up on me if our jobs were reversed."

WITH NO confidence in himself, Lew Lew expects everybody to think ill of him. And he can't figure a way out of the gloom.

"I've tried everything to change. I've stopped chasin' (girls like red-haired ptichers); I've knocked off drinkin'. All I think I'm going to do now is finish the year here, with my friends, and then quit. I'm 26 now, and while I'm young I want to get into something with security. I was awful lucky; I got a lot to sign and cleared maybe 85 grand. So maybe I'll go into real estate soon, maybe I'll do something like that back in Kansas City.

"IT'S JUST too much trouble moving to another club. Packing and all that just isn't worth the trouble."

But suppose Finley called and said Boston or Minny or another contender wanted a starter, wanted Krausse? Would moving be too much trouble then?

"No, I guess not," says Krausse, who is an athlete and a competitive person and only 26 years old and possessive of a starter's arm.

Stock Car Races At Fairgrounds

Stock car drivers will resume racing after a one-week break, but they'll be part of a fair this time.

MASCAR drivers get back into action Sunday at the Petaluma Fairgrounds at 7 p.m., but the racing program will be presented as part of the Sonoma-Marin Pair.

Regular racing resumes next Friday, the Fourth of July Sunday's dual program will feature both stockers and sportsmen in a full slate of races, including a 20-lap main event for sportsmen.

San Rafael Nine Vies At Albert

Jarcik Insurance baseball team will play three weekend games at Albert Field in San Rafael starting with one against Lera Electric of San Francisco tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The Jarcik team, winner of its first two games, will send Mike Terry to the mound. Doing heavy hitting in the first two games were Fred Daniele (.455), Don Mantooth (.600), Frank Dittle (.500) and Ron Gilliam (.560).

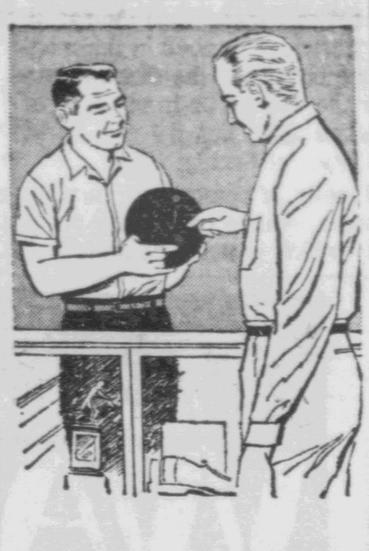
Sunday at 1 p.m. the San Rafael team will host the Burlingame Braves in a doubleheader. Dave Perlis and Mantooth are scheduled to be the starting pitchers.

Longest Night Game

NEW YORK (UPI)—The longest 0-0 night game in baseball history was finally won 1-0 by the Houston Astros over the New York Mets in the 24th inning in 1968.

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER



Ordinarily, an experienced male bowler of average size and health can use a 16-pound ball, but if a 14 or 15-pounder seems to work best for you, use it. Older bowlers should certainly consider a somewhat lighter ball instead of struggling with the same projectile they used as a 25-year-old.

It's Splash Day In Tam Pool

The Tamalpais Swim Club and the Tamalpais High School Recreation Department will co-sponsor the first Mill Valley Splash Day, a swim meet for Southern Marin children, at Tamalpais High School tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The meet will feature competition for non-AAU swim team members ages 14 and under. Four races for children age six and under will be included. Participants must be at the Tamalpais High School pool at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Designs Come Alive On Woman

By MARY ELLEN MYRENE

NEW YORK (AP) — Drape them anywhere but on a woman and the fall fashion creations of Greek-born designer George Stavropoulos look more like experiments in geometry than the stuff high style is made of.

But put them on a woman and they come alive.

One of Stavropoulos's most complicated productions is the "puzzle pants," a one-piece affair that starts down the shoulder like a cape, then somehow turns into a jumpsuit with two flouncy skirts of chiffon. It looks and moves like a dream.

Mystery is the keynote of Stavropoulos's seamless coat—both for the way it makes a woman look and for the way it was made. The single round piece of black wool somehow sprouts a stand-up collar while swirling around into a diagonal row of buttons in the front.

Stavropoulos unveiled his fall designs Wednesday at the American Designer Showings. And when it wasn't dramatic, this Greek-inspired collection was at the very least alluring.

An elegant chiffon gown, a tall silhouette in white, bares one shoulder.

Proving he's willing to go mod as well as traditional, Stavropoulos completed his collection with a brushed blue wool coat and matching skirt that ended halfway up between the knee and ankle.

The young, free, bold look—by way of the 1930s—dominated the fall offerings of Gayle Kirkpatrick, who designed with the long and lean in mind.

Deep-colored satin minidresses and shirts were sprinkled throughout the collection, along with some daring dips in the neckline.

Greg Moore Of Mill Valley To Wed Kathleen Reynolds

KATHLEEN V. REYNOLDS

The engagement of Kathleen V. Reynolds to Gregory R. Moore of Mill Valley has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Margot R. Reynolds of Mill Valley.

Kathleen was graduated from Tamalpais High School and is employed by Shoreline Cleaners in Mill Valley.

Greg's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Moore of Mill Valley. A graduate of Tamalpais High School, he attends the College of Marin and is employed by Marin Auto Body in Mill Valley. He is the brother of Terry Moore of Mill Valley.

A fall wedding is planned.

.... WEEK IN BUSINESS

RCA Buying Alaska Communications Net

RCA Global Communications, Inc., subsidiary of RCA Corp., will purchase the Alaska Communications System from the U.S. government for $28.4 million.

The system provides the principal commercial communications network in Alaska. It has been authorized to transmit commercial business over its lines since 1900. In 1967 Congress authorized the Department of Defense to dispose of it and RCA submitted its bid last March.

RCA expects to invest $27.6 million over the next few years in expanding facilities and improving services. A new subsidiary, RCA Alaska Communications, Inc., will be created, with headquarters in Anchorage.

SAGA ADMINISTRATIVE CORP., Menlo Park, has completed a purchase agreement for the Harding-Williams Corp. of Chicago for cash. Saga provides nationwide food service management at 265 colleges and universities. Its revenues for the year ended March 29 totaled $94 million. Harding-Williams provides food service management to business and industry and educational institutions in 162 locations nationwide.

SUMITOMO BANK OF CALIFORNIA, San Francisco directors have voted a 5-cent increase in dividends and have declared a half-yearly dividend of 60 cents, up from $1.10 for the year 1968. The new dividend will be paid to shareholders of record on Monday.

HILLTEK, INC., Palo Alto, a recently organized business development company will acquire R. A. Morgan Co., of Palo Alto which provides engineering for the optical instrument field and manufactures several proprietary products. New name will be Morgan Infotek.

STAR - LITE INDUSTRIES, Los Angeles, a diversified manufacturer of automotive soft goods and leisure time equipment, will acquire the Atlas Specialty Manufacturing Co. or Chicago. Atlas manufactures dinette chairs, bar stools, automotive carpeting and automotive soft goods. It has three factories in Chicago. Star-Lite sales for 1969 are expected to be more than double 1968 sales. The company recently acquired the Howard Zink Manufacturing Co., a subsidiary of Indian Head, Inc.

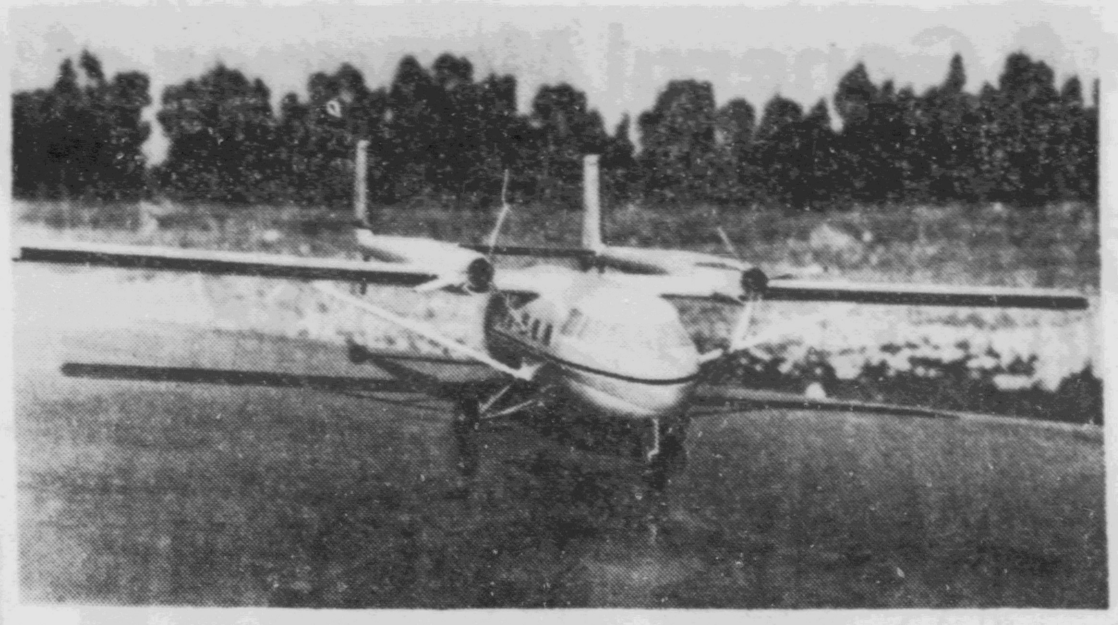
DAYTON CORP. of Minneapolis and the J. L. Hudson Co. of Detroit have become the Dayton Hudson Corp., with an exchange of 4.5 million shares of Dayton common stock for all outstanding capital stock of Hudson and its real estate subsidiary, Shopping Centers, Inc. Dayton-Hudson also owns Shreve and Co., B. Dalton Bookseller and Pickwick Shops, Inc. The new company ranks among the 15 largest nonfood retailing firms in the country.

WELLS FARGO BANK, San Francisco, has opened its first overseas commercial banking office in Luxembourg and a European representative office in London.

DOW CHEMICAL CO. plans to establish a major caustic soda terminal in Vancouver this year—its first in the northwest. The company recently announced plans to construct a chlorine production plant at Dallesport, Wash. Both chlorine and caustic soda are key industrial chemical products used by industry in the northwest.

H. J. HEINZ CO. consolidated net earnings for the fiscal year ended April 30 increased 12.4 per cent to $28.4 million from a year ago. Net earnings were equivalent to $2.28 per common share after provision for preferred dividends. This compares with $2.07 a share for the fiscal 1968 period.

LATEST ISSUE of Bank of America's publication, The Small Business Reporter, is devoted to six basic steps in starting a small business. Copies may be obtained from any Bank of America office.



ISRAEL READIES AIRLINER

Israel's Institute of Technology has designed this 22-passenger short takeoff and landing transport due to go into production next March. After domestics needs are satisfied, the short-haul plane will be offered to the world markets, at $300,000 a copy. (UPI Telephoto)

Pentagon Gives Contracts To Five Companies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense contracts awarded to five large companies included a $14.7 million Air Force contract to Lockheed Aircraft Corp. for maintenance services for TF104G aircraft.

Hazeltine Corp. received a $9.9 million Navy contract for airborne interrogator sets for the Navy and Air Force.

American Optical Co. was awarded a first increment of $495,000 to a $6.5 million Army contract covering target detecting devices for Chaparral missiles.

General Electric Co. received a $6.4 million Navy contract for data-processing systems for P3C aircraft and United Aircraft Corp. received a $5.7 million Navy contract for jet engines.

German Auto Factories Hit Busy Times

Special to the I-J

BONN — German car dealers cannot get cars from the factory as fast as they can sell them.

New car sales are climbing for the first time since the Federal Republic's 1966-67 recession, according to the Internationes Press service.

Production is expected to rise from 3,107,000 in 1968 to 3,500,000 this year of which an estimated 1,300,000 will be sold in the Federal Republic. An additional 370,000 foreign cars will also be sold on the German market.

The 40-horsepower Volkswagen "beetle" continues to be far in the lead, with an estimated production of 1,800,000 cars this year. Volkswagen's 1600 family class model also is holding its own while the new 411, now being turned out at a rate of 300 a day, has not been in heavy demand.

Another sales success is the AUDI 100 made by VW's subsidiary, Auto-Union.

NSU, also affiliated with VW, is doing well its own star attraction, the RO 80 with Wankel engine.

Opel, a subsidiary of General Motors since 1929, also reports higher output. The Rekord and the Commodore are selling well, but it is the Kadett that has really boosted sales.

Ford of Cologne has come up with a winner in the Capri family sports car.

Daimler-Benz has stepped up production of their exclusive 250 coupe to 1,000 a month.

BMW reports good sales for all their models. It offers a car of rare class in its 2800.

Porsche intends to introduce a Volkssportwagen in the autumn.

Among foreign firms, Fiat, with its 124 and 125S and Renault, relying on its R4 and R16, are confident of carving sizeable slices out of the German market.

Cottage Hospital Due Management Change

The Marin Medical Foundation will give up its operation of Cottage Convalescent Hospital in San Rafael, effective July 1.

Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., president of the foundation, said Marin Medical's lease on Cottage will expire at the end of this month and that the foundation has decided to concentrate all its efforts on its two other institutions, Northgate Convalescent Center and Villa Intermediate Care Center, San Rafael.

John K. Taylor of San Rafael, owner of Cottage, said he will continue its operation without change and act as hospital administrator, assisted by his son Henry, recently graduated from San Francisco State College.

Taylor was administrator of the original Cottage Hospital and after it was changed to San Rafael General Hospital in 1946 for 13 years. The operation of San Rafael General was taken over by a nonprofit corporation in 1958. The hospital closed in 1966 because of financial problems. Taylor remodeled it and leased it to Marin Medical Foundation the first of last year.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Digital Equipment Corp. Boasts Strong Position

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I wonder if you would comment on Digital Equipment as an aggressive commitment in the computer field.—L.M.

A. Digital Equipment's line of small sophisticated computers caters to the needs of a select market primarily in the scientific and research fields. One model, PDP-8, has achieved wide acceptance and is virtually without important competition. A growing reputation as a maker of well-designed, durable computers has resulted in a highly successful record. Nine month sales through March 29, 1969, were up 55 per cent year-to-year and reached $58.3 million. Net per share at 68 cents showed a 33 per cent gain over previous years' earnings. Full year earnings of about $1 a share are a minimum expectation. These results compared with figures only 7 years earlier, when sales were $6.5 million and earnings 11 cents a share, represent outstanding growth.

By not directly competing with the computer giants in their already established areas, DEC has been able to carve out a solid position for itself. The fact that this growth has been internally generated without resorting to debt financing is a credit to an able and aggressive management team. American Research and Development holds 51 per cent of the common shares, officers and directors 16 per cent, leaving a floating supply of about 3 million shares (adjusted for the 3-for-1 split). Shares trade at a high P/E multiple of 62x but are a long-range hold.

Q. I recently purchased some Yellowknife Bear Mines stock. Would you please comment on this stock?—R.S.

A. Recent speculation concerning Canadian Pacific's Kugaluk N-02 test well, a few miles west of Yellowknife's Kugaluk holdings, pushed YKB's shares up sharply. Company has holdings spread over several diverse exploratory areas, including two holdings in the Melville Islands and 888,000 acres in the Arctic. Negotiations for exploration of prospective uranium properties in the Wollaston Lake area of Saskatchewan near Gulf Oil's discovery are under way. A similar participation deal covering YKB's 11-million-acre spread in the Northwest Territories is understood to be in the offing. You should hold this interesting oil and uranium speculation.

ITT Stockholders Vote For Merger

DETROIT (UPI) — Stockholders of International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. (ITT) yesterday approved by an overwhelming margin a proposed merger with the Hartford Fire Insurance Co., a union the Justice Department says it will try to block.

At the 49th annual meeting of the nation's 11th largest industrial business, Harold S. Geneen, board chairman and president, said the government's proposed action would be contested as is the case in a suit brought by the government to force ITT to divest itself of Canteen Corp., one of the nation's largest food vendors.

Market On Plus Side At Closing

NEW YORK (UPI)—The stock market finished on the plus side today, although the blue chips acted as a drag on the list. Trading was moderate.

The firmness was a spillover from the strength which appeared late yesterday. It persisted despite the usual preweekend consolidation by traders and the lack of any news encouraging to Wall Street.

Volume was above the 8,500,000 share level.

The oils generally moved lower, led by Getty. Chemicals followed the same direction, with most losses in fractions. Du Pont closed at 130 5-8, off 1-8.

Autos generally declined except for General Motors which was firm for most of the session and closed up 3-8 at 77. Movements in the mixed steels generally were fractional, with U.S. Steel off ¼ at 41⅜.

Rails and airlines eased. In the higher aircrafts United moved in and out of the minus column.

Few gainers appeared in the electronics. National Cash Register was one of the exceptions. On the downside were Texas Instruments, Burroughs, Control Data and Litton.

The list was mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Gas Extensions

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — Pacific Gas Transmission Co. has announced plans to spend $23,500,000 for various natural gas pipeline extensions in 1970. The company also sought Federal Power Commission approval for an increase in imports of natural gas from Canada. The increase, 185 million cubic feet, would take effect Nov. 1, 1970.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Father-In-Law Should Learn To Not Drop In Unannounced

DEAR HELEN:

My father-in-law still thinks after 20-plus years that he has a God-given right to drop in unannounced at any blasted time he gets the urge, and since he retired, the urge is much too often.

He doesn't have any more regard for my right of privacy than a slave-owner, which he thinks he is since I married his daughter.

He has never helped our family, but the solemn old bird believes he knows exactly how to run my life. He does — if you spell it "ruin," not "run."

Don't suggest that he call first before coming over. He was told that years ago, but the crusty rhinoceros decided this would spoil his fun, which is snooping. He doesn't believe in doorbells. He and my mother-in-law just walk in. Yech-h! If the door is locked, they lean on the chimes till the welkin rings.

How about telling all in-laws that a little absence makes the heart grow fonder? Maybe Pop will get the message. —HARASSED

DEAR HARASSED:

"Pop-in" laws seldom figure the message is meant for them.

You might try turning the tables with a family "pop-in" at their home every night for a week — right at dinner time. Or —

Have you considered a job transfer to a distant city? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

We loved each other when we were 17, but his mother made us break up. She had already picked out the girl she wanted him to marry, and the two of them had their way.

In three years, we were both married to someone else. I thought about Len occasionally, but my husband was a good man and we were reasonably happy.

Now 30 years later, I am a widow, with my children grown. I have heard through friends that Len's marriage was a miserable failure, but his wife won't give him a divorce. They live about 60 miles from me. His mother lives with them. Oddly enough, I haven't seen him in 25 years.

I keep thinking about Len more and more. He sent a beautiful personal letter of sympathy when my husband died a year ago, and I know he'd like to see me. Should I arrange a meeting? Don't we deserve a little love after all these years of separation? —NEVER FORGOT HIM

DEAR NEVER:

A hag-ridden man of 50 isn't the Len of your dreams, nor are you the girl Len loved when he was 17. Why try for a married stranger when there are surely available widowers in your own home town? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'd like to share with you and your readers an experience that made my life more worthwhile. It might help others.

My sister and I, orphaned in our late teens, were very close. We worked hard to put ourselves thorough school and never married. When she died suddenly I found myself all alone in the world. I turned to a married friend for help, and got in the habit of dropping in on her whenever I felt sorry for myself, which was often. For a time she was very sympathetic, and listened as I magnified my problems.

The one day she exclaimed, "Why don't you stop being such a whiner and start thinking of someone besides yourself? With all your talent, and all you have to offer, surely you can find someone who needs you." I was hurt and indignant, but when I cooled off, I started thinking, and knew she was right.

I've been finding others to help ever since, and now my life is full and happy. Best of all, my married friend is still my dearest friend. Her wisdom and courage literally saved my life. —FORMER CRYBABY

Officers' Wives Elect President

Hamilton Air Force Base is the eighth base that Mrs. James Randall Galloway has called home since marrying her husband, Major Galloway, chief of safety, 78th Fighter Wing.

Willie Joe Galloway, new president of the Officers Wives Club at Hamilton, and her husband have lived in Florida, Texas, Georgia, Michigan, Oxnard, Montana and most recently in Kansas City, Mo. Major Galloway has also served in Saigon and Goose Bay, Labrador, but Mrs. Galloway stayed in the states.

They both grew up in Omaha, Tex., and Mrs. Galloway was graduated from East Texas University where she received a degree in home economics education.

They have lived at Hamilton for 19 months and have two sons. Joe is 13, a Sinaloa eighth grader and an Independent-Journal newspaper boy, and Scott, 8, is a Pleasant Valley School fourth grader.

A substitute teacher in the junior high school in Novato, Mrs. Galloway lists sewing, reading, gardening and bridge as her favorite pastimes and enjoys "doing things with the family."

Listed among the activities planned by the Officers Wives Club this year are visits to Hill Cottage at Sonoma State Hospital, working as volunteers with the blood bank, well baby clinic at the base hospital, monthly luncheons, Christmas ball and their main fund-raising event in October, "Western Night."

Officers to serve with Mrs. Galloway are Mmes. Duncan Ashe, first vice president; Louis Giuntini, second vice president; Edward Morrow, recording secretary; Patrick Whitaker, corresponding secretary; William Folin, first assistant treasurer; and Charles Arnold, second assistant treasurer.

Birthday Dinner Brings Surprise

A birthday dinner for 20 turned into a surprise party when Mrs. George B. McClellan of San Francisco announced the engagement of her daughter, Meredith Ann, to Christian John Peetz Jr. The dinner was given on Saturday, Merry's 19th birthday.

Jack, the future bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Christian J. Peetz of Corte Madera. He spent two and one-half years in Vietnam, and is attending the College of Marin, but will continue at the University of California at Davis next spring. He plans to enter the College of Veterinary Medicine.

Merry attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart and St. Rose Academy in San Francisco, but later moved to Marin and was graduated from Redwood High School.

The couple will be married Aug. 23 at Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco.

Food Poisoning Is On The Rise

The National Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta, Ga. reports that a rise in food poisoning caused by staphylococci is expected this summer.

In 1968 this type of food poisoning was the most commonly reported, and accounted for nearly 25 per cent of all outbreaks in the United States. It generally originates from unclean hands. Therefore, everyone handling food — in restaurants, schools, camps, on picnics and at home — should keep hands as germ-free as possible by washing them thoroughly and often, preferably with an antibacterial skin cleanser.

Salzberg-Frate Vows Are Read

Victoria Ann Frate became the bride of Philip Meyer Salzberg Saturday in a ceremony at the Treasure Island Chapel.

Capt. and Mrs. Lawrence Peter Frate of San Rafael are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David Aaron Salzberg of Palo Alto.

A reception at Casa de la Vista on Treasure Island followed the ceremony.

Carol Ann Frate was her sister's maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Judith Salzberg, Susan King of Hillsborough and Linda Segarini of Stockton were bridesmaids.

Joel Salzberg was his brother's best man. Another brother, Daniel Salzberg; Tim Zeff of Modesto, Albert Combatalade of Sacramento, Brian Mickel of Novato and Martin Lunch of Mountain View ushered guests to their seats.

Following a wedding trip to Southern California the couple will live in Davis, where the bride is in her senior year at the University of California. The bridegroom is enrolled in graduate school at Sacramento State College. He is a graduate of U. C. at Davis.

Victoria is a graduate of Fairfax High School in Fairfax, Va.

Mrs. Gaskell Jacobs of San Francisco is the bridegroom's grandmother. He was graduated from Cubberley High School in Palo Alto.

Marilyn Sclar Was Wed To Robert Davis On Sunday

Marilyn Sclar of Kentfield and Robert Davis of Santa Rosa repeated wedding vows in a Sunday afternoon ceremony at Maple Lawn of the San Rafael Elk's Club. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sclar of Kentfield.

Mrs. Charles Robinson III of San Francisco served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Minden of Larkspur, Kim Taylor of New Jersey, Mrs. Joseph Imbelloni of Fairfax, Dale Ellis of San Anselmo and Mrs. Terry Shannon and Kathy Crosat, both of San Francisco

Dan Kelly of San Jose was best man and ushers included Robert's two brothers, Bill and Pat Davis of Santa Rosa, and Bob Burnt of San Jose, Ron Pearce and Fred Browner of Santa Rosa and Craig Robbins of Larkspur.

The reception, at Maple Lawn, preceded a wedding trip to Carmel. The couple will make their first home in Larkspur.

Marilyn is a graduate of Redwood High School and the College of Marin. She is employed by Southern Pacific Railway Co. in San Francisco and has a brother, Leslie Sclar, in Germany. Her grandparents are Mrs. Max Taylor and Joseph Sclar, both of San Francisco.

Miss Anderson Becomes Bride Of Larry Brown

Candice Rose Andersen and Larry George Brown were married at a nuptial Mass at Mission San Rafael Arcangel on Saturday.

Candice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Herbert Andersen of Novato. She chose as her maid of honor the bridegroom's sister, Bonnie Brown.

Mark Brown served as best man for his brother, and Todd Brown, also a brother of the bridegroom, and David Williamson of Novato were ushers.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Brown of Novato.

The reception was held at Dominic's restaurant in San Rafael.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Marin's unique art and garden fair will be taking place in Ross next week, and to salute that popular and colorful event, tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine is a special issue devoted largely to features on fair activities and personalities. And to help set the stage for the fair's "In Old New Orleans" theme, members of the Ross Valley Players have donned period costumes to portray characters of that time and place for photographer Ken Molino.

Among the personalities at the fair will be a long-time favorite of KCBS radio listeners — Friendly Fred. That folksy character is no longer heard on the San Francisco radio station. But he is still very much alive, and pounding the keyboard in a manner to protect his claim to the title of "the world's worst piano player." He'll demonstrate that ability for fair-goers next week. And he is the subject of a special feature written for tomorrow's Marin Magazine by its editor, Don Keown.

JOYCE PAYNE

Virginia Rite Planned

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bruce Ryburn Payne of Alexandria, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joyce Elizabeth, to Craig Diven Johnston of San Rafael.

Joyce was graduated from Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pa., with a B.A. degree as did Craig.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Johnston Jr. of San Rafael.

The wedding is planned for Sept. 6 at the Trinity Methodist Church in Alexandria.

Richard Clark Claims Joyce Heifner Bride

Joyce Heifner and Richard Clark, both of Novato, were married at the United Methodist Church on Saturday.

Maid of honor for the bride was Bonnie Brown and bridesmaid was Debbie Thompson.

David Fields was best man and Tim Brock and Dennis Heifner, all of Novato, were ushers.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Heifner had a reception at their home in Novato following the wedding. The couple will live in Novato following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and Reno.

The bridegroom is the brother of Alan and Dennis Heifner of Novato, Larry Heifner, serving in Vietnam and Mrs. Dwight Dempsey of Quebec, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Nels H. Johnson of Orland are their grandparents.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Herman Herzog of Novato and is employed at West Novato Shell Station.

Rodriguez-Griffith Rite Held Saturday In Novato

Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato was the setting on Saturday for the wedding of Judith Ann Griffith and Robert Joseph Rodriguez.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Griffith of Novato, chose as her matron of honor her sister, Mrs. Bruce Madsen of San Francisco. Bridesmaids were Christine Brondello of San Francisco, Sandra Cardinale of Pacifica; her sister, Pamela Griffith of Novato, and Christine Russo of San Francisco.

John Rodriguez served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Paul Coccellato and brother of the bride, Robert Griffith, both of San Francisco; Richard Gradwohl of Sonoma and Anthony Russo of San Francisco.

Following a reception at the San Marin Club, the couple left on a wedding trip to Disneyland. They will reside in San Francisco.

The bride was graduated from Galileo High School in San Francisco and is employed with the Teamsters International headquarters in San Francisco.

The bride's grandmothers are Mrs. Orbie S. Griffith of San Anselmo and Mrs. James Mann of Australia, who attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rodriguez of San Francisco are the bridegroom's parents. He was graduated from Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco and is a student at Heald's College, San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Salcedo of San Francisco are his grandparents.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES B. LANDON JR.
(Russ Booth photo)

Kathleen Ann Heyman and James Byron Landon Jr. were united in marriage at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato on Sunday.

Kathleen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Heyman of Novato, was attended by her sister, Maureen Heyman as maid of honor. Cindy Curtin and Cathy Johnson, both of Novato, were bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert Landon of Lafayette, was best man, and ushers were Lt. Charles P. Mason of San Jose, James M. Zlatunich, Santa Ana and Kent Heyman of Novato, the bride's brother.

Following a reception at the Officer's Club at Hamilton Air Force Base the couple went on a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

They will reside in Chico, where the bride is employed with the recreation department and the bridegroom is employed at Disco Supermarket.

Kathleen was graduated from Novato High School and will be graduated from Chico State College next year. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott of Novato are the bride's local grandparents.

Capt. (ret.) and Mrs. James Byron Landon of Lafayette are the bridegroom's parents. He was graduated from Groveton High School and attended Butte Junior College. He served in the Marine Corps. His sister is Mrs. C. P. Mason III of San Jose.

Designs Come Alive On Woman

By MARY ELLEN MYRENE

NEW YORK (AP) — Drape them anywhere but on a woman and the fall fashion creations of Greek-born designer George Stavropoulos look more like experiments in geometry than the stuff high style is made of.

But put them on a woman and they come alive.

One of Stavropoulos's most complicated productions is the "puzzle pants," a one-piece affair that starts down the shoulder like a cape, then somehow turns into a jumpsuit with two flouncy skirts of chiffon. It looks and moves like a dream.

Mystery is the keynote of Stavropoulos's seamless coat—both for the way it makes a woman look and for the way it was made. The single round piece of black wool somehow sprouts a stand-up collar while swirling around into a diagonal row of buttons in the front.

Stavropoulos unveiled his fall designs Wednesday at the American Designer Showings. And when it wasn't dramatic, this Greek-inspired collection was at the very least alluring.

An elegant chiffon gown, a tall silhouette in white, bares one shoulder.

Proving he's willing to go mod as well as traditional, Stavropoulos completed his collection with a brushed blue wool coat and matching skirt that ended halfway up between the knee and ankle.

The young, free, bold look—by way of the 1930s—dominated the fall offerings of Gayle Kirkpatrick, who designed with the long and lean in mind.

Deep-colored satin minidresses and shirts were sprinkled throughout the collection, along with some daring dips in the neckline.

Greg Moore Of Mill Valley To Wed Kathleen Reynolds

KATHLEEN V. REYNOLDS

The engagement of Kathleen V. Reynolds to Gregory R. Moore of Mill Valley has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Margot R. Reynolds of Mill Valley.

Kathleen was graduated from Tamalpais High School and is employed by Shoreline Cleaners in Mill Valley.

Greg's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Moore of Mill Valley. A graduate of Tamalpais High School, he attends the College of Marin and is employed by Marin Auto Body in Mill Valley. He is the brother of Terry Moore of Mill Valley.

A fall wedding is planned.

Teacher's Antiwar Final Stirs Uproar

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's top education adviser today praised as "a welcome thing" the request by five Chico State College professors that a "radical" colleague resign.

The controversial colleague, Jack Zeilenga, assistant physics professor, gave his students exam problems on germ warfare and napalm.

Zeilenga, who describes his own attitude as "militant radical left," previously had been embroiled in campus political turmoil.

This spring he gave the 40 students in his basic physics course a final examination with 10 problems. Seven of them were phrased in terms of such topics as an airplane carrying napalm, botulism-bearing bombs, a train carrying nerve gas, a student being shot with buckshot and a helicopter "macing the people of Berkeley."

Zeilenga's five colleagues, representing the entire physics department, except for one professor who is abroad, told him he "failed to uphold (his) obligations to the students."

They criticized the exam and his "class discussions concerning non-physics matters."

Zeilenga, who holds tenure, has refused to say whether he will quit.

Alex C. Sherriffs, Reagan's top educational adviser, praised the professors' message and called the exam "a stinking, lousy production."

Myles Tracy, Chico State's assistant vice president for academic affairs, said that he know of no actions taken to fire Zeilenga. Physics department chairman E. C. Mallary, one of the signers of the letter, was asked if Zeilenga might be fired.

"Hevens, no, there's no basis for that," he said.

Zeilenga on May 22 was one of a group of demonstrators who lowered the American flag at the college to half-staff in memory of James Rector, the young man fatally shot by police during the People's Park disturbances at Berkeley.

Also in May, he wrote an open letter to the entire faculty of the School of Natural Sciences protesting the fact that he was not promoted to associate professor.

"Let it be unmistakenly clear that I have no intention of weakening my militant radical left stance," he said in that letter.

Asked to comment on the request for his resignation, Zeilenga said, "My colleagues don't want to stifle freedom of speech, they just want me to resign."

The letter was signed by Mallary and Fred Boos, Michael McGie, L. Edward Millet and Robert Plumb.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Senate Panel Can't Agree On State's Stand On DDT Checks

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate Agriculture Committee will meet behind closed doors next week in its continuing effort to decide how far the state should go in controlling the use of DDT in California.

The committee held a closed meeting last night but failed to agree on what action should be taken on anti-DDT legislation before it.

Chairman Fred Marler Jr., R-Redding, later told reporters the committee will approve at least one bill declaring a "strong concern" of the Legislature about the use of DDT and hard pesticides.

"We will put a bill out that is better than nothing," he said.

Sen. John Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, who said he was not invited to the meeting, is author of a bill which bans DDT starting in 1972. He had amended the measure to change the cutoff date from next January.

Marler said the committee must decide whether it wants a firm cutoff date or to "leave the cutoff open and let the director of agriculture cut it off as soon as it is practical." Marler has said he favors the latter approach.

He said the Nejedly bill might be coupled with two bills by Sen. Anthony Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, which require the reporting of pesticide sales and give the department new standards under which a harmful pesticide could be banned by administrative order.

Both the Nejedly and Beilenson bills were held for further study by the committee last week after a six-hour hearing.

BOND WORRY

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Reagan administration has a problem: It can't finish the California Water Project without selling bonds. And bonds aren't being sold in today's tight money market.

Its solution is to raise the maximum interest rate on general obligation bonds from 5 to 7 per cent. That idea was endorsed yesterday by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

It already had been by the Senate.

"I think we'll have high interst rates for an extended period into the future," warned Harold Ostergren, vice president of Dillon, Read & Co., a New York firm which acts as financial consultant for the state water project.

"It would be tremendously advantageous for the state to have as much leeway as possible on interest rates," he said.

The committee, on a voice vote, sent a bill hiking the interest ceiling to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. It also sent a proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the change to the elections and constitutional amendments committee. A third measure permitting the constitutional amendment to be placed on the 1970 primary ballot was sent to the floor.

The committee, also on a voice vote, rejected a proposal to place the constitutional amendment before voters at a special statewide election this November.

CAMPUS UNREST

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill authorizing jail sentences for campus troublemakers has passed the Assembly despite complaints by some lawmakers that it would fail to discourge militants.

On a 54-10 vote, the Assembly yesterday approved and sent to the Senate the measure by Assemblyman Frank Murphy, R-Santa Cruz, which would crack down on illegal demonstrators at the University of California, state colleges and junior colleges.

But Negro Assemblyman John Miller, D-Berkeley, said the bill "does absolutely nothing. The people who precipitate campus disturbances don't really care about what the law says."

Murphy replied the bill "does do something. It gives to the administrations the ability to act."

The bill provides jail terms for persons repeatedly convicted of using indecent language on campus, makes it a misdemeanor for a student barred from campus to return without special permission, authorizes campus administrators to ban potential troublemakers and prohibits use of loudspeaking equipment on campus without approval of the administration.

BARGAINING

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A union-sponsored bill to establish collective bargaining procedures for California farm workers is dead for the current session of the Legislature.

The Senate Agriculture Committee yesterday sent the measure by Sen. Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, to a between-sessions study.

Petris said his proposal would enable farm workers to hold an election and select an agent to bargain for them with growers.

IMMUNITY PLAN

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting the California attorney general to guarantee immunity from prosecution to persons who testify about activities of the Mafia or other underworld organizations has won approval in the state Assembly.

The measure by Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, was cleared to the Senate yesterday on a 55-5 vote of the lower house.

The bill would permit Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch's investigators to request courts to force persons with knowledge about criminal activities to testify. They would be granted immunity.

CIGARETTES

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The tobacco industry today prepared its case against a bill to ban cigarette advertising in California.

Joseph F. Mahoney, top lobbyist for the California Association of Tobacco Distributors, said yesterday he would oppose the measure when it is heard by an Assembly committee.

"We will testify very strongly against it in the Assembly," he said. "Cigarettes are a legally constituted product and I don't think legislators have a right to regulate such a product through its advertising."

The measure was assigned to the Assembly Commerce and Public Utilities Committee by Republican Speaker Robert T. Monagan of Tracy. The referral represented a setback for the author.

Chiropractor Urges Medicare Inclusion

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Gerald M. Brassard of Beaumont, Tex., newly elected president of the American Chiropractic Association, yesterday urged that chiropractic services be included in Medicare.

Speaking at the association's national convention, Brassard said, "We have facts and figures to prove that the inclusion of chiropractic in Medicare will save costs on the hospitalization benefit and will not add costs to the supplementary insurance benefits in any significant way."

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from the California and National Parent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

"Ballad of Josie" — An amusing western set in Wyoming at the time the state was a struggling territory and Doris Day struggles for woman's independence.

"Finian's Rainbow" — Musical comedy combines fantasy with satire. Sets are lovely, songs a delight and an excellent dance group.

"Gone With the Wind" — Famous film classic now transposed to super screen with stereophonic sound remains one of the landmarks in American filmmaking.

"High, Wild and Free" — Filmed in northern British Columbia. Photographer Gordon Eastman gives us a tribute of some of the last unspoiled country left in the northern hemisphere. Excellent.

"Paper Lion" — Hilarious account of a writer's adventures at the training camp of Detroit Lions football team.

"Swiss Family Robinson" — Adventure story is a delight of all ages.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Charly" — Poignant dramatization of a fictional case history of first human subject of a new type of brain surgery on a mentally retarded young man. Thought-provoking, sensitive performances from the cast.

"Guns of the Magnificent Seven" — Mexican revolutionaries fighting the tyrannical Diaz regime in 1890's. Much violence and torture shown.

"Hannibal Brooks" — A warm gently comic wartime film that affirms human values can surmount the brutalities of war. Too much violence for young children.

"Illustrated Man" — Carnival man has each of his adventures tatooed on his body. The stories are, to say the least, weird and best left to interpretation of the viewer.

"Where Eagles Dare" — Tale of rescue of American general from Nazi stronghold high atop a Bavarian mountain by a group of allied agents. Lots of exciting action, surprise twists, very suspenseful and violent.

"Winning" — Story of a race driver, his wife and stepson. Will appeal to those who enjoy car racing.

BORDERLINE
(Some say adults only)

"I Love You, Alice B. Toklas" — Establishment and the hippies are spoofed to a fare-thee-well in this lively contemporary comedy.

ADULTS ONLY

"Goodbye, Columbus" — Picture of a Jewish family is real and humorous. The warmth of the people comes through all the surface vulgarity. Explicit sex and nudity.

"Killing of Sister George" — Title taken from character which an actress portrays on TV. Film treats lesbiansim with unprescendented explicitness with lewd scenes blatantly shown.

Dance Class Set

A creative dance class for children, ages three through 12, will be held at Terra Linda High School on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon. The last day to register will be Tuesday at the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department.

International Folk Dances On Program

The Kopachka and Rikudom dance groups will perform folk dances from various countries at 2 p.m. Sunday in the amphitheater of Old Mill Park in Mill Valley.

The performance will be sponsored by the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts and the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department.

San Marin Concert

The San Marin High School Band of Novato will present a one-hour concert on Sept. 4 at the California State Fair in Sacramento. The 50-member band will join other high school bands from California who will perform at the fair, Aug. 22 through Sept. 9.

Yukiko Hirasawa and Jimmy Borges. A couple of singers who really know how to show people a good time. And both are currently appearing in our Garden Bar. Yukiko specializes in Japanese songs—from folk to folk rock. You'll find her charming. Jimmy, well Jimmy's specialty is having fun, musically. And it's contagious. Come see for yourself. Yukiko sings Sundays and Mondays from 9 'til 2; Jimmy Tuesdays through Saturdays—same hours. And when they're coffeebreaking, there's dancing and drinking to keep you awake. The dinners are good and the parking is plentiful. So plan to spend the evening when you come. (And plan to come twice. To hear both.)

Walsh Jury Fails On Manslaughter

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — A Sonoma County jury failed to return a verdict yesterday against Vera Mae Walsh, former Fairfax practical nurse, on a charge of manslaughter, but found her guilty on two counts of forgery.

After 12 hours of deliberation, the jury returned to the courtroom at 12:30 a.m. and told Superior Court Judge Joseph P. Murphy Jr. that it would be impossible to agree on a verdict. The judge accepted the jury's decision that continued deliberation would serve no purpose.

John W. Hawkes, assistant district attorney, said his office would proceed with their case against Mrs. Walsh on July 7 and ask for a new trial. Sentencing on the forgery charges is also set for July 7.

Mrs. Walsh is accused of the Jan. 5 death of her patient, Mrs. Gloria Giannis, who was found dead in Mrs. Walsh's Santa Rosa apartment on Jan. 10. Toxicology tests showed that she had died from an overdose of drugs.

In the course of the trial, Mrs. Walsh's attorney, Albert Rizzo, presented evidence that Mrs. Giannis, a former mental patient, had been despondent and may have committed suicide.

Hawkes offered witnesses who testified that Mrs. Giannis had been in a good frame of mind and psychologists who said she was not suicide-prone. Hawkes said that Mrs. Walsh must have felt some guilt concerning her patient's death or she would not have concealed the death for five days.

On the forgery charges, Mrs. Walsh was found guilty of forging Mrs. Giannis's name to two checks totaling $235 after her death.

Mrs. Walsh will be sentenced Monday in Marin Superior Court for the theft of valuables from the home of a Fairfax couple by whom she had been employed.

$3,915,000 Dixie School Budget Set

Dixie School District trustees have adopted a tentative 1969-70 budget of $3,915,000, up $330,000 from the present spending program.

Dist. Supt. Clifford W. Campbell estimated the budget would require the maximum general operating tax of $3.35 per $100 of assessed valuation voted by district residents three years ago. The total district tax rate is currently $3.69.

Dr. Campbell attributed the higher budget to a projected 153-student increase in the district this fall and a 6 per cent rise in per-pupil cost.

Trustees, who earlier this month voted a 10 per cent increase in the teachers' salary schedule, Wednesday night adopted a psychologists' pay scheduled ranging from $10,500 to $18,550 a year and a schedule for principals and the director of personnel ranging from $14,000 to $18,500. The board also awarded two-year contracts to Asst. Supt. Joseph B. Goff and Raymond Riley at $20,900 each and set Campbell's salary at $23,200.

Campbell was hired last month to replace the district's long-time superintendent, Dennie B. Willis.

In other business, the board named Walter M. Vater, 39, of Vacaville, as principal of Vallecito Junior High School, replacing Dr. Earl Thomason, who was transferred to the principalship of Bernard Hoffman School.

Vater, principal of a 1,000-student junior high school in Vacaville, was selected from among 28 applicants. He has been an elementary school principal for seven years and a junior high school principal for four years.

Vater, who will be paid $18,050 a year, will begin work in the Dixie district on Tuesday.

The Dixie School District board also:

SALARIES — Delayed action on new salaries for nonteaching personnel for further employee study.

TENURE — Granted tenure to 23 teachers who have been in the district three years.

BUS — Approved use of district school buses by the Terra Linda Recreation and Park District for recreational activities at a cost of 25 cents per mile and drivers' salaries.

LANGUAGE — Decided to increase emphasis on foreign language education in the seventh and eighth grades, while dropping the program in the sixth grade.

ORGANIZATION — Set the board's annual organizational meeting for 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Highway Official Sees Mass Transit Need

The chairman of the California Highway Commission uncharacteristically admitted yesterday that mass transit is necessary to help move the mass of people around — as he spoke at a meeting sponsored by Citizens for Freeways and Highways.

"I can't see freeways moving the people around — the mass of people that need to be moved," said Vernon J. Cristina, commenting that he hopes Bay Area Rapid Transit and other mass transit will be able to help move them.

More predictably, he did not mention how the necessary mass transit would be financed.

Mostly, however, Cristina talked about freeways and the need for more of them, and the commission's role in providing them.

He called the commission a buffer between the state Highway Division and the people; outlined the criteria used by the commission to decide where freeways should go, and emphasized commission concern for landscaping and conservation.

He said he had been challenged by conservationists and explained, that while he considered effects on ecology and esthetics, his major concern is safety.

"The most beautiful thing in the world is a human life and that's what I'm out to protect," he said.

He commented on Marin's two major state highways, calling Highway 1 "atrocious," and reporting he has "misgivings about Highway 101."

Bruce, Mitchell Feud Again, Over City 'Double Taxation'

By JOANNE GRANT

The long-simmering feud between county Administrator Alan Bruce and Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell has erupted again — this time over a report by Mitchell on "double taxation" of city dwellers.

It all began last week when Mill Valley Mayor Dean N. Meyer, strongly opposed to the policy of "double taxation" in Marin, asked Mitchell for some figures.

Mitchell complied, using figures from the 1969-70 budget, and sent a copy of his report to Bruce.

Bruce immediately wrote Meyer, claiming "serious and obvious errors" in the analysis and tentative conclusions of Mitchell's report.

Bruce warned Meyer that if he used the documents "the results could only be embarrassing to both Mr. Mitchell and yourself," and asked him to wait for a report from the City-County Services Committee.

(Meyer didn't. He used the report at the meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen Wednesday night.)

Bruce added a postscript to Mitchell in his letter to Meyer, calling his attention to the county code section "which places exclusive authority for intergovernmental relationships with the County Administrator."

Bruce continued, "On tax equity questions, you are instructed henceforth to respond only to such requests as you may receive from the City-County Services Committee through this office, and to refer requests from other sources to the committee through this office."

Mitchell replied in a memorandum to Bruce this week, maintaining his analysis "is a factual one" using the proposed budget, with minor differences to conform with the final budget.

"The use of these figures would not embarrass me in the least," Mitchell told Bruce.

He pointed out Meyer made the request as a citizen and a taxpayer of the county and "he was entitled to an answer."

Wrote Mitchell: "I do not question your authority relative to intergovernmental relationships (with the City-County Services Committee). However, I feel your position is irrelevant since I responded to an inquiry made by an individual who happens to be the mayor of Mill Valley and vitally interested in this problem, and I did not write to the City-County Services Committee," Mitchell said.

"Finally, as an elected official, I am very jealous of my perogative 'not to be muzzled' and I am certain that the entire board of supervisors respects this constitutional right," said Mitchell.

He noted in a postscript that the entire exchange had been forwarded to George Blackwell, chairman of the municipalities, districts and commissions committee of the 1969 Grand Jury as he is "very interested in this subject."

The exchange follows a May feud sparked by the auditor-controller's report of estimated county tax requirements for the 1969-70 fiscal year.

New Eagle Scout

Eagle Honor For Michael Gosliner, 15

Michael Gosliner, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goliner of 859 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo will receive his Eagle Scout award Monday at 8 p.m. at a Court of Honor at Deer Park School, Fairfax.

Gosliner has been in scouting four years and is junior assistant scoutmaster of Troop 49 in Fairfax. He will attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Farragut, Idaho in July as a patrol leader.

He will be a sophomore in the fall at Sir Francis Drake High School where he has ben active in basketball, swimming and is a member of the honor crew and the California Scholarship Federation.

New Macy's Store Due At Bon Air

A second Macy's California store will open in Marin.

In a joint statement by the San Francisco headquarters of the department store chain and the Bon Air Development Co., it has been announced that plans are being made for the construction of a full-line Macy's store of 160,000 square feet at Bon Air Shopping Center in Greenbrae. An opening date has not been established.

James M. Lundy, chairman of the board of Macy's, said there is no intention to close the present store in downtown San Rafael.

The addition of Macy's to the Bon Air complex is the key factor in a program which has been under development for more than a year to make it a regional shopping center. Besides Macy's, plans call for another major department store and approximately 45 fashion and gift stores, according to Niels Schultz Sr., head of Bon Air Development Co.

All stores in the new addition, to be constructed east of the existing Bon Air stores, will face a climate-controlled mall. They will add another 500,000 square feet of retail shopping area to the present estimated 90,000 square feet. The entire center will cover approximately 49 acres between Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Corte Madera Creek, including parking for about 3,300 automobiles.

Neal Butler, Bon Air project manager, said Macy's will occupy two stories at the east end of the new addition and the second department store will be at the west end, a short distance from Petrini's market. Smaller shops will be located between the two major stores, he said.

No commitments in writing to enter Bon Air have been received from any other stores, according to Schultz, but he said that Winmar Co., Inc., a national real estate development company has been appointed to handle the leasing program.

Wells Still Polluted At Tomales

The majority of the wells in Tomales remain contaminated with bacteria and the warning to boil water drawn from them may continue indefinitely, according to district sanitarian James Wong of the environmental health office.

Since the outbreak of hepatitis in Tomales early this month, there have been no more than the original three cases, Wong said.

However, his office has taken samples from 39 wells and found only 14 wells with water pure enough for human use, he said. All of the other wells have a bacteria count too high to be safe for human consumption, according to state standards, he said.

The contamination may come from septic tanks which are less than the required 100 feet from a well, or it may come from contaminated surface seepage, possibly caused by animals, he said.

"No one can say for sure where the contamination comes from," Wong said.

He also said that there was no direct evidence that the hepatitis cases are connected to impure water.

Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer, on June 11 advised all persons in Tomales to boil all water.

Those who want to avoid boiling water may put a chlorinator on their well, Wong said. There are now five that have chlorinators and are safe, according to Wong.

5¼%* is the highest interest on fixed rate — fixed term savings. We pay this every quarter on deposits of $1,000.00 or more. You do not have to wait six months at San Rafael Federal before receiving your quarterly interest. We really hate to mention it, but you will receive this fixed interest rate for the next five years even if interest rates should drop and the Directors think that the rate of 5¼% is too high . . . P.S. We love large accounts too.

REMEMBER . . . The effective rate is naturally much higher when you leave your interest in the account to compound as you will notice in our competitors advertising.

Farsighted Stripping Play Produces Flawless Six Spades

TAKES WITH ACE

Fishbein naturally took the first trick with dummy's ace of clubs. The average player would next lead a trump from dummy, but Fishbein saw it might be important to strip out the clubs. He therefore led dummy's low club and ruffed it in his hand.

Now Fishbein led the ace of spades, and West's club discard gave him the bad news. Declarer cashed the queen of hearts and led diamonds from the top down.

When South led the king of diamonds, East ruffed because he could not gain by discarding. But East could not return a club thanks to Fishbein's play at the second trick. East's best return was the jack of hearts to dummy's king, but this gave declarer an entry to dummy.

DISCARDS DIAMOND

Fishbein discarded a diamond on the heart return and promptly led dummy's ace of hearts. East couldn't afford to discard, since then South would get rid of the ten of diamonds and draw trumps.

When East ruffed for the second time, South overruffed and drew the last trump. This left one trump still in dummy. Fishbein could cash the queen of diamonds and ruff his last diamond in dummy, assuring the slam.

NEEDS ENTRY

If Fishbein had led a trump from dummy at the second trick East would have been able to get out safely with a club on ruffing the king of diamonds. Without an entry to dummy South would have been unable to make his slam.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ None
♥ 10 8 7 6 3
♦ J 8 7 3
♣ Q J 10 9

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four hearts.

This jump to game shows strong trump support (usually five cards), a singleton or void on the side, and not more than nine points in high cards.

Gnoss Field Runway Allotted State Funds

The crosswind runway project at Marin County Gnoss Field has been allocated $44,700 by the airport assistance revolving funds for the 1970-71 fiscal year, according to Joseph R. Crotti, California director of aeronautics.

The state board considered 55 applications for assistence, representing 88 specific projects. Approval was granted on 28 projects for 24 airports.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, June 27, the 178th day of 1969 with 187 to follow.

The moon is between the first quarter and new phase. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1787 English historian, Edward Gibbon, completed the writing of "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire."

In 1893 a major economic depression began as prices on the New York Stock Exchange collapsed.

In 1950 President Harry S. Truman ordered U.S. Naval and Air Forces to help repel the North Korean invasion of South Korea.

In 1960 more than 100 persons were killed when a typhoon struck Luzon in the Philippines.

A thought for the day: Oliver Wendell Holmes once said . . . "Knowledge and timber shouldn't be used much until they are seasoned."

Library Cards On First Visit

Library cards for Mill Valley residents will be issued whenever residents come in for books, librarian Dorothy Thomas said yesterday.

Residents do not face a Tuesday deadline, she said, although the library will start charging nonresidents then for library use.

Residents will need cards in order to check out books, but cards can be issued whenever a resident comes in, Mrs. Thomas said. There is no waiting period. Residents should bring some proof of residence in the city, she said.

APPEALING MILL VALLEY HOME MILL VALLEY

A very charming small home in an excellent location near Miller Avenue. The living room and dining room are wood paneled, all windows are shuttered. It has 2 bedrooms, 1½ baths and a separate utility room. The landscaping is beautiful with many mature trees and shrubs and a large brick patio completes the picture. $35,000. Eves. 456-3383.

BETTER THAN NEW SAN RAFAEL

Very attractive ranch style home on a level lot in a quiet street. Only 2 years old and in mint condition, this 3 bedroom, 2 bath home offers in-town convenience with a suburban atmosphere. Close to schools and shops. Sunken living room and dining ell. Oak plank floor in family room with brick fireplace. Beautifully landscaped. Dog run at side of house. $41,500. Eves. 453-9583.

Directions: Take Freeway 101 to Terra Linda turnoff, take Manuel Freitas, right on Las Gallinas, right on Skyview Terrace, left on Lucas Park Drive.

DOMINICAN HEIGHTS SAN RAFAEL

A very pleasing 4 bedroom, 2½ bath family home, only four years old, in an excellent residential area. In a beautifully landscaped setting with an abundance of flowers and large oaks, custom swimming POOL for those lazy summer days, outdoor brick barbecue. Home has a formal dining room, large family room with fireplace and is well designed for entertaining and gracious living. Three spacious decks offer a nice view over the hills to Mount Tamalpais. $62,000. Eves. 456-3383.

LOADED WITH EXTRAS SAN ANSELMO

Panoramic view of Mt. Tam and S.F. over the Ross Valley is yours from this large, attractive home, custom built to present owners' requirements. Four bedrooms + den and 4 baths. Home features air conditioning, elevator, water softener, automatic timed sprinkler for low maintenance landscaping, special shutters on all glass doors and windows. Property includes 3-room apartment downstairs. $69,500. Eves. 456-6037.

EXCLUSIVE COUNTRY CLUB AREA SAN RAFAEL

On a really lovely acre of land, tranquil and clustered with lovely specimen trees with a serene view of the hills and bay, this older 2-story residence offers peace and quiet combined with convenience to town. From the spacious living room and master bedroom you walk out to a large deck. A separate entrance hall, separate dining room, den, 3 bedrooms and 2 baths, large storage areas complete the picture. The unfinished but roughed-in basement area could be made into a family room — lots of possibilities. Excellent pool site available. Owner will carry first deed of trust at 7½% with $20,000 down. $75,000. Eves. 453-5718.

UNIQUE DESIGN MILL VALLEY

This extraordinary 2,300 sq. ft. home is supported entirely on Baxter poles — startling and spectacular. All the rooms are unusually large with beamed ceilings. It has a roomy den or family room with circular fireplace opening to one of three spacious decks. There is dining space and a breakfast area, 3 bedrooms and 3 baths, and this splendid home is not yet a year old. Woodsy atmosphere but convenient to town with easy San Francisco commute. $79,500. Eves. 435-1590.

EAGLE'S EYE VIEW NOVATO

can be yours from this superb custom built contemporary 3 bedroom, 2 bath home high above Marin Country Club. Enormous sunken living room with great stone fireplace offers a dramatic view all the way to the bay over valley and lush green golf course. Huge master bedroom has sunken tub. STATE OF CALIFORNIA NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Office of Architecture and Construction, Room 1228, 1120 N Street, Sacramento, California, until 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 8, 1969, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in Hearing Room in Basement at said address, for:

DREDGING AND BOATING FACILITIES
DEPARTMENT OF PARKS AND RECREATION
ANGEL ISLAND STATE PARK
AYALA COVE, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA (W.O. CB01 307 C)

in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, and such addenda thereto as may be issued prior to bid opening date.

The bidder's attention is directed to a provision in the Proposal by which the bidder certifies relative to obtaining sub-bidder quotations through bid depositories.

In general, this project comprises dredging of harbor areas, construction of a 20′ x 80′ steel float, steel ramp, concrete launching ramp, addition to concrete pier, and other improvements at Angel Island in San Francisco Bay.

Construction includes site clearing, removal of wood dolphins, furnishing and installing timber and concrete piling, mooring buoys and lines, untreated rock surfacing, and other work as indicated.

Bidders may see the plans and specifications at the area Builders' Exchange Offices, and the Office of Architecture and Construction, 1120 N Street, Sacramento, and 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland.

Bidders can obtain plans and specifications, Proposal forms, and Bidder's Bond form by requesting them in writing (P.O. Box 1079, Sacramento, Calif. 95805) through June 30 and thereafter at P.O. Box 1441, Sacramento, California 95807) or in person from the Office of Architecture and Construction in Sacramento.

Plans and specifications may be obtained without charge and are not to be returned.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a Proposal form furnished by the Office of Architecture and Construction, and is made in accordance with the "Instructions to Bidder". Each bidder must be licensed and also prequalified when required. The Department of General Services reserves the right to reject any or all bids and waive any irregularity in any bid received.

Bids will be entertained on a combination unit price and lump sum basis as follows:

Item 1: Furnishing 575 linear feet of timber piling.
Item 2: Driving 10 timber piles.
Item 3: Furnishing 975 linear feet of concrete piling.
Item 4: Driving 16 concrete piles.
Item 5: Furnishing all other materials and performing all other work of the project NOT included in Items 1 through 4.

The quantities set forth in the foregoing State Architect's estimate are an approximation, and are given as a basis for comparison of bids. The Office of Architecture and Construction does not, expressly or by implication, agree that the actual amount of work will correspond therewith, but reserves the right to increase or decrease the quantity as may be deemed advisable by the State Architect.

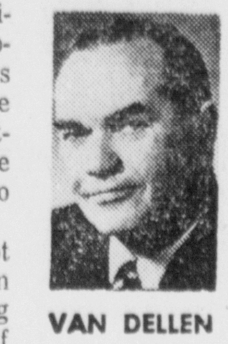
HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Make Use Of Vacation Time By Avoiding Last Minute Rush



VAN DELLEN

An ideal vacation provides a restful period away from the daily grind of business obligations and household chores. To some people, this means a weekend jaunt or two weeks at a resort whereas others prefer to tour the country. Well-spent holidays recharge the batteries. Many people, however, return home in a state of collapse and need a week to recuperate from the vacation.

Marathon-like schedules certainly do not promote relaxation and may do more harm than good. Those who insist on tooling along at breakneck speeds would get more rest if they spent two weeks on the back porch or patio. Many tourists cannot resist a "See Skunk Gulch" sign without taking the invitation literally. So what, if the 40-mile detour means driving late into the night?

ONCE THE FAMILY chooses between the seashore and the Grand Canyon, they should make a few plans. Letting things slide until the last minute creates feelings of panic. Not having the car thoroughly checked is a gilt-edged invitation to trouble. Mechanical failures not only fray the nerves and the budget, but may result in serious injuries.

Jot down items used daily. For example, if you can't see two feet ahead without glasses, bring along a spare. Include medications that are taken regularly and order refills if necessary. Comfortable walking shoes and clothing are a must. Nature's almost impressive setting is hardly enjoyable when the feet hurt.

TRAVELING with children need not be a chore if a few rules are followed. Feed the brood early and stop often to let them stretch their legs. Coloring books or games ward off boredom. Nonsticky snacks such as raisins, dried fruits or apples stem the tide of starvation. (Our leaflet on this subject offers useful suggestions along this line and may be obtained by sending stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.)

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope to the I-J.)

SPEEDY THROAT RELIEF

A reader writes: I had three attacks of rheumatic fever between the ages of 13 and 30. Is it possible this infection was active in my system during those years?

REPLY

No. Recurrences are common in rheumatic fever but each attack is preceded by a respiratory ailment of streptococcal origin. Further attacks are discouraged by avoiding strep infections or by the routine use of a sulfonamide or an antibiotic The moment a throat infection occurs it should be treated immediately.

Today's Health Hint—

The tourist should wear comfortable shoes.

PROJECT 42
RESURFACING OF EXISTING STREETS
TOWN OF ROSS, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Town of Ross, County of Marin, State of California, until 2:00 P.M. July 10, 1969 for:

The work of resurfacing existing streets, Ross, Marin County, California; consisting of site preparation, placement of asphaltic concrete overlays on existing roadway pavement and other miscellaneous work.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, P. O. Box "O", Civic Center Branch, San Rafael, California 94903.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Three Dollars ($3.00) cash or check made payable to the Town of Ross, which deposit is non-refundable.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Ross Town Engineer and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guarantees shall be in the form of a Certified or Cashier's Check or Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted, shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the Town of Ross shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Virginia Stott, Clerk of the Town of Ross, Town Hall, Ross, California.

For securing plans and specifications, please refer to paragraph 4 above.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 2:00 P.M. in the Ross Town Hall Council Chambers, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross will award the bid at 8:00 P.M. July 10, 1969, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

TIME LIMIT

The contractor shall commence work on or before the tenth (10th) day following the date of written notification of approval of the contract by the Ross Town Engineer, and shall complete all work on the project within thirty (30) calendar days counting from and including the said tenth (10th) day.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1969, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the Town of Ross (at no expense to the Town of Ross), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the Town in the prescribed form:

a) Faithful Performance Bond
b) Labor and Materials Bond

The Faithful Performance Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

The Labor and Materials Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion and transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractors shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provision of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies and raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to the Town of Ross, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs, to achieve this goal.

TOWN OF ROSS, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Town of Ross, County of Marin, State of California, until 2:00 P.M. July 10, 1969 for:

The work of improvement to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Lagunitas Road and Laurel Grove Avenue, Ross, Marin County, California; consisting of site preparation, installation of curbs and dikes, roadway base and pavement, sidewalks, traffic signal and highway lighting systems, and traffic controller equipment and other miscellaneous work. Separate bids will be taken and a separate contract drawn for furnishing traffic controller equipment.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, P. O. Box "O", Civic Center Branch, San Rafael, California 94903.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Five Dollars ($5.00) cash or check made payable to the Town of Ross, which deposit is non-refundable.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Ross Town Engineer and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guarantees shall be in the form of a Certified or Cashier's Check or Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted, shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the Town of Ross shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Virginia Stott, Clerk of the Town of Ross, Town Hall, Ross, California.

For securing plans and specifications, please refer to paragraph 4 above.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 2:00 P.M. in the Ross Town Hall Council Chambers, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the office of Philip B. Lygren, Ross Town Engineer, 27 Paul Drive, San Rafael to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross will award the bid at 8:00 P.M. July 10, 1969, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Separate bids will be taken for the general project work and furnishing of Traffic Controller Equipment.

The Town Council of the Town of Ross reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

TIME LIMIT

The contractor awarded the contract for furnishing Traffic Controller Equipment shall begin work within ten (10) calendar days following the Notice to Proceed issued by the Ross Town Engineer and shall deliver all required equipment to the site of the work within sixty (60) calendar days thereafter. The contractor awarded the contract for general project work shall begin work no sooner than thirty (30) calendar days prior to estimated delivery of Traffic Controller Equipment and shall complete all work including installation of Traffic Controller Equipment within twenty (20) calendar days following delivery of Traffic Controller Equipment.

The engineer's estimate of quantities of work is a part of the plans and specifications available at the office of the Ross Town Engineer.

LABOR

The attention of the bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications relative to labor.

In accordance with the provisions of the labor code, the Ross Town Council has determined that the general prevailing rate of wages applicable to the work to be done which shall be the minimum rates paid on the project, are as follows:

For positions not listed above, the minimum rate paid for skilled, intermediate or unskilled labor shall be not less than minimum wage per hour and shall conform to the particular craft or classification of workmen employed on the project.

The attention of bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications regarding legal relations and responsibility.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1969, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the Town of Ross (at no expense to the Town of Ross), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the Town in the prescribed form:

a) Faithful Performance Bond
b) Labor and Materials Bond

The Faithful Performance Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

The Labor and Materials Bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion and transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractors shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies and raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to the Town of Ross, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs, to achieve this goal.

Jackie's '61 Clothes Tab At $40,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy, who once ridiculed reports that she spent $30,000 a year on clothes, actually spent just over $40,000 on clothes in 1961, says her former personal secretary.

Mrs. Kennedy's passion for clothes, battles with the family budget when she was First Lady and mimicry of her mother-in-law are among the topics covered by Mary Barelli Gallagher in her book, "My Life with Jacqueline Kennedy."

"It always amazed me," Mrs. Gallagher writes in an excerpt in the current Ladies Home Journal, "that Jackie spent more in a year on family expenses than the President's salary of $100,000."

$100,000-PLUS

In 1962, she writes, Mrs. Kennedy spent $121,461.61 on family expenses and President John F. Kennedy called in a family friend and financial adviser to straighten out the family bookkeeping.

The ensuing economy move led Mrs. Kennedy, now Mrs. Aristotle Onassis, to order the White House staff to restrict guests at official functions to two cocktails apiece, Mrs. Gallagher writes.

She said further that Mrs. Kennedy decided "she wanted White House aide Kenny O'Donnell to be on his guard if anyone ever wanted to know what to give the President, to suggest that liquor was always welcome."

JACKIE DENIES

Mrs. Gallagher recalls that during the 1960 presidential campaign when a story broke "that Jackie was spending $30,000 a year for her clothes, she retorted, 'I would have to wear sable underwear to spend that much'."

The actual amount of Mrs. Kennedy's clothing expenditures for 1961 was just over $40,000, the author says.

On the subject of Mrs. Kennedy's mother-in-law, Mrs. Gallagher says that Rose Kennedy wanted her daughter-in-law to come out of her bedroom at the Palm Beach home when important guests were invited to lunch.

"I immediately went in to relay the message to Jackie, but she took it gaily. She imitated her mother-in-law's voice and manner of speech, and sing-songed, 'You might remind her we're having important guests for lunch ...' The luncheon guests arrived and departed without any sight of Jackie," Mrs. Gallagher said.

Work Is Behind Schedule On Project Bridge

Workers are behind schedule on construction of College Avenue bridge in Kentfield but expect to finish the overall Corte Madera Creek flood control project on schedule.

Jim Matheson, Elmer J. Freethy Co. superintendent, said the total job is expected to be completed by the end of November provided there are no early storms.

Workmen are behind schedule on the bridge because of the sleep-in protest and a delay in getting the right of entry for the detour onto College of Marin land.

We're ahead of schedule in pouring concrete at Corte Madera Creek, Matheson said, and just about caught up on Tamalpais Creek, following the 11-day shutdown when vandals damaged two submersible pumps. Completion date on this segment is estimated at Aug. 31, Matheson reported.

Matheson said workers poured 400 yards of cement yesterday in the Corte Madera Creek "invert" and will pour 500 yards—or 63 truck loads — next Tuesday in the project's biggest pouring job.

Two ABAG Bills Killed For Year

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Two bills to set up a San Francisco Bay Area regional government were killed yesterday by the Assembly Local Government Committee.

One bill by Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, provided that voters elect members of the regional agency's governing board.

The other measure by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, placed county and city officials on the governing board.

Knox, committee chairman, said both proposals would be the subjects of a between-sessions study.

Loots Apartment

A burglar broke into the Fred A. Rosenberg residence, 202 South Street, Apt. 4-B, on Monday and stole $3 in change and a television set, stereo player and tape deck valued at a total of $240, Sausalito police reported today.

Weed Smuggling Eyed For Transfer

The case of Kevin Wiley Good, 18, of Mill Valley, who is accused of attempting to smuggle marijuana into the Marin County Jail, yesterday was referred to the probation department for possible transferral to juvenile court.

Good is accused of possessing a marijuana cigarette and trying to bring it with him when he entered the jail June 14 to serve a weekend on a traffic offense.

Approve Budget

OAKLAND (AP) — Alameda County supervisors yesterday adopted a record $201 million budget for fiscal 1969-70 fiscal year, an increase of $18.5 million over the current year.

TELEVISION IN REVIEW

Mama Cass Special Is Smooth, Entertaining

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Mama Cass Television Program on ABC last night was a very pleasant, music-filled hour. It also seemed to be a try out for some group singers who, like Cass, were eager to go it alone.

Miss Elliot placed her plump foot on the first rung of the success ladder as a member of the popular Mamas and the Papas quartet. Among her guests on the special were Mary Travis, without the other two members of the Peter, Paul and Mary trio, and John Sebastian, who once was a part of The Lovin' Spoonful.

They were interesting in their solos, but it seemed that the former group singers—except Cass—were more comfortable and relaxed when working with other singers.

Miss Elliot has a beguiling way with a song—forthright, sweet and true. From popular standards like "Dream a Little Dream of Me," by Cass to John Sebastian's haunting compositions, the musical segments were outstanding.

The rest was a bit of a come down. Buddy Hackett's funniest moments came when he was explaining why he quit gambling at Las Vegas—"They've added something called baccarat so now you lose in French."

The two sketches aimed more for irony and pathos than comedy and just escaped being embarrassing to watch. Buddy played a hospital patient about to have eye bandages removed and learn if he would see again. A romance had developed with another patient—Cass—with a broken arm. The snapper came when Buddy left and the fracture patient picked up a blind person's white cane and was helped off.

Barbara Bain and Martin Landau played a shy, elderly man and woman hunting new mates at a computerized dating bureau. They liked each other, but the computer never matched them, so each walked out alone.

The program obviously was taped several months ago. Since then Cass has gone on a well-publicized and highly successful weight reduction regime.

To Participate

The Terra Nova Club, a volunteer clean-up group for Bay Area beaches, will work Saturday and Sunday at Ocean Beach in San Francisco. A car pool will leave at 9 a.m. both days from the College of Marin at the College Avenue parking lot, according to a group spokesman.

Leach Leads NCAA Golf Action

THE LEADER IN ACTION — Ray Leach of Novato chips on the edge of a green.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — This is the first year that freshmen have been eligible for the National Collegiate Golf Championship.

Could it be the year for a freshman to win it?

Brown-eyed Ray Leach, of Novato, who turned 19 this month and has just wound up his first year at Brigham Young University, might well be the one if any rookie does it.

The slender youngster is the leader at the halfway mark of the 72-hole NCAA Championships at Broadmoor with 18 more holes stretching ahead today and 18 tomorrow.

Leach shot a one-under-par 69 Thursday to go with his opening 74 for a 143, and a four-stroke lead over a strong field that features a large majority of older and more experienced collegiate swingers.

The field was sliced to 62 players for the two-day final charge with 157 strokes, 17 over par, the cutoff point.

Leach's father is manager of Indian Valley Golf Course at their home in Novato, and the boy has been playing since he was 9.

He conceded he was fortunate in finishing yesterday before chilly, powerful wind gusts buffeted the course for the second day, but added, "My game was generally good all the way."

"I hit 16 greens in regulation and took only 33 putts," he said. It was remarkable with the slick greens, his coach said.

Tim Miller of Ohio State, who played in the same foursome, predicted Leach is going to win this tournament. "His game is solid all the way and his putting is terrific."

But hard on the fledgling's trail are such experienced players as Nick Raasch of Penn State, Barry Wilson of Oklahoma, Bob Barbarossa of Houston and Steve Melnyk of Florida, who yesterday reached the green of the 575-yard 11th hole with two mighty blasts for a birdie 4.

Raasch, Wilson and Bob Clark of California State at Los Angeles are tied at 147 for second place.

For a study in scoring contrasts, consider Marty Huget's case. The Louisiana State player has the highest first round score—85—of any player qualifying for the finals, yet was the only other one to break par, taking 69 yesterday.

Melnyk's Florida team is driving toward its second team title with 609, nine strokes ahead of Houston, winner of 10 such championships in recent years.

Marichal, McCovey On Skipper's Side

CINCINNATI — Juan Marichal and Willie McCovey let Clyde King know they were on his side in the rhubarb with Willie Mays. McCovey made a point of sitting next to King after the near clash in the Giant dugout between the team captain and the team manager. Marichal patted King on the back in a gesture that seemed to say "I, Juan Marichal, am on your side."

Mays was a lonely looking captain after being restrained by McCovey, Larry Jansen and Gaylord Perry from an obvious effort to get at King as the second game of a three-game Astrodome series was starting. He sat by himself and none of his teammates moved next to him.

By their actions Marichal and McCovey assured King of their support in any showdown with Mays. Neither Marichal nor McCovey needed to say anything to reveal their own feelings. Their actions spoke louder than any words.

Players Tipped Off Feelings

The actions of other players later on the team bus tipped off their feelings.

Player after player patted King on the shoulder as they passed his No. 1 seat at the head of the bus.

Any rhubarb between a manager and team captain naturally creates an extremely delicate situation. It's a time of strained silence after the shouting is over. And, make no mistake about it, Mays was screaming at King and angrily waving his right index finger at the manager when Jansen, the pitching coach, and McCovey and Perry intervened.

The incident that triggered the angry confrontation between King and Mays was a matter of two days rest for Willie in Houston. Mays volunteered for a day game following a night game in Atlanta with the understanding that he might need two days rest after the Atlanta series with the Braves. That was all right with King except that King didn't believe Mays expected two days off in a row.

Here Comes The Confusion

Mays didn't play Monday night in the first game of the Astrodome series. And he didn't expect to play Tuesday night. But King put his name in the lineup.

Willie was in the clubhouse at game time and heard the lineup announced over the radio. He stormed down the runway leading from the clubhouse to the dugout. By this time King had taken the lineup to home plate and deleted Willie's name from it.

As team captain, Mays usually takes the lineup to home plate but when King couldn't find him at game time King assumed Willie felt in need of more rest.

So it was a rather confused Mays who bounded into the dugout. He heard the radio say he was in the lineup. Now, King was telling him he wasn't.

Quiet Words From McCovey

That's when the screaming started. Until McCovey intervened, Jansen and Perry was having a difficult time restraining Mays. McCovey talked quietly to him.

McCovey now has reached superstar status, along with Mays and Marichal. The 3Ms collectively receive more than $300,000 a year — Mays $125,000, Marichal $120,000 and McCovey $85,000. Mays still is the top drawing star of the Giants. But Marichal and McCovey also put more than a few customers in ball parks now. And when Mays, now 38, retires Marichal and McCovey will be the top drawing stars.

Thus, it was comforting to King to have Marichal and McCovey on his side because in any rhubarb between superstar and manager, the front office isn't as interested in equities as who attracts the customers through the turnstiles.

Fingers Does Fine As A's Fireman

OAKLAND (AP)—John "Blue Moon" Odom, 9-3, will be the starting pitcher for the Oakland Athletics against the Chicago White Sox tonight, but don't be surprised if Rollie Fingers is on the mound before the game is over.

Fingers made his sixth appearance in the last seven Oakland games when he saved a 3-2 victory for Chuck Dobson over the Kansas City Royals yesterday afternoon.

"I could pitch an inning or so tonight if they need me," the 22-year-old Fingers said.

WAS STARTER

Until this season, Fingers never had been a relief pitcher.

"But I don't mind it," he said. "I'll do anything just so I stay in the major leagues."

Bill Wynne, 2-0, will pitch for Chicago tonight.

Manager Hank Bauer of the A's figured that the bullpen would be the weak spot on the Oakland team this season after the A's lost their two top relief pitchers, Jack Aker and Diego Segui to Seattle in the expansion draft.

TWO PITCHES

Fingers was given a shot at a relief job and has been spectacular. He threw only two pitches to end yesterday's game.

With two runners on base in the ninth inning, Fingers got Pat Kelly to hit into a game-ending double-play. That gave Fingers his sixth save of the season.

Dobson was headed for the clubhouse when the game ended.

Reggie Jackson had a perfect day for the A's with two singles and his 28th homer of the season.

FEW TIMES

It was one of the few games this season in which Jackson had two singles.

"The law of averages was against me early in the year when I wasn't getting any singles," Jackson said. "I'm not a home run or nothing guy."

Jackson's homer put him 13 games ahead of Babe Ruth's pace in 1927 and eight games ahead of Roger Maris, who hit 61 homers in 1961.

Graebner, Smith Advance In Wimbledon Tournament

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Clark Graebner and Stan Smith, members of the U.S. Davis Cup team, slammed into the fourth round today in the All-England Tennis Championships.

Graebner, New York paper executive, scored a straight-set victory over Ilie Nastase of Romania 7-5, 8-6, 6-4. The six-foot-five Smith, from Los Angeles, rallied after a slow start for a 3-6, 9-7, 6-3, 6-4 triumph over Bill Bowrey, Australian Davis Cup ace.

Graebner lost his cannonball service only once against Nastase. That was in the ninth game of the third set when he relaxed after getting to a 40-0 lead.

Earlier, defending champion Rod Laver of Australia gained the round of 16 by crushing Jan Lesly of Denmark 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

He was joined by another Australian, Fred Stolle, who ousted Milan Holocek of Czechoslovakia 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Julie Heldman of New York became the first American woman to enter the round of 16 when she defeated Denise Carter of Los Altos, 6-2, 6-3.

She was joined shortly afterward by Margaret Michel of Pacific Palisades, who won over Anita Van Deventer of South Africa 6-4, 6-2.

The tournament, washed out on opening day Monday, sought to fill the 16 brackets in both men's and women's singles, bringing the event up to schedule.

In the biggest upset so far in the tourney, Bob Lutz, U.S. Davis Cupper from Los Angeles, yesterday defeated No. 4-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia, 8-6, 7-9, 6-3, 6-2.

Americans continued to move along in the women's division, as defending champion Billie Jean King of Long Beach led the advance with a 6-0, 6-4 victory over Marianne Brummer of South Africa.

Golf's Man With Mission

CLEVELAND (AP) — Orville Moody, a recent refugee from obscurity, is a man with a mission.

"I don't want to be the Open champion who never won anything else," said the ruddy-faced Old Sarge who came out of nowhere and won the national championship.

"I'd hate that. I don't mean I have to win everything, but as the National Open champion, I want to play well, there'd be satisfaction in that."

Moody, on the rebound from a bout with tonsillitis, made the observation yesterday after he had fashioned a three-under par 67 and tied red-hot Charles Coody and long shot Jerry McGee for the first-round lead in the $110,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament.

"I played better and I'm sure I putted better than I have in any other round this year," said the man who threatens to create a craze with his crosshanded putting style.

"I played it bold, but then I always do," he said. "I was putting bold, too," and he laughed.

"It's easy to do when you've got some money. When I was trying to make the cut, I was pretty much a lag putter."

Moody, a 14-year Army veteran, birdied five of the last nine holes on the par 70, 6,661-yard Aurora Country Club course and gained a share of the lead with an eight-foot putt on the 18th.

Moody, a 6-foot-2 Texan, had been in the clubhouse for hours when Moody and McGee, who had failed to qualify in the last five events, came in.

Just one stroke back at 68 was a trio of relative unknowns, George Hixson, who got into the field only because of a late withdrawal, Bob Stone, a club pro from Independence, Mo., and Cesar Sanudo.

A huge group followed at 69, including Charlie Sifford, Frank Beard, Bruce Crampton, Al Balding and Ron Cerrudo, one-time San Rafael resident.

49er Quarterback Brodie Among Favorites

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—A quartet of torrid shooting golfers from Los Angeles and John Brodie of the San Francisco 49ers were the favorites going into today's third and fourth rounds of the California Amateur Golf championships.

Before the day is through, the field of 16 survivors will be trimmed to four semifinalists.

Brodie, the favorite of the galleries, met veteran Bill Colm of Pebble Beach in this morning's third round. Yesterday the quarterback was four-over-par as he routed veteran San Francisco golfer Bob Roos, 3 and 2.

However, the top match today features Southern California champion Barry Jaeckel and attorney Dick Runkle, both of Los Angeles. Both golfers carded five birdies in winning their second round matches yesterday.

Runkle, who had only one bogey, was four-under while sidelining two-time runnerup Walt Gilliam of Burlingame, 4 and 3, while Jaeckel offset his birdie barrage with three bogies on his way to ousting two-time champ Verne Callison of Sacramento, 5 and 3.

Long Beach's John Richardson, 1962 state amateur champ, was three under regulation figures in besting Doug Behl, Fair Oaks, 5 and 4, and today met young Vic Loustalot, Sacramento, who disposed of a third former champion, 57-year-old Ernie Pieper Jr. of San Jose, 3 and 2.

Handsome Bud Bradley of Los Angeles also was four-under in winning his match against Kent Winton of Menlo Park, 5 and 4, dropping five birdies and three-putting one hole.

Today Bradley met Phil Arrino of Sacramento, a 5 and 3 victor over Bill Lytle, San Jose.

In other third round matches, medalist Ted Lyford, Redlands, met Steve Bogan of Montebello, Forrest Fezler of San Jose tangled with Ed Korylak of North Hollywood, Ray Arrino of Sacramento played Steve Stimac, Walnut Creek, and Jack Bariteau, San Jose, met Rick Ewing, Bakersfield.

DOLINSEK INKS ASTRO CONTRACT

John Dolinsek of Novato, who picked up the Most Valuable Player trophy in the 1969 NCAA College Baseball World Series, now has a professional contract in his pocket.

Dolinsek, who led Arizona State to the 1969 title in the series, has signed a pro contract in excess of $20,000 with the Houston Astros and has reported to the Astros' Class A rookie league team at Covington, Va., in the Appalachian League.

The former Novato High School standout still has a year of school left at Arizona State. He was signed by Astro scouts John Miller and Jim Bauer.

The 6-foot-2, 180-pounder was the top hitter in the series, with a .476 batting average, and he was the Sun Devils' second-best hitter on the regular season with a .346 average on 73 hits, 17 doubles and nine homers. He drove in 40 runs and scored 55 times.

Former Champ Louis Resting In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — Former boxing great Joe Louis was reported "resting comfortably" in a hospital today after he collapsed on a lower Manhattan street yesterday.

At first, it was feared that the 55-year-old Louis had suffered a heart attack, but a later report said the collapse was due to a physical breakdown.

A spokesman at Beekman-Downtown Hospital said the ex-heavyweight king was in "good" condition. He was expected to remain in the hospital for observation for a few days.

Leon Charney, an attorney, said Louis had just stepped from Charney's car when Louis complained of feeling ill and bent over. Charney drove Louis to the hospital.

Louis was in New York to promote a newly formed Joe Louis Food Franchise Corp., an interracial fast-food company.

The Brown Bomber, heavyweight champion from 1937 until 1949, won 68 fights and lost only three.

Marin 49er Booster Club Being Formed

San Francisco 49er football fans will get a chance to come out of the woodworks and become real boosters July 7 when the Marin 49er Goldrushers hold a kickoff luncheon at Dominic's Restaurant at noon in San Rafael.

The 49er Goldrushers, an official booster club for the 49ers, will have outlets in Marin County, San Francisco, Sacramento and San Jose. Once the National Football League season gets underway, there will be weekly luncheons at noon each Monday following 49er games, at home or away. They're expected to be strictly football luncheons with players and coaches making appearances for question and answer sessions.

Expected to be on hand for the Marin organizational meeting July 7 are 49er president Lou Spadia, general manager Jack White, publicist George McFadden, fullback Gary Lewis, offensive tackle Len Rohde, linebacker Matt Hazeltine, and guard Elmer Collett.

Cost for this first meeting which is open to all 49er fans, is $3. For information and reservations, write to 49er Goldrushers, P.O Bo 88; Tiburon. Reservations must be in by next Thursday.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

NEW YORK—James J. Woody, 201½, New York, outpointed Roosevelt Eddy, 236, New York, 10.

SHIZUOKA, Japan—Rockey Alarde, 150, Philippines, outpointed Benkei Fuhikura, 154, Japan, 10.

LOS ANGELES—Jimmy Robertson, 134, Harbor City, Calif., stopped Baby Casius, 135, Pasadena, Calif., 2.

PORTLAND, Maine—Sammy Goss, 127, Trenton, N.J., outpointed Beau Jaynes, 30, Lowell, Mass., 10.

Bob Bolin Shows His Muscles With Bat

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Bob Bolin figured he might as well do it all himself.

The 6-foot-4 native of Hickory Grove, S.C., cracked a two-run homer and limited the normally hard-hitting Cincinnati Reds to four singles in pitching the San Francisco Giants to a 4-2 win last night. The victory snapped a four-game losing string for the Giants and moved them to within half a game of third-place Cincinnati in the National League West.

LINZY

Bolin went 8 2-3 innings before Frank Linzy came on to retire the final batter and preserve Bob's fourth win against a like number of losses, It was Linzy's seventh save.

There could be a slightly more emphatic upheaval in the standings today when the Giants and Reds battle in a twi-night doubleheader. Juan Marichal chases his 10th victory of the season with Rich Robertson (1-1) going in the other contest. Jim Merritt (7-3) and Gerry Arrigo (0-0) will be the opposition hurlers.

Dodgers, Braves Stage Own Skit

By ASSOCOATED PRESS

With apologies to Abbott and Costello, the Los Angeles Dodgers and Atlanta Braves are staging their own little baseball skit called Who's In First.

Last night's episode, starring Bill Singer and Willie Davis, went to the Dodgers, 3-0, vaulting them back into first place in the National League West by one-half game over the Braves.

The Dodgers had held or shared second place until they caught and passed the Braves last weekend. They fell back to second Wednesday night for 24 hours, but promptly overtook the Braves again behind Singer's four-hit pitching and Davis' homer and two runs batted in.

ELSEWHERE

Elsewhere, San Francisco beat Cincinnati 4-2, the Chicago Cubs outlasted Pittsburgh 7-5, Philadelphia tripped the New York Mets 2-0 and Montreal slugged St. Louis 8-6. Houston and San Diego were not scheduled.

Singer checked the Braves on four hits until he tired with one out in the ninth in the 94-degree Alanta heat. Jim Brewer came on to nail the last two outs and preserve Singer's ninth victory.

Although the hard-throwing right-hander fanned only three, he was so in command that the Braves didn't even beef that he was throwing spitballs. Earlier this season, Atlanta skipper Luman Harris charged that Singer was using the outlawed pitch and even sent the hurler a button reading, "Bring back the spitter."

DIDN'T NEED TO

"He only throws it with runners on base—so he didn't need to against us," said Braves slugger Hank Aaron, who doubled for one of Atlanta's four hits.

The Cubs and Pirates staged a wild seven-homer slugfest at Wrigley Field—the wind was blowing out at 28 miles an hour—before Jim Hickman's two-run shot in the 10th won it and boosted Chicago's lead in the N.L. East to 6½ games over the Mets.

Billy Williams connected for the Cubs in the first to tie the score 1-1 but the Pirates went ahead in the sixth on solo homers by Willie Stargell and Manny Sanguillen. Ken Rudolph's first major league homer with a man on base tied it again in the last of the sixth.

MORE HOMERS

Roberto Clemente put the Pirates back in front 5-3 with a two-run homer in the eighth, but Ron Santo got it right back with a two-run shot of his own. It remined 5-5 until Hickman sent a capacity Ladies' Day crowd of 40,334—29,473 paid—home happy.

Grant Jackson fired a four-hitter and Larry Hisle scored both runs as the crippled Phillies knocked off the Mets. In the sixth, Hisle singled and scored on a single by Rick Joseph. In the eighth, he doubled and rode home on a double by Johnny Briggs. Jackson, a fireballing lefty, struck out 10, getting Ron Swoboda four times.

Stottlemyre Tames Tigers On Shutout

By ASSOCOATED PRESS

Mel Stottlemyre found the best way to beat the heat was to get a quick jump on it.

Stottlemyre, given a five-run working margin in the second inning, hurled a four-hetter last night as the New York Yankees tamed Detroit 6-0 in hot and humid Tiger Stadium.

The smooth right-hander's 10th triumph of the season salvaged the finale of a four-game series for the Yankees. The loss dropped the Tigers 11½ games behind Baltimore's idle American League East Division leaders going into their critical four-game weekend set with the high flying Orioles.

Elsewhere in the A.L., Seattle scored two ninth inning runs for a 3-2 nod over the Chicago White Sox; Oakland edged Kansas City 3-2; Boston nipped Cleveland 4-3 in 10 innings and Minnesota trimmed California 7-4.

CONTROL PROBLEM

Stottlemyre, who had failed to win in three previous starts while battling a typical control problem, mastered the Tigers easily after Joe Pepitone's three-run double climaxed the Yanks' second inning uprising. The New York mound ace, 10-6, scattered three singles didn't walk anybody and coasted to his 12th complete game in 19 starts—despite the 92-degree weather.

It was Stottlemyre's second shutout—both at the Tigers' expense. He fired a one-hitter against them in his only previous start at Detroit.

The Pilots fell behind 2-1 in the top of the ninth, then rallied to nip Chicago on Jerry McNertney's RBI double and pinch hitter Tommy Davis' run-scoring single—both with two out in the bottom half.

Piro Leads Team To Cage Victory

Jerry Piro, Redwood High School's all-Marin County Athletic League forward, whipped in 19 points to lead Shafer's Ice Cream to a 59-45 thumping of the Pirates in a high school division game of the Drake Summer Basketball League at Drake High School yesterday.

In other games, the Cardinals, behind Bill Glasgow's 24 points, dumped the Bulldogs, 67-49 and Pier 15 demolished the Buccaneers, 58-26.

Russ Basketballers Whip Rocket Rookies

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Russia's national basketball team, featuring its giant Olympic players, crushed the San Diego Rickets' rookies 81-75 last night at the International Sports Arena.

The Rockets, trailing 45-28 in the first half, attempted a comeback int the second half but the Soviets used a balanced attack to stay ahead of the National Basketball Association freshmen.

Rich Allen Say He Wants To Apologize For Actions

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rich Allen, the Philadelphia Phillies star first baseman suspended for missing a game, says he wants to apologize.

Allen appeared last night with disc jockey Sonny Hobson a friend, on radio station WHAT.

During the exchange, Allen said, "I'd like to make it publicly known that I'd like to apologize to my manager, my teammates and to the fans of Philadelphia. The small-minded people here who see men in the wrong will have to learn how to accept it. The real fans are the ones I'd like to apologize to."

CHAMPS GOLF ON JULY 13

Third annual Marin County Golf Tournament of Champions will be held July 13 at the Meadow club in Fairfax, it was announced yesterday by Meadow Club officials.

The 18-hole, medal play tournament will start at 9:30 a.m., with two threesomes competing. Club champs from Meadow, Marin Country Club, San Geronimo National, Peacock Gap, Indian Valley and Mill Valley will be competing.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Jim Paschal, driving a 1969 Javelin, won the 100-mile NASCAR Grand Touring car race at the Columbia Speedway.

GENERAL

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. — Charles "Bud " Wilkinson, former Oklahoma University coaching great, was named to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

TORONTO — Stafford Smythe, whose father built Maple Leaf Gardens to house the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, has been fired as Gardens president by its board of directors.

66-Year-Old Golfer Fires His First Ace

Clint Mosher of Tiburon, 66-year-old golfer who has been playing golf for 45 years, finally did it.

Mosher, using a four-iron, made a hole-in-one on the 134-yard seventh hole at Mill Valley Municipal course yesterday. In his threesome were David Ballati of Mill Valley and Mrs. Martha Goolis of Larkspur.

Belvedere Girl Wins Match

Bee Kilgore of Belvedere stayed alive in girls 14 play at the 69th annual California Junior Tennis Championships at the San Jose Swim and Racquet Club yesterday.

Bee downed Mary Jane Schovaers, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5. Two other Marin netters weren't so fortunate. Bob Knight of Tiburon lost to Jake Warde in boys 16, 6-3, 6-3, and Anne Lamott was ousted by Ann Kiyomura in girls 16, 6-3, 6-1.

Started As Yankee

CHICAGO (UPI)—Leo Durocher, identified with the National League throughout his baseball career, started his active playing days as a second baseman with the New York Yankees in 1926.

Winds Keep Anglers In; Gun Laws In Detail

With the winds blowing all week, most of the striped bass, sturgeon and salmon have been pretty safe in their native haunts. It's been almost impossible to get out, and you would be seasick if you did make it.

Two skindivers, though, were cited for taking 59 abalone at the Slide Ranch area east of Stinson Beach last Monday, and the wind was blowing at 30 m.p.h. there.

All were large legal sized abalone. Maybe this is a good area for you skin divers to try. It takes a skin diving suit, but tanks and self-contained (SCUBA) gear is illegal to use when taking abalones. The limit on abalone is five per person.

RABBIT SEASON opens July 4 and runs to Jan. 11 statewide, except for Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino and eastern Kern counties. Bag and possession limit for brush, pigmy, cottontail and varying hares is five per day in the aggregate.

There's no closed season or bag limit on jack rabbits. You need the new hunting license for 1969-70 starting July 1. Legal weapons for rabbit hunting are shotguns with a plug, falcons, muzzle-loading shotguns, bow and arrow, rifles and pistols.

Here are two laws covering loaded guns:

Section 2006 of Fish and Game Code provides: "It is unlawful to possess a loaded rifle or shotgun in any vehicle or conveyance or its attachments which is standing on or along or is being driven on or along any public highway or other way open to the public.

"A rifle or shotgun shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell in the firing chamber but not when the only cartridge or shells are in the magazine.

"The provisions of this section shall not apply to peace officers or to members of the armed forces of this state or the United States, while on duty or going to or returning from duty."

Section 12031 to the Penal Code, enacted after Section 2006, prohibits the carrying of any loaded firearms on the person or in a vehicle in "public places" and "public streets," as follows:

"Except as provided in subdivision (b) (exceptions for peace officers and certain others), every person who carries a loaded firearm on his person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or in any public place or any public street in a prohibited area of unincorporated territory is guilty of a misdeameanor. As used in this section 'prohibited area' means any place where it is unlawful to discharge a weapon.

The definition of "loaded" as is used in Penal Code Section 12031 is:

"(E) A firearm shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpected cartridge or shell, consisting of a case which holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm; except that a muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder."

Thus a rifle or shotgun, for the purpose of this section, is "loaded" when the unexpended shell or cartridge is in the magazine or clip, as well as in the chamber, as distinguished from Fish and Game Code Section 2006, which, as previously indicated, provided that a rifle or shotgun is not loaded if all the shells or cartridges are in the magazine.

Assuming, as previously mentioned, that "public street" in Penal Code Section 12031 requires public maintnance as well as the element of being open to public use, Fish and Game Code Section 2006, which is applicable to any way or road open to the public, would be applicable to some roads not within the scope of Section 12031. As to such roads, at least, the unexpended shell or cartridge would have to be in the firing chamber in order for the rifle or shotgun to be "loaded," Section 2006 being the applicable statute. On the other hand, for example, if a person carries a rifle in a vehicle on a public city street and there is an unexpended cartridge or shell in the magazine but not in the firing chamber, he will not be in violation of Section 2006, but he will be in violation of Section 12031.

Finally, if persons are hunting from a vehicle on private property which is not a public place and the vehicle is not on or along a way or road open to the public, neither Section 2006 nor Section 12031 would be applicable.

Lew Krausse Talks Of Quitting Game

OAKLAND — Dick Green, Lew Krausse's closest friend in baseball, was talking about athletes, particularly one. "We're competitive people," Greenie was saying. "If we aren't playing or aren't playing well, we feel like hell."

For most of the 1969 season, Lew Krausse has very much felt like hell. Consider these acts in his performance as a relief pitcher for the Athletics:

ON APRIL 20 in Kansas City with the A's leading, he gave up a three-run pinch homer to nondescript Hawk Taylor. The A's lost 7-5.

On May 1 in Anaheim, he hit a man with the basses loaded in the 10th inning. The A's lost 3-2.

On June 3 here against Baltimore, he came in to pitch the 11th inning and served home runs to the first (and only) two men he faced. The A's lost 3-1.

On June 21 here against Minnesota, he came on in the 10th inning and faced only five batters. The first homered; two others walked; the other two singled. The A's lost 14-4.

IN THE MIDST of this miasma of misery, Lew Lew shrieked to be traded. He felt certain he was physically and emotionally a starting pitcher — and had been most of the time since the A's signed him as a high-falutin' bonus baby when he was still 17 years old back in '61.

There were contenders who could use him, Lew Lew said. He didn't have a reliever's arm, he said. Even when he was in rotation, he started slowly, he said. So please, Krausse told anyone who would listen, trade me.

And on June 6, when the A's began a road trip in Detroit, owner Charlie Finley was prepared to do precisely that.

FINLEY TOLD Krausse that Seattle wanted him in trade for catcher Larry Haney. Here's your chance, said Finley.

"Not Seattle," said Lew. "I told Charlie that I'd been with a last place or second division club in Kansas City so long that I didn't want to go back to another one," said Lew.

"A lot of people say a lot of bad things about Charlie," said Lew Lew. "But he's got this rare quality when it comes to certain people. There's this thing he feels about some of us he signed as kids. He's concerned about us — not just if we're playing good or bad, but about how we feel, about our feelings."

SO INFIELDER John Donaldson, another Finley favorite, got the same phone call. And he went to Seattle for Haney.

Krausse said his mood changed after that. When he gave up those back-to-back homers to the Orioles, he said, he really couldn't have cared less. But after the call from Finley, Lew Lew decided that "this club is like my family. It's the only team I know. All my friends are here."

During the remainder of the post-Detroit road trip, he pitched well. Then came that big Minnesota outburst back home and immense inner-dissatisfaction for Lew.

"I WANT TO help this club. But I keep hurting 'em. And all these guys are so decent about these things. I guess because they're my friends they want me to do well."

Before Krausse came on to pitch in Minny's 11-run 10th inning on June 21 he had only two minutes warmup time. "So I get in there and throw 10 pitches and none was where I wanted it. I just wasn't ready, and that's the crummy thing about being a relief pitcher. You always, always have to be ready because you're almost always coming into a jam."

KRAUSSE RUMPLES his red hair when he talks and no longer exudes the cockiness of a one-time playboy of Missouri and the rest of the Western World.

"I can't understand how come the manager keeps using me in these tough spots. I know that Charlie has ordered his managers to play or not play certain players. But there are no orders, as far as I know, on me. "I'll tell you this, I would have given up on Bauer a long time before he's given up on me if our jobs were reversed."

WITH NO confidence in himself, Lew Lew expects everybody to think ill of him. And he can't figure a way out of the gloom.

"I've tried everything to change. I've stopped chasin' (girls like red-haired ptichers); I've knocked off drinkin'. All I think I'm going to do now is finish the year here, with my friends, and then quit. I'm 26 now, and while I'm young I want to get into something with security. I was awful lucky; I got a lot to sign and cleared maybe 85 grand. So maybe I'll go into real estate soon, maybe I'll do something like that back in Kansas City.

"IT'S JUST too much trouble moving to another club. Packing and all that just isn't worth the trouble."

But suppose Finley called and said Boston or Minny or another contender wanted a starter, wanted Krausse? Would moving be too much trouble then?

"No, I guess not," says Krausse, who is an athlete and a competitive person and only 26 years old and possessive of a starter's arm.

Stock Car Races At Fairgrounds

Stock car drivers will resume racing after a one-week break, but they'll be part of a fair this time.

MASCAR drivers get back into action Sunday at the Petaluma Fairgrounds at 7 p.m., but the racing program will be presented as part of the Sonoma-Marin Fair.

Regular racing resumes next Friday, the Fourth of July Sunday's dual program will feature both stockers and sportsmen in a full slate of races, including a 20-lap main event for sportsmen.

San Rafael Nine Vies At Albert

Jarcik Insurance baseball team will play three weekend games at Albert Field in San Rafael starting with one against Lera Electric of San Francisco tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The Jarcik team, winner of its first two games, will send Mike Terry to the mound. Doing heavy hitting in the first two games were Fred Daniele (.455), Don Mantooth (.600), Frank Dittle (.500) and Ron Gilliam (.560).

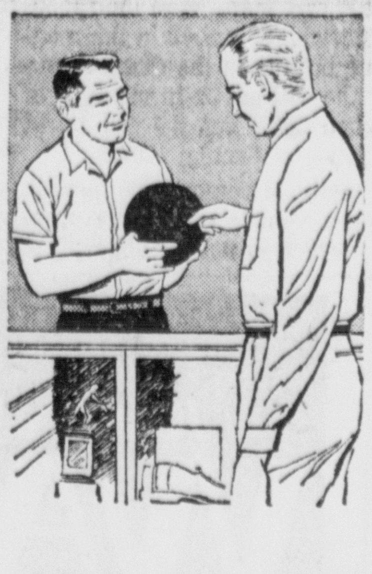
Sunday at 1 p.m. the San Rafael team will host the Burlingame Braves in a doubleheader. Dave Perlis and Mantooth are scheduled to be the starting pitchers.

Longest Night Game

NEW YORK (UPI)—The longest 0-0 night game in baseball history was finally won 1-0 by the Houston Astros over the New York Mets in the 24th inning in 1968.

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER



Ordinarily, an experienced male bowler of average size and health can use a 16-pound ball, but if a 14 or 15-pounder seems to work best for you, use it. Older bowlers should certainly consider a somewhat lighter ball instead of struggling with the same projectile they used as a 25-year-old.

It's Splash Day In Tam Pool

The Tamalpais Swim Club and the Tamalpais High School Recreation Department will co-sponsor the first Mill Valley Splash Day, a swim meet for Southern Marin children, at Tamalpais High School tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The meet will feature competition for non-AAU swim team members ages 14 and under. Four races for children age six and under will be included. Participants must be at the Tamalpais High School pool at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

... WEEK IN BUSINESS

RCA Buying Alaska Communications Net

RCA Global Communications, Inc., subsidiary of RCA Corp., will purchase the Alaska Communications System from the U.S. government for $28.4 million.

The system provides the principal commercial communications network in Alaska. It has been authorized to transmit commercial business over its lines since 1900. In 1967 Congress authorized the Department of Defense to dispose of it and RCA submitted its bid last March.

RCA expects to invest $27.6 million over the next few years in expanding facilities and improving services. A new subsidiary, RCA Alaska Communications, Inc., will be created, with headquarters in Anchorage.

SAGA ADMINISTRATIVE CORP., Menlo Park, has completed a purchase agreement for the Harding-Williams Corp. of Chicago for cash. Saga provides nationwide food service management at 265 colleges and universities. Its revenues for the year ended March 29 totaled $94 million. Harding-Williams provides food service management to business and industry and educational institutions in 162 locations nationwide.

SUMITOMO BANK OF CALIFORNIA, San Francisco directors have voted a 5-cent increase in dividends and have declared a half-yearly dividend of 60 cents, up from $1.10 for the year 1968. The new dividend will be paid to shareholders of record on Monday.

HILLTEK, INC., Palo Alto, a recently organized business development company will acquire R. A. Morgan Co., of Palo Alto which provides engineering for the optical instrument field and manufactures several proprietary products. New name will be Morgan Infotek.

STAR - LITE INDUSTRIES, Los Angeles, a diversified manufacturer of automotive soft goods and leisure time equipment, will acquire the Atlas Specialty Manufacturing Co. or Chicago. Atlas manufactures dinette chairs, bar stools, automotive carpeting and automotive soft goods. It has three factories in Chicago. Star-Lite sales for 1969 are expected to be more than double 1968 sales. The company recently acquired the Howard Zink Manufacturing Co., a subsidiary of Indian Head, Inc.

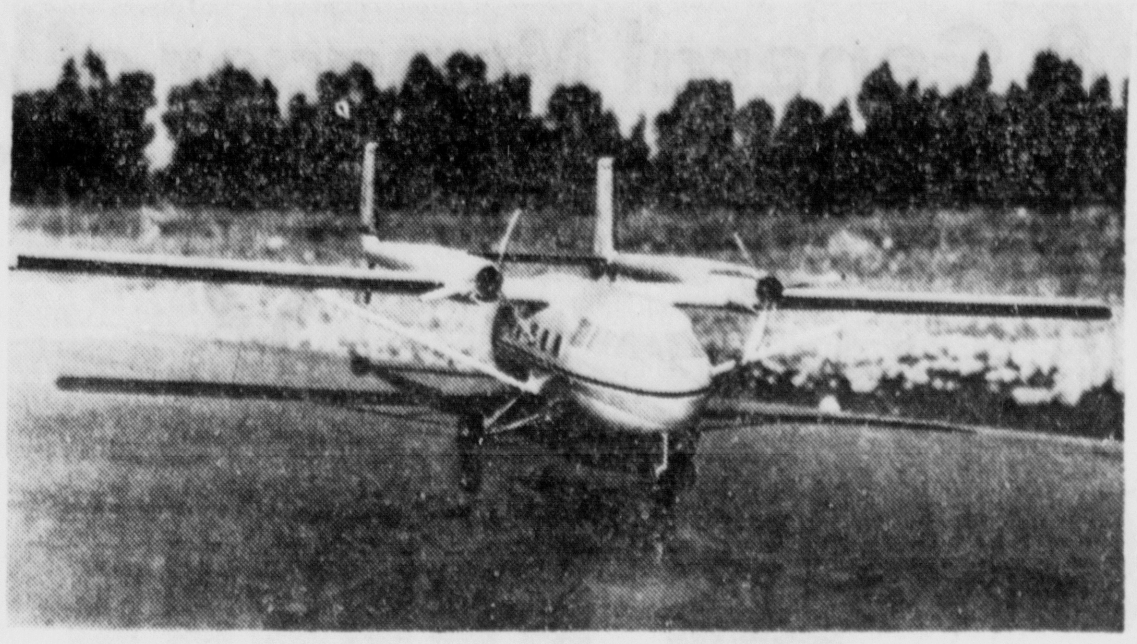
DAYTON CORP. of Minneapolis and the J. L. Hudson Co. of Detroit have become the Dayton Hudson Corp., with an exchange of 4.5 million shares of Dayton common stock for all outstanding capital stock of Hudson and its real estate subsidiary, Shopping Centers, Inc. Dayton-Hudson also owns Shreve and Co., B. Dalton Bookseller and Pickwick Shops, Inc. The new company ranks among the 15 largest nonfood retailing firms in the country.

WELLS FARGO BANK, San Francisco, has opened its first overseas commercial banking office in Luxembourg and a European representative office in London.

DOW CHEMICAL CO. plans to establish a major caustic soda terminal in Vancouver this year—its first in the northwest. The company recently announced plans to construct a chlorine production plant at Dallesport, Wash. Both chlorine and caustic soda are key industrial chemical products used by industry in the northwest.

H. J. HEINZ CO. consolidated net earnings for the fiscal year ended April 30 increased 12.4 per cent to $28.4 million from a year ago. Net earnings were equivalent to $2.28 per common share after provision for preferred dividends. This compares with $2.07 a share for the fiscal 1968 period.

LATEST ISSUE of Bank of America's publication, The Small Business Reporter, is devoted to six basic steps in starting a small business. Copies may be obtained from any Bank of America office.



ISRAEL READIES AIRLINER

Israel's Institute of Technology has designed this 22-passenger short takeoff and landing transport due to go into production next March. After domestics needs are satisfied, the short-haul plane will be offered to the world markets, at $300,000 a copy. (UPI Telephoto)

Pentagon Gives Contracts To Five Companies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense contracts awarded to five large companies included a $14.7 million Air Force contract to Lockheed Aircraft Corp. for maintenance services for TF104G aircraft.

Hazeltine Corp. received a $9.9 million Navy contract for airborne interrogator sets for the Navy and Air Force.

American Optical Co. was awarded a first increment of $495,000 to a $6.5 million Army contract covering target detecting devices for Chaparral missiles.

General Electric Co. received a $6.4 million Navy contract for data-processing systems for P3C aircraft and United Aircraft Corp. received a $5.7 million Navy contract for jet engines.

German Auto Factories Hit Busy Times

Special to the I-J

BONN — German car dealers cannot get cars from the factory as fast as they can sell them.

New car sales are climbing for the first time since the Federal Republic's 1966-67 recession, according to the Internationes Press service.

Production is expected to rise from 3,107,000 in 1968 to 3,500,000 this year of which an estimated 1,300,000 will be sold in the Federal Republic. An additional 370,000 foreign cars will also be sold on the German market.

The 40-horsepower Volkswagen "beetle" continues to be far in the lead, with an estimated production of 1,800,000 cars this year. Volkswagen's 1600 family class model also is holding its own while the new 411, now being turned out at a rate of 300 a day, has not been in heavy demand.

Another sales success is the AUDI 100 made by VW's subsidiary, Auto-Union.

NSU, also affiliated with VW, is doing well its own star attraction, the RO 80 with Wankel engine.

Opel, a subsidiary of General Motors since 1929, also reports higher output. The Rekord and the Commodore are selling well, but it is the Kadett that has really boosted sales.

Ford of Cologne has come up with a winner in the Capri family sports car.

Daimler-Benz has stepped up production of their exclusive 250 coupe to 1,000 a month.

BMW reports good sales for all their models. It offers a car of rare class in its 2800.

Porsche intends to introduce a Volkssportwagen in the autumn.

Among foreign firms, Fiat, with its 124 and 125S and Renault, relying on its R4 and R16, are confident of carving sizeable slices out of the German market.

Cottage Hospital Due Management Change

The Marin Medical Foundation will give up its operation of Cottage Convalescent Hospital in San Rafael, effective July 1.

Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., president of the foundation, said Marin Medical's lease on Cottage will expire at the end of this month and that the foundation has decided to concentrate all its efforts on its two other institutions, Northgate Convalescent Center and Villa Intermediate Care Center, San Rafael.

John K. Taylor of San Rafael, owner of Cottage, said he will continue its operation without change and act as hospital administrator, assisted by his son Henry, recently graduated from San Francisco State College.

Taylor was administrator of the original Cottage Hospital and after it was changed to San Rafael General Hospital in 1946 for 13 years. The operation of San Rafael General was taken over by a nonprofit corporation in 1958. The hospital closed in 1966 because of financial problems. Taylor remodeled it and leased it to Marin Medical Foundation the first of last year.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Digital Equipment Corp. Boasts Strong Position

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I wonder if you would comment on Digital Equipment as an aggressive commitment in the computer field.—L.M.

A. Digital Equipment's line of small sophisticated computers caters to the needs of a select market primarily in the scientific and research fields. One model, PDP-8, has achieved wide acceptance and is virtually without important competition. A growing reputation as a maker of well-designed, durable computers has resulted in a highly successful record. Nine month sales through March 29, 1969, were up 55 per cent year-to-year and reached $58.3 million. Net per share at 68 cents showed a 33 per cent gain over previous years' earnings. Full year earnings of about $1 a share are a minimum expectation. These results compared with figures only 7 years earlier, when sales were $6.5 million and earnings 11 cents a share, represent outstanding growth.

By not directly competing with the computer giants in their already established areas, DEC has been able to carve out a solid position for itself. The fact that this growth has been internally generated without resorting to debt financing is a credit to an able and aggressive management team. American Research and Development holds 51 per cent of the common shares, officers and directors 16 per cent, leaving a floating supply of about 3 million shares (adjusted for the 3-for-1 split). Shares trade at a high P/E multiple of 62x but are a long-range hold.

Q. I recently purchased some Yellowknife Bear Mines stock. Would you please comment on this stock?—R.S.

A. Recent speculation concerning Canadian Pacific's Kugaluk N-02 test well, a few miles west of Yellowknife's Kugaluk holdings, pushed YKB's shares up sharply. Company has holdings spread over several diverse exploratory areas, including two holdings in the Melville Islands and 888,000 acres in the Arctic. Negotiations for exploration of prospective uranium properties in the Wollaston Lake area of Saskatchewan near Gulf Oil's discovery are under way. A similar participation deal covering YKB's 11-million-acre spread in the Northwest Territories is understood to be in the offing. You should hold this interesting oil and uranium speculation.

Market On Plus Side At Closing

NEW YORK (UPI)—The stock market finished on the plus side today, although the blue chips acted as a drag on the list. Trading was moderate.

The firmness was a spillover from the strength which appeared late yesterday. It persisted despite the usual preweekend consolidation by traders and the lack of any news encouraging to Wall Street.

Volume was above the 8,500,000 share level.

The oils generally moved lower, led by Getty. Chemicals followed the same direction, with most losses in fractions. Du Pont closed at 130 5-8, off 1-8.

Autos generally declined except for General Motors which was firm for most of the session and closed up 3-8 at 77. Movements in the mixed steels generally were fractional, with U.S. Steel off ¼ at 41⅜.

Rails and airlines eased. In the higher aircrafts United moved in and out of the minus column.

Few gainers appeared in the electronics. National Cash Register was one of the exceptions. On the downside were Texas Instruments, Burroughs, Control Data and Litton.

The list was mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Gas Extensions

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — Pacific Gas Transmission Co. has announced plans to spend $23,500,000 for various natural gas pipeline extensions in 1970. The company also sought Federal Power Commission approval for an increase in imports of natural gas from Canada. The increase, 185 million cubic feet, would take effect Nov. 1, 1970.

ITT Stockholders Vote For Merger

DETROIT (UPI) — Stockholders of International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. (ITT) yesterday approved by an overwhelming margin a proposed merger with the Hartford Fire Insurance Co., a union the Justice Department says it will try to block.

At the 49th annual meeting of the nation's 11th largest industrial business, Harold S. Geneen, board chairman and president, said the government's proposed action would be contested as is the case in a suit brought by the government to force ITT to divest itself of Canteen Corp., one of the nation's largest food vendors.
